Vale concludes the sale of capesize vessels to Polaris

Rio de Janeiro, December 05, 2016 Vale S.A. (Vale) and Polaris Shipping Co. Ltd. (Polaris) concluded today the sale and purchase of four capesize vessels owned and currently operated by Vale.

The transaction totaled US$ 140 million, equivalent to US$ 35 million per vessel, which will be received by Vale upon the delivery of each vessel. One of the vessels was delivered today and the remaining vessels are expected to be delivered in December 2016 and in January 2017.

The transaction is consistent with Vale's strategy of strengthening the balance sheet and focusing on core assets.

This press release may include statements that present Vale's expectations about future events or results. All statements, when based upon expectations about the future, involve various risks and uncertainties. Vale cannot guarantee that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors related to the following: (a) the countries where we operate, especially Brazil and Canada; (b) the global economy; (c) the capital markets; (d) the mining and metals prices and their dependence on global industrial production, which is cyclical by nature; and (e) global competition in the markets in which Vale operates. To obtain further information on factors that may lead to results different from those forecast by Vale, please consult the reports Vale files with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários (CVM), and the French Autorité des Marchés Financiers (AMF), and in particular the factors discussed under "Forward-Looking Statements" and "Risk Factors" in Vale's annual report on Form 20-F.
