ITEM 4.01. CHANGES IN REGISTRANT'S CERTIFYING ACCOUNTANT

(1) Previous Independent Auditors:

<R>

(i) Effective February 5, 2005, Beckstead and Watts, LLP ("Beckstead and Watts") was dismissed as the Company's independent auditor. On February 1, 2005, the Company engaged Epstein, Weber, & Conover, PLC as its principal independent accountant. This decision to engage Epstein, Weber, & Conover, PLC was ratified by the majority approval of the Board of Directors of the Company.

(ii) Management of NMXS.com is unaware of any disagreements with Beckstead and Watts for the years ending December 31, 2002 and December 31, 2003 and any subsequent interim period through Beckstead and Watts dismissal on February 5, 2005, related to any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure. For the years ending December 31, 2002 and December 31, 2003 and any subsequent interim period through Beckstead and Watts' dismissal on February 5, 2005, there has been no disagreement between the Company and Beckstead and Watts on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreement, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Beckstead and Watts would have caused it to make a reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its reports.

(iii) The Company's Board of Directors participated in and approved the decision to change independent accountants. Beckstead and Watts unqualified audit report on the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002, contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and was not qualified or modified as to audit scope or accounting principles.

(iv) In connection with its audits for the years ending December 31, 2002 and December 31, 2003, and review of financial statements through September 30, 2004 and any subsequent interim period through Beckstead and Watts dismissal on February 5, 2005, there have been no disagreements with Beckstead and Watts on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements if not resolved to the satisfaction of Beckstead and Watts would have caused them to make reference thereto in their report on the financial statements.

(v) During the two most recent fiscal years ending December 31, 2003 and December 31, 2004 and any subsequent interim period through Beckstead and Watts dismissal on February 5, 2005, there have been no reportable events with the Company as set forth in Item 304(a)(i)(v) of Regulation S-K.

(vi) The Company requested that Beckstead and Watts furnish it with a letter addressed to the SEC stating whether or not it agrees with the above statements. A copy of such letter is filed as an Exhibit to this Form 8-K.

(2) New Independent Accountants:

<R>

(i) The Company engaged Epstein, Weber, & Conover, PLC, Scottsdale, AZ as its new independent auditors as of February 5, 2005. Prior to such date, the Company, except for consulting with Epstein, Weber & Conover, PLC on its Form SB-2 Registration Statement (SEC File No. 333-112781), did not consult with Epstein, Weber, & Conover, PLC regarding (i) the application of accounting principles, (ii) the type of audit opinion that might be rendered by Epstein, Weber, & Conover, PLC, or (iii) any other matter that was the subject of a disagreement between the Company and its former auditor as described in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S- B. The Company specifically consulted with Epstein, Weber & Conover, PLC on its Form SB-2 Registration Statement (SEC File No. 333-112781) regarding an explanation of internal accounting controls and their meaning and function relative to specific financial reporting matters. Since this was an internal function, the Company did not consult with Beckstead and Watts on this subject.
