acquisition of NutraTek, L.L.C. Under the terms of the Agreement, 39,000,000 common shares of the Company are being issued to Company affiliates, all of whom have agreed to assign the voting rights to the said 39,000,000 shares to Johnny Sanchez. The combination of the 101,000,000 shares owned by Johnny and Virginia Sanchez and the 39,000,000 shares being voted by Johnny Sanchez will give voting rights for 140,000,000 shares to Johnny and Virginia Sanchez. 140,000,000 shares represents 53% of the outstanding shares of the Company following the Acquisition of NutraTek, L.L.C.

ITEM 2. Acquisition or Disposition of Assets

On December 4, 2003, the Company closed on an acquisition agreement whereby it acquired a 100% interest in NutraTek, L.L.C., a Utah Limited Liability Corporation in exchange for one hundred one million common shares of the Company. The terms of the acquisition are set forth in the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization attached hereto as an exhibit and by reference incorporated herein. Included in the acquisition agreement is a provision which allows the spin off and sale of the intellectual properties relating to the Company's oxygen therapy products and business to current management for assumption of the ongoing obligations of that business and shares of the newly created Advanced Oxygen Therapy, Inc.

Under the terms of the agreement, the former owner and president of NutraTek, L.L.C. became the President of the Company and was elected to the Board of Directors of the Company. Also elected to the Board at the time of the closing were Virginia Sanchez, Carmon Sanchez and Joe V. Overcash. Dan Starczewski and Dan Motsinger resigned their positions in the Company at the closing and appointment of the named new directors. See Item 1 above.

Nutratek, L.L.C. is a Utah Limited Liability Company which is engaged in the wholesale distribution of dietary supplements to healthcare professionals.
