Freestone Resources, Inc.
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
(Unaudited)

Note 1 – Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited interim consolidated financial statements of Freestone Resources, Inc. (“Freestone” or “Company”) have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The results of operations for the three months ended March 31, 2009 and nine months ended March 31, 2009 are not necessarily indicative of the results of operations for the full year or any other interim period. The information included in this Form 10-Q should be read in conjunction with Management's Discussion and Analysis and Financial Statements and notes thereto included in the Company's June 30, 2008 Form 10-K. Notes to the consolidated financial statements which substantially duplicate the disclosure contained in the audited financial statements for fiscal 2008 as reported in the Form 10-K have been omitted.

Critical Accounting Policies

Oil and Gas Properties - Freestone uses the full cost method of accounting for oil and gas properties. Management believes adoption of the full cost method more accurately reflects management's exploration objectives and results by including all costs incurred as integral for the acquisition, discovery and development of whatever reserves ultimately result from our efforts as a whole. Under the full cost method of accounting, all costs associated with acquisition, exploration and development of oil and gas reserves, including directly related overhead costs, are capitalized. Such costs include lease acquisitions, seismic surveys, drilling and completion equipment, estimated future development costs and, where significant, dismantlement, restoration and abandonment costs, net of estimated salvage values. All capitalized costs of oil and gas properties are amortized on the unit-of-production method using estimates of proved reserves.

Investments in unproved properties and major development projects are not amortized until proved reserves associated with the projects can be determined or until impairment occurs. Unproved or unevaluated properties are evaluated at least annually for impairment on a property-by-property basis. If the results of an assessment indicate that the properties are impaired, the amount of impairment is added to the proved oil and natural gas property costs to be amortized. The unproven properties were purchased in order to test the Company's keystone product Petrozene, and allow the Company to continue research and development of this product.

The capitalized costs are subject to a "full cost ceiling test," which generally limits such costs to the aggregate of the "estimated present value," discounted at a 10 percent (10%) interest rate, of future net revenues from proved reserves, based on current economic and operating conditions, plus the lower of cost or fair market value of unproved properties. If net capitalized costs exceed this limit, the excess is charged to operations through depreciation, depletion and amortization. Sales of proved and unproved properties are accounted for as adjustments of capitalized costs with no gain or loss recognized, unless such adjustments would significantly alter the relationship between capitalized costs and proved reserves of oil and gas, in which case the gain or loss is recognized in income.

Freestone proportionally consolidates its interests in oil and natural gas properties.

Earnings per share - Basic earnings (loss) per share are computed by dividing net income (loss) by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted earnings (loss) per share include the effects of any outstanding options, warrants and other potentially dilutive securities. For the periods presented, there were no potentially dilutive securities outstanding.

Note 2 – Going Concern

As reflected in the accompanying consolidated financial statements, Freestone incurred operating losses, and has a negative working capital position as of March 31, 2009. The above factors raise substantial doubt about Freestone's ability to continue as a going concern. Freestone's continued existence is dependent on its ability to obtain additional equity and/or debt financing to fund its operations. Freestone plans to raise additional financing and to increase sales volume. There is no assurance that Freestone will obtain additional financing or achieve profitable operations or cash inflows. The financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability or classification of recorded asset amounts or the amount and classification of liabilities that might be necessary as a result of this uncertainty.

Note 3 – Common Stock

On July 2, 2008 Freestone issued 2,155,000 shares of common stock valued at $215,500 to consultants for services.

Note 4 – Change in Control

On July 1, 2008, the Company agreed to accept the resignation of the following officers and directors:

Lloyd Lane	President and Director
Tom Bonner	Secretary and Director

On July 1, 2008, the Company appointed the following officers and directors:

Mike Doran	Chief Executive Officer and Director
Clayton Carter	President and Director

Note 5 – Freestone Technologies, LLC

On October 24, 2008 Freestone established and incorporated Freestone Technologies, LLC (the “Subsidiary”) in the state of Texas. The Subsidiary is wholly owned by Freestone and has certain assets and liabilities relating to the purchase of oil wells. These wells were purchased as additional test wells for Petrozene. The assets and liabilities of the Subsidiary are included in the consolidated financial statements of Freestone.

Note 6 – Subsequent Events

On April 17, 2009 the Company entered into an agreement with Lloyd Lane, Tom Bonner, Mike Doran, Jimmy Carter, Clayton Carter and Capital Financial Consultants to liquidate their investments in Freestone. Each surrendered his Freestone common stock issued to him (an aggregate of 27,865,000 shares) upon forming Freestone in exchange for a building, certain oil and gas assets, the assumption of certain liabilities related to those assets and assignment of a Petrozene supply contract.

On April 21, 2009 the Company issued 2,000,000 restricted shares of common stock to Dona Doran in payment of a $50,000 loan.

On April 22, 2009 the Company issued 3,000,000 restricted shares of common stock to Mike Doran, 3,000,000 restricted shares of common stock to Clayton Carter, 1,500,000 restricted shares of common stock to Don Edwards, and 1,250,000 restricted shares of common stock to consultants as compensation for past services rendered in lieu of salary.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

This report contains forward looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The Company's actual results could differ materially from those set forth on the forward looking statements as a result of the risks set forth in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, general economic conditions, and changes in the assumptions used in making such forward looking statements.

