Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

The Reporting Persons first published City of London Investment Management Company Limited's publicly-available Statement on Corporate Governance and Voting Policy for Closed-End Funds in 1999. The document is now in its Tenth Edition, having been most recently updated in March, 2016. As a result of an imbalance between the supply and demand for emerging markets closed-end funds ("CEFs") many such CEFs, including the Issuer, can trade at price levels which reflect a wide discount (more than 10%) relative to their published net asset value (NAV). City of London intends to engage in discussions and other communications with the Boards of Directors of these CEFs, including the Issuer, following the parameters and guidelines set forth in City of London's Statement on Corporate Governance and Voting Policy for Closed-End Funds, to the extent deemed necessary or appropriate if it believes it is in the best interests of all shareholders to do so. City of London also intends to vote against Directors as per the parameters and guidelines in the above-mentioned document.

RE: The Taiwan Fund, Inc.

Dear Professor Kirby

City of London Investment Management Company Limited ("City of London"), on behalf of its clients, is a long-term investor in The Taiwan Fund, Inc. ("the Fund"). We are prompted to write today by the Fund's recent announcement of the results of the Annual Stockholders Meeting.

We were pleased to see that stockholders voted against Mr. Holland who has served on the Board since 2007 and thus has reached the point where City of London's Statement on Corporate Governance and Voting Policy for Closed-End Funds provides guidance that a Director should stand down in order to provide for Board refreshment. We note that the Fund's average discount was wider than 10% over the relevant one-year measurement period which is another factor that caused us to vote against Mr. Holland.

We do not necessarily agree with the Fund's stated position that Mr. Holland should remain on the Board because of his designation as Audit Committee Financial Expert. Our view is that there may have been another Director qualified to assume that designation, and that anyway there should have been the opportunity to explain a temporary vacancy. In any event, we certainly would follow through with prior public statements and submit a proposal to terminate the Fund's investment management agreement before the November 6th deadline if Mr. Holland remains on the Board for an extended period. The practice of 'holding over' a Director who has not received the majority of votes cast by stockholders is unacceptable as it goes directly against stockholders' express wishes.

City of London will continue to monitor the Fund's investment performance, discount, fees and overall corporate governance in advance of next year's Annual Stockholders Meeting. As with all of the relevant securities where City of London has an outstanding 13D filing, potential actions include voting against incumbent Boards, or proposing termination of the investment management agreement before the November 6th deadline for submission of a stockholder proposal.

Sincerely,

Jeremy Bannister
Director, Corporate Governance
