Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

No funds were borrowed by the Reporting Persons or any related entity for the acquisition of FSP Common Stock.

On April 30, 2005, FSP Corp. completed its acquisition of four real estate investment trusts (collectively, the "Target REITs"), each a Delaware corporation. The acquisitions were completed pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of August 13, 2004 (the "Merger Agreement"), by and among FSP Corp., certain acquisition subsidiaries of FSP Corp. and the Target REITs.

Upon consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, each Target REIT was merged with and into an acquisition subsidiary of FSP Corp., with such acquisition subsidiary as the surviving corporation (the "Mergers"). Under the terms of the Merger Agreement each outstanding share of stock ("Target Stock") of each respective Target REIT, as of August 13, 2004, was converted into a specified number of shares of Common Stock.

In connection with the Mergers, FSP Corp. reserved for issuance an aggregate of approximately 10,894,994 shares of Common Stock. Based on the capitalization of FSP Corp. as of the effective date of the Mergers, the Common Stock reserved for issuance to the Target REIT stockholders represented approximately 18% of the outstanding shares of FSP Common Stock.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, such shares of Target Stock converted into 962,374 shares of FSP Common Stock upon consummation of the Mergers. SILP III currently owns 4,090,580 shares of Common Stock. S.B. Investment Management, Inc. is also the general partner of Silverstein Investments Limited Partnership II. S.B. Investment Management, Inc., as general partner, and Mr. Blechner, as president of the general partner, indirectly own the 1,010,169 shares of Common Stock held by Silverstein Investments Limited Partnership II. S.B. Investment Management, Inc. and Mr. Blechner indirectly beneficially own a total of 5,100,749 shares of Common Stock.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, such shares of Target Stock converted into 1,022,210 shares of FSP Common Stock upon consummation of the Mergers. Mr. Silverstein was not an officer or director of any Target REIT. Mr. Silverstein's ownership is due to his participation in the following limited partnerships:

- o JMB Family Limited Partnership, of which Mr. Silverstein is general partner, owned 3.5 shares of Target Stock prior to the Mergers. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, such shares of Target Stock converted into 20,920 shares of Common Stock. JMB Family Limited

THE SILVERSTEIN FLP 2002, LTD

IRREVOCABLE TRUST OF 2003

THIS AGREEMENT, made and executed in duplicate this 12th day of December 2003 is by and between Silverstein Family Limited Partnership 2002, as the Settlor, and BARRY SILVERSTEIN as the Trustee.

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Settlor desires to establish, effective immediately, a trust under all of the provisions of this Agreement, and the Trustee is willing to act as Trustee hereunder.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties do hereby agree and declare as follows:

ARTICLE I. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO THE TRUST

A. Initial Transfer to Trust. The Settlor irrevocably assigns, transfers, and delivers to the Trustee all the rights, powers, interests, and benefits which the Settlor now has or hereafter may have in all of the property described in Schedule A annexed hereto, and the Trustee agrees to hold, manage, and dispose of the trust property in the manner and subject to the provisions contained in this Agreement.

B. Additional Transfers to Trust. The Settlor may from time to time irrevocably assign, transfer, and deliver additional property to the Trustee with the consent of the Trustee, which property shall be held, managed, and disposed of by the Trustee in the manner and subject to the provisions contained in this Agreement.

ARTICLE II. TRUSTEE SUCCESSION

A. Successor Trustee. It is the Settlor's intention BARRY SILVERSTEIN shall serve as sole Trustee under this Agreement until the first to occur of the Settlor's death or the expiration of the Trust Term, as hereinafter defined. Should BARRY SILVERSTEIN fail to qualify or cease to serve as Trustee hereunder for any reason, then a majority of the beneficiaries then entitled or permitted to receive the income of such trust and the presumptive remaindermen of such trust, or the legal or natural guardian of any of them who is then under a legal disability, shall appoint an individual or a corporate fiduciary to serve as Trustee of such trust.

B. Power to Appoint Co-Trustee or Successor Trustee. Any individual Trustee at any time serving shall have the power to appoint an individual or a corporate fiduciary to serve as successor Trustee to him or her. In addition, all of the then acting Trustees of a trust shall, by unanimous vote, have the power to appoint an individual or a corporate fiduciary to serve as Co-Trustee of such trust. If at any time there is no Trustee serving hereunder, then a majority of the beneficiaries (other than the Settlor) then entitled or permitted to receive the income of such trust and the presumptive remaindermen of such trust, or the legal or natural guardian (other than the Settlor) of any of them who is then under a legal disability, shall appoint an individual or a corporate fiduciary to serve as successor Trustee of such trust.

C. Removal of Corporate Trustee. Any corporate Trustee may be removed from office at any time by (1) the individual Trustee or Trustees then serving, by unanimous vote, or, if none, then by (2) a majority of the beneficiaries (other than the Settlor) entitled or permitted to receive the income of such trust and the presumptive remaindermen of such trust, or the legal or natural guardian (other than the Settlor) of any of them who is then under a legal disability. In the event of the resignation or removal of the corporate Trustee of a trust, the person or persons having the power of removal shall appoint a successor corporate Trustee who is authorized to exercise trust powers either under the law of the jurisdiction where such corporate Trustee is located or under the national banking laws enacted by the Congress of the United States.

D. Right to Resign. Without limitation as to any other method of resignation, any Trustee may resign as Trustee of any trust by giving prior written notice of such intention to do so to the Co-Trustee(s), if any, and to the beneficiaries entitled or permitted to receive the income of such trust and the presumptive remaindermen of such trust, or to the legal or natural guardian of any of them who is then under a legal disability. In the event of such resignation, the person or persons to whom such notice of resignation shall have been given may, without liability to any person, approve the accounts of and give a complete release and discharge to such resigning Trustee. Any Trustee who resigns shall not receive any termination fee or commission that might otherwise be payable by reason of termination of the trust or distribution of the trust principal.

E. Method of Appointing or Removing Trustees. Any appointment or removal of a Trustee (1) shall be made by a written instrument executed with the formality required of a deed for the conveyance of real estate; (2) shall take effect at the time and upon the conditions set forth in the instrument of appointment or removal, subject, however, to the written acceptance of the appointee (in the case of an appointment); and (3) may be revoked by a like instrument at any time before the appointment or removal shall take effect.

F. Powers Exercisable by Third Party. The right to remove and/or appoint a Trustee and the right to approve accountings and give a release to a resigning Trustee shall be exercisable on behalf of any person by the holder of a durable power of attorney (other than the Settlor) from that person or by the legal or natural guardian (other than the Settlor) of any person who is then under a legal disability.

G. Majority Rules. Unless expressly provided to the contrary in this Article, if the right to appoint a Trustee shall be exercisable by two (2) persons collectively, this right shall be exercisable only by the unanimous agreement of both of them. If the right to appoint a Trustee shall be exercisable by three (3) or more persons collectively, the decision of a majority of them shall control.

H. No Bond Required. No Trustee at any time serving in any jurisdiction shall be required to furnish any bond or other security for the faithful performance of the office of Trustee hereunder, qualify before any court, register the trust, or file an accounting in any court as a condition for the exercise of any of the powers and discretions herein conferred upon the Trustee. This Paragraph shall not affect the right of any beneficiary hereunder to require an accounting.

I. Restrictions on Whom May Serve As Trustee. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, during the lifetime of the Settlor, the Settlor may not serve as a Trustee hereunder or exercise any other rights under this Article.

ARTICLE III. TRUST IRREVOCABLE

This Agreement and any trust created hereunder are irrevocable and unamendable. The Settlor expressly waives all rights and powers, whether alone or in conjunction with others, to alter, amend, revoke, or terminate this Trust Agreement in whole or in part.

ARTICLE IV. DISTRIBUTION OF TRUST ESTATE DURING THE TRUST TERM

A. Trust Term. The Trust shall terminate on the first to occur of the dissolution of the Settlor or January 31, 2004 (the "Trust Term"). During the Trust Term, the Trustee may pay to or for the benefit of the Settlor so much or all of the net income and principal of the Trust as the Trustee, in the Trustee's discretion, deems to be for the best interest of the Settlor. Any net income not paid or applied shall be accumulated and added to the principal of the Trust at least annually.

B. Automatic Renewal. Anything in Paragraph IV.A to the contrary notwithstanding, during the existence of the Settlor, this Agreement shall automatically renew for successive one (1) year terms on January 31st of each year unless the Settlor delivers to the Trustee written notice of the Settlor's intention not to renew, no later than forty (40) days before the termination of the then current term of this Agreement.

ARTICLE V. DISPOSITION OF TRUST UPON EXPIRATION OF TRUST TERM

A. Expiration of Trust Term while Settlor Remains in Existence. Upon the expiration of the Trust Term during while the Settlor remains in existence, the remaining trust property shall be distributed to the Settlor, outright and free of trust.

B. Expiration of Trust Term After Dissolution of the Settlor. Upon the dissolution of the Settlor's during the Trust Term, the remaining trust property shall be distributed to or among or for the benefit of such individuals, corporations, charities qualified under ss.501(c)(3) of the Code, or other entities that owned an interest in the Settlor at the time Settlor was dissolved, in proportion to each such interest holder's proportionate ownership of Settlor.

ARTICLE VI. AS TO THE TRUSTEE

A. Situs and Governing Law. This Agreement and each trust established hereunder shall have an initial situs in the State of Florida and shall be governed by the laws of the State of Florida. The Trustee may, in the Trustee's discretion, change the situs of any trust established hereunder to a jurisdiction other than the State of Florida. A change of situs shall not affect the validity or construction of any trust hereunder or create in any beneficiary any right or power other than those to which such beneficiary was then entitled in the State of Florida.

