Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

The information set forth in Item 2.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K is incorporated by reference into this Item 1.01.

Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On November 15, 2013, Oak Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (“Oak”), a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Akorn, Inc. (“Akorn” or “Company”), entered into a Stock and Asset Purchase and License Agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”) by and among Akorn, Merck & Co., Inc., Merck Sharp and Dohme Corp. (together with Merck & Co., Inc., “Merck”), and Inspire Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (“Inspire”), pursuant to which Oak acquired all of the outstanding stock of Inspire, and U.S. new drug application (“NDA”) registrations to three branded ophthalmic products, AzaSite®, Cosopt® and Cosopt® PF (“Products”). As part of the Inspire assets, Oak has acquired a Canadian registration (NDS) for AzaSite® which is expected to receive final marketing approval in the near future. The purchase consideration was $52.8 million, paid in cash at closing. The Purchase Agreement provides for a limited non-compete obligation in favor of the Company with respect to the Products.

Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, certain trademarks, patents and know-how related to Cosopt® and Cosopt® PF are being licensed to Oak by Merck, while certain trademarks, patents and know-how related to AzaSite® are being licensed to Oak (through Inspire) pursuant to an existing licensing agreement between Inspire and a third party (“AzaSite Licensing Agreement”).

The Purchase Agreement provides for a limited clawback (the amount of which decreases with time) in the event the AzaSite Licensing Agreement is terminated within three years from closing as a result of events occurring prior to closing. Merck has also agreed to indemnify the Company against any liabilities and losses related to the AzaSite Licensing Agreement arising out of certain actions that took place prior to closing. Notwithstanding the foregoing precautions, the Company anticipates being able to market AzaSite® for the foreseeable future.

As part of the Purchase Agreement, the Company assumed an open purchase order placed by Merck with a third party manufacturer of AzaSite® for the delivery of finished product in the first quarter of 2014 (“Purchase Order”). Should the contract manufacturer fail to deliver product in accordance with the specified timeline, Merck has agreed to provide partial reimbursement to the Company subject to a cap and other customary conditions.

The Purchase Agreement contains standard and customary representations and warranties, covenants and indemnities, including with respect to claims related to actions taken or events occurring prior to closing. The Company has not assumed any material pre-closing obligations under the Purchase Agreement outside of existing licensing, supply and customer agreements with respect to AzaSite®, including the Purchase Order. Concurrent with signing the Purchase Agreement, the parties entered into a Transition Services Agreement and a two-year Supply Agreement related to the Products, both subject to customary terms and conditions. Akorn, Inc. has guaranteed performance of Oak’s obligations, including with respect to payments, under the Purchase Agreement, the Transition Services Agreement and the Supply Agreement.

The foregoing description of the material terms of the Purchase Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Purchase Agreement, a copy of which is included as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference. The Purchase Agreement was filed to provide investors and security holders with information regarding the terms, provisions, conditions, and covenants of that agreement and is not intended to provide any other factual information respecting the acquired assets. In particular, the Purchase Agreement contains representations and warranties made to and solely for the benefit of the parties thereto, allocating among themselves various risks of the transactions. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are qualified or modified by information in disclosure schedules that the parties exchanged upon execution of the Purchase Agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may have changed after the date of the Purchase Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in our public disclosures. Security holders are not third-party beneficiaries under the Purchase Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the acquired assets.
