State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Findex.com, Inc. (hereinafter the "Company") could not file the required Form 10-KSB within the prescribed period due to the fact that the Company's board of directors was without sufficient time in advance of the prescribed due date for a thorough analysis and review of the 2004 year-end financial statements following receipt thereof from its independent auditors. The Company intends to file its Form 10-KSB for the fiscal year-end 2003 no later than April 15, 2005.

PART IV - OTHER INFORMATION

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).  Yes  No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?  Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company experienced an increase in net income from approximately $1,841,000 in 2003 to approximately $2,218,000 in 2004, which increase resulted in large part from a determination by the Company's auditors that it would no longer be including in its audit report any statement calling into question the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Such determination allows the Company to take advantage of certain otherwise unrealizable tax benefits associated with existing operating loss carry-forwards. The net result is an approximate $1,751,000 income tax benefit for the year ended December 31, 2004. The Company additionally recognized an approximate $600,000 gain, net of applicable taxes, from extinguishment of debt which is classified as an extraordinary item. These items did not result from operations and have no effect on cash.
