In a separate press release dated May 27, 2009, the Company announced the results of its Annual Meeting of Stockholders, which was held on May 20, 2009.

Stockholders voted to reelect independent directors Alexander L. Cappello and Jerome I. Kransdorf to the Company's Board of Directors. In addition, stockholders elected David B. Pittaway, also an independent director, to fill the vacancy resulting from the retirement of Wayne H. White. In addition to serving on the Board of Directors, Mr. Pittaway will serve on the Audit Committee. Each of the directors elected will serve a term that expires at the Company's 2011 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and until respective successors shall be elected and qualified. In 2011, all directors will stand for election to one-year terms as a result of the elimination of the Company's classified board structure, which stockholders approved last year.

Stockholders also ratified the selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to serve as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal 2009, which ends on December 29, 2009. Proposals to amend the Company's Certificate of Incorporation to remove certain supermajority voting provisions and to permit stockholder action by written consent in certain circumstances did not receive the requisite number of votes and were therefore not approved by stockholders.
