PART III - NARRATIVE

Registrant's continuing adverse financial condition and lack of sufficient financial resources has required Registrant to significantly limit both its internal staffing and its use of outside personnel. At the same time, the individuals customarily responsible for the preparation and review of Registrant's Quarterly Report on Form 10-QSB have been required to shift a portion of their attention and resources to other matters critical to Registrant's continuing business. As a consequence, the Company has been delayed in completing the preparation of the Report.

Registrant expects to report a net loss of approximately $52,700 and $133,000 for the second quarter and first half of 2006, respectively, compared to $41,400 and $129,200 in the second quarter and first half of 2005, respectively. The increase in the 2006 second quarter net loss was due primarily to compensation expense associated with the issuance of stock options to Directors and higher commissions offset in part by a higher gross profit and lower legal expenses. The increase in the first half 2006 net loss resulted primarily from a lower gross profit, higher stock option and commission expense offset in part by lower legal and patent related expenses.
