Ad Hoc Notice

August 14, 2013

Moscow, Russian Federation Mobile TeleSystems OJSC (MTS or the Company NYSE: MBT), the leading telecommunications provider in Russia and the CIS, announces that it has become aware that Uzbek authorities, having failed to dispose of the assets of Uzdurobita, MTS's wholly owned subsidiary in Uzbekistan, by way of two rounds of auctions, have reached out directly to Uzdurobita creditors offering to purchase assets of Uzdurobita.

MTS understands that the liquidation administrator has now proposed that the creditors of Uzdurobita purchase these assets. Should this proposal not succeed, the liquidation administrator may transfer all of the assets of Uzdurobita to local authorities.

MTS states again that the claims of the Uzbek authorities and actions in Uzbekistan, which resulted in the initiation of bankruptcy proceedings and attempts to sell Uzdurobita's assets, have no legal or factual basis. MTS reserves the right to pursue available legal options in Uzbekistan and internationally to defend its legal rights and protect its investments. In addition, MTS will seek to fully recover damages or obtain other relief from any party involved in depriving MTS of its business and assets in Uzbekistan.

Previously, MTS filed a claim against the Republic of Uzbekistan in the International Center for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID), part of the World Bank Group, in Washington, D.C. The claim was registered on November 15, 2012, and the case is currently pending.

On January 14, 2013, Uzdurobita was forced to file a petition for voluntary bankruptcy due to its inability to fulfill obligations pursuant to the decisions of the Uzbekistan courts, which determined the total amount of fines and penalties to be paid by Uzdurobita to be at approximately $600 million. On April 22, 2013, the Tashkent Commercial Court declared Uzdurobita bankrupt and initiated liquidation procedures. Between July 01, 2013, and July 31, 2013, two rounds of auctions to sell the assets of the Uzdurobita and all of its branches were held. The auctions failed as no applications were submitted.
