This Offer to Purchase does not constitute an offer to buy or the solicitation of an offer to sell Debentures, and offers to sell will not be accepted from Holders of the Debentures, in any jurisdiction in which such offer or solicitation is unlawful. In those jurisdictions where the securities or other laws require the Offers to be made by a licensed broker or dealer, the Offers shall be deemed to be made on behalf of the Company by the Dealer Managers or one or more registered brokers or dealers licensed under the laws of such jurisdiction. Neither the delivery of this Offer to Purchase nor any purchase of Debentures shall, under any circumstances, create any implication that there has been no change in the affairs of the Company since the date hereof, or that the information herein is correct as of any time subsequent to the date hereof.

United Kingdom

This Offer to Purchase has been issued by and is the sole responsibility of the Company and is only for circulation to Holders and other persons in the United Kingdom to whom it may lawfully be communicated in accordance with the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2001, any person satisfying this criteria being referred to as a "relevant person." (v), and 102 ff., of Legislative Decree February 24, 1998, n. 58. The Offers are not being made and will not be made, directly or indirectly, in or into, whether by mail or by any means or other instrument (including, without limitation, telephonically or electronically) or any facility of a national securities exchange publicly or privately available in the Republic of Italy. Offers to sell should not be made pursuant to the Offers by any such use, means, instrument or facility or from within the Republic of Italy. Doing so may render invalid any purported offer to sell. Accordingly, copies of this Offer to Purchase and any related documents should not be mailed or otherwise forwarded, distributed or sent in, into or from the Republic of Italy and persons receiving such documents must not forward, distribute or send them in or into or from the Republic of Italy. Therefore, Holders are hereby notified that, to the extent such Holders are Italian residents or are located in Italy, the Offer is not available to them and, as such, any acceptance instruction on whatever form received from such person shall be void. Any person who may have a legal or contractual obligation to forward this Offer to Purchase and any related offer documents in the Republic of Italy should read this Offer to Purchase before doing so. No prospectus will be lodged with, or registered by, the Commissione Nazionale per le Società e la Borsa (CONSOB) in respect of the Offers. Accordingly, neither this Offer to Purchase nor any other material relating to the Offers may be distributed or made available in the Republic of Italy.

Belgium

In Belgium, the Offers will not, directly or indirectly, be made to, or for the account of, any person other than to professional or institutional investors referred to in article 3, 2° of the Belgian royal decree of 7 July 1999 on the public character of financial operations (the "Public Decree"), each acting on their own account. This Offer to Purchase has not been and will not be submitted to nor approved by the Belgian Banking, Finance and Insurance Commission (Commission Bancaire, Financière et des Assurances/Commissie voor het Bank, Financie en assurantiwezen) and accordingly may not be used in connection with any offer in Belgium except as may otherwise be permitted by law.

France

The Offers are not being made, directly or indirectly, to the public in France and only qualified investors ("Investisseurs Qualifiés") as defined in Article L.4111-2 of the French Code Monétaire et Financier and decree no. 98-880 dated 1 October 1998 are eligible to accept the Offers.

On this date, the Company also announced that it was making an offer to purchase for cash any and all of its outstanding £225,000,000 6.500% notes due June 21, 2021. Neither of these offers for Euro and Sterling notes will be available to holders in the United States and will expire on November 18, 2004, unless extended or terminated.

THE OFFER

Purchase Price

The Purchase Price for Debentures purchased pursuant to each Offer will be calculated in accordance with standard market practice, as described in Schedule A, in a manner intended to result in a yield (the "Purchase Offer Yield") to the maturity date ("Maturity Date") specified for the Debentures on the cover page hereof equal to (i) the Reference Yield on the Reference Treasury Security as calculated by the Dealer Managers in accordance with standard market practice, based on the bid side price for the Reference Treasury Security, as displayed on the page on the Bloomberg Bondtrader series of pages (the "Bloomberg Reference Page") referenced on the cover page hereof (or, if any relevant price is not available on a timely basis or is manifestly erroneous, such recognized quotation services as the Dealer Managers may select in their sole discretion) (the "Reference Source") anticipated to be at 4:00 pm., New York City time, on Wednesday, November 10, 2004, (the "Price Determination Date"), plus (ii) the Fixed Spread. Details of the Purchase Price will be made available on the Price Determination Date through the Depository Trust Company ("DTC"), electronic media (Reuters, Bloomberg) and the Dealer Managers (at the phone numbers listed on the back page).

