Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 31, 2014, PennyMac Financial Services, Inc. (the Company), through two of its subsidiaries, PennyMac Loan Services, LLC (PLS) and Private National Mortgage Acceptance Company, LLC (PNMAC), entered into an amendment to its master repurchase agreement, dated as of March 17, 2011, by and among Bank of America, N.A. (BANA), PLS and PNMAC (the BANA Repurchase Agreement).

Pursuant to the terms of the BANA Repurchase Agreement, PLS may sell to, and later repurchase from, BANA newly originated residential mortgage loans that it originates or acquires from correspondent lenders through PennyMac Mortgage Investment Trust (NYSE: PMT). The principal amount paid by BANA for each eligible mortgage loan is based on a percentage of the market value, unpaid principal balance, purchase price or take-out price of such mortgage loan. Upon PLS's repurchase of a mortgage loan, it is required to repay BANA the principal amount related to such mortgage loan plus accrued interest (at a rate reflective of the current market and based on LIBOR plus a margin) to the date of such repurchase. The BANA Repurchase Agreement is committed to January 30, 2015, and the obligations of PLS are fully guaranteed by PNMAC.

The BANA Repurchase Agreement contains margin call provisions that provide BANA with certain rights in the event of a decline in the market value of the purchased mortgage loans. Under these provisions, BANA may require PLS to transfer cash or additional eligible mortgage loans with an aggregate market value in an amount sufficient to eliminate any margin deficit resulting from such a decline.

The BANA Repurchase Agreement requires PLS to maintain various financial and other covenants, which include maintaining (i) a minimum tangible net worth of $200 million, (ii) a minimum of $20 million in unrestricted cash and cash equivalents, (iii) a maximum ratio of total liabilities to tangible net worth of less than 10:1, and (iv) profitability each calendar quarter.

In addition, the BANA Repurchase Agreement contains events of default (subject to certain materiality thresholds and grace periods), including payment defaults, breaches of covenants and/or certain representations and warranties, cross-defaults, guarantor defaults, servicer termination events, material adverse changes, bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings and other events of default customary for this type of transaction. The remedies for such events of default are also customary for this type of transaction and include the acceleration of the principal amount outstanding and the liquidation by BANA of the mortgage loans then subject to the BANA Repurchase Agreement.

The amendment increases the amount of liquidity PLS is required to maintain from $10 million to $20 million, and it increases the minimum tangible net worth that PLS is required to maintain from $90 million to $200 million, in each case as set forth above. All other terms and conditions of the BANA Repurchase Agreement and the related guaranty remain the same in all material respects. The Company, through PLS, is required to pay BANA fees for the structuring of the amendment, as well as certain other administrative costs and expenses.

The foregoing description of the amendment to the BANA Repurchase Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the amendment, which has been filed with this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 10.1, and the full text of the BANA Repurchase Agreement and its amendments, which were filed as Exhibit 10.18 to the Company's Form S-1 Registration Statement filed on February 7, 2013 and Exhibit 10.19 to the Company's Amendment No. 3 to Form S-1 Registration Statement filed on April 22, 2013, respectively.
