(1) Represents shares of common stock of Vital Living, Inc. ("VLI") into which the 1,000,000 shares of Series D Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share, of VLI (the "Series D Preferred"), held by NutraCea can be converted.

(2) Percentage ownership calculation is based upon 164,559,000 shares of Vital Living, Inc. Common Stock outstanding as of August 14, 2007, as reported in Vital Living's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended June 30, 2007, filed on August 14, 2007.

NutraCea hereby amends and supplements its Statement on Schedule 13D previously filed with respect to the common stock, par value $0.001 per share, of Vital Living, Inc., a Nevada corporation ("VLI"), to report that NutraCea and VLI have agreed to amend the Notes to eliminate the conversion rights of the Notes, and as a result NutraCea beneficially owns less than 1% of the outstanding shares of VLI. Except as amended and supplemented hereby, NutraCea's Statement on Schedule 13D as heretofore amended and supplemented remains in full force and effect.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

In April 2007 we acquired the Notes and the Series D Preferred (collectively, the "VLI Securities"). We paid $1,000,000 for 1,000,000 shares of Series D Preferred and $4,226,000 for the outstanding Notes, which we believe represent all of the outstanding shares of Series D Preferred and all of the outstanding Notes. We acquired the Notes and the Series D Preferred from the holders thereof pursuant to separate purchase agreements with such holders. The Notes are convertible into VLI common stock at a current conversion rate of $0.24 per share and bear interest at 12% per annum, payable June 15 and December 15 and mature in December 2008. The Series D Preferred can be converted into VLI common stock at a conversion rate currently equal to $1.00 per share. Our present intention is not to exercise our option to convert either the Notes or the Series D Preferred into shares of VLI common stock; rather, we intend to acquire certain assets of VLI.

In June 2007 we entered into a non-binding letter of intent that included certain terms that would form the basis for discussion regarding a definitive agreement pursuant to which NutraCea would acquire certain assets of VLI, subject to certain exceptions and limitations. However, as of the date of filing of this Schedule 13D, the parties have not entered into any definitive agreements to acquire such assets, the terms of any agreements relating to any such transaction may differ in material respect from those described in the letter, and there can be no assurance that any such agreements will be entered into or, if entered into, that any such transaction will be consummated. Such a transaction might involve a change in VLI's certificate of incorporation or bylaws. Consummation of any such transaction would likely be subject to a number of closing conditions, including without limitation approval of the transaction by the stockholders of VLI.

NutraCea is continuously evaluating the business and business prospects of VLI, and its present and future interests in, and intentions with respect, to VLI and at any time may decide to acquire shares of, dispose of shares of, VLI Common Stock or Series D Preferred Stock owned by it. NutraCea may, from time to time, depending upon market conditions and other factors deemed relevant by NutraCea, acquire other securities of VLI, although it has no present intention to do so. NutraCea reserves the right to, and may in the future choose to, change its purpose with respect to the investment and take such actions as it deems appropriate in light of the circumstances including, without limitation, to dispose of, in the open market, in a private transaction or by gift, all or a portion of the securities which it now owns or may hereafter acquire of VLI.

Except as set forth in this Statement, as of the date of the filing of this Statement, neither NutraCea, nor, to its knowledge, any of its executive officers or directors, has any other plan or proposal which relates to or would result in any of the actions specified in subparagraphs (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

On September 11, 2007, NutraCea and VLI entered into a letter agreement confirming their agreement to eliminate the conversion rights of the Notes. As a result, NutraCea is no longer deemed to be a beneficial owner of the shares of VLI Common Stock into which the Notes can be converted. In addition, the parties agreed that until such time, if any, as NutraCea gives 30 days prior written notice to VLI, VLI may not pay accrued interest under the Notes in shares of VLI Common Stock, without NutraCea's consent, and that during such time VLI will not be deemed to be in default under the Notes as a result of not paying accrued interest in such shares.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

