Item 8.01 Other Events

As previously reported, Public Service Company of New Mexico (“PNM”), a wholly owned subsidiary of PNM Resources, Inc., made a filing with the New Mexico Public Regulation Commission (“NMPRC”) in December 2014, applying for a general rate increase. On April 17, 2015, the Hearing Examiner in the case issued a recommended decision to the NMPRC that included a recommendation that the NMPRC reject PNM’s application. On May 13, 2015, the NMPRC voted to adopt this recommendation and dismiss PNM’s rate filing.

On May 27, 2015, the NMPRC approved a companion order adopting an interpretation of the Future Test Year (“FTY”) statute defining a FTY as a period that begins no later than 45 days following the filing of an application to increase rates. The written order was entered on June 3, 2015. PNM disagrees with the interpretation adopted by the NMPRC and strongly believes that the correct interpretation of the statute allows a FTY to begin up to 13 months after the filing of an application. PNM previously stated its intent to challenge the NMPRC’s decision.

On June 25, 2015, PNM timely filed a Notice of Appeal to the New Mexico Supreme Court, challenging the NMPRC’s June 3, 2015 written order.