B. Certification Regarding Prior Administration. Any successor Trustee is specifically authorized to accept the trust assets as the same may be certified to such Trustee by any prior Trustee or as may be approved by the beneficiaries then entitled or permitted to receive the income of such trusts (or the legal or natural guardian of any of them who is then under a legal disability), without the necessity of a full accounting or inquiry into the prior administration of the trust by any prior Trustee.

C. Delegation of Powers. Any Trustee may delegate to another Trustee the right to exercise any power (discretionary, administrative, or otherwise) by an acknowledged instrument and may revoke the delegation at any time by delivery of an acknowledged instrument to such other Trustee.

D. Termination of Fiduciary Capacity. Any individual Trustee shall be deemed to have ceased to serve as Trustee of a trust upon the first to occur of the following:

1. Unable to Manage Financial Affairs. Receipt by the remaining Trustee(s), if any, and by the beneficiaries then entitled or permitted to receive the income of such trust (or the legal or natural guardian of any of them who is then under a legal disability) of a certificate or letter from a medical doctor stating that he or she is the individual Trustee's physician and that, because of illness or incapacity of any kind of said individual Trustee, the Trustee is unable to manage financial affairs; or
2. Appointment of Guardian. Upon the appointment of a guardian of the person or property or conservator of such individual Trustee; or
3. Death or Resignation. Upon the death or resignation of such individual Trustee.

E. Custody of Trust Estate. While acting hereunder, the corporate Trustee

(or its agent) shall have the sole custody of the assets constituting the trust estate and each trust or share thereof, and shall be responsible for the maintenance of adequate records reflecting the condition of the trust and the income and expenses thereof. Such records shall be open at all times to inspection by the individual Trustee, if any, or by the respective beneficiaries of the trust, or the legal representatives or attorneys of such persons.

F. Trustee Compensation. Any corporate Trustee shall receive compensation as determined by its standard fee schedule in effect and applicable at the time of the performance of its services, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the corporate Trustee. If no such schedule shall be in effect at that time or if no such writing exists, it shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for the services rendered. Any Trustee shall be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in serving as Trustee.

G. Trustee Exonerated. The Trustee shall be responsible for only due diligence in the administration and disbursement of any trust created hereunder and shall not be responsible for any loss or subject to any liability except by reason of the Trustee's own negligence or willful default proved by affirmative evidence. Every election, determination, or other exercise by the Trustee of any discretion granted to the Trustee, expressly or by implication under this Agreement or by law made in good faith, shall fully protect the Trustee and shall be conclusive and binding upon all persons. This Paragraph shall be binding on all interested parties hereunder, and the Trustee shall be indemnified and held harmless by the trust estate for any claim, demand, or suit arising with respect to any decision of the Trustee in the administration of the trust estate other than for the Trustee's gross negligence.

ARTICLE VII. ADMINISTRATIVE POWERS OF TRUSTEE

The Trustee shall have the following powers in addition to all powers now or hereafter conferred upon trustees by law:

A. Invest Trust Property. To invest and reinvest the trust property in property of any character, foreign or domestic, specifically including, but not limited to, real estate, business enterprises of any nature, investment partnerships, stocks, bonds, notes, debentures, warrants, puts, calls, options, futures contracts, trust receipts, commodities, leases, contracts, United States securities, interests in trusts, money market funds, mutual funds, common trust funds (including those maintained by any corporate trustee or any affiliate thereof), repurchase agreements, and securities exempt from income tax (notwithstanding that higher yields may be obtained by investment in securities not so exempt), or in any other property or undivided interests in property, wherever located, without being limited by any statute or rule of law concerning investments by trustees and without any requirement for diversification;

B. Margin Account Usage. The Trustee shall have the discretion to establish, maintain, make investments on margin, and use a margin investment account for such purposes as the Trustee deems reasonable and prudent. No person dealing with the Trustee need see to the use or application of margin proceeds nor place limitations or restrictions upon the Trustee in the maintenance of a margin account;

C. Retain Trust Assets. To retain as a part of any trust any and all assets transferred to or acquired by the Trustee, so long as the Trustee deems it appropriate to do so, regardless of whether said assets are the kind and class authorized by law for the investment of trust funds and without regard to principles of diversification;

D. Establish Bank and Brokerage Accounts. To retain principal and income cash funds in interest and non-interest bearing checking, savings, money market, brokerage, and NOW accounts, for such reasonable period of time as the Trustee may determine, pending investment or distribution to the beneficiaries hereunder;

E. Deal In Real or Personal Property. With respect to any interest in real or personal property, (i) to lease, including, without limitation, the power to negotiate a lease and execute a lease; (ii) to exchange; (iii) to sell and convey, including, without limitation, the power to locate a purchaser, to accept and execute a contract for sale, and to execute deeds, bills of sale, and other closing documents necessary or advisable in the discretion of the Trustee; or (iv) to make any other disposition in public or private transactions deemed necessary or advisable in the discretion of the Trustee. No notice to or the consent of any beneficiary shall be required for any action taken under this Paragraph, and the Trustee shall be entitled to employ brokers and agents and pay them reasonable compensation for such purposes;

F. Borrow and Lend Money. R. Employ Professionals. To employ investment counsel, accountants, depositories, custodians, brokers, consultants, agents, attorneys, and other employees, irrespective of whether any person so employed shall be a Trustee hereunder and irrespective of whether any firm or corporation so employed shall be one in which a Trustee hereunder shall be a partner, stockholder, member, officer, or director, or shall have any interest, and to pay the usual compensation for his, her, its, or their services out of principal or income as may be deemed appropriate; and such compensation may be paid without diminution of or charging the same against the commissions or compensation of any Trustee hereunder; and any Trustee who shall be a partner, stockholder, member, officer, or director in any such firm or corporation shall nevertheless receive his share of the compensation paid to such firm or corporation;

T. Transfer Assets to Alternative Situs. To transfer the assets of any trust for purposes of administration to another situs and to appoint, if necessary, as a special Trustee, any individual or corporation authorized under the laws of the United States or any state to administer or to co-administer such trust and to remove any special Trustee and reappoint themselves;

U. Incorporate Business. To continue to operate or participate in the operation of any unincorporated business for as long as the Trustee deems appropriate to so do; to incorporate or to participate in the incorporation of any business, and to operate such newly incorporated business; and to liquidate, merge, consolidate, spin-off, or reorganize any business in such manner and upon such terms as the Trustee deems appropriate;

V. Conduct Business Interests. W. Divide Trusts. To divide any trust into separate trusts for any purpose, such as allocating the generation-skipping transfer tax exemption so that one or more of these trusts is entirely exempt from the federal generation-skipping transfer tax, or electing to treat a separate trust as qualified terminable interest property for federal estate tax purposes; and, in investing and making distributions from the separate trusts, the Trustee shall consider the tax saving opportunities afforded by the existence of separate trusts;

X. Direct Distribution if Trust Not Operative. To distribute property directly to the beneficiary of a trust, without the interposition of such trust, if at the time of distribution the circumstances are such that the trust would have been paid out to the beneficiary immediately upon funding of the trust;

Y. Collapse of Trust. If at any time the Trustee, in the Trustee's absolute discretion, shall determine that it is uneconomical or not in the best interest of the beneficiaries to continue any trust created hereunder, the Trustee, in the Trustee's absolute discretion, may terminate such trust and distribute the trust property to the person or persons, or to the legal representative of such person or persons, then entitled or permitted to receive or have the benefit of the income therefrom. If there is more than one income beneficiary, the Trustee shall make such distribution to such income beneficiaries in the proportion in which they are beneficiaries or, if no proportion is designated, in equal shares to such beneficiaries. This power shall not be exercised by any Trustee who is also a beneficiary of such trust;

Z. Pool Assets. To pool the assets of any or all trusts hereunder for investment purposes, allocating to each trust an undivided interest in all assets so held; and to merge any trust with any other trust held by the Trustee, whether created by a Guardian or by any other person by Will or Deed, if the terms thereof are substantially similar and held for the primary benefit of the same persons;

AA. Purchase Policies of Insurance. To purchase new or existing policies of insurance, from any source, on the life of any person;

BB. Sell or Purchase Assets to or from Settlor's Estate. To sell or purchase, at the fair market value as determined by the Trustee, and to lend or borrow, at an adequate rate of interest and with adequate security and upon such terms and conditions as the Trustee deems fair and equitable, any property to or from the Settlor's estate, the Settlor's spouse's estate, or any trust created by the Settlor or the Settlor's spouse during life or by Will, even though the same person or corporation may be acting as Personal Representative of the Settlor's estate or of the Settlor's spouse's estate or as Trustee of any such trust and as Trustee of this Trust.

ARTICLE VIII. BENEFICIARY UNDER DISABILITY

A. Minors. If any property shall become distributable to a minor, it shall vest absolutely in the minor, but the Trustee may retain such property with all of the rights, powers, duties, and discretions which are herein granted to the Trustee elsewhere in this Agreement. In that event, the Trustee shall invest and reinvest such property and pay to or apply for the benefit of the minor so much or all of the net income and principal of such retained property as the Trustee deems appropriate for the minor's best interests, accumulating any net income not so paid or applied and adding such accumulated net income to principal, at least annually. When the minor attains majority, the Trustee shall distribute such retained property as then constituted to the minor. If the minor dies before attaining majority, the Trustee shall distribute such retained property to the deceased minor's estate.

B. Adult Beneficiary. If in the opinion of the Trustee any adult beneficiary is unable to properly disburse the income or principal to which the beneficiary may be entitled, the Trustee may retain such property and pay to or apply for the benefit of the beneficiary all or part of such income or principal as the Trustee deems advisable in the best interest of the beneficiary.

