EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Amendment No. 2 (Amendment No. 2) amends the Annual Report on Form 10-K of Electronic Systems Technology, Inc. Subsequent to the filing of the Original Filing, the Company identified an inaccurate statement as to Section 16(A) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance . The sole purpose of this Amendment is to amend and restate Item 10 of Part III. For purposes of this Amendment, and in accordance with Rule 12b--15 under the Exchange Act, Item 10 of the Original Filing has been amended and restated in its entirety. The only changes made to the Original Filing are the following item: Part III, Item 10, e.g. Directors, Executive Officers and Corporate Governance (Revised Item).

This Amendment No. 2 consists of a cover page, this Explanatory Note, a revised Part III, Item 10, an updated Exhibit Index and new certifications pursuant to Section 302 and Section 906 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

Except as described above, this Amendment No. 2 does not amend, modify, update, or change any other information contained in the Original Filing. This Amendment No. 2 speaks as of the Original Filing Date and does not reflect events that may have occurred subsequent to the Original Filing Date.

Indemnification

The Company's By-Laws address indemnification of Directors and Officers. Washington Law provides that Washington corporations may include within their Articles of Incorporation provisions eliminating or limiting the personal liability of their directors and officers in shareholder actions brought to obtain damages for alleged breaches of fiduciary duties, as long as the alleged acts or omissions did not involve intentional misconduct, fraud, a knowing violation of law or payment of dividends in violation of the Washington statutes. Washington law also allows Washington corporations to include in their Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws provisions to the effect that expenses of officers and directors incurred in defending a civil or criminal action must be paid by the corporation as they are incurred, subject to an undertaking on behalf of the officer or director that he or she will repay such expenses if it is ultimately determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that such officer or director is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation because such officer or director did not act in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation. The Company's Articles of Incorporation provide that a director or officer is not personally liable to the Company or its shareholders for damages for any breach of fiduciary duty as a director or officer, except for liability for (i) acts or omissions which involve intentional misconduct, fraud or a knowing violation of law, or (ii) the payment of distribution in violation of Washington Business Corporation Act.
