Item 8.01 Other Events

On August 20, 2007, Worthington Industries, Inc. announced that the Worthington Steel business segment ("Worthington Steel"), had signed agreements related to the formation of joint ventures which will operate facilities in Slovakia and Mexico:

- o The Magnosto Group: Worthington Steel will join with The Magnosto Group to form a joint venture to operate a steel processing facility in Kosice, Slovakia. The transaction is expected to close in September 2007 with operations beginning shortly thereafter. The joint venture will perform Class 1 steel processing services such as slitting, blanking and cutting-to-length for customers throughout central Europe.
- o Serviacerro Planos: Worthington Steel will acquire a 50% interest in privately-held Serviacerro Planos. The joint venture, to be known as Serviacerro Worthington, will own and operate two existing Serviacerro Planos steel service centers in Leon and Queretaro in central Mexico, offering steel processing services such as slitting, multi-blanking and cutting-to-length to automotive, appliance and electronics related customers.
