INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Advanced Custom Sensors, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Advanced Custom Sensors, Inc. as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, and the related statements of operations, change in stockholders' equity (deficiency), and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

Edgar Filing: SPECTRE INDUSTRIES INC - Form 8-K

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Advanced Custom Sensors, Inc. as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 1 to the financial statements, the Company suffered a loss of $961,355 and utilized cash in operating activities of $501,699 for the year ended December 31, 2003, and has a working capital deficiency of $584,950 and a stockholders' deficiency of $151,489 as of December 31, 2003, that raise substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans in regard to these matters are also described in Note 1. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

ADVANCED CUSTOM SENSORS, INC.
 NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
 FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2003 AND 2002

NOTE 1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(A) Organization and Description of Business

Advanced Custom Sensors Inc. (the Company) was incorporated in the State of California on June 21, 1996. The Company is a manufacturer and assembler of sensors and micro systems, and its products include thin film sensors, thin film pressure sensors and micro-machined pressure sensors, and micro systems that may include sensors, signal conditioning circuits, LCD display, computer interface and molded housing specifically designed to the customers needs.

(B) Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, which contemplate continuation of the Company as a going concern. However, for the year ended December 31, 2003, the Company suffered a loss of $961,355 and utilized cash in operating activities of $501,699, and has a working capital deficiency of $584,950 and a stockholders' equity deficiency of $151,489 as of December 31, 2003. These factors raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Without realization of additional capital, it would be unlikely for the Company to continue as a going concern. These financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts, or amounts and classification of liabilities that might result from this uncertainty.

Management believes that actions are presently being taken to revise the Company's operating and financial requirements in order to improve the Company's financial position and operating results. However, given the levels of its cash resources and working capital deficiency at December 31, 2003, management believes cash to be generated by operations will not be sufficient to meet anticipated cash requirements for operations, working capital, and capital expenditures during 2004. The Company completed a reverse merger on May 20, 2004, with Spectre Industries, Inc., a public company, to gain access to the United States and European capital markets, but there can be no assurances that the Company will ultimately be successful in this regard.

(C) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

ADVANCED CUSTOM SENSORS, INC. NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2003 AND 2002

(D) Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue when goods are shipped and invoiced to the customer.

(E) Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company's financial instruments that are exposed to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash and trade receivables. The Company places its cash in what it believes to be credit-worthy financial institutions. However, cash balances may have exceeded federally insured levels at various times during the year. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant risk in cash. The Company's trade receivables result primarily from the sale of its products, and the concentration of credit risk includes a customer base located throughout North America and Asia.

The Company had two customers in 2003 and two customers in 2002 that accounted for 33% and 44% of sales in the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively. Approximately 90% and 10% of the Company's sales in the year ended December 31, 2003 were to customers in North America and other geographic areas, and 90% and 10% in the year ended December 31, 2002, respectively.

(F) Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost (first-in, first-out method) or market.

(G) Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is stated at cost. Depreciation is provided at the time property and equipment is placed in service using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which range from three to seven years.

(H) Income Taxes

Edgar Filing: SPECTRE INDUSTRIES INC - Form 8-K

The Company accounts for income taxes using the asset and liability method whereby deferred income taxes are recognized for the tax consequences of temporary differences by applying statutory tax rates applicable to future years to the differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and the tax bases of certain assets and liabilities. Changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities include the impact of any tax rate changes enacted during the year.

(I) Fair Value of Financial Instruments

ADVANCED CUSTOM SENSORS, INC.
FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2003 AND 2002

The Company believes that the carrying value of its cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable, accrued liabilities, line of credit, due to investors, and notes payable to related party as of December 31, 2003 approximates their respective fair values due to the demand or short-term nature of those instruments.

(J) Reclassifications

The Company has reclassified certain accounts in the prior year financial statements to conform with the presentation of the current year financial statements.

(K) Stock Based Compensation

As described in Note 13, the Company has elected to follow Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees," for stock-based compensation and to furnish the pro forma disclosures required under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 148, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation - Transition and Disclosure."

