Nothing contained in this clause shall limit the right of any Party to take Proceedings in any other court of competent jurisdiction nor shall the taking of Proceedings in one or more jurisdictions preclude the taking of Proceedings in any other jurisdiction, whether concurrently or not.

3.4 Waiver of Objections

Each of the Parties irrevocably waives any objection which it may now or in the future have to the laying of the venue of any Proceedings in any such court as is referred to in this clause, and any claim that any such Proceedings have been brought in an inconvenient or inappropriate forum, and irrevocably agrees that a judgment in any Proceedings brought in any such court shall be conclusive and binding on it and may be enforced in the courts of any other jurisdiction.

3.5 Service of Process

WHEREAS:

1. By a Charterparty on a SUPPLYTIME 89 form dated Salford, England 31st May 2002 the Claimants (hereinafter referred to as "The Owners") chartered the "G MURRAY" to be renamed the "MIDNIGHT HUNTER" to the First Respondents (hereinafter referred to as "the Charterers") for a period of 1,096 days.
2. By an amendment number 1 to the Charterparty dated 25th June 2002 it was agreed that the Second Respondents guaranteed "as primary obligors the Charterers' performance with respect to all obligations, terms and conditions of the above Charterparty".
3. The said Charterparty provided, inter alia, that it was to be governed by English law and that should any disputes arise between the parties, they were to be referred to arbitration in London.