C. Application to Beneficiary. In applying income or principal for the benefit of any beneficiary, the Trustee is authorized in the Trustee's discretion to expend such amounts for the best interest of the beneficiary in one or more of the following methods as the Trustee deems appropriate:

1. Minor, Incompetent or Incapacitated Beneficiary. By delivering any such amount to the natural, general, or testamentary guardian of any beneficiary, or to a custodian for any beneficiary under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act or similar law, or to any individual or entity having the care, custody, or control of any such beneficiary, or with whom such beneficiary may reside, or to the committee, guardian, or conservator of any beneficiary who shall have been adjudicated an incompetent; or
2. Beneficiary. By delivering any such amount to such beneficiary, personally; or
3. Beneficiary's Behalf. By making direct expenditures for the best interest of such beneficiary.

Edgar Filing: SILVERSTEIN BARRY - Form SC 13D/A

D. Payment. The receipt of any such guardian, custodian, committee, conservator, individual, entity, or beneficiary, or evidence of such payment or expenditure of any such amount, shall be a full and sufficient discharge to the Trustee for the payment or expenditure thereof, and the Trustee shall be exonerated from all liability and responsibility by reason of any amount so delivered, paid, or expended irrespective of the application or use thereof that may be made by any such person; and the Trustee shall have no duty to see to the application of any such amount.

ARTICLE IX. RESTRICTIONS, LIMITATIONS, AND POWERS REGARDING THE TRUST, TRUSTEE, AND BENEFICIARIES

A. Perpetuities. Regardless of any contrary provision of this Agreement, no assets shall be held in trust for a period longer than the longest statutory period permitted under the applicable rule against perpetuities, as it is then in force and effect, and, upon the expiration of such period, all such trusts shall terminate, and the Trustee shall distribute the trust property to the person or persons, or to the legal representative of such person or persons, then entitled or permitted to receive or have the benefit of the income therefrom. If there is more than one income beneficiary, the Trustee shall make such distribution to such income beneficiaries in the proportion in which they are beneficiaries or, if no proportion is designated, in equal shares to such beneficiaries.

B. Restrictions on Individual Trustee. No individual Trustee, who is also a beneficiary of any trust, shall participate in the exercise of any discretion granted to the Trustee to (i) pay or apply the net income or principal of such trust to or for the benefit of himself or herself, including the termination of such trust, except to provide for his or her health, education, maintenance, or support as set forth under ss.ss.2041(b)(1)(A) and 2514(c)(1) of the Code; or (ii) to exercise any discretion with respect to crediting or charging any item to income or principal otherwise than as provided by law. In addition, any Trustee who is under a legal obligation to support a beneficiary of any trust shall not participate in the exercise of any discretion granted to the Trustee to pay or apply the net income or principal of such trust in discharge of that legal obligation.

C. Restrictions on Beneficiaries. No beneficiary of any trust shall have any right or power to pledge, assign, sell, transfer, or encumber his or her interest in any trust hereunder, nor shall any such interest be liable for or subject to the debts, judgments, or other obligations of such beneficiary or to claims of any sort against such beneficiary.

D. Power of Appointment.

1. Power to Appoint to Creditors. If a trust under this Agreement would, but for the provisions of this Paragraph, be liable for generation-skipping tax at the death of a beneficiary, such beneficiary shall have the power to appoint to such beneficiary's creditors, by a Will expressly referring to and exercising this power, the smallest fractional share of such trust that would reduce to the minimum the aggregate estate, inheritance, succession, and generation-skipping taxes payable upon such beneficiary's death, assuming no deductions are allowed with respect to the appointive property.

2. Payment of Taxes. If any beneficiary under this Agreement incurs any estate or inheritance tax liability due to the inclusion of a portion or all of a trust established hereunder in the beneficiary's gross estate for federal estate tax purposes by reason of a power of appointment, then any such tax attributable to such power of appointment shall be paid from such beneficiary's separate trust prior to being distributed to the remainder beneficiaries of such trust. The tax attributable to such power of appointment shall be the excess of (1) the total amount of all federal and state estate, inheritance, succession, and other death taxes, together with any acquirer's taxes, including interest and penalties thereon, imposed upon such beneficiary's estate (or imposed as an acquirer's tax on any beneficiary) over (2) the amount of such taxes, interest, and penalties that would have been imposed if no part of such power of appointment property had been included in the beneficiary's gross estate for purposes of any such tax.

E. Prohibitions. No person shall purchase, exchange, or otherwise deal with or dispose of the principal or income of the Trust for less than an adequate consideration in money or money's worth, nor shall any person borrow the principal or income of the trust estate, directly or indirectly, without adequate interest or security.

ARTICLE X. SURVIVORSHIP CLAUSE

A. Beneficiaries. If any beneficiary dies within ninety (90) days after the death of the Settlor, then for purposes of applying and interpreting this Agreement such beneficiary shall be deemed conclusively to have predeceased the Settlor.

B. Beneficiary Whose Life Measures Duration of a Trust. If any person whose life measures the duration of a trust hereunder and any succeeding trust beneficiary, including any remainderman of such trust, die under such circumstances that there is reasonable doubt as to who died first, then for purposes of applying and interpreting this Agreement such person whose life measures the duration of such trust shall be deemed conclusively to have survived such succeeding trust beneficiary or remainderman, as the case may be.

THE JMB FAMILY LIMITED PARTNERSHIP

IRREVOCABLE TRUST OF 2003

THIS AGREEMENT, made and executed in duplicate this 12th day of December, 2003 is by and between JMB Family Limited Partnership, as the Settlor, and BARRY SILVERSTEIN as the Trustee.

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Settlor desires to establish, effective immediately, a trust under all of the provisions of this Agreement, and the Trustee is willing to act as Trustee hereunder.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties do hereby agree and declare as follows:

ARTICLE I. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO THE TRUST

A. Initial Transfer to Trust. The Settlor irrevocably assigns, transfers, and delivers to the Trustee all the rights, powers, interests, and benefits which the Settlor now has or hereafter may have in all of the property described in Schedule A annexed hereto, and the Trustee agrees to hold, manage, and dispose of the trust property in the manner and subject to the provisions contained in this Agreement.

B. Additional Transfers to Trust. The Settlor may from time to time irrevocably assign, transfer, and deliver additional property to the Trustee with the consent of the Trustee, which property shall be held, managed, and disposed of by the Trustee in the manner and subject to the provisions contained in this Agreement.

ARTICLE II. TRUSTEE SUCCESSION

A. Successor Trustee. It is the Settlor's intention BARRY SILVERSTEIN shall serve as sole Trustee under this Agreement until the first to occur of the Settlor's death or the expiration of the Trust Term, as hereinafter defined. Should BARRY SILVERSTEIN fail to qualify or cease to serve as Trustee hereunder for any reason, then a majority of the beneficiaries then entitled or permitted to receive the income of such trust and the presumptive remaindermen of such trust, or the legal or natural guardian of any of them who is then under a legal disability, shall appoint an individual or a corporate fiduciary to serve as Trustee of such trust.

B. Power to Appoint Co-Trustee or Successor Trustee. Any individual Trustee at any time serving shall have the power to appoint an individual or a corporate fiduciary to serve as successor Trustee to him or her. In addition, all of the then acting Trustees of a trust shall, by unanimous vote, have the power to appoint an individual or a corporate fiduciary to serve as Co-Trustee of such trust. If at any time there is no Trustee serving hereunder, then a majority of the beneficiaries (other than the Settlor) then entitled or permitted to receive the income of such trust and the presumptive remaindermen of such trust, or the legal or natural guardian (other than the Settlor) of any of them who is then under a legal disability, shall appoint an individual or a corporate fiduciary to serve as successor Trustee of such trust.

C. Removal of Corporate Trustee. Any corporate Trustee may be removed from office at any time by (1) the individual Trustee or Trustees then serving, by unanimous vote, or, if none, then by (2) a majority of the beneficiaries (other than the Settlor) entitled or permitted to receive the income of such trust and the presumptive remaindermen of such trust, or the legal or natural guardian (other than the Settlor) of any of them who is then under a legal disability. In the event of the resignation or removal of the corporate Trustee of a trust, the person or persons having the power of removal shall appoint a successor corporate Trustee who is authorized to exercise trust powers either under the law of the jurisdiction where such corporate Trustee is located or under the national banking laws enacted by the Congress of the United States.

D. Right to Resign. Without limitation as to any other method of resignation, any Trustee may resign as Trustee of any trust by giving prior written notice of such intention to do so to the Co-Trustee(s), if any, and to the beneficiaries entitled or permitted to receive the income of such trust and the presumptive remaindermen of such trust, or to the legal or natural guardian of any of them who is then under a legal disability. In the event of such resignation, the person or persons to whom such notice of resignation shall have been given may, without liability to any person, approve the accounts of and give a complete release and discharge to such resigning Trustee. Any Trustee who resigns shall not receive any termination fee or commission that might otherwise be payable by reason of termination of the trust or distribution of the trust principal.

E. Method of Appointing or Removing Trustees. Any appointment or removal of a Trustee (1) shall be made by a written instrument executed with the formality required of a deed for the conveyance of real estate; (2) shall take effect at the time and upon the conditions set forth in the instrument of appointment or removal, subject, however, to the written acceptance of the appointee (in the case of an appointment); and (3) may be revoked by a like instrument at any time before the appointment or removal shall take effect.

F. Powers Exercisable by Third Party. The right to remove and/or appoint a Trustee and the right to approve accountings and give a release to a resigning Trustee shall be exercisable on behalf of any person by the holder of a durable power of attorney (other than the Settlor) from that person or by the legal or natural guardian (other than the Settlor) of any person who is then under a legal disability.

G. Majority Rules. Unless expressly provided to the contrary in this Article, if the right to appoint a Trustee shall be exercisable by two (2) persons collectively, this right shall be exercisable only by the unanimous agreement of both of them. If the right to appoint a Trustee shall be exercisable by three (3) or more persons collectively, the decision of a majority of them shall control.

