PRESS RELEASE

MTS ANNOUNCES THE APPOINTMENT OF A NEW CHIEF MARKETING OFFICER

MOSCOW, RUSSIAN FEDERATION - JANUARY 17, 2007 - MOBILE TELESYSTEMS OJSC (MTS - NYSE: MBT), THE LARGEST MOBILE PHONE OPERATOR IN RUSSIA AND THE CIS, ANNOUNCES THAT IT HAS APPOINTED A NEW CHIEF MARKETING OFFICER (CMO), MRS. CYNTHIA GORDON.

Mrs. Gordon has 15 years of experience in key marketing positions in the largest telecommunications companies. Prior to joining MTS, she held the position of Vice-President in business marketing at Orange for three years and served on business boards of Orange and its mother company France Telecom. From 2001-2003, Mrs. Gordon worked as the marketing director of Orange in the United Kingdom. She also has experience of working at fixed-line (British Telecom) and broadband Internet companies (Demon/Scottish Telecom).

Mr. Grzegorz Esz, the Company's CMO since October 2005, is leaving MTS due to family reasons that require him to return to his native Poland. He will continue to work with the Company as an advisor to the President of MTS on a range of matters.

Mr. Leonid Melamed, President and CEO of MTS, noted: Grzegorz headed MTS marketing at a very important period of time for the Company - the introduction of a new brand and of a new marketing strategy in light of a maturing home market. The fact that MTS was able to supersede the expectations of our subscribers and shareholders in 2006 is largely attributable to the marketing department, and we are indebted to Grzegorz for his contribution to MTS success. Cynthia possesses unique for Russia experience in marketing in so far as the understanding of the correlation between national and global aspects of the telecommunications market, as well as implementing the most effective methods to achieve synergy of different types of telecommunications. This experience will be of great use for the Company in the coming years.
