(d) On September 1, 2016, Halozyme Therapeutics, Inc. (the “Company”) announced that Mark J. Gergen has been appointed to serve as the Company’s Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer effective immediately.

From February 2013 until August 2016, Mr. Gergen, age 54, served as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer at Mirati Therapeutics, Inc., a clinical-stage biopharmaceutical company focused on developing a pipeline of targeted oncology products. From May 2005 to November 2012, Mr. Gergen served in senior management positions, including most recently as Senior Vice President, Corporate Development, at Amylin Pharmaceutical, Inc., a biopharmaceutical company that was focused on the development and commercialization of medicines to treat chronic diseases. Mr. Gergen received a J.D. from the University of Minnesota Law School and a B.A. in Business Administration from Minot State University.

There are no family relationships between Mr. Gergen and any director, executive officer or person nominated or chosen by the Company to become a director or executive officer. Mr. Gergen does not have a direct or indirect material interest in any transaction or arrangement in which the Company is a participant.

Mr. Gergen will be paid an annual base salary of $435,000 and he will be eligible to participate in the Company’s executive officer incentive plans, with a 2016 bonus target equal to 45% of his prorated base salary. Upon joining the Company, Mr. Gergen received a stock option grant for 333,890 shares of common stock. The option grant will vest on the Company’s standard four year vesting schedule.

On September 1, 2016, the Company issued a press release announcing the appointment of Mr. Gergen as Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.
