Item 1.01      Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Effective November 24, 2009, First Mariner Bancorp (the "Company"), the parent company of First Mariner Bank (the "Bank"), entered into a written agreement (the "Agreement") with the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond (the "Reserve Bank"). The Agreement is designed to enhance the Company's ability to act as a source of strength to the Bank and requires, among other things, that the Company obtain the Reserve Bank's approval prior to: (i) paying dividends; (ii) receiving dividends from the Bank; (iii) making any distributions of interest, principal or other sums on subordinated debentures or trust preferred securities; (iv) incurring, guaranteeing or increasing any debt; or (v) purchasing or redeeming any shares of the Company's stock. Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, the Company is also required, within 60 days of the date of the Agreement, to submit to the Reserve Bank an acceptable written plan to maintain sufficient capital at the Company, on a consolidated basis. In addition, the Agreement also provides that the Company must notify the Reserve Bank before appointing any new directors or senior executive officers or changing the responsibilities of any senior executive officer position. The Agreement also requires the Company to comply with certain restrictions regarding indemnification and severance payments.

The Company must furnish periodic progress reports to the Reserve Bank regarding its compliance with the Agreement. The Agreement will remain in effect until stayed, modified, terminated or suspended by the Reserve Bank.
