Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement

On October 11, 2007, NYT Real Estate Company LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of The New York Times Company (the Company), The New York Times Building LLC, a limited liability company in which the Company holds a 58% interest, FC Eighth Ave., LLC, an affiliate of the Forest City Ratner Companies that holds the remaining 42% interest in The New York Times Building LLC, and Capmark Finance Inc. (Capmark) (formerly GMAC Commercial Mortgage Corporation) terminated two construction loan agreements, the Building Loan Agreement, as amended, and the Project Loan Agreement, as amended (together, the Loan Agreements). These financing arrangements related to the development and construction of a condominium office building (the Building) in New York City by the Company and an affiliate of the Forest City Ratner Companies. The Building serves as the Company's new headquarters.

In January 2007, as a result of amendments to the Loan Agreements, NYT Real Estate Company LLC was released as a borrower. However, Capmark remained obligated to continue to fund to The New York Times Building LLC the balance of the construction loan required to complete construction of the Building.

On October 11, 2007, the construction loan was repaid in full from the proceeds of a refinancing by FC Eighth Ave., LLC of its condominium units in the Building. In connection with this repayment, (i) all of the agreements entered into in connection with the construction loan between The New York Times Building LLC and Capmark have been terminated, including the Loan Agreements, (ii) FC Eighth Ave., LLC repaid to NYT Real Estate Company LLC equity contributions in the amount of $21,191,707, and (iii) certain guarantees and other security previously held by the Company and NYT Real Estate Company LLC to secure various obligations of FC Eighth Ave., LLC in connection with the construction of the Building were released.