(a) NutraCea is or may be deemed to be the beneficial owner of an aggregate of 1,000,000 shares (the "Underlying Shares") of VLI Common Stock, or approximately 0.6% of the number of (i) outstanding shares of VLI Common Stock outstanding as of August 14, 2007, plus (ii) shares of Common Stock into which the Series D Preferred may be converted. The preceding numbers and percentages are based 164,559,000 shares of VLI Common Stock outstanding as of August 14, 2007, as reported in VLI's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended June 30, 2007, filed on August 14, 2007. The preceding numbers and percentages assume conversion of all of the shares of Series D Preferred into shares of VLI Common Stock. While NutraCea is not the actual owner of any of the Underlying Shares, as a result of its ownership of the Series D Preferred, NutraCea may be deemed to beneficially own the Underlying Shares since the Series D Preferred is convertible into shares of VLI Common Stock at the option of NutraCea. To NutraCea's knowledge, none of its executive officers or directors named in Annex A hereto, beneficially owns any shares of VLI Common Stock. To NutraCea's knowledge and belief, none of its executive officers or directors named in Annex A to NutraCea's Statement on Schedule 13D, have any contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships (legal or otherwise) with respect to any securities of VLI.

(b) NutraCea has sole voting and dispositive power with respect to any of the VLI shares that it may be deemed to beneficially own. Please see Rows 7 through 10 of the cover page to this Schedule 13D.

(c) Other than as described above in Item 4, neither NutraCea, nor, to the best of its knowledge, any executive officer or director thereof, has engaged in any transaction in VLI Common Stock during the 60-day period immediately preceding the date hereof except as described herein.

(d) Not applicable.

(e) On September 11, 2007, NutraCea became a beneficial owner of less than 5% of the outstanding VLI common stock. See Item 4 and paragraph (a) above.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer

In April 2007, NutraCea acquired the VLI Securities from the holders thereof pursuant to separate purchase agreements with the holders. The Notes bear interest at a rate of 12% per annum. VLI may pay all 12% interest due on the Notes in either cash or shares of VLI common stock, at VLI's option. The Notes are secured by a security interest in substantially all of VLI's assets. The Notes are convertible into shares of VLI Common Stock at a conversion price of $0.24 per share, as amended by NutraCea and VLI at any time after October 31, 2007. Other terms of the Notes are described in the Annual Report on Form 10-K of Vital Living for the period ended December 31, 2006, including note 6 to the financial statements included in that Form 10-K. The Series D Preferred has a liquidation preference of $1.00 per share senior to the liquidation preferences of VLI's Series B Preferred Stock and Senior C Preferred Stock, is convertible into common stock at a conversion price that is currently $1.00 per share, and votes with the VLI Common Stock on an as-converted basis. Other terms of the Series D Preferred are described in the Annual Report on Form 10-K of Vital Living for the period ended December 31, 2006, including note 8 to the financial statements included in that Form 10-K. VLI has previously filed the forms of the Notes and the related agreements as exhibits to its Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, or SEC, on December 19, 2003, and has previously filed a description of the rights of the Series D Preferred as an exhibit to its Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on September 8, 2003, and those descriptions are incorporated herein.

On September 11, 2007, NutraCea and VLI entered into a letter agreement confirming their agreement to eliminate the conversion rights of the Notes. As a result, NutraCea is no longer deemed to be a beneficial owner of the shares of VLI Common Stock into which the Notes can be converted. In addition, the parties agreed that until such time, if any, as NutraCea gives 30 days prior written notice to VLI, VLI may not pay accrued interest under the Notes in shares of VLI Common Stock, without NutraCea's consent, and that during such time VLI will not be deemed to be in default under the Notes as a result of not paying accrued interest in such shares.

Except as described in this Schedule 13D, none of NutraCea, nor, to the best of its knowledge, any executive officer or director thereof, has any other contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships with any persons with respect to any securities of VLI.
