WATSON WYATT WORLDWIDE FINISHES FISCAL 2009

WITH REVENUES OF $1.68 BILLION AND EPS OF $3.42

ARLINGTON, VA, August 13, 2009 Watson Wyatt Worldwide, Inc. (NYSE, NASDAQ: WW), a leading international human capital and financial management consulting firm, today announced financial results for the fourth quarter and full year of fiscal year 2009, which ended June 30, 2009.

Revenues were $396.5 million for the quarter, a decrease of 13% (decrease of 4% constant currency) from the fourth quarter of fiscal 2008 revenues of $453.8 million. Net income for the fourth quarter of fiscal 2009 was $31.2 million, or $0.73 per diluted share, a decrease from $41.7 million, or $0.95 per diluted share, in the prior-year fourth quarter. When compared to prior-year fourth quarter, exchange rates had a negative impact of $0.10 on diluted earnings per share. Additionally, severance expense had a negative impact of $0.07 on diluted earnings per share in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2009.

For the fiscal year, revenues were $1.68 billion, a decrease of 5% (increase of 3% constant currency) from $1.76 billion in fiscal 2008. Net income for the year was $146.5 million, or $3.42 per diluted share, a decrease from prior-year net income of $155.4 million, or $3.50 per diluted share. When compared to prior-year, exchange rates had a negative impact of $0.35 on diluted earnings per share. Additionally, severance expense had a negative impact of $0.12 on diluted earnings per share in fiscal 2009.

We are focused on sound business fundamentals and disciplined cost control, said John Haley, president and chief executive officer. Our expanding margins demonstrate our solid execution in these uncertain economic times.

We are also looking forward with great excitement to our pending merger with Towers Perrin. The financial and people management landscape is changing dramatically. The Towers Watson combination will help our clients address these emerging challenges with world-class risk, investment and human capital expertise.

Operating Highlights

- Benefits Group revenues (representing 59% of fourth-quarter revenues) were $234 million for the fourth quarter of fiscal 2009, a decrease of 8% (flat on a constant currency basis) from $255 million in the prior-year fourth quarter. On a constant currency basis, the modest growth in retirement services in the U.S. and the U.K. was offset by modest declines in other regions and in health care consulting. For the year, Benefits revenues were $960 million, a decrease of 3% (increase of 4% constant currency) from fiscal 2008.
- Technology and Administration Solutions Group revenues (representing 11% of fourth-quarter revenues) were $45 million for the fourth quarter of fiscal 2009, a decrease of 7% (increase of 2% constant currency) from $48 million in the prior-year fourth quarter. Constant currency growth was due primarily to new clients in the U.K. For the year, Technology and Administration Solutions Group revenues were $188 million, an increase of 3% (increase of 11% constant currency) from fiscal 2008.
- Human Capital Group revenues (representing 9% of fourth-quarter revenues) were $35 million for the fourth quarter of fiscal 2009, a decrease of 31% (decrease of 27% constant currency) from $51 million in the prior-year fourth quarter. There was less demand for our services in all geographic regions. For the year, Human Capital Group revenues were $173 million, a decrease of 12% (decrease of 8% constant currency) from fiscal 2008.
- Insurance & Financial Services Group revenues (representing 6% of fourth-quarter revenues) were $23 million for the fourth quarter of fiscal 2009, a decrease of 21% (decrease of 6% constant currency) from $29 million in the prior-year fourth quarter. The revenue decrease was due to less project work in Europe. For the year, Insurance & Financial Services Group revenues were $117 million, a decrease of 1% (increase of 13% constant currency) from fiscal 2008.
- Investment Consulting Group revenues (representing 11% of fourth-quarter revenues) were $42 million for the fourth quarter of fiscal 2009, a decrease of 3% (increase of 14% constant currency) from $43 million in the prior-year fourth quarter. The constant currency revenue increase was due to increases in implemented consulting activities and strategy projects. For the year, Investment Consulting Group revenues were $161 million, a decrease of 5% (increase of 10% constant currency) from fiscal 2008.

