Item 1.01 ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

Sandy Spring Bancorp, Inc. and its wholly owned subsidiary, Sandy Spring Bank (together, "Bancorp") have determined to take certain actions with respect to the form and timing of payments of amounts deferred after December 31, 2004, under the Supplemental Executive Retirement Agreements between Bancorp and certain executive officers of Bancorp and the Directors Fee Deferral Agreements between Bancorp and certain directors. These actions relate to Bancorp's compliance with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code and related regulations and guidance issued by the Internal Revenue Service.

Specifically, Bancorp plans to amend these agreements to provide that (i) all amounts payable under them with respect to employee compensation or director fees deferred under the agreements after December 31, 2004, will be paid in the form of a lump sum; (ii) payments to an employee upon a termination of employment shall occur no earlier than 6 months after such termination of employment; and (iii) all employees and directors of the Bank who elected to defer amounts during 2005 under the agreements, may elect to withdraw, prior to January 1, 2006, all such 2005 deferrals and all of the earnings with respect to such deferrals.

None of these changes will have a material effect on the income or financial condition of Bancorp.

Bancorp expects that additional amendments to these agreements will be necessary in 2006.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Bancorp makes forward-looking statements in this report on Form 8-K including statements of goals, intentions, and expectations that are subject to significant uncertainties.