The Purchase Price of each Debenture purchased pursuant to the Offer will be determined by calculating, per $1,000 principal amount of each Debenture, (x) the present value of (a) the principal amount payable at the Maturity Date ($1,000) plus (b) all remaining payments of interest up to and including the Maturity Date, discounted (assuming payment on the Settlement Date) at the Purchase Offer Yield to the Maturity Date, minus (y) accrued and unpaid interest up to, but not including, the Settlement Date, in accordance with the assumptions and methodologies described in Schedule A. The Purchase Price will be rounded to the nearest cent per $1,000 principal amount for a Debenture. The Dealer Managers will calculate the Reference Yield, Purchase Price and accrued interest for each Debenture purchased pursuant to the Offer and the Dealer Managers, calculation will be conclusive and binding absent manifest error. A hypothetical calculation demonstrating the determination of the Purchase Price in the manner described above is set forth for each series of Debentures in Schedule B.

The Settlement Date will be on or about November 15, 2004 or, in the event of an extension of an Offer, such later date as is notified to Holders by the Company.

The Offers are not contingent upon any minimum principal amount of Debentures being purchased.

Purpose and Background of the Offers

The Offers are being made to decrease the Company's outstanding indebtedness and to reduce its annual interest expense. The Company will use available cash to provide the total amount of funds required to purchase the Debentures sought pursuant to the Offers, to pay all accrued and unpaid interest on the Debentures, and to pay all fees and expenses in connection therewith.

Procedures for Tendering Debentures

Holders must follow the procedures for tendering Debentures described herein. Holders should not send their Debentures to the Company or to the Dealer Managers.

Holders holding Debentures through DTC are required to submit their acceptances of each Offer through DTC's Automated Tender Offer Program ("ATOP") (each such acceptance of the Offer an "Electronic Communication"). DTC has authorized DTC participants that hold Debentures on behalf of beneficial owners of Debentures through DTC to tender those Debentures as if they were the Holders. Upon receipt of a Holder's Electronic Communication through ATOP, DTC will edit and verify the offer to sell and send an Agent's Message to the Depository Agent.

The term "Agent's Message" means a message transmitted by DTC, received by the Depository Agent and forming part of the book-entry confirmation, which states that DTC has received an express acknowledgement from the Holders accepting the Offer, which are the subject of such book-entry confirmation, that such Holder has received and agrees to be bound by the terms of this Offer and that the Company may enforce such agreement against such Holder.

An Electronic Communication may only be made by (i) a Holder which is a direct accountholder with DTC; or (ii) a direct accountholder holding Debentures on behalf of the ultimate beneficial owner of such Debentures, which direct accountholder has been instructed by or on behalf of the ultimate beneficial owner to submit an Electronic Communication on its behalf.

By sending an Electronic Communication the beneficial owner is deemed to represent that it has read this Offer and is in compliance with all applicable legal and regulatory requirements and such Electronic Communication shall state (failure to provide the information and to give the instructions set out below may render the Offer to sell void):

- (a) the aggregate nominal amount of the Debentures for which the acceptance of the Offer is being made stating the CUSIP and/or the ISIN; and
- (b) the name of the Holder and the securities account number at DTC.

Holders who hold Debentures outside DTC should make arrangements to deliver such Debentures to an account held at DTC and then follow the procedure set out above in order to participate in the Offer, and Holders may contact the Depository Agent to obtain further information regarding the procedure of delivering such Debentures to an account at DTC.

Beneficial owners of Debentures who are not direct participants in DTC must contact their broker, dealer, bank, custodian, trust company or other nominee to arrange for their direct participant in DTC through which they hold Debentures to submit a valid Electronic Communication to DTC prior to the expiration of the Offer. The beneficial owners of Debentures that are held in the name of a broker, dealer, bank, custodian, trust company or other nominee or custodian should contact such entity sufficiently in advance of the expiration of the Offer if they wish to submit an offer to sell in accordance with the normal procedures of DTC and the deadlines imposed by DTC.

No Letter of Transmittal

There is no letter of transmittal for this Offer. Holders who hold Debentures through DTC must tender Debentures through DTC's ATOP procedures.

No Guaranteed Delivery

There are no guaranteed delivery provisions provided for by the Company in conjunction with the Offers under the terms of this Offer to purchase or any other of the offer materials. Holders must tender their Debentures in accordance with the procedures set forth above.

Expiration Date; Extension; Amendment; Termination

Each Offer will expire at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on Friday, November 12, 2004, unless extended or earlier terminated by the Company in its sole discretion. The Company expressly reserves the right, in its sole discretion, at any time or from time to time, to extend either or both Offers for such period or periods as the Company may determine by making a public announcement of such extension prior to 9:00 a.m., New York City time, on the next New York Stock Exchange trading day following the previously scheduled Expiration Date.

