Item 1.01. Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement

Retail Pro, Inc. (“Retail Pro” or the “Company”) has been in discussions with its secured lenders Laurus Master Fund, Ltd. (In Liquidation) (“Laurus”) and Midsummer Investment, Ltd. (“Midsummer” and, collectively with Laurus, the “Existing Lenders”) regarding the Company’s defaults under its existing loan agreements. As a result of such discussions, as of January 9, 2009, the Company and its subsidiaries Page Digital Incorporated, IP Retail Technologies International, Inc. and Sabica Ventures, Inc. (collectively, the “Sellers”) entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement with the Existing Lenders and an affiliate of Laurus, Valens Offshore SPV II, Corp. (“Valens” and, together with the Existing Lenders, the “Purchasers”) under which the Sellers have agreed, subject to the conditions set forth in such agreement, to sell all or substantially all of their assets used in connection with their business to the Purchasers (or their nominee) in a sale conducted under Bankruptcy Court supervision. As required by the Bankruptcy Code, the sale of the assets to the Purchasers will be subject to overbidding by any other prospective purchasers.

The assets to be acquired under the Asset Purchase Agreement include the Sellers’ corporate office in La Jolla, California and facilities in Folsom, California and Englewood, Colorado, and is expected to consist of leasehold improvements, tangible personal property, intangible property, leases and contracts, accounts receivable, inventory and business records. The consideration to be paid for the purchased assets, subject to certain adjustments, is expected to consist of (a) a credit bid by the Purchasers of the aggregate principal, accrued interest, and fees, costs, and other outstanding charges owed by the Company, (b) a cash amount equal to $400,000, (c) the amounts necessary to cure, up to certain limitation, pre-bankruptcy monetary defaults under certain contracts, and (d) assumption of certain liabilities. The sale of assets is subject to a number of conditions, including Bankruptcy Court approval. In addition, the Purchasers are entitled to terminate the Asset Purchase Agreement upon the occurrence of certain events or defaults by the Sellers.

Also as part of its discussions with the Purchasers, the Company, as of January 9, 2009, the Sellers entered into a debtor-in-possession financing arrangement (the “DIP Facility”) with Midsummer and Valens (collectively, the “DIP Lenders”) under which the Company may borrow up to $1,643,000 to finance operations during its Chapter 11 proceedings. Indebtedness incurred under the DIP Facility accrues interest at the fixed annual rate of 14%, matures on the earlier of (a) the closing of the sale of assets or (b) March 27, 2009, and is secured by substantially all of the assets of the Sellers and by a pledge of the capital stock of the Company’s subsidiaries. The DIP Facility is subject to a number of conditions, including Bankruptcy Court approval. In addition, the DIP Lenders are entitled to terminate the DIP Facility upon the occurrence of certain events or defaults by the Sellers.

Item 1.03. Bankruptcy or Receivership

On January 10, 2009, Retail Pro, Inc. (“Retail Pro” or the “Company”) and its wholly owned subsidiaries Page Digital Incorporated, IP Retail Technologies International, Inc. and Sabica Ventures, Inc. filed voluntary Chapter 11 bankruptcy petitions with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware in Wilmington, Delaware. The proceeding has been assigned case no. 09-10087 (PJW). The Company plans to seek joint administration of the cases.

The Company will continue its ordinary course of business operations and will operate as a debtor-in-possession within the bankruptcy proceeding. These bankruptcy filings were necessitated by the Company’s inability to secure new equity or debt financing on terms acceptable to the Company’s current secured lenders. The Company hopes to use the protections provided by the Chapter 11 process to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Asset Purchase Agreement. The Company believes that the Chapter 11 filing provides it with the best chance of preserving the value of its business assets and maximizing the return to all of the stakeholders of the Company.