(L) Earnings (loss) per share

Basic earnings (loss) per common share (EPS) are based on the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during each period. Diluted earnings per common share are based on shares outstanding (computed as under basic EPS) and potentially dilutive common shares. As of December 31, 2003, the Company had granted employee stock options for 136,500 shares of common stock and warrants to purchase 315,666 shares of common stock that are potentially dilutive common shares. As of December 31, 2002, the Company had granted employee stock options for 100,000 shares of common stock that are potentially dilutive common shares. The dilutive effect of common stock options and warrants were not used to compute dilutive loss per share for 2003 and 2002 because the result of their inclusion would be anti-dilutive.

(M) Note payable-debt discount cost

The Company has issued warrants to an investor and a related party. The warrants are being treated as additional consideration for notes payable. The deferred cost of the warrants was determined as the difference between the exercise price of the warrants and the most recent issue price and is being amortized over the term of the related notes payable (See notes 7 and 8).

(N) New Accounting Pronouncements

ADVANCED CUSTOM SENSORS, INC.
FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2003 AND 2002

In January 2003, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued FASB Interpretation No. 46 (FIN 46), "Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities," which clarifies the application of Accounting Research Bulletin No. 51, "Consolidated Financial Statements," relating to consolidation of certain entities. In December 2003, the FASB issued a revised FIN 46 "46R" that replaced the original FIN 46. FIN 46R requires identification of a company's participation in variable interest entities (VIEs), which are defined as entities with a level of invested equity that is not sufficient to fund future activities to permit it to operate on a standalone basis. For entities identified as VIE, FIN 46R sets forth a model to evaluate potential consolidation based on an assessment of which party to the VIE (if any) bears a majority of the exposure to its expected losses, or stands to gain from a majority of its expected returns. FIN 46R also sets forth certain disclosures regarding interests in VIEs that are deemed significant, even if consolidation is not required. The Company is not currently participating in, or invested in any VIEs, as defined in FIN 46R.

In April 2003, the FASB issued SFAS No. 149, "Amendment of Statement 133 on Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities." SFAS No. 149 amends and clarifies financial accounting and reporting for derivative instruments embedded in other contracts and for hedging activities under SFAS No. 133, "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities." It is effective for contracts entered into or modified after June 30, 2003, except as stated within the statement, and should be applied prospectively. Management believes the provisions of this Standard currently have no effect on our financial position or results of operations.

In May 2003, the FASB issued SFAS No. 150, "Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of both Liabilities and Equity." SFAS No. 150 establishes standards for how an issuer classifies and measures in its statement of financial position certain financial instruments with characteristics of both liabilities and equity. SFAS No. 150 requires that an issuer classify a financial instrument that is within its scope as a liability (or an asset in some circumstances) because that financial instrument embodies an obligation of the issuer. SFAS No. 150 is effective for financial instruments entered into or modified after May 31, 2003 and otherwise is effective at the beginning of the first interim period beginning after June 15, 2003. SFAS No. 150 is to be implemented by reporting the cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle for financial instruments created before the issuance date of SFAS No. 150 and still existing at the beginning of the interim period of adoption. Restatement is not permitted. The Company does not expect that the adoption of SFAS No. 150 will have a significant effect on the Company's financial statement presentation or disclosures.

Depreciation expense of $113,927 and $73,784 is reflected in the accompanying Statement of Operations for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

NOTE 4 INVESTMENT IN AFFILIATED ENTITY

The Company owns 14.3% of TransOptix, Inc. (TransOptix, formerly Advanced Optical Mems, Inc.), a company that is involved in the manufacture and distribution of computer peripheral equipment. The Company's Chief Executive Officer is also the Chief Executive Officer of TransOptix and the officer also owns 15% of TransOptix. As a result of the combined equity holdings of TransOptix by the Company and its Chief Executive Officer, the Company accounts for this investment under the equity method of accounting. The Company recorded a loss from TransOptix of $142,000 to reflect its pro-rata share of the TransOptix net loss for the year ended December 31, 2002. The Company initially invested $200,000 in TransOptix in 2000. The loss recorded in 2002 reduced the Company's investment in TransOptix to zero at December 31, 2002. Accordingly, the Company discontinued applying the equity method at December 31, 2002 and did not record any loss from TransOptix in 2003. The Company did not receive any distribution from TransOptix in 2003 or 2002. The Company and TransOptix share the same office and facility (see Note 10). During 2002, the Company recorded sales of $17,000 to TransOptix. TransOptix has also advanced funds to the Company amounting to $190,665 (see Note 8). There were no other transactions between the Company and TransOptix in 2003 or 2002.

