Alec Bradley Cigar Corporation
Notes to Financial Statements (Unaudited)

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization - Alec Bradley Cigar Corporation (the "Company"), a Florida corporation, was organized in July 1996. The Company imports and distributes cigars domestically, with offices located in Plantation, Florida.

Basis of Accounting - The financial statements are prepared using the accrual basis of accounting where revenues are recognized upon shipment of merchandise to the customer and expenses are recognized in the period in which they are incurred. This basis of accounting conforms to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Earnings per Common Share - Basic and diluted earnings per common share are based on the weighted average number of shares outstanding of 4,499,777, 4,899,777 and 4,675,601 and 4,624,630 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively. There are no common stock equivalents or other dilutive items in the aforementioned periods presented.

Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Interim Financial Statements - The accompanying interim unaudited financial information has been prepared pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America have been condensed or omitted pursuant to such rules and regulations, although management believes that the disclosures are adequate to make the information presented not misleading. In the opinion of management, all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments, necessary to present fairly the financial position of the Company as of September 30, 2003, and the results of its operations and cash flows for the nine and three months ended September 30, 2003 and 2002, have been included. The results of operations of such interim period are not necessarily indicative of the results of the full year.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

General

Alec Bradley Cigar Corporation (the "Company") was organized under the laws of the State of Florida on July 15, 1996. The Company is an importer and distributor of cigars. The Company primarily sells to two types of customers:

1. Distributors, including wine and liquor wholesalers; and
2. Retailers, that include tobacco shops, convenience stores, bars, restaurants and country clubs.

Management's discussion and analysis contains various forward-looking statements. These statements consist of any statement other than a recitation of historical fact and can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "may," "expect," "anticipate," "estimate" or "continue" or use of negative or other variations or comparable terminology.

Edgar Filing: ALEC BRADLEY CIGAR CORP/FL - Form 10QSB

The Company cautions that these statements are further qualified by important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements, that these forward-looking statements are necessarily speculative, and there are certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual events or results to differ materially from those referred to in such forward-looking statements.

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with the information contained in the financial information and the notes thereto appearing elsewhere in this report.

Results of Operations

Nine months ending September 30, 2003 Compared to Nine Months ending September 30, 2002

Revenues

Revenues for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 were approximately $1,734,000, an increase of $601,100, or 53.1%, from approximately $1,132,900 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2002. This was attributable to the continuing success of cigars lines introduced during 2001 (Havana Sun Grown Cigars) and late 2000 (Occidental Cigars) and aggressive marketing by the Company during the first nine months of 2003. The Company's gross profit increased for 2003 as compared to 2002 to approximately $698,200 from approximately $451,900, an increase of $246,300, or 55%. The increase in gross profit dollars was directly attributable to the increase in sales.

Selling Expenses

Selling expenses for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2003 were approximately $263,000, an increase of $151,100, or 194.6%, from approximately $111,900 in the nine months ended September 30, 2002. Selling expenses include all compensation and related benefits for the sales personnel and advertising and promotional costs. This increase was attributable to the increase in sales commissions paid to outside salespersons and increased trade show expenses. Selling expenses represented 15.2% of revenues in the nine-month period ended September 30, 2003, compared to 9.9% in nine months ended September 30, 2002.

General and administrative expenses

General and administrative expenses for 2003 were approximately $298,400, an increase of $14,300, or 5.0%, from approximately $284,100 in 2002. General and administrative expenses primarily include salaries, supplies, and general operating expenses. The increase in general and administrative expenses is attributable to an increase in payroll (approximately $13,000). General and administrative expenses represented 17.2% of revenues in 2003, compared to 25.1% in 2002.

Three Months ending September 30, 2003 Compared to Three Months ending September 30, 2002

Revenues

Revenues for the three months ended September 30, 2003 were approximately $755,900, an increase of $196,100, or 35% from approximately $559,800 for the three months ended September 30, 2002. This was attributable to the continuing success of cigars lines introduced during 2001 (Havana Sun Grown Cigars) and late 2000 (Occidental Cigars). The Company's gross profit increased for the three months ended September 30, 2003 as compared to the three months ended September 30, 2002 from approximately $221,200 to approximately $270,800, an increase of $49,600, or 22.4%. Gross profit, as a percentage of sales were 35.8% and 39.5% respectively for the three-month periods ending September 30, 2003 and 2002. The increase in gross profit dollars was directly attributable to the increase in sales.

Selling Expenses

Selling expenses for the three months ended September 30, 2003 were approximately $116,900, an increase of $54,700, or 87.9%, from approximately $62,200 for the three months ended September 30, 2002. Selling expenses include all compensation and related benefits for the sales personnel and advertising and promotional costs. Selling expenses represented 15.5% of revenues for the three months ended September 30, 2003, as compared to 11.1% for the three months ended September 30, 2002. The increase was primarily attributable to the increase in sales commissions paid to outside salespersons and increased trade show expenses.

General and administrative expenses

General and administrative expenses for the three months ended September 30, 2003 were approximately $115,700, a decrease of $7,700, or 6.2%, from approximately $123,400 for the three months ended September 30, 2002. General and administrative expenses primarily include salaries, supplies, and general operating expenses. General and administrative expenses represented 15.3% of revenues for the three months ended September 30, 2003, compared to 22.0% for the three months ended September 30, 2002.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of September 30, 2003, the Company had an accumulated deficit of $247,296. For the nine months ended September 30, 2003, the Company provided cash from operations to increase accounts receivables and reduce accounts payable of $9,606. This was primarily funded from the income from operations, reductions in inventory plus the effect of net of non-cash items (depreciation expense). The Company's cash balance as of September 30, 2003 increased by $9,606 from $46,012 as of December 31, 2002 to $55,618.

As of September 30 2003, the Company's accounts receivable was $195,857. The Company expects sales for the remainder of the year to remain strong. As of September 30, 2003, the Company's working capital was $229,297.

The Company has negotiated with its major suppliers to obtain extended credit terms for new products being developed through these suppliers. In addition, the Company has established a line of credit with a local bank to provide for additional cash flow needs.

Management believes that the cash generated from the Company's operations and new credit terms and credit facility(s) will be adequate to support its short-term cash requirements for capital expenditures and maintenance of working capital.

ITEM 3. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

The Company has carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of its management, including its Chief Executive Officer (the "CEO") and Principal Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in

Edgar Filing: ALEC BRADLEY CIGAR CORP/FL - Form 10QSB

Rule 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Act")) as of the end of the fiscal quarter covered by this report. Based upon that evaluation, the Company's CEO and Principal Financial Officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective in providing reasonable assurance that (a) the information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports that it files or submits under the Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and forms, and (b) such information is accumulated and communicated to the Company's management, including its CEO and Principal Financial Officer, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

There has been no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting during the fiscal quarter covered by this report that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, its internal control over financial reporting.