The Company expressly reserves the right any time or from time to time, subject to applicable law, to (i) amend the terms of either Offer in any respect and (ii) terminate either Offer. Any determination by the Company concerning any of the foregoing events shall be final and binding upon all Holders.

In the event that the Company shall terminate an Offer, it shall as soon as practicable give notice thereof to DTC. In such event the Purchase Price will not be paid or become payable.

Withdrawal of Tenders

With respect to Debentures subject to the Offer to Purchase, tenders of Debentures made on or before the Expiration Date may be validly withdrawn at any time until 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Expiration Date, but not thereafter unless otherwise required by law. If, after the Expiration Date, the Company is required by law to permit withdrawal, then the previously tendered Debentures may be validly withdrawn to the extent required by law.

For a withdrawal of a tender of Debentures to be effective, the Depository Agent must receive a written or facsimile transmission withdrawal notice on or before the Expiration Date, by a properly transmitted "Request Message" through ATOP. Any such notice of withdrawal must (a) specify the name of the person who tendered the Debentures to be withdrawn, (b) contain the description of the Debentures to be withdrawn and the aggregate principal amount represented by such Debentures and (c) be otherwise in accordance with the procedures of DTC.

Debentures validly withdrawn may thereafter be retendered at any time before the applicable Expiration Date by following the procedures described under " Procedures for Tendering Debentures."

The Company will determine all questions as to the form and validity (including time of receipt) of any notice of withdrawal of a tender, in its sole discretion, which determination shall be final and binding. None of the Company, the Depository Agent, the Dealer Managers, the Information Agent or any other person will be under any duty to give notification of any defect or irregularity in any notice of withdrawal of a tender or incur any liability for failure to give any such notification.

Acknowledgement of Receipt of Instructions

The receipt of an Electronic Communication by the DTC may be acknowledged in accordance with the standard practices of the DTC. For the avoidance of doubt, such acknowledgement does not constitute a confirmation that agreement to sell Debentures pursuant to the Offer by a Holder will be accepted by the Company or the Depository Agent on behalf of the Company.

Acceptance for Payment and Payment for the Debentures

If the Offers are not terminated or extended, and Debentures are accepted in each Offer, the Company will accept Debentures for payment promptly following the Expiration Date. For purposes of the Offer, the Company will be deemed to have accepted for payment Debentures offered for sale if, as and when the Company gives written notice to the Depository Agent of its acceptance for payment of such Debentures. The tendering of Debentures by a Holder who has agreed to sell to the Company will constitute an agreement by such Holder to deliver good and marketable title to the Debentures on the appropriate Settlement Date free and clear of all liens, charges, claims, encumbrances, interests and restrictions of any kind. The Company expressly reserves the right to delay acceptance for payment of Debentures tendered under the Offers or to terminate the Offers and not accept for payment any Debentures.

Payment for any Debentures purchased pursuant to the Offers will be made, subject to the terms and conditions of the Offer, to a Holder or the Holder's designated agent in immediately available funds on the Settlement Date.

Representations, Warranties and Undertakings

By offering to sell their Debentures through the submission of an Electronic Communication in accordance with the requirements of the DTC, Holders and beneficial owners of each series of Debentures shall be deemed to represent, warrant and undertake the following on each of the Expiration Date and Settlement Date. (If the relevant Holder or beneficial owner is unable to give these representations, warranties and undertakings, such Holder (or beneficial owner via the relevant Holder) should contact the Dealer Managers.)

1. We acknowledge that we have received, reviewed and accept the terms of the Offer.
2. We acknowledge that by blocking such Debentures in DTC, we will be deemed to consent to have the relevant Clearing System provide details concerning our identity to the Depository Agent.
3. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Offer, we hereby accept the Offer in respect of the principal amount of Debentures in our account blocked in DTC. Subject to and effective upon purchase by the Company of the Debentures blocked in DTC, we hereby renounce all right, title and interest in and to all such Debentures purchased by or at the direction of the Company and hereby waive and release any rights or claims we may have against the Company with respect to any such Debentures and the Offers.
4. We acknowledge that all authority conferred or agreed to be conferred pursuant to these representations, warranties and undertakings and every obligation of the Holder offering to sell its Debentures shall be binding upon the successors, assigns, heirs, executors, trustees in bankruptcy and legal representatives of the Holder offering to sell its Debentures and shall not be affected by, and shall survive, the death or incapacity of the Holder offering to sell its Debentures.
5. We acknowledge that no information has been provided to us by the Company with regard to the tax consequences to Holders or beneficial owners of the Debentures arising from the sale of Debentures in the Offer and the receipt of the Purchase Price and Accrued Interest, if any (as defined in Schedule A) and hereby acknowledge that we are solely liable for any taxes and similar or related payments imposed on us under the laws of any applicable jurisdiction as a result of our participation in the Offers and agree that we will not and do not have any right of recourse (whether by way of reimbursement, indemnity or otherwise) against the Company, any Dealer Manager, the Depository Agent or any other person in respect of such taxes and payments.
6. If the Debentures are accepted by the Company for payment, we acknowledge that the value date for delivery and receipt will be the Settlement Date.
7. We hereby represent and warrant that we are outside the Republic of France or, if we are located in the Republic of France, we are a qualified investor or acting directly for the account of a qualified investor (as defined in article L.411-2 of the French Code monétaire et financier and Decree No. 98-888 dated 1 October 1998).
8. We hereby represent and warrant that we are not residents of or located in the Republic of Italy and that we have not distributed or forwarded the Offer or any other communications or documents to or from the Republic of Italy.
9. We hereby represent and warrant that we are outside the United Kingdom or, if we are residents of or located in the United Kingdom, we satisfy the criteria of being a "relevant person" for the purpose of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2001.