H. No Bond Required. No Trustee at any time serving in any jurisdiction shall be required to furnish any bond or other security for the faithful performance of the office of Trustee hereunder, qualify before any court, register the trust, or file an accounting in any court as a condition for the exercise of any of the powers and discretions herein conferred upon the Trustee. This Paragraph shall not affect the right of any beneficiary hereunder to require an accounting.

Edgar Filing: SILVERSTEIN BARRY - Form SC 13D/A

I. Restrictions on Whom May Serve As Trustee. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, during the lifetime of the Settlor, the Settlor may not serve as a Trustee hereunder or exercise any other rights under this Article.

ARTICLE III. TRUST IRREVOCABLE

This Agreement and any trust created hereunder are irrevocable and unamendable. The Settlor expressly waives all rights and powers, whether alone or in conjunction with others, to alter, amend, revoke, or terminate this Trust Agreement in whole or in part.

ARTICLE IV. DISTRIBUTION OF TRUST ESTATE DURING THE TRUST TERM

A. Trust Term. The Trust shall terminate on the first to occur of the dissolution of the Settlor or January 31, 2004 (the "Trust Term"). During the Trust Term, the Trustee may pay to or for the benefit of the Settlor so much or all of the net income and principal of the Trust as the Trustee, in the Trustee's discretion, deems to be for the best interest of the Settlor. Any net income not paid or applied shall be accumulated and added to the principal of the Trust at least annually.

B. Automatic Renewal. Anything in Paragraph IV.A to the contrary notwithstanding, during the existence of the Settlor, this Agreement shall automatically renew for successive one (1) year terms on January 31st of each year unless the Settlor delivers to the Trustee written notice of the Settlor's intention not to renew, no later than forty (40) days before the termination of the then current term of this Agreement.

ARTICLE V. DISPOSITION OF TRUST UPON EXPIRATION OF TRUST TERM

A. Expiration of Trust Term while Settlor Remains in Existence. Upon the expiration of the Trust Term during while the Settlor remains in existence, the remaining trust property shall be distributed to the Settlor, outright and free of trust.

B. Expiration of Trust Term After Dissolution of the Settlor. Upon the dissolution of the Settlor's during the Trust Term, the remaining trust property shall be distributed to or among or for the benefit of such individuals, corporations, charities qualified under ss.501(c)(3) of the Code, or other entities that owned an interest in the Settlor at the time Settlor was dissolved, in proportion to each such interest holder's proportionate ownership of Settlor.

ARTICLE VI. AS TO THE TRUSTEE

A. Situs and Governing Law. This Agreement and each trust established hereunder shall have an initial situs in the State of Florida and shall be governed by the laws of the State of Florida. The Trustee may, in the Trustee's discretion, change the situs of any trust established hereunder to a jurisdiction other than the State of Florida. A change of situs shall not affect the validity or construction of any trust hereunder or create in any beneficiary any right or power other than those to which such beneficiary was then entitled in the State of Florida.

B. Certification Regarding Prior Administration. Any successor Trustee is specifically authorized to accept the trust assets as the same may be certified to such Trustee by any prior Trustee or as may be approved by the beneficiaries then entitled or permitted to receive the income of such trusts (or the legal or natural guardian of any of them who is then under a legal disability), without the necessity of a full accounting or inquiry into the prior administration of the trust by any prior Trustee.

C. Delegation of Powers. Any Trustee may delegate to another Trustee the right to exercise any power (discretionary, administrative, or otherwise) by an acknowledged instrument and may revoke the delegation at any time by delivery of an acknowledged instrument to such other Trustee.

D. Termination of Fiduciary Capacity. Any individual Trustee shall be deemed to have ceased to serve as Trustee of a trust upon the first to occur of the following:

1. Unable to Manage Financial Affairs. Receipt by the remaining Trustee(s), if any, and by the beneficiaries then entitled or permitted to receive the income of such trust (or the legal or natural guardian of any of them who is then under a legal disability) of a certificate or letter from a medical doctor stating that he or she is the individual Trustee's physician and that, because of illness or incapacity of any kind of said individual Trustee, the Trustee is unable to manage financial affairs; or
2. Appointment of Guardian. Upon the appointment of a guardian of the person or property or conservator of such individual Trustee; or
3. Death or Resignation. Upon the death or resignation of such individual Trustee.

E. Custody of Trust Estate. While acting hereunder, the corporate Trustee (or its agent) shall have the sole custody of the assets constituting the trust estate and each trust or share thereof, and shall be responsible for the maintenance of adequate records reflecting the condition of the trust and the income and expenses thereof. Such records shall be open at all times to inspection by the individual Trustee, if any, or by the respective beneficiaries of the trust, or the legal representatives or attorneys of such persons.

F. Trustee Compensation. Any corporate Trustee shall receive compensation as determined by its standard fee schedule in effect and applicable at the time of the performance of its services, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the corporate Trustee. If no such schedule shall be in effect at that time or if no such writing exists, it shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for the services rendered. Any Trustee shall be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in serving as Trustee.

G. Trustee Exonerated. The Trustee shall be responsible for only due diligence in the administration and disbursement of any trust created hereunder and shall not be responsible for any loss or subject to any liability except by reason of the Trustee's own negligence or willful default proved by affirmative evidence. Every election, determination, or other exercise by the Trustee of any discretion granted to the Trustee, expressly or by implication under this Agreement or by law made in good faith, shall fully protect the Trustee and shall be conclusive and binding upon all persons. This Paragraph shall be binding on all interested parties hereunder, and the Trustee shall be indemnified and held harmless by the trust estate for any claim, demand, or suit arising with respect to any decision of the Trustee in the administration of the trust estate other than for the Trustee's gross negligence.

B. Margin Account Usage. The Trustee shall have the discretion to establish, maintain, make investments on margin, and use a margin investment account for such purposes as the Trustee deems reasonable and prudent. No person dealing with the Trustee need see to the use or application of margin proceeds nor place limitations or restrictions upon the Trustee in the maintenance of a margin account;

C. Retain Trust Assets. To retain as a part of any trust any and all assets transferred to or acquired by the Trustee, so long as the Trustee deems it appropriate to do so, regardless of whether said assets are the kind and class authorized by law for the investment of trust funds and without regard to principles of diversification;

H. Maintain Custody Accounts. To maintain custody or margin accounts with any banks, brokers, or trust companies, and to maintain safekeeping vaults;

I. Exercise Ownership Rights. To exercise all ownership rights, including, without limitation of generality, voting and subscription rights; and to otherwise exercise any and all rights and powers, and deal in and with securities at any time held hereunder, in the same manner and to the same extent as any individual owner and holder thereof might do;

J. Purchase Investments at Premium. To purchase investments at a premium and in the case of investments which have been purchased or otherwise acquired at a premium and which are callable or have fixed maturities, to amortize such premiums by charges against income;

K. Pay, Compromise, Settle, or Abandon Claims. To pay, compromise, settle, object to or abandon all claims and demands in favor of or against the trust estate (specifically including any claim that may arise out of any income, gift, or death taxes);

L. Deal With Other Fiduciaries. To receive assets from any source and to enter into any transaction authorized by this Article with the legal representatives of any other estate or with the trustees of any other trust estate in which any beneficiary hereunder has a beneficial interest, even though any of such legal representatives or trustees is also a fiduciary hereunder;

M. Distribute Income and Principal. To distribute income and principal in cash or in kind, or partly in each, and to allocate or distribute undivided interests of different assets or disproportionate interests in assets, and no adjustment shall be made to compensate for a disproportionate allocation of unrealized gain for federal income tax purposes, provided that any distribution to or for the benefit of a charitable organization described in ss.170(c) and ss.2055(a) of the Code shall be made, to the extent possible, from assets which produce income in respect of a decedent ("IRD");

N. Participate in Corporate Transactions. To participate in and to consent to any plan of reorganization, recapitalization, consolidation, merger, combination, dissolution, liquidation, or similar plan and any action thereunder, including, but not limited to, the deposit of any property with any protective, reorganization, or similar committee, the delegation of discretionary powers thereto, and the sharing in the payment of its expenses and compensation and the payment of any assessments levied with respect to such property; and to receive and retain property under any such plan whether or not the same is of the kind in which fiduciaries are authorized by law or any rule of court to invest funds;

O. Allocate Items to Income. To allocate to income (unless otherwise directed herein) all interest, all rental income not set aside as a reserve for depreciation, and all cash dividends or other cash distributions (whether ordinary or extraordinary) received from any source, including, but not limited to, cash dividends received from investment companies or investment trusts;

Q. Make Discretionary Allocations to Income or Principal. To allocate to income or to principal as shall be deemed appropriate, in the fiduciary's absolute discretion, without liability to any beneficiary, (1) any dividend or distribution, the allocation of which is not ascertainable under the preceding two subparagraphs; (2) expenses of administration in a reasonable manner consistent with applicable state law and optimal tax results; and (3) the payment of Florida intangible personal property tax;

R. Employ Professionals. To employ investment counsel, accountants, depositories, custodians, brokers, consultants, agents, attorneys, and other employees, irrespective of whether any person so employed shall be a Trustee hereunder and irrespective of whether any firm or corporation so employed shall be one in which a Trustee hereunder shall be a partner, stockholder, member, officer, or director, or shall have any interest, and to pay the usual compensation for his, her, its, or their services out of principal or income as may be deemed appropriate; and such compensation may be paid without diminution of or charging the same against the commissions or compensation of any Trustee hereunder; and any Trustee who shall be a partner, stockholder, member, officer, or director in any such firm or corporation shall nevertheless receive his share of the compensation paid to such firm or corporation;

S. Make Distributions to Minors. To effect distribution to a minor by distributing the same to a custodian for such minor under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act (or corresponding provision of law) in effect in the jurisdiction where the minor resides, or elsewhere, and to select such a custodian for such minor, including a Trustee named herein;