NOTE 5 SUPPLIERS

As of December 31, 2003 and 2002, the Company maintained net assets consisting of tooling of approximately $160,000, at their main supplier located in Taiwan. Although this country is considered politically and economically stable, it is possible that unanticipated events in this foreign country could disrupt the operations of the Company because their main supplier is located there, has possession of the tooling assets, and manufactures the products.

a) The Company was advanced $190,665 by TransOptix in 2002 to pay for the Company's lease deposit of $50,000 and for leasehold improvements of $140,665 to its leased facility (see Note 10). Subsequent to December 31, 2002, TransOptix assigned its $190,665 receivable to a related party of the Company. During 2003, the advances made by TransOptix in 2002 were combined into a promissory note payable to the assignee dated July 1, 2003, with interest at 9.25% per annum due December 31, 2004. The note is secured by substantially all assets of the Company.

b) Other operating advances of $100,000 were made by the above related party note holder to the Company as of September 17, 2003. These advances are evidenced by a promissory note dated September 17, 2003, with interest at 10% per annum, due September 16, 2004.

c) In connection with the above notes payable, the Company issued warrants to purchase 290,665 shares of AC SI's common stock at $.50 per share. The intrinsic value of the warrants which were valued in accordance with APB No. 25, was $290,665 and is being accounted for as debt discount cost.

NOTE 9 DUE TO VENDOR

In 2002, the Company entered into an agreement with a manufacturing vendor whereby the vendor provided an unsecured line of credit of up to $1,000,000 to the Company for the purchase of raw materials and equipment. At December 31, 2002, the Company had utilized $160,000 of that credit line. The agreement also gave the vendor the option of converting the amounts due them into shares of common stock of the Company based upon an agreed upon formula, up to 18% of the Company's common shares. On October 16, 2003, the vendor converted the $160,000 due to them for 54,235 shares of the Company's common stock (See Note 12).

During 2002, the Company sold to this vendor $124,657 of equipment that had a cost basis of $57,557. The resulting gain of $67,100 has been reflected as other income in the 2002 Statement of Operations.

NOTE 10 COMMITMENT AND CONTINGENCIES

Edgar Filing: SPECTRE INDUSTRIES INC - Form 8-K

Operating Leases

The Company leases its office and facility through 2007 under a long term operating lease agreement. Under terms of the lease, the Company pays the cost of repairs and maintenance. The office and warehouse facility is shared with TransOptix. (see Note 4), who signed the lease as co-tenant with the Company. The Company and TransOptix have entered into an agreement stipulating each entities share of the rent, however, in event of default by TransOptix, the Company could contingently be liable for the full amount of the rent.

Future minimum lease commitments for the Company's share under this lease at December 31, 2003 are as follows:

Year Ended December 31,
2004	$102,270
2005	103,684
2006	106,382
2007	64,064
	-----
	$376,400

The total lease commitment as of December 31, 2003 for which the Company could be contingently liable in the event of default of TransOptix is $862,000. Rent expense for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 was $116,588 and $79,300 respectively.

NOTE 11 INCOME TAXES

As of December 31, 2003, the Company had federal net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $2,499,000 expiring in various years through 2023, which can be used to offset future taxable income, if any. No deferred tax asset benefit for these operating losses has been recognized in the financial statements due to the uncertainty as to their realization in future periods.

The Company's net deferred tax assets (using a federal corporate income rate of 34%) consisted of the following at December 31, 2003 and 2002:

	2003	2002
	-----	-----
Deferred tax asset, net operating loss carryforwards	$ 850,000	$ 810,000
Less valuation allowance	(850,000)	(810,000)
	-----	-----
Net deferred income tax asset	$ --	$ --
	=====	=====

As a result of the Company's significant operating loss carryforward and the corresponding valuation allowance, no federal income tax expense (benefit) has been recorded at December 31, 2003 and 2002.