10. We hereby represent and warrant that we are outside the Kingdom of Belgium or, if we are located in the Kingdom of Belgium, we are a professional or institutional investor referred to in article 3.2 of the Public Decree (as defined on page 2), acting on behalf of our own account.
11. We hereby represent and warrant that we have full power and authority to offer to sell, assign and transfer the Debentures offered for sale hereby and that if such Debentures are accepted for payment by the Company, such Debentures will be transferred to, or to the order of, the Company with full title free from all liens, charges and encumbrances, not subject to any adverse claim and together with all rights attached thereto. We will, upon request, execute and deliver any additional documents and/or so such things deemed by the Company to be necessary or desirable to complete the transfer and cancellation of the Debentures or to evidence such power and authority.
12. We hereby represent, warrant and undertake that we hold and will hold (unless previously withdrawn on or before the Expiration Date in accordance with the procedures described in " Withdrawal of Tenders"), until the time of settlement on the Settlement Date, the Debentures blocked in DTC and that, in accordance with the requirements of DTC and by the deadline required by DTC, we have submitted, or have caused to be submitted, an Electronic Communication to DTC, as the case may be:
- (i) to authorize the blocking of the offered for sale Debentures with effect on and from the date thereof so that, at any time pending the transfer of such Debentures on the Settlement Date and the cancellation thereof, no transfers of such Debentures may be effected; and
 - (ii) to debit the Debentures blocked in DTC for purchase from the appropriate account on the Settlement Date.
13. We have observed the laws of all relevant jurisdictions, obtained all requisite governmental, exchange control or other required consents, complied with all requisite formalities and paid any issue, transfer or other taxes or requisite payments due from us in each respect in connection with any offer or acceptance, in any jurisdiction and that we have not taken or omitted to take any action in breach of the representations or which will or may result in the Company or any other person acting in breach of the legal or regulatory requirements of any such jurisdiction in connection with the Offers or offer to sell of Debentures in connection therewith.

Rejection of Offers

The Depositary Agent on behalf of the Company will reject any and all acceptances or withdrawals (subject to Rule 14e-1 under the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which requires that the Company pay the consideration offered or return the Debentures deposited by or on behalf of the Holders promptly after the termination or withdrawal of an applicable Offer) by a Holder of each Offer which the Company determines are not in proper form or for which the corresponding acceptance or withdrawal to purchase or purchase would, in the opinion of the Company, be unlawful.

THE DEBENTURES

Description of the Debentures

The Debentures are unsecured obligations of the Company ranking pari passu in right of payment of principal, premium and interest with all other existing and future unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness of the Company. As of November 2, 2004, $350,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of the 9.000% Debentures due April 15, 2012 and $300,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of the 7.500% Debentures due October 1, 2016 of each series of Debentures were outstanding.

Trading in the Debentures

To the extent that the Debentures are traded, prices of such Debentures may fluctuate greatly depending on the trading volume and the balance between buy and sell orders. In addition, quotations for securities that are not widely traded, such as the Debentures, may differ from actual trading prices and should be viewed as approximations. Holders of Debentures are urged to contact their brokers to obtain the best available information as to current market prices. To the extent that Debentures are purchased, the trading market for the Debentures may become more limited. A debt security with a smaller outstanding principal amount available for trading (a small "float") may command a lower price than would a comparable debt security with a greater float. Therefore, the market price for Debentures not purchased may be affected adversely to the extent that the principal amount of the Debentures purchased pursuant to the Offers reduces the float.

UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following discussion is a summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences to holders resulting from the sale of Debentures to the Company pursuant to the Offers. This discussion is general in nature and does not discuss all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to a particular holder in light of the holder's particular circumstances, or to certain types of holders subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax laws (such as insurance companies, tax-exempt organizations, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts, U.S. Holders (as defined below) that have a "functional currency" other than the U.S. dollar, persons holding Debentures as part of a hedging, integrated, conversion or constructive sale transaction or a straddle, financial institutions, brokers, dealers in securities or currencies, traders that elect to mark-to-market their securities and certain expatriates or former long-term residents of the United States). In addition, the discussion does not consider the effect of any alternative minimum taxes or foreign, state, local or other tax laws, or any U.S. tax considerations (e.g., estate or gift tax) other than U.S. federal income tax considerations, that may be applicable to particular holders. Further, this summary assumes that holders are beneficial owners of the Debentures and hold Debentures as "capital assets" within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

This discussion does not consider the U.S. federal income tax consequences of a sale of a Debenture held by a partnership or an entity that is treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If a partnership holds Debentures, the tax treatment of a partner will generally depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. A person or entity that is a partner of a partnership tendering Debentures is urged to consult its tax advisor.

This discussion also does not consider the U.S. federal income tax consequences of a sale of a Debenture held by a Non-U.S. Holder that is an individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of disposition. Such a Non-U.S. Holder is urged to consult his or her tax advisor.

This summary is based on the Code and applicable U.S. Treasury regulations, rulings, administrative pronouncements and judicial decisions thereunder as of the date hereof, all of which are subject to change or differing interpretations at any time with possible retroactive effect.

As used herein, a "U.S. Holder" of a Debenture means a beneficial owner of a Debenture that is for U.S. federal income tax purposes (1) an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States, (2) a corporation (or other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any political subdivision thereof, (3) an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source or (4) a trust that either (x) is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (y) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury regulations to be treated as a United States person.

As used herein, a "Non-U.S. Holder" means a beneficial owner of a Debenture that is an individual, a corporation, an estate or a trust that is not a U.S. Holder.

Each holder is urged to consult its own tax advisor to determine the federal, state, local, foreign and other tax consequences to it of the sale of Debentures to the Company pursuant to the Offers.

Tax Considerations for U.S. Holders

Sale of a Debenture

A sale of Debentures by a U.S. Holder pursuant to the Offers will be a taxable transaction to such U.S. Holder for U.S. federal income tax purposes. A U.S. Holder generally will recognize capital gain (subject to the market discount rules discussed below) or loss on the sale of a Debenture in an amount equal to the difference between (1) the amount of cash received for such Debenture (other than the portion of such cash that is properly allocable to accrued but unpaid interest), and (2) the U.S. Holder's "adjusted tax basis" for such Debenture at the time of sale. Generally, a U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis for a Debenture will be equal to the cost of the Debenture to such U.S. Holder. If applicable, a U.S. Holder's tax basis in a Debenture also will be increased by any market discount previously included in income by such U.S. Holder pursuant to an election to include market discount in gross income currently as it accrues, and reduced by any amortizable bond premium which the U.S. Holder has previously elected to deduct. Certain non-corporate U.S. Holders (including individuals) are eligible for preferential rates of U.S. federal income taxation in respect of long-term capital gains (i.e., gain on a Debenture held for more than one year). The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. Any such gain or loss generally will be U.S. source gain or loss.

An exception to the capital gain treatment described above may apply to a U.S. Holder that purchased a Debenture at a "market discount." Subject to a statutory de minimis exception, in general, market discount is the excess of the Debenture's principal amount over the U.S. Holder's tax basis in such Debenture immediately after its acquisition by such U.S. Holder. In general, unless the U.S. Holder has elected to include market discount in income currently as it accrues, any gain realized by a U.S. Holder on the sale of a Debenture having market discount in excess of a de minimis amount will be treated as ordinary income to the extent of the market discount that has accrued (on a straight line basis or, at the election of the U.S. Holder, on a constant yield basis) while such Debenture was held by the U.S. Holder.

In general, if a U.S. Holder purchased a Debenture for an amount in excess of the Debenture's principal amount plus accrued interest, such U.S. Holder will be considered to have purchased such Debenture with "amortizable bond premium" equal in amount to such excess. A U.S. Holder that elected to amortize such premium as an offset to interest income must reduce its tax basis in the Debenture by the amount of the premium used to offset interest income.