T. Transfer Assets to Alternative Situs. To transfer the assets of any trust for purposes of administration to another situs and to appoint, if necessary, as a special Trustee, any individual or corporation authorized under the laws of the United States or any state to administer or to co-administer such trust and to remove any special Trustee and reappoint themselves;

U. Incorporate Business. To continue to operate or participate in the operation of any unincorporated business for as long as the Trustee deems appropriate to so do; to incorporate or to participate in the incorporation of any business, and to operate such newly incorporated business; and to liquidate, merge, consolidate, spin-off, or reorganize any business in such manner and upon such terms as the Trustee deems appropriate;

V. Conduct Business Interests. To conduct any business interests owned alone or with others for whatever period of time the Trustee deems appropriate with all powers of an owner with respect thereto, including, but not limited to, the power to borrow money and pledge estate or trust property as security therefor, or to delegate such powers to any partner, manager, or employee; to dispose of any such business or any assets thereof, at public or private sale, upon such terms and conditions as the Trustee deems appropriate; to form partnerships or corporations to carry on such business, and to contribute any estate or trust property as capital thereof; and to employ, elect, or permit to be retained any Trustee as a director, officer, or employee of such business entity;

W. Divide Trusts. To divide any trust into separate trusts for any purpose, such as allocating the generation-skipping transfer tax exemption so that one or more of these trusts is entirely exempt from the federal generation-skipping transfer tax, or electing to treat a separate trust as qualified terminable interest property for federal estate tax purposes; and, in investing and making distributions from the separate trusts, the Trustee shall consider the tax saving opportunities afforded by the existence of separate trusts;

X. Direct Distribution if Trust Not Operative. To distribute property directly to the beneficiary of a trust, without the interposition of such trust, if at the time of distribution the circumstances are such that the trust would have been paid out to the beneficiary immediately upon funding of the trust;

Y. Collapse of Trust. If at any time the Trustee, in the Trustee's absolute discretion, shall determine that it is uneconomical or not in the best interest of the beneficiaries to continue any trust created hereunder, the Trustee, in the Trustee's absolute discretion, may terminate such trust and distribute the trust property to the person or persons, or to the legal representative of such person or persons, then entitled or permitted to receive or have the benefit of the income therefrom. If there is more than one income beneficiary, the Trustee shall make such distribution to such income beneficiaries in the proportion in which they are beneficiaries or, if no proportion is designated, in equal shares to such beneficiaries. This power shall not be exercised by any Trustee who is also a beneficiary of such trust;

Z. Pool Assets. To pool the assets of any or all trusts hereunder for investment purposes, allocating to each trust an undivided interest in all assets so held; and to merge any trust with any other trust held by the Trustee, whether created by a Guardian or by any other person by Will or Deed, if the terms thereof are substantially similar and held for the primary benefit of the same persons;

AA. Purchase Policies of Insurance. To purchase new or existing policies of insurance, from any source, on the life of any person;

BB. Sell or Purchase Assets to or from Settlor's Estate. To sell or purchase, at the fair market value as determined by the Trustee, and to lend or borrow, at an adequate rate of interest and with adequate security and upon such terms and conditions as the Trustee deems fair and equitable, any property to or from the Settlor's estate, the Settlor's spouse's estate, or any trust created by the Settlor or the Settlor's spouse during life or by Will, even though the same person or corporation may be acting as Personal Representative of the Settlor's estate or of the Settlor's spouse's estate or as Trustee of any such trust and as Trustee of this Trust.

ARTICLE VIII. BENEFICIARY UNDER DISABILITY

A. Minors. If any property shall become distributable to a minor, it shall vest absolutely in the minor, but the Trustee may retain such property with all of the rights, powers, duties, and discretions which are herein granted to the Trustee elsewhere in this Agreement. In that event, the Trustee shall invest and reinvest such property and pay to or apply for the benefit of the minor so much or all of the net income and principal of such retained property as the Trustee deems appropriate for the minor's best interests, accumulating any net income not so paid or applied and adding such accumulated net income to principal, at least annually. When the minor attains majority, the Trustee shall distribute such retained property as then constituted to the minor. If the minor dies before attaining majority, the Trustee shall distribute such retained property to the deceased minor's estate.

B. Adult Beneficiary. If in the opinion of the Trustee any adult beneficiary is unable to properly disburse the income or principal to which the beneficiary may be entitled, the Trustee may retain such property and pay to or apply for the benefit of the beneficiary all or part of such income or principal as the Trustee deems advisable in the best interest of the beneficiary.

C. Application to Beneficiary. In applying income or principal for the benefit of any beneficiary, the Trustee is authorized in the Trustee's discretion to expend such amounts for the best interest of the beneficiary in one or more of the following methods as the Trustee deems appropriate:

1. Minor, Incompetent or Incapacitated Beneficiary. By delivering any such amount to the natural, general, or testamentary guardian of any beneficiary, or to a custodian for any beneficiary under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act or similar law, or to any individual or entity having the care, custody, or control of any such beneficiary, or with whom such beneficiary may reside, or to the committee, guardian, or conservator of any beneficiary who shall have been adjudicated an incompetent; or
2. Beneficiary. By delivering any such amount to such beneficiary, personally; or
3. Beneficiary's Behalf. By making direct expenditures for the best interest of such beneficiary.

D. Payment. The receipt of any such guardian, custodian, committee, conservator, individual, entity, or beneficiary, or evidence of such payment or expenditure of any such amount, shall be a full and sufficient discharge to the Trustee for the payment or expenditure thereof, and the Trustee shall be exonerated from all liability and responsibility by reason of any amount so delivered, paid, or expended irrespective of the application or use thereof that may be made by any such person; and the Trustee shall have no duty to see to the application of any such amount.

ARTICLE IX. RESTRICTIONS, LIMITATIONS, AND POWERS REGARDING THE TRUST, TRUSTEE, AND BENEFICIARIES

A. Perpetuities. Regardless of any contrary provision of this Agreement, no assets shall be held in trust for a period longer than the longest statutory period permitted under the applicable rule against perpetuities, as it is then in force and effect, and, upon the expiration of such period, all such trusts shall terminate, and the Trustee shall distribute the trust property to the person or persons, or to the legal representative of such person or persons, then entitled or permitted to receive or have the benefit of the income therefrom. If there is more than one income beneficiary, the Trustee shall make such distribution to such income beneficiaries in the proportion in which they are beneficiaries or, if no proportion is designated, in equal shares to such beneficiaries.

B. Restrictions on Individual Trustee. No individual Trustee, who is also a beneficiary of any trust, shall participate in the exercise of any discretion granted to the Trustee to (i) pay or apply the net income or principal of such trust to or for the benefit of himself or herself, including the termination of such trust, except to provide for his or her health, education, maintenance, or support as set forth under ss.ss.2041(b)(1)(A) and 2514(c)(1) of the Code; or (ii) to exercise any discretion with respect to crediting or charging any item to income or principal otherwise than as provided by law. In addition, any Trustee who is under a legal obligation to support a beneficiary of any trust shall not participate in the exercise of any discretion granted to the Trustee to pay or apply the net income or principal of such trust in discharge of that legal obligation.

C. Restrictions on Beneficiaries. No beneficiary of any trust shall have any right or power to pledge, assign, sell, transfer, or encumber his or her interest in any trust hereunder, nor shall any such interest be liable for or subject to the debts, judgments, or other obligations of such beneficiary or to claims of any sort against such beneficiary.

D. Power of Appointment.

1. Power to Appoint to Creditors. If a trust under this Agreement would, but for the provisions of this Paragraph, be liable for generation-skipping tax at the death of a beneficiary, such beneficiary shall have the power to appoint to such beneficiary's creditors, by a Will expressly referring to and exercising this power, the smallest fractional share of such trust that would reduce to the minimum the aggregate estate, inheritance, succession, and generation-skipping taxes payable upon such beneficiary's death, assuming no deductions are allowed with respect to the appointive property.

2. Payment of Taxes. If any beneficiary under this Agreement incurs any estate or inheritance tax liability due to the inclusion of a portion or all of a trust established hereunder in the beneficiary's gross estate for federal estate tax purposes by reason of a power of appointment, then any such tax attributable to such power of appointment shall be paid from such beneficiary's separate trust prior to being distributed to the remainder beneficiaries of such trust. The tax attributable to such power of appointment shall be the excess of (1) the total amount of all federal and state estate, inheritance, succession, and other death taxes, together with any acquirer's taxes, including interest and penalties thereon, imposed upon such beneficiary's estate (or imposed as an acquirer's tax on any beneficiary) over (2) the amount of such taxes, interest, and penalties that would have been imposed if no part of such power of appointment property had been included in the beneficiary's gross estate for purposes of any such tax.

E. Prohibitions. No person shall purchase, exchange, or otherwise deal with or dispose of the principal or income of the Trust for less than an adequate consideration in money or money's worth, nor shall any person borrow the principal or income of the trust estate, directly or indirectly, without adequate interest or security.

ARTICLE X. SURVIVORSHIP CLAUSE

A. Beneficiaries. If any beneficiary dies within ninety (90) days after the death of the Settlor, then for purposes of applying and interpreting this Agreement such beneficiary shall be deemed conclusively to have predeceased the Settlor.

B. Beneficiary Whose Life Measures Duration of a Trust. If any person whose life measures the duration of a trust hereunder and any succeeding trust beneficiary, including any remainderman of such trust, die under such circumstances that there is reasonable doubt as to who died first, then for purposes of applying and interpreting this Agreement such person whose life measures the duration of such trust shall be deemed conclusively to have survived such succeeding trust beneficiary or remainderman, as the case may be.

