Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

The outstanding common shares of the Issuer is 12,163,391 shares.
The outstanding convertible preferred D shares is 4,221,553 shares.

This Schedule 13D filing shows the common shares that would be held if all Convertible Preferred D shares owned by group members were converted to common shares and added to common shares that are already owned by group members. Each share of Convertible Preferred D converts to one share of Dynex Capital, Inc. common shares.

If only the group members converted their Convertible Preferred D shares into common shares, which has not and may not ever occur, then, the shares outstanding would be 12,177,791 common shares.
(12,163,391 plus 14,400 equals 12,177,791)

If every Convertible Preferred D holder simultaneously converted their shares to common shares, this group would not be a 5 % holder nor would any of its members.

(a)(b) The aggregate amount of common stock owned by the Reporting Persons is 547,419 shares or 4.5 % of the current outstanding common shares.

Edgar Filing: DYNEX CAPITAL INC - Form SC 13D/A

If other Convertible Preferred D holders converted their shares to common stock, then the per cent owned would be lower.

Howard Amster and in his individual retirement account owns 170,500 or 1.4 % of the current outstanding common shares.

If the members of the group converted all their shares of Convertible Preferred D shares into common shares and no other Convertible Preferred D holder converted their shares to common shares, then, Howard Amster and in his individual retirement account would continue to own 170,500 common shares or 1.4 % of the outstanding common shares. If other Convertible Preferred D holders converted their shares to common stock, then the per cent owned would be lower.

Amster Trading Company owns 31,300 or .2 % of the current outstanding common shares.

If the members of the group converted all their shares of Convertible Preferred D shares into common shares and no other Convertible Preferred D holder converted their shares to common shares, then, Amster Trading Company would continue to own 31,300 common shares or 0.2 % of the outstanding common shares. If other Convertible Preferred D holders converted their shares to common stock, then the per cent owned would be lower.

Amster Trading Company Charitable Remainder Unitrusts owns 83,600 or 0.7 % of the current outstanding common shares.

If the members of the group converted all their shares of Convertible Preferred D shares into common shares and no other Convertible Preferred D holder converted their shares to common shares, then Amster Trading Company Charitable Remainder Unitrusts would continue to own 83,600 common or 0.7 % of the outstanding common shares.