The amount of cash received in the Offers that is attributable to accrued but unpaid interest on a Debenture will be taxable as ordinary interest income to the extent not previously included in gross income by the U.S. Holder. Any such interest income generally will be foreign source income.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

In general, information reporting requirements apply to any consideration (including accrued interest) paid pursuant to the Offers to U.S. Holders other than certain exempt recipients (such as corporations). Unless such U.S. Holder has submitted an Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") Form W-9 to the clearing system or financial institution through which such U.S. Holder owns a beneficial interest in the Debentures, and such IRS Form W-9 is current as of the date of the payment of proceeds to such U.S. Holder pursuant to the Offers, such U.S. Holder may be subject to backup withholding at a rate of 28% on the gross proceeds paid to such U.S. Holder. U.S. Holders may obtain a Form W-9 by contacting the Information Agent.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. A U.S. Holder subject to the backup withholding rules will be allowed a credit equal to the amount withheld against such holder's U.S. federal income tax liability and, if withholding results in an overpayment of tax, such holder may be entitled to a refund, provided that the requisite information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Tax Considerations for Non-U.S. Holders

Subject to the discussion concerning and backup withholding below, a Non-U.S. Holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on gain on the sale of a Debenture pursuant to the Offers or on the receipt of accrued interest on a Debenture unless such Non-U.S. Holder held the Debenture in connection with a U.S. trade or business carried on by such Non-U.S. Holder.

The payment of proceeds from the sale of a Debenture pursuant to the Offers that is made within the United States or through some U.S.-related financial intermediaries may be required to be reported to the IRS. Unless such Non-U.S. Holder has submitted an IRS Form W-8BEN to the clearing system or financial institution through which such Non-U.S. Holder owns a beneficial interest in the Debentures, and such IRS Form W-8BEN is current as of the date of the payment of proceeds to such Non-U.S. Holder pursuant to the Offers, such Non-U.S. Holder may be subject to backup withholding at a rate of 28% on the gross proceeds paid to such Non-U.S. Holder. Non-U.S. Holders may obtain a Form W-8BEN by contacting the Information Agent.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be refunded or credited against the Non-U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided that the required information is timely provided to the IRS.

THE FOREGOING SUMMARY DOES NOT DISCUSS ALL ASPECTS OF U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAXATION THAT MAY BE RELEVANT TO PARTICULAR HOLDERS IN LIGHT OF THEIR PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES. HOLDERS ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR TAX ADVISORS AS TO THE PARTICULAR TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THEM OF THE SALE OF DEBENTURES TO THE COMPANY PURSUANT TO THE OFFERS INCLUDING THE EFFECT OF ANY FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL, FOREIGN AND OTHER TAX LAWS.

Any defect or irregularity must be cured within such time as the Company determines, unless waived by it. Offers to sell Notes will be deemed not to have been made until such irregularities have been cured or waived. None of the Company, the Dealer Managers or the Purchase Agent shall be under any duty to give notice to Noteholders of any defects or irregularities in any offers to sell by or on behalf of the Noteholders, nor shall any of them incur any liability for failure to give such notice.

Electronic Orders

To offer to sell Notes by Electronic Order, a Noteholder should either (i) contact Euroclear or Clearstream for participation procedures and deadlines regarding the submission of a tested telex, authenticated SWIFT message, a Euclid server or Cedcom instruction (each an "Electronic acceptance instruction") to authorize the offer to sell Notes and the blocking of the relevant accounts in Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be; or (ii) request such Noteholder's broker, dealer, bank, trust company or other nominee to effect the submission of an Electronic acceptance instruction to authorize the offer to sell Notes and the blocking of the relevant accounts in Euroclear or Clearstream for such Noteholder. Noteholders whose Notes are held on their behalf by a broker, dealer, bank, trust company or other nominee must contact such entity if they desire to offer to sell their Notes for purchase by the Company.

For the avoidance of doubt, each Noteholder submitting an Electronic Order must ensure that Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, is authorised to block the account(s) in which the Notes offered for sale are held so that no transfers may be effected in relation to such Notes at any time from and including the date on which the Noteholder submits its Electronic Order. By blocking such Notes in the relevant Clearing System, each Noteholder will be deemed to consent to have the relevant Clearing System provide details concerning such Noteholder's identity to the Purchase Agent.

The offer to sell Notes by a Noteholder will be deemed to have occurred upon receipt by the relevant Clearing System of a valid Electronic acceptance instruction in accordance with the requirements of such Clearing System. The receipt of such Electronic acceptance instruction by the relevant Clearing System will be acknowledged in accordance with the standard practices of such Clearing System and will result in the blocking Notes in the relevant Clearing System so that no transfers may be effected in relation to such Notes. Notwithstanding the Noteholder's valid offer to sell of Notes, the Company is under no obligation to accept the Notes for payment and may terminate the Offer at any time.