THE MTSB FLP 2003

IRREVOCABLE TRUST AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, made and executed in duplicate this 12th day of December, 2003 is by and between MTSB Family Limited Partnership, as the Settlor, and BARRY SILVERSTEIN as the Trustee.

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Settlor desires to establish, effective immediately, a trust under all of the provisions of this Agreement, and the Trustee is willing to act as Trustee hereunder.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties do hereby agree and declare as follows:

ARTICLE I. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO THE TRUST

A. Initial Transfer to Trust. The Settlor irrevocably assigns, transfers, and delivers to the Trustee all the rights, powers, interests, and benefits which the Settlor now has or hereafter may have in all of the property described in Schedule A annexed hereto, and the Trustee agrees to hold, manage, and dispose of the trust property in the manner and subject to the provisions contained in this Agreement.

B. Additional Transfers to Trust. The Settlor may from time to time irrevocably assign, transfer, and deliver additional property to the Trustee with the consent of the Trustee, which property shall be held, managed, and disposed of by the Trustee in the manner and subject to the provisions contained in this Agreement.

Edgar Filing: SILVERSTEIN BARRY - Form SC 13D/A

ARTICLE II. TRUSTEE SUCCESSION

A. Successor Trustee. It is the Settlor's intention BARRY SILVERSTEIN shall serve as sole Trustee under this Agreement until the first to occur of the Settlor's death or the expiration of the Trust Term, as hereinafter defined. Should BARRY SILVERSTEIN fail to qualify or cease to serve as Trustee hereunder for any reason, then a majority of the beneficiaries then entitled or permitted to receive the income of such trust and the presumptive remaindermen of such trust, or the legal or natural guardian of any of them who is then under a legal disability, shall appoint an individual or a corporate fiduciary to serve as Trustee of such trust.

B. Power to Appoint Co-Trustee or Successor Trustee. Any individual Trustee at any time serving shall have the power to appoint an individual or a corporate fiduciary to serve as successor Trustee to him or her. In addition, all of the then acting Trustees of a trust shall, by unanimous vote, have the power to appoint an individual or a corporate fiduciary to serve as Co-Trustee of such trust. If at any time there is no Trustee serving hereunder, then a majority of the beneficiaries (other than the Settlor) then entitled or permitted to receive the income of such trust and the presumptive remaindermen of such trust, or the legal or natural guardian (other than the Settlor) of any of them who is then under a legal disability, shall appoint an individual or a corporate fiduciary to serve as successor Trustee of such trust.

C. Removal of Corporate Trustee. Any corporate Trustee may be removed from office at any time by (1) the individual Trustee or Trustees then serving, by unanimous vote, or, if none, then by (2) a majority of the beneficiaries (other than the Settlor) entitled or permitted to receive the income of such trust and the presumptive remaindermen of such trust, or the legal or natural guardian (other than the Settlor) of any of them who is then under a legal disability. In the event of the resignation or removal of the corporate Trustee of a trust, the person or persons having the power of removal shall appoint a successor corporate Trustee who is authorized to exercise trust powers either under the law of the jurisdiction where such corporate Trustee is located or under the national banking laws enacted by the Congress of the United States.

D. Right to Resign. Without limitation as to any other method of resignation, any Trustee may resign as Trustee of any trust by giving prior written notice of such intention to do so to the Co-Trustee(s), if any, and to the beneficiaries entitled or permitted to receive the income of such trust and the presumptive remaindermen of such trust, or to the legal or natural guardian of any of them who is then under a legal disability. In the event of such resignation, the person or persons to whom such notice of resignation shall have been given may, without liability to any person, approve the accounts of and give a complete release and discharge to such resigning Trustee. Any Trustee who resigns shall not receive any termination fee or commission that might otherwise be payable by reason of termination of the trust or distribution of the trust principal.

E. Method of Appointing or Removing Trustees. Any appointment or removal of a Trustee (1) shall be made by a written instrument executed with the formality required of a deed for the conveyance of real estate; (2) shall take effect at the time and upon the conditions set forth in the instrument of appointment or removal, subject, however, to the written acceptance of the appointee (in the case of an appointment); and (3) may be revoked by a like instrument at any time before the appointment or removal shall take effect.

F. Powers Exercisable by Third Party. The right to remove and/or appoint a Trustee and the right to approve accountings and give a release to a resigning Trustee shall be exercisable on behalf of any person by the holder of a durable power of attorney (other than the Settlor) from that person or by the legal or natural guardian (other than the Settlor) of any person who is then under a legal disability.

G. Majority Rules. Unless expressly provided to the contrary in this Article, if the right to appoint a Trustee shall be exercisable by two (2) persons collectively, this right shall be exercisable only by the unanimous agreement of both of them. If the right to appoint a Trustee shall be exercisable by three (3) or more persons collectively, the decision of a majority of them shall control.

H. No Bond Required. No Trustee at any time serving in any jurisdiction shall be required to furnish any bond or other security for the faithful performance of the office of Trustee hereunder, qualify before any court, register the trust, or file an accounting in any court as a condition for the exercise of any of the powers and discretions herein conferred upon the Trustee. This Paragraph shall not affect the right of any beneficiary hereunder to require an accounting.

I. Restrictions on Whom May Serve As Trustee. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, during the lifetime of the Settlor, the Settlor may not serve as a Trustee hereunder or exercise any other rights under this Article.

ARTICLE III. TRUST IRREVOCABLE

This Agreement and any trust created hereunder are irrevocable and unamendable. The Settlor expressly waives all rights and powers, whether alone or in conjunction with others, to alter, amend, revoke, or terminate this Trust Agreement in whole or in part.

ARTICLE IV. DISTRIBUTION OF TRUST ESTATE DURING THE TRUST TERM

A. Trust Term. The Trust shall terminate on the first to occur of the dissolution of the Settlor or January 31, 2004 (the "Trust Term"). During the Trust Term, the Trustee may pay to or for the benefit of the Settlor so much or all of the net income and principal of the Trust as the Trustee, in the Trustee's discretion, deems to be for the best interest of the Settlor. Any net income not paid or applied shall be accumulated and added to the principal of the Trust at least annually.

B. Automatic Renewal. Anything in Paragraph IV.A to the contrary notwithstanding, during the existence of the Settlor, this Agreement shall automatically renew for successive one (1) year terms on January 31st of each year unless the Settlor delivers to the Trustee written notice of the Settlor's intention not to renew, no later than forty (40) days before the termination of the then current term of this Agreement.

ARTICLE V. DISPOSITION OF TRUST UPON EXPIRATION OF TRUST TERM

A. Expiration of Trust Term while Settlor Remains in Existence. Upon the expiration of the Trust Term during while the Settlor remains in existence, the remaining trust property shall be distributed to the Settlor, outright and free of trust.

B. Expiration of Trust Term After Dissolution of the Settlor. Upon the dissolution of the Settlor's during the Trust Term, the remaining trust property shall be distributed to or among or for the benefit of such individuals, corporations, charities qualified under ss.501(c)(3) of the Code, or other entities that owned an interest in the Settlor at the time Settlor was dissolved, in proportion to each such interest holder's proportionate ownership of Settlor.

ARTICLE VI. AS TO THE TRUSTEE

A. Situs and Governing Law. This Agreement and each trust established hereunder shall have an initial situs in the State of Florida and shall be governed by the laws of the State of Florida. The Trustee may, in the Trustee's discretion, change the situs of any trust established hereunder to a jurisdiction other than the State of Florida. A change of situs shall not affect the validity or construction of any trust hereunder or create in any beneficiary any right or power other than those to which such beneficiary was then entitled in the State of Florida.

B. Certification Regarding Prior Administration. Any successor Trustee is specifically authorized to accept the trust assets as the same may be certified to such Trustee by any prior Trustee or as may be approved by the beneficiaries then entitled or permitted to receive the income of such trusts (or the legal or natural guardian of any of them who is then under a legal disability), without the necessity of a full accounting or inquiry into the prior administration of the trust by any prior Trustee.

C. Delegation of Powers. Any Trustee may delegate to another Trustee the right to exercise any power (discretionary, administrative, or otherwise) by an acknowledged instrument and may revoke the delegation at any time by delivery of an acknowledged instrument to such other Trustee.

D. Termination of Fiduciary Capacity. Any individual Trustee shall be deemed to have ceased to serve as Trustee of a trust upon the first to occur of the following:

1. Unable to Manage Financial Affairs. Receipt by the remaining Trustee(s), if any, and by the beneficiaries then entitled or permitted to receive the income of such trust (or the legal or natural guardian of any of them who is then under a legal disability) of a certificate or letter from a medical doctor stating that he or she is the individual Trustee's physician and that, because of illness or incapacity of any kind of said individual Trustee, the Trustee is unable to manage financial affairs; or
2. Appointment of Guardian. Upon the appointment of a guardian of the person or property or conservator of such individual Trustee; or
3. Death or Resignation. Upon the death or resignation of such individual Trustee.

E. Custody of Trust Estate. While acting hereunder, the corporate Trustee (or its agent) shall have the sole custody of the assets constituting the trust estate and each trust or share thereof, and shall be responsible for the maintenance of adequate records reflecting the condition of the trust and the income and expenses thereof. Such records shall be open at all times to inspection by the individual Trustee, if any, or by the respective beneficiaries of the trust, or the legal representatives or attorneys of such persons.

F. Trustee Compensation. Any corporate Trustee shall receive compensation as determined by its standard fee schedule in effect and applicable at the time of the performance of its services, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the corporate Trustee. If no such schedule shall be in effect at that time or if no such writing exists, it shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for the services rendered. Any Trustee shall be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in serving as Trustee.