Outlook for Fiscal Year 2010

For fiscal year 2010, the company expects revenues to be in the range of $1.63 billion to $1.70 billion and adjusted diluted earnings per share for the year are expected to be in the range of $3.50 to $3.60. Adjusted diluted earnings per share exclude severance and merger costs. This guidance assumes an average exchange rate of 1.65 U.S. dollars to the British pound for fiscal year 2010 and an average rate of 1.40 U.S. dollars to the Euro for fiscal year 2010. This guidance does not include the impact of the pending merger with Towers Perrin which is expected to close during fiscal year 2010.

For the first quarter of fiscal 2010, the company expects revenues to be in the range of $385 million to $400 million and adjusted diluted earnings per share for the quarter are expected to be in the range of $0.68 to $0.73. Adjusted diluted earnings per share exclude severance and merger costs. This guidance assumes an average exchange rate of 1.65 U.S. dollars to the British pound for the first quarter of fiscal 2010 and an average rate of 1.40 U.S. dollars to the Euro for the first quarter of fiscal 2010. This guidance does not include the impact of the pending merger with Towers Perrin which is expected to close during fiscal year 2010.

The forecasted adjusted diluted earnings per share are based on management's estimates for fiscal year 2010 and the first quarter of fiscal 2010. The company expects to incur charges for severance and merger costs during those periods, and the amounts are dependent upon future events. The company will use adjusted diluted earnings per share to evaluate its performance and believes this information is helpful to shareholders.

Conference Call

The company will host a live webcast and conference call to discuss the financial results for the fourth quarter of fiscal 2009. It will be held on Thursday, August 13, 2009, beginning at 9:00 a.m. Eastern Time, and can be accessed via the Internet by going to www.watsonwyatt.com. Forward-Looking Statements

Statements in this press release regarding projections and expectations of future earnings, revenues, operations, business trends, timing and potential benefits of the proposed merger between Watson Wyatt and Towers Perrin and other statements that are not historical facts and other such items are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. You can identify these forward-looking statements by their use of words such as anticipate, believe, could, estimate, expect, forecast, project, intend, plan, will, and other similar words and terms. Forward-looking statements are based on management's beliefs, as well as assumptions made by, and information currently available to management. Because such statements are based on expectations and are not statements of fact, actual events and results may differ materially from those projected. A number of risks and uncertainties exist which could cause actual results to differ materially from the results reflected in these forward-looking statements. Such factors include but are not limited to the ability of Watson Wyatt and Towers Perrin to obtain governmental and regulatory approvals of the merger on the proposed terms and schedule; failure to complete the merger with Towers Perrin in certain circumstances could require us to pay a termination fee or reimburse Towers Perrin's expenses; failure to complete the merger with Towers Perrin could negatively impact Watson Wyatt and its future operations; foreign currency exchange and interest rate fluctuations; general economic and business conditions that adversely affect us or our clients; a significant decrease in the demand for the consulting, actuarial and other services we offer as a result of changing economic conditions or other factors; the company's ability to integrate the operations of acquired businesses into our own business, processes and systems, and achieve the anticipated results; our continued ability to recruit and retain qualified associates; the success of our marketing, client development and sales programs; our ability to maintain client relationships and to attract new clients; declines in demand for our services; outcomes of pending or future litigation and the availability and capacity of professional liability insurance to fund pending or future judgments or settlements; the ability of the company to obtain professional liability insurance; actions by competitors offering human resources consulting services, including public accounting and consulting firms, technology consulting firms and internet/intranet development firms; our continued ability to achieve cost reductions; exposure to liabilities of acquired businesses that have not been expressly assumed; the level of capital resources required for future acquisitions and business opportunities; regulatory developments abroad and domestically that impact our business practices; legislative and technological developments that may affect the demand for or costs of our services; and other factors discussed under "Risk Factors" in the company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2008 and filed on August 15, 2008, with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These statements are based on assumptions that may not come true. All forward-looking disclosure is speculative by its nature. The company undertakes no obligation to update any of the forward-looking information included in this report, whether as a result of new information, future events, changed expectations or otherwise.
