Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

- (a) On June 28, 2005, and pursuant to a recommendation from its Audit Committee as a cost-effectiveness measure, the Board of Directors of Precision Optics Corporation Inc. (the "Company") dismissed KPMG LLP ("KPMG") as the independent registered public accounting firm for the Company.

The audit reports of KPMG on the Company's consolidated financial statements as of and for the years ended June 30, 2004 and 2003 contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were such reports modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles.

In connection with the audits of the two fiscal years ended June 30, 2004, and the subsequent interim period through June 28, 2005, there were (1) no disagreements with KPMG on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of KPMG, would have caused KPMG to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in their opinions, or (2) reportable events.

- (b) Effective June 28, 2005, the Audit Committee recommended and the Board of Directors approved the engagement of Vitale Caturano & Company Ltd. ("Vitale Caturano") as the Company's independent accountants for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2005, effective upon the final execution of an engagement letter. The Company's management and the members of the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors believe that the engagement of Vitale Caturano will permit the Company to obtain similar audit services at a lower cost to the Company.

During the two most recent fiscal years and through June 28, 2005, the Company did not consult with Vitale Caturano regarding the application of accounting principles to a specific completed or contemplated transaction, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements, or any other matter that was either the subject of disagreement or identified in response to Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-B.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