G. Trustee Exonerated. The Trustee shall be responsible for only due diligence in the administration and disbursement of any trust created hereunder and shall not be responsible for any loss or subject to any liability except by reason of the Trustee's own negligence or willful default proved by affirmative evidence. Every election, determination, or other exercise by the Trustee of any discretion granted to the Trustee, expressly or by implication under this Agreement or by law made in good faith, shall fully protect the Trustee and shall be conclusive and binding upon all persons. This Paragraph shall be binding on all interested parties hereunder, and the Trustee shall be indemnified and held harmless by the trust estate for any claim, demand, or suit arising with respect to any decision of the Trustee in the administration of the trust estate other than for the Trustee's gross negligence.

ARTICLE VII. ADMINISTRATIVE POWERS OF TRUSTEE

The Trustee shall have the following powers in addition to all powers now or hereafter conferred upon trustees by law:

A. Invest Trust Property. To invest and reinvest the trust property in property of any character, foreign or domestic, specifically including, but not limited to, real estate, business enterprises of any nature, investment partnerships, stocks, bonds, notes, debentures, warrants, puts, calls, options, futures contracts, trust receipts, commodities, leases, contracts, United States securities, interests in trusts, money market funds, mutual funds, common trust funds (including those maintained by any corporate trustee or any affiliate thereof), repurchase agreements, and securities exempt from income tax (notwithstanding that higher yields may be obtained by investment in securities not so exempt), or in any other property or undivided interests in property, wherever located, without being limited by any statute or rule of law concerning investments by trustees and without any requirement for diversification;

B. Margin Account Usage. The Trustee shall have the discretion to establish, maintain, make investments on margin, and use a margin investment account for such purposes as the Trustee deems reasonable and prudent. No person dealing with the Trustee need see to the use or application of margin proceeds nor place limitations or restrictions upon the Trustee in the maintenance of a margin account;

C. Retain Trust Assets. To retain as a part of any trust any and all assets transferred to or acquired by the Trustee, so long as the Trustee deems it appropriate to do so, regardless of whether said assets are the kind and class authorized by law for the investment of trust funds and without regard to principles of diversification;

D. Establish Bank and Brokerage Accounts. To retain principal and income cash funds in interest and non-interest bearing checking, savings, money market, brokerage, and NOW accounts, for such reasonable period of time as the Trustee may determine, pending investment or distribution to the beneficiaries hereunder;

E. Deal In Real or Personal Property. With respect to any interest in real or personal property, (i) to lease, including, without limitation, the power to negotiate a lease and execute a lease; (ii) to exchange; (iii) to sell and convey, including, without limitation, the power to locate a purchaser, to accept and execute a contract for sale, and to execute deeds, bills of sale, and other closing documents necessary or advisable in the discretion of the Trustee; or (iv) to make any other disposition in public or private transactions deemed necessary or advisable in the discretion of the Trustee. No notice to or the consent of any beneficiary shall be required for any action taken under this Paragraph, and the Trustee shall be entitled to employ brokers and agents and pay them reasonable compensation for such purposes;

F. Borrow and Lend Money. To borrow such sums of money at any time and from time to time for such periods of time upon such terms and conditions from such persons or corporations (including any trustee hereunder) and for such purposes as may be deemed appropriate, and to secure such loans by the pledge or hypothecation of any property held hereunder, and the lender shall have no obligation to inquire as to the application of the sums loaned or as to the necessity, expediency, or propriety of the loan; to loan money to any person or entity, including a beneficiary, upon such terms and conditions, with adequate interest and security, and for such purposes as the Trustee may deem advisable;

G. Make Nominee Registrations. To register any securities or other property or any interest in property, in the name of any nominee or nominees, without describing the fiduciary capacity, and to hold any securities in bearer form;

H. Maintain Custody Accounts. To maintain custody or margin accounts with any banks, brokers, or trust companies, and to maintain safekeeping vaults;

I. Exercise Ownership Rights. To exercise all ownership rights, including, without limitation of generality, voting and subscription rights; and to otherwise exercise any and all rights and powers, and deal in and with securities at any time held hereunder, in the same manner and to the same extent as any individual owner and holder thereof might do;

J. Purchase Investments at Premium. To purchase investments at a premium and in the case of investments which have been purchased or otherwise acquired at a premium and which are callable or have fixed maturities, to amortize such premiums by charges against income;

K. Pay, Compromise, Settle, or Abandon Claims. To pay, compromise, settle, object to or abandon all claims and demands in favor of or against the trust estate (specifically including any claim that may arise out of any income, gift, or death taxes);

L. Deal With Other Fiduciaries. To receive assets from any source and to enter into any transaction authorized by this Article with the legal representatives of any other estate or with the trustees of any other trust estate in which any beneficiary hereunder has a beneficial interest, even though any of such legal representatives or trustees is also a fiduciary hereunder;

M. Distribute Income and Principal. To distribute income and principal in cash or in kind, or partly in each, and to allocate or distribute undivided interests of different assets or disproportionate interests in assets, and no adjustment shall be made to compensate for a disproportionate allocation of unrealized gain for federal income tax purposes, provided that any distribution to or for the benefit of a charitable organization described in ss.170(c) and ss.2055(a) of the Code shall be made, to the extent possible, from assets which produce income in respect of a decedent ("IRD");

N. Participate in Corporate Transactions. To participate in and to consent to any plan of reorganization, recapitalization, consolidation, merger, combination, dissolution, liquidation, or similar plan and any action thereunder, including, but not limited to, the deposit of any property with any protective, reorganization, or similar committee, the delegation of discretionary powers thereto, and the sharing in the payment of its expenses and compensation and the payment of any assessments levied with respect to such property; and to receive and retain property under any such plan whether or not the same is of the kind in which fiduciaries are authorized by law or any rule of court to invest funds;

O. Allocate Items to Income. To allocate to income (unless otherwise directed herein) all interest, all rental income not set aside as a reserve for depreciation, and all cash dividends or other cash distributions (whether ordinary or extraordinary) received from any source, including, but not limited to, cash dividends received from investment companies or investment trusts;

P. Allocate Items to Principal. To allocate to principal (unless otherwise directed herein) all capital gains and all dividends and distributions payable in property or in stocks, bonds, or other securities whether of the disbursing company or another company;

Q. Make Discretionary Allocations to Income or Principal. To allocate to income or to principal as shall be deemed appropriate, in the fiduciary's absolute discretion, without liability to any beneficiary, (1) any dividend or distribution, the allocation of which is not ascertainable under the preceding two subparagraphs; (2) expenses of administration in a reasonable manner consistent with applicable state law and optimal tax results; and (3) the payment of Florida intangible personal property tax;

R. Employ Professionals. To employ investment counsel, accountants, depositories, custodians, brokers, consultants, agents, attorneys, and other employees, irrespective of whether any person so employed shall be a Trustee hereunder and irrespective of whether any firm or corporation so employed shall be one in which a Trustee hereunder shall be a partner, stockholder, member, officer, or director, or shall have any interest, and to pay the usual compensation for his, her, its, or their services out of principal or income as may be deemed appropriate; and such compensation may be paid without diminution of or charging the same against the commissions or compensation of any Trustee hereunder; and any Trustee who shall be a partner, stockholder, member, officer, or director in any such firm or corporation shall nevertheless receive his share of the compensation paid to such firm or corporation;

S. Make Distributions to Minors. To effect distribution to a minor by distributing the same to a custodian for such minor under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act (or corresponding provision of law) in effect in the jurisdiction where the minor resides, or elsewhere, and to select such a custodian for such minor, including a Trustee named herein;

T. Transfer Assets to Alternative Situs. To transfer the assets of any trust for purposes of administration to another situs and to appoint, if necessary, as a special Trustee, any individual or corporation authorized under the laws of the United States or any state to administer or to co-administer such trust and to remove any special Trustee and reappoint themselves;

Edgar Filing: SILVERSTEIN BARRY - Form SC 13D/A

U. Incorporate Business. To continue to operate or participate in the operation of any unincorporated business for as long as the Trustee deems appropriate to so do; to incorporate or to participate in the incorporation of any business, and to operate such newly incorporated business; and to liquidate, merge, consolidate, spin-off, or reorganize any business in such manner and upon such terms as the Trustee deems appropriate;

V. Conduct Business Interests. To conduct any business interests owned alone or with others for whatever period of time the Trustee deems appropriate with all powers of an owner with respect thereto, including, but not limited to, the power to borrow money and pledge estate or trust property as security therefor, or to delegate such powers to any partner, manager, or employee; to dispose of any such business or any assets thereof, at public or private sale, upon such terms and conditions as the Trustee deems appropriate; to form partnerships or corporations to carry on such business, and to contribute any estate or trust property as capital thereof; and to employ, elect, or permit to be retained any Trustee as a director, officer, or employee of such business entity;

W. Divide Trusts. To divide any trust into separate trusts for any purpose, such as allocating the generation-skipping transfer tax exemption so that one or more of these trusts is entirely exempt from the federal generation-skipping transfer tax, or electing to treat a separate trust as qualified terminable interest property for federal estate tax purposes; and, in investing and making distributions from the separate trusts, the Trustee shall consider the tax saving opportunities afforded by the existence of separate trusts;

X. Direct Distribution if Trust Not Operative. To distribute property directly to the beneficiary of a trust, without the interposition of such trust, if at the time of distribution the circumstances are such that the trust would have been paid out to the beneficiary immediately upon funding of the trust;

Y. Collapse of Trust. If at any time the Trustee, in the Trustee's absolute discretion, shall determine that it is uneconomical or not in the best interest of the beneficiaries to continue any trust created hereunder, the Trustee, in the Trustee's absolute discretion, may terminate such trust and distribute the trust property to the person or persons, or to the legal representative of such person or persons, then entitled or permitted to receive or have the benefit of the income therefrom. If there is more than one income beneficiary, the Trustee shall make such distribution to such income beneficiaries in the proportion in which they are beneficiaries or, if no proportion is designated, in equal shares to such beneficiaries. This power shall not be exercised by any Trustee who is also a beneficiary of such trust;

Z. Pool Assets. To pool the assets of any or all trusts hereunder for investment purposes, allocating to each trust an undivided interest in all assets so held; and to merge any trust with any other trust held by the Trustee, whether created by a Guardian or by any other person by Will or Deed, if the terms thereof are substantially similar and held for the primary benefit of the same persons;

AA. Purchase Policies of Insurance. To purchase new or existing policies of insurance, from any source, on the life of any person;

BB. Sell or Purchase Assets to or from Settlor's Estate. To sell or purchase, at the fair market value as determined by the Trustee, and to lend or borrow, at an adequate rate of interest and with adequate security and upon such terms and conditions as the Trustee deems fair and equitable, any property to or from the Settlor's estate, the Settlor's spouse's estate, or any trust created by the Settlor or the Settlor's spouse during life or by Will, even though the same person or corporation may be acting as Personal Representative of the Settlor's estate or of the Settlor's spouse's estate or as Trustee of any such trust and as Trustee of this Trust.