NOTE 12 COMMON STOCK

Edgar Filing: SPECTRE INDUSTRIES INC - Form 8-K

On October 16, 2003, the Company issued 22,917 shares of its common stock to an employee in satisfaction for services rendered and accrued as of December 31, 2002. The shares were valued at $2.00 per share, or $ 45,834 in total, based upon the price from the most recent sale of the Company's common stock. The Company also converted a loan payable to a vendor in the amount of $160,000 for 54,235 shares of stock in connection with an agreement as discussed on Note 9.

NOTE 13 OPTIONS AND WARRANTS

Stock Option Plan

The Company has a stock option plan, which provides for the granting of options to employees, independent representatives and directors of the Company. The Company is authorized to issue 200,000 shares of common stock. The exercise price is fixed by the plan administrator. Under a formula contained in the plan's provisions, the options vest over four years upon the completion of service. The options expire ten years from the date of grant.

NOTE 13 OPTIONS AND WARRANTS (CONTINUED)

The Company has applied the disclosure provisions of SFAS No. 148, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation -- Transition and Disclosure -- An Amendment of FASB Statement No. 123," for the year ended December 31, 2003. Issued in December 2002, SFAS No. 148 amends SFAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation" to provide alternative methods of transition for a voluntary change to the fair value based method of accounting for stock-based compensation. In addition, SFAS No. 148 amends the disclosure requirements of SFAS No. 123 to require prominent disclosures in both annual and interim financial statements about the method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation and the effect of the method used on reported results. For the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, as there was no active public market or other indication of the value of the shares underlying the options, the Company has not assigned any additional fair market value to the options in excess of its intrinsic value calculated in accordance with APB No. 25. Accordingly, no supplemental pro forma disclosures are presented. For the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, the 136,500 of incentive stock options issued for common stock did not have any fair value using the Black-Scholes valuation model and therefore there are no pro forma compensation costs presented.

The following schedule summarizes the status of options outstanding at December 31, 2003 and 2002:

Warrants

During 2003, in conjunction with the issuance of certain notes payable (see Notes 7 and 8) the board of directors approved the issuance of warrants to purchase a total of 315,666 shares of the Company's common stock. The warrants are exercisable at $.50 per share, are fully vested upon issuance and expire in five years from issuance. The warrants had a total fair value of $315,666, which is being accounted for as notes payable-debt discount cost and is being amortized over the life of the related debt

NOTE 14 SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

On February 11, 2004, the Company signed a promissory note in the maximum amount of $500,000, of which $250,000 was borrowed when the note was executed. The note bears interest at 10% per annum, and is due on February 11, 2005. In connection with the loan, the Company issued 250,000 warrants to purchase the Company's common stock at a price of $.50 per share. The warrants are fully vested and expire on February 11, 2009.

On February 14, 2004, the board of directors approved an agreement and a plan of merger between the Company and Spectre Industries, Inc., (Spectre) a Nevada corporation. On May 24, 2004, Spectre entered into an agreement and plan of merger (the Merger) with the Company (the accounting acquirer). Spectre (the legal acquirer) issued 38,773,581 shares of common stock and warrants to purchase up to 79,535,549 shares of common stock to the shareholders of the Company in exchange for 100% of their common stock and transferred all of its assets to the Company. The Company assumed all of Spectre's liabilities, and the Company became a wholly owned subsidiary of Spectre. Subsequent to the Merger, the Company's stockholders became 65% owners of Spectre, which resulted in a change of control, and therefore, the Company is treated as the accounting acquirer. Immediately prior to the Merger, Spectre had nominal assets and limited business operation and accordingly, the Merger, which is similar to a reverse acquisition of Spectre by the Company, was accounted for as a recapitalization. Subsequent to the Merger, on June 8, 2004, the Company had a 1 for 15 reverse stock split that was approved by the board of directors.

Edgar Filing: SPECTRE INDUSTRIES INC - Form 8-K

On March 1, 2004, the Company granted stock options to an employee to purchase 10,000 shares of the Company's common stock for $.50 per share. The shares will vest over 4 years.
