Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 18, 2005 Overstock.com, Inc. (the Company ) entered into a Sixth Amendment (the Amendment ) to a Credit Agreement dated February 13, 2004 with Wells Fargo Bank, National Association ( Wells Fargo ). The Amendment increases the aggregate amount available under the credit facility from $20 million to $30 million. The Amendment also eliminates the requirement that the Company maintain specified cash balances with Wells Fargo as a condition to the availability of advances under the facility, and substitutes collateral consisting of securities owned by the Company in an aggregate principal amount of $50 million to secure the Company s obligations under the facility.

In connection with the Amendment, the Company executed a Second Modification to Promissory Note (the Modification ) to modify a previously executed promissory note to the Bank so as to evidence the maximum principal amount available under the credit facility described above as $30.0 million, and to increase the interest rate on fixed rate advances under the credit facility to 1.35% above LIBOR on the first day of each fixed rate term under the credit facility. Borrowings under the credit facility are collateralized by certain securities owned by the Company as described above.

The Amendment permits the Company to continue to procure letters of credit from time to time under the facility. The aggregate amount of all outstanding letters of credit shall not exceed $15.0 million.

Certain of our officers and directors have banking relationships with Wells Fargo Bank.

The Amendment and Modification are filed as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2 respectively, to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