General

Freestone Resources, Inc. was involved in the operation of an internet computer supply business until its operations were discontinued in 2001. It had no business until November of 2007 when it entered the oil and gas business when it purchased certain oil and gas properties, related fixed assets and a Petrozene contract which gives the Company the right to purchase Petrozene. The Company was incorporated as Para-Link, Inc. in the State of Texas on January 22, 1997 and on March 10, 1999, Para-Link acquired 100% of the outstanding capital stock of iChargeit Inc. ("iChargeit"). iChargeit was incorporated on January 6, 1999 in the State of Nevada. On March 17, 1999, the Company changed its name to iChargeit. On November 5, 1999 the Company was reincorporated in Delaware. On August 22, 2007, the Company was reincorporated in Nevada and changed its name to Freestone Resources, Inc. in anticipation of going into the oil and gas business.

Results of Operations

Three months Ended March 31, 2009 and March 31, 2008. Compared to nine months ended March 31, 2009 and March 31, 2008

Revenue - Our revenue for the three months March 31, 2009 was $13,960, compared to $48,817 revenue for the same period in 2008. Revenue decreased in the third quarter due to decreased in oil and gas sales from wells acquired on November 1, 2007. Our revenue for the nine months March 31, 2009 was $83,222, compared to $490,412 revenue for the same period in 2008.

Operating Expense - Cost of Petrozene sales was negligible for the three months ended March 31, 2009. Cost of Petrozene sales for the three months ended March 31, 2009 was $-0-, compared to $-0- for the same period of 2008. There were no Petrozene sales in the three months ended March 31, 2009 and nine months ended March 31, 2009. Petrozene sales in the three months ended March 31, 2008 were $4,400 and nine months ended March 31, 2008 were $406,726. Cost of Petrozene sales for the three months ended March 31, 2008 were $-0- and nine months ended March 31, 2008 were $151,800.

Lease operating expense for the three months ended March 31, 2009 was $13,020 compared to $18,598 for the same period in 2008. Lease operating expense decreased for three months ended due to cost associated with wells acquired on November 1, 2007. Lease operating expense for the nine months ended March 31, 2009 was $60,184 compared to $21,055 for the same period in 2008.

Operating Expense - Total operating expenses for the three months ended March 31, 2009 were $6,943 of depreciation and depletion expense and $22,075 of general and administrative expenses respectively, compared to $8,630 depreciation and depletion expense and $82,999 of general and administrative expenses for the same period in 2008. Total operating expenses for the nine months ended March 31, 2009 were $20,828 of depreciation and depletion expense and $303,037 of general and administrative expenses respectively, compared to $14,383 depreciation and depletion expense and $251,488 of general and administrative expenses for the same period in 2008. General and administrative expenses for the nine months ended March 31, 2009 include a non-cash expense of $215,500, see Note 3, Common Stock.

Net Income (Loss) - Net loss for the three months ended March 31, 2009 was $35,811 compared to net loss of $61,929 for the same period in 2008. - Net loss for the nine months ended March 31, 2009 was $318,207 compared to a net income of $51,073 for the same period in 2008.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

We have little cash reserves and liquidity to the extent we receive it from operations.

During the nine months ended March 31, 2009, our cash and cash equivalent decreased to $0 from $13,548 at June 30, 2008.

Net cash used in operating activities was $21,199 for the nine months ended March 31, 2009 compared to $47,788 provided by operating activities for the same period in 2008.

Employees

As of March 31, 2009, Freestone only employees are officers of the Company.

Need for Additional Financing

No commitments to provide additional funds have been made by management or other stockholders. Our independent auditors included a going concern qualification in their report included in our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2008, which raises substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern.

Further, there exist no agreements or understandings with regard to loan agreements by or with the Officers, Directors, principals, affiliates or shareholders of the Company.

ITEM 3: QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Not applicable.

ITEM 4: CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Disclosure controls and procedures include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by an issuer in the reports that it files or submits under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Act") is accumulated and communicated to the issuer's management, including its principal executive and principal financial officers, or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. It should be noted that the design of any system of controls is based in part upon certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions, regardless of how remote. As of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report, we carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of our President, also serving as our Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures. Based on this evaluation, our President has concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are not effective because of the identification of a material weakness in our internal control over financial reporting which is identified below, which we view as an integral part of our disclosure controls and procedures.

The material weakness relates to the lack of segregation of duties in financial reporting, as our financial reporting and all accounting functions are performed by an external consultant with no oversight by a professional with accounting expertise. Our President does not possess accounting expertise and our Company does not have an audit committee. This weakness is due to the Company's lack of working capital to hire additional staff. To remedy this material weakness, we intend to engage another accountant to assist with financial reporting as soon as our finances will allow.

Changes in Internal Controls over Financial Reporting

We have not yet made any changes in our internal controls over financial reporting that occurred during the period covered by this report on Form 10-Q that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

PART II – Other Information

Item No.2 Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and use of Proceeds.

During the nine months ended March 31, 2009, Freestone issued 2,155,000 restricted shares of common stock valued at $215,500 to consultants for services. The consultants agreed to acquire the shares for investment purposes only and not for resale. The certificates representing the shares carry a legend that the shares may not be sold or transferred without compliance with the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Act”) or in reliance upon an applicable exemption there from. In connection with the issue of these shares, the Company relied upon the private offering exemption found in section 4(2) of the Act.
