ITEM 1.01

Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On April 3, 2006, Affiliated Managers Group, Inc. (the Company) closed its previously announced institutional private placement of $291 million of convertible trust preferred securities (the Trust Preferred Securities) and repurchase of approximately 1 million shares of its common stock. Each Trust Preferred Security is convertible at any time into shares of the Company's common stock, initially at a rate of 0.3333 shares per Trust Preferred Security, which is equivalent to a conversion price of $150.00 per share. Upon conversion of Trust Preferred Securities, holders will receive cash or shares of the Company's common stock or any combination thereof as elected by the Company.

The Trust Preferred Securities were issued by the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary, AMG Capital Trust I (the Trust), to Bank of America Securities LLC, Goldman, Sachs & Co., and Merrill, Lynch, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, as the initial purchasers. The Trust used the proceeds from the sale of the Trust Preferred Securities to purchase $291 million of junior subordinated convertible debentures due April 15, 2036 issued by the Company (the Junior Subordinated Debentures). The Company received approximately $282 million in net proceeds, after the payment of fees and expenses, from the sale of the Junior Subordinated Debentures to the Trust. The Company used a portion of the proceeds from the issuance of the Junior Subordinated Debentures to repurchase shares of its common stock, and expects to use the remainder for general corporate purposes, including possible additional share repurchases.

The Trust Preferred Securities mature on April 15, 2036, and require quarterly distributions of interest by the Trust to the holders of the Trust Preferred Securities. Distributions will be payable quarterly at a fixed interest rate equal to 5.10% per annum. After April 16, 2011, the Trust will also pay contingent distributions to holders of the Trust Preferred Securities during any quarterly period from January 16 to April 15, April 16 to July 15, July 16 to October 15 or October 16 to January 15, if the average market price of a Trust Preferred Security for the ten trading days ending on the third trading day immediately preceding the first day of the relevant quarterly period equals 130% or more of the liquidation amount of $50.00 per Trust Preferred Security. The contingent distribution payable per Trust Preferred Security in respect of any quarterly period in which contingent distributions are payable will equal an annual rate of 0.25% of the average market price of a Trust Preferred Security for the ten trading day measurement period.

The Trust Preferred Securities may not be redeemed prior to April 15, 2011 except upon the occurrence of certain special events. On or after April 15, 2011, the Trust Preferred Securities may be redeemed in whole or in part from time to time if the closing price of the Company's common stock for 20 trading days in a period of 30 consecutive trading days exceeds 130% of the then prevailing conversion price of the Trust Preferred Securities.

The Trust Preferred Securities are irrevocably and unconditionally guaranteed on a subordinated basis by the Company with respect to distributions and amounts payable upon liquidation, redemption or repayment pursuant to a Guarantee Agreement, dated April 3, 2006 (the Guarantee), between the Company and LaSalle Bank National Association, as guarantee trustee. The Company's guarantee is unsecured and ranks subordinate and junior in right of payment to all present and future senior indebtedness of the Company.

The terms of the Trust Preferred Securities are governed by the Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust, dated April 3, 2006 (the Declaration of Trust), among the Company, LaSalle Bank National Association, as property trustee, Christiana Bank & Trust Company, as Delaware trustee, the Administrative Trustee named therein and the holders from time to time of the undivided beneficial interests in the assets of the Trust. Under the terms of the Trust Preferred Securities, an event of default generally occurs upon:

non-payment of interest on the Junior Subordinated Debentures when it becomes due and payable, and continuance of the default for a period of 30 days;

non-payment of the principal of the Junior Subordinated Debentures at their maturity;

failure by the Company to satisfy its conversion obligations upon exercise of a holder's conversion right;

default in the performance, or breach, of any covenant of the Company in the Indenture, which failure continues for a period of 90 days after the Company receives notice of such failure;

bankruptcy or liquidation of the Company; or the voluntary or involuntary dissolution, winding-up or termination of the Trust.

The Junior Subordinated Debentures were issued pursuant to an Indenture, dated April 3, 2006 (the "Indenture"), among the Company and LaSalle Bank National Association, as debenture trustee. The terms of the Junior Subordinated Debentures are substantially the same as the terms of the Trust Preferred Securities. The interest payments on the Junior Subordinated Debentures will be used by the Trust to pay the quarterly distributions to the holders of the Trust Preferred Securities. The Indenture permits the Company to redeem the Junior Subordinated Debentures on or after April 15, 2011; provided, however, that the Junior Subordinated Debentures may be called at an earlier date upon the occurrence of investment company or tax events.

The preceding discussion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms of the Trust Preferred Securities, the Guarantee, the Declaration of Trust, the Junior Subordinated Debentures and the Indenture. Copies of the Guarantee, the Declaration of Trust and the Indenture are attached hereto as Exhibits 4.1, 4.2, and 4.3 respectively, and incorporated herein by reference.