Beneficial owners of Notes who are not direct participants in Euroclear or Clearstream must contact their broker, dealer, bank, custodian, trust company or other nominee (a "Custodian") to arrange for their direct participant in Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, to submit instructions to such Clearing System in accordance with its requirements. The beneficial owners of Notes that are held in the name of a Custodian should contact such entity sufficiently in advance of the Expiration Time if they wish to offer to sell their Notes and be eligible to receive the Purchase Price, and ensure that the Notes in the relevant Clearing System are blocked in accordance with the requirements and deadlines of such Clearing System. Such beneficial owners should not submit such instructions to the Purchase Agent, the Clearing Systems, the Company or the Dealer Managers.

Withdrawal of Tenders

With respect to the Notes subject to the Offer, tenders of Notes made on or before the Expiration Time may be validly withdrawn at any time until the Expiration Time, but not thereafter unless otherwise required by law. If, after the Expiration Time, the Company is required by law to permit withdrawal, then the previously tendered Notes may be validly withdrawn to the extent required by law. Notes validly withdrawn may thereafter be retendered at any time before the applicable Expiration Time by following the procedures described under " Procedures for an offer to sell by a Noteholder."

Costs and Expenses; Fees

The Offers described in this Announcement are free of charges, costs and expenses for the relevant Noteholder save that any charges, costs and expenses charged by the Noteholder's depository bank and any fees or commissions charged by the Noteholder's broker, dealer, investment bank, commercial bank, private bank, depository bank, trust company or other financial institution shall be borne by the relevant Noteholder.

No Guaranteed Delivery

There are no guaranteed delivery procedures provided by the Company in connection with the Offers. Beneficial owners of Notes that are held in the name of a Custodian must contact their Custodian sufficiently in advance of the Expiration Time if they wish to offer to sell their Notes and be eligible to receive the Purchase Price.

Settlement

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of each Offer (including, if the period for which each Offer is open is extended or such Offer is amended, the terms and conditions of any such extension or amendment), the Company will purchase for the Offer Amount those Notes specified in each Acceptance of Offer to sell Notice (as defined below) on or about 24 November 2004 (the "Settlement Date") or, in the event of an extension of such Offer, such later date as is notified to Noteholders by the Company.

All sales pursuant to each Offer will settle through the normal procedures of the relevant Clearing System.

Representations, Warranties and Undertakings

By offering to sell their Notes through the submission of an Electronic acceptance instruction in accordance with the requirements of the relevant Clearing System, Noteholders and beneficial owners of the Notes shall be deemed to represent, warrant and undertake the following on each of the Expiration Time and Settlement Date. (If the relevant Noteholder or beneficial owner is unable to give these representations, warranties and undertakings, such Noteholder (or beneficial owner via the relevant Noteholder) should contact the Dealer Managers.)

Offer to Sell

For the avoidance of doubt, the submission of a valid Electronic Order in accordance with the procedures described above, resulting in the blocking of the relevant accounts in the relevant Clearing System, will be deemed to constitute, upon receipt, an offer to sell Notes by a Noteholder, and following Expiration Time and acceptance by the Company, will be irrevocable and will constitute a binding offer between such Noteholder and the Company, in accordance with the terms set forth herein.

Purchase of the Notes

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Announcement, the Company will, unless otherwise increased or cancelled by the Company prior to the Expiration Time, accept for purchase any or all Sterling Notes and up to €100,000,000 principal amount of Euro Notes. If by the Expiration Time, the Company has received offers to sell representing an aggregate principal amount of Euro Notes in excess of the aggregate principal amount of Euro Notes that the Company elects to purchase, the Company shall accept a reduced portion of such offers to sell on a pro rata basis. Any such pro rata allocation will be calculated by multiplying each Electronic Order by a factor equal to the aggregate principal amount of Euro Notes that the Company is to purchase divided by the aggregate principal amount of Notes in such series offered for sale by all Noteholders. Each offer to sell reduced in this manner will be rounded to the nearest denomination which shall be €1,000 for the Euro Notes.

The Company expressly reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to delay acceptance of the purchase for cash of Notes in order to comply with applicable laws. In all cases, the purchase for cash of Notes offered for sale pursuant to the Offers will only be made after the submission of a valid Electronic Order in accordance with the procedures described above resulting in the blocking of the relevant accounts at the relevant Clearing System.

The failure of any person to receive a copy of this Announcement or any notice issued by the Company in connection with the Offers shall not invalidate any aspect of each Offer. No acknowledgement of receipt of any Electronic Order and/or other documents will be given by the Company.

