Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 30, 2008, we and Daiichi Sankyo Company, Ltd. (Sankyo) entered into an agreement (the Termination Agreement) to terminate the Amended and Restated Collaborative Research and Development and License Agreement, dated June 30, 1999, between Sankyo Co., Ltd. (which was merged with Sankyo as of April 1, 2007) and us (the License Agreement). The material terms of the License Agreement are described in our Form S-1 originally filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 3, 2004 and are incorporated herein by reference. As reported previously, after Sankyo was granted exclusive worldwide development and commercial rights to CS-917 pursuant to the License Agreement, results from a three-month Phase 2b clinical trial of CS-917 in patients with type 2 diabetes failed to achieve the trial s primary endpoint. As a result of these findings, Sankyo previously informed us of its intent to terminate the License Agreement. The Termination Agreement, among other things, terminates the License Agreement effective as of January 30, 2008 and clarifies certain of the parties post-termination rights and obligations.