The Offer, the Announcement and all contracts resulting therefrom shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England. Submission by or on behalf of a Noteholder of an Electronic Order constitutes his or her submission, in relation to all matters arising out of or in connection with the Offer, this Announcement and all contracts resulting therefrom, to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England.

For the purposes of the Offers, the Company will be deemed to have accepted for purchase, pursuant to the terms of each Offer, the Notes validly offered for sale if, as and when the Company delivers the Acceptance of Offer to sell Notice (as defined below) with respect to such Notes.

Calculation of Purchase Price

The Company will pay for Notes sold by a Noteholder pursuant to each Offer an amount (the "Offer Amount") equal to $\{(a) \times (b)\} + (c)$ where (a) means the Purchase Price for such Notes as calculated in accordance with the formula below, (b) means the principal amount of Notes accepted for purchase from such Noteholder (rounded to the nearest €0.01) and (c) means the interest accrued under such Notes from and including the preceding interest payment date of such Notes to but excluding the Settlement Date, all in accordance with the assumptions and methodologies described in Schedule A (Sterling Notes) and Schedule B (Euro Notes). A hypothetical calculation demonstrating the determination of the Purchase Price in the manner described above is set forth in Schedule C.

Acceptance for Purchase for Cash and Payment for Notes

If the Offers are not terminated or extended, and Notes are accepted in each Offer, the Company will accept Notes for payment promptly following the Expiration Time. Acceptance of the Notes are subject to proration as discussed above. For purposes of the Offer, the Company will be deemed to have accepted for payment Notes offered for sale if, as and when the Company gives written notice to the Purchase Agent of its acceptance for payment of such Notes. Upon giving of written notice of acceptance of Notes (the "Acceptance of Offer to sell Notice"), the Company and the Purchase Agent will promptly instruct the Clearing Systems to unblock all other Notes which have been offered for sale and not accepted by the Company. The Company expressly reserves the right to delay acceptance for payment of Notes tendered under the Offers or to terminate the Offers and not accept for payment any Notes.

If the Notes offered for sale are accepted for payment by the Company, the Purchase Price and Accrued Interest for Notes purchased pursuant to each Offer will be paid on the Settlement Date in immediately available funds delivered to the Purchase Agent, who will act as agent for the Company for the purpose of receiving payments from or on behalf of the Company and transmitting such payments to the Clearing Systems. The deposit of such funds with the Purchase Agent shall discharge the obligation to pay for any Notes accepted for payment.

The Company is under no obligation to accept Notes which have been validly offered for sale in the Offers. Such offers to sell may be rejected in the sole discretion of the Company for any reason and the Company is under no obligation to the Noteholders to furnish any reason or justification for refusing to accept an offer to sell. For example, offered for sale Notes may be rejected and not accepted if the Offers are terminated, if the Offers do not comply with the requirements of a particular jurisdiction, as a result of the application of proration principles or for other reasons.

Termination, Extension and Amendment

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Offers, the Company may, subject to applicable laws, at its option, (i) terminate either Offer; (ii) extend the Offer Period with respect to either Offer, subject to any maximum period that the Offer is required to be open under any applicable law or regulation; (iii) amend either Offer in any respect (other than increasing the Tender Spreads after the Spread Fixing Date, unless Noteholders that have submitted their offer to sell on or prior to the date such increase in the relevant Tender Spread is announced by the Company are released by the Company from their obligation to sell Notes pursuant to such Offer); or (iv) delay acceptance of or, subject to applicable law, purchase of the Notes under the Offers until satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the Offers, even if such Offers have expired. The Company also reserves the right at any time to waive any or all of such conditions. The Company will ensure that Noteholders are notified of any such termination, amendment or extension as soon as is reasonably practicable thereafter.

The Company does not guarantee or ensure the liquidity or price of such outstanding Notes. The Company may acquire further Notes after the Offer Period has lapsed, whether in the market or otherwise. The Company may also redeem any outstanding Notes in accordance with their respective terms and conditions.

Neither the Company nor the Dealer Managers nor the Purchase Agent has any duty to make a market in the Notes not sold pursuant to this Announcement.

The Company will pay for the Sterling Notes being sold by a Noteholder pursuant to this Offer an amount equal to the Purchase Price (expressed as a percentage) for such Sterling Notes as calculated below, multiplied by the total nominal amount of the Sterling Notes so sold and rounded to the nearest Sterling 0.01 plus interest accrued on such Sterling Notes from and including the preceding interest payment date of such Sterling Note to but excluding the Settlement Date. Where:

- N = Summate. The term to the right of the summation symbol is separately calculated " N " times (substituting for the " i " in that term each whole number between 1 and N , inclusive) and the separate calculations are then added together.