ARTICLE VIII. BENEFICIARY UNDER DISABILITY

A. Minors. If any property shall become distributable to a minor, it shall vest absolutely in the minor, but the Trustee may retain such property with all of the rights, powers, duties, and discretions which are herein granted to the Trustee elsewhere in this Agreement. In that event, the Trustee shall invest and reinvest such property and pay to or apply for the benefit of the minor so much or all of the net income and principal of such retained property as the Trustee deems appropriate for the minor's best interests, accumulating any net income not so paid or applied and adding such accumulated net income to principal, at least annually. When the minor attains majority, the Trustee shall distribute such retained property as then constituted to the minor. If the minor dies before attaining majority, the Trustee shall distribute such retained property to the deceased minor's estate.

B. Adult Beneficiary. If in the opinion of the Trustee any adult beneficiary is unable to properly disburse the income or principal to which the beneficiary may be entitled, the Trustee may retain such property and pay to or apply for the benefit of the beneficiary all or part of such income or principal as the Trustee deems advisable in the best interest of the beneficiary.

C. Application to Beneficiary. In applying income or principal for the benefit of any beneficiary, the Trustee is authorized in the Trustee's discretion to expend such amounts for the best interest of the beneficiary in one or more of the following methods as the Trustee deems appropriate:

1. Minor, Incompetent or Incapacitated Beneficiary. By delivering any such amount to the natural, general, or testamentary guardian of any beneficiary, or to a custodian for any beneficiary under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act or similar law, or to any individual or entity having the care, custody, or control of any such beneficiary, or with whom such beneficiary may reside, or to the committee, guardian, or conservator of any beneficiary who shall have been adjudicated an incompetent; or
2. Beneficiary. By delivering any such amount to such beneficiary, personally; or
3. Beneficiary's Behalf. By making direct expenditures for the best interest of such beneficiary.

D. Payment. The receipt of any such guardian, custodian, committee, conservator, individual, entity, or beneficiary, or evidence of such payment or expenditure of any such amount, shall be a full and sufficient discharge to the Trustee for the payment or expenditure thereof, and the Trustee shall be exonerated from all liability and responsibility by reason of any amount so delivered, paid, or expended irrespective of the application or use thereof that may be made by any such person; and the Trustee shall have no duty to see to the application of any such amount.

Edgar Filing: SILVERSTEIN BARRY - Form SC 13D/A

ARTICLE IX. RESTRICTIONS, LIMITATIONS, AND POWERS REGARDING THE TRUST, TRUSTEE, AND BENEFICIARIES

A. Perpetuities. Regardless of any contrary provision of this Agreement, no assets shall be held in trust for a period longer than the longest statutory period permitted under the applicable rule against perpetuities, as it is then in force and effect, and, upon the expiration of such period, all such trusts shall terminate, and the Trustee shall distribute the trust property to the person or persons, or to the legal representative of such person or persons, then entitled or permitted to receive or have the benefit of the income therefrom. If there is more than one income beneficiary, the Trustee shall make such distribution to such income beneficiaries in the proportion in which they are beneficiaries or, if no proportion is designated, in equal shares to such beneficiaries.

B. Restrictions on Individual Trustee. No individual Trustee, who is also a beneficiary of any trust, shall participate in the exercise of any discretion granted to the Trustee to (i) pay or apply the net income or principal of such trust to or for the benefit of himself or herself, including the termination of such trust, except to provide for his or her health, education, maintenance, or support as set forth under ss.ss.2041(b)(1)(A) and 2514(c)(1) of the Code; or (ii) to exercise any discretion with respect to crediting or charging any item to income or principal otherwise than as provided by law. In addition, any Trustee who is under a legal obligation to support a beneficiary of any trust shall not participate in the exercise of any discretion granted to the Trustee to pay or apply the net income or principal of such trust in discharge of that legal obligation.

C. Restrictions on Beneficiaries. No beneficiary of any trust shall have any right or power to pledge, assign, sell, transfer, or encumber his or her interest in any trust hereunder, nor shall any such interest be liable for or subject to the debts, judgments, or other obligations of such beneficiary or to claims of any sort against such beneficiary.

D. Power of Appointment.

1. Power to Appoint to Creditors. If a trust under this Agreement would, but for the provisions of this Paragraph, be liable for generation-skipping tax at the death of a beneficiary, such beneficiary shall have the power to appoint to such beneficiary's creditors, by a Will expressly referring to and exercising this power, the smallest fractional share of such trust that would reduce to the minimum the aggregate estate, inheritance, succession, and generation-skipping taxes payable upon such beneficiary's death, assuming no deductions are allowed with respect to the appointive property.

2. Payment of Taxes. If any beneficiary under this Agreement incurs any estate or inheritance tax liability due to the inclusion of a portion or all of a trust established hereunder in the beneficiary's gross estate for federal estate tax purposes by reason of a power of appointment, then any such tax attributable to such power of appointment shall be paid from such beneficiary's separate trust prior to being distributed to the remainder beneficiaries of such trust. The tax attributable to such power of appointment shall be the excess of (1) the total amount of all federal and state estate, inheritance, succession, and other death taxes, together with any acquirer's taxes, including interest and penalties thereon, imposed upon such beneficiary's estate (or imposed as an acquirer's tax on any beneficiary) over (2) the amount of such taxes, interest, and penalties that would have been imposed if no part of such power of appointment property had been included in the beneficiary's gross estate for purposes of any such tax.

E. Prohibitions. No person shall purchase, exchange, or otherwise deal with or dispose of the principal or income of the Trust for less than an adequate consideration in money or money's worth, nor shall any person borrow the principal or income of the trust estate, directly or indirectly, without adequate interest or security.

ARTICLE X. SURVIVORSHIP CLAUSE

A. Beneficiaries. If any beneficiary dies within ninety (90) days after the death of the Settlor, then for purposes of applying and interpreting this Agreement such beneficiary shall be deemed conclusively to have predeceased the Settlor.

B. Beneficiary Whose Life Measures Duration of a Trust. If any person whose life measures the duration of a trust hereunder and any succeeding trust beneficiary, including any remainderman of such trust, die under such circumstances that there is reasonable doubt as to who died first, then for purposes of applying and interpreting this Agreement such person whose life measures the duration of such trust shall be deemed conclusively to have survived such succeeding trust beneficiary or remainderman, as the case may be.

THE TRUDY SILVERSTEIN

IRREVOCABLE TRUST OF 2003

THIS AGREEMENT, made and executed this 15th day of December 2003, is by

and between TRUDY SILVERSTEIN, as the Settlor, and DENNIS MCGILLICUDDY, as the Trustee.

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Settlor desires to establish, effective immediately, a trust under all of the provisions of this Agreement, and the Trustee is willing to act as Trustee hereunder.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties do hereby agree and declare as follows:

ARTICLE I. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO THE TRUST

A. Initial Transfer to Trust. The Settlor irrevocably assigns, transfers, and delivers to the Trustee all the rights, powers, interests, and benefits which the Settlor now has or hereafter may have in all of the property described in Schedule A annexed hereto, and the Trustee agrees to hold, manage, and dispose of the trust property in the manner and subject to the provisions contained in this Agreement.

B. Additional Transfers to Trust. The Settlor may from time to time irrevocably assign, transfer, and deliver additional property to the Trustee with the consent of the Trustee, which property shall be held, managed, and disposed of by the Trustee in the manner and subject to the provisions contained in this Agreement.

ARTICLE II. TRUSTEE SUCCESSION

A. Successor Trustee. It is the Settlor's intention that DENNIS MCGILLICUDDY shall serve as sole Trustee under this Agreement. Should DENNIS MCGILLICUDDY cease to serve as Trustee hereunder for any reason, then the Settlor nominates and appoints STEVEN BLECHNER to serve as Trustee in DENNIS MCGILLICUDDY's place. Should STEVEN BLECHNER fail to qualify or cease to serve as Trustee hereunder for any reason, then a majority of the beneficiaries (other than the Settlor) then entitled or permitted to receive the income of such trust and the presumptive remaindermen of such trust, or the legal or natural guardian (other than the Settlor) of any of them who is then under a legal disability, shall appoint an individual or a corporate fiduciary to serve as Trustee of such trust.

B. Power to Appoint Co-Trustee or Successor Trustee. Except to the extent a successor Trustee is already effectively appointed hereunder, any individual Trustee at any time serving shall have the power to appoint an individual or a corporate fiduciary to serve as successor Trustee to him or her. In addition, all of the then acting Trustees of a trust shall, by unanimous vote, have the power to appoint an individual or a corporate fiduciary to serve as Co-Trustee of such trust. If at any time there is no Trustee serving hereunder, then a majority of the beneficiaries (other than the Settlor) then entitled or permitted to receive the income of such trust and the presumptive remaindermen of such trust, or the legal or natural guardian (other than the Settlor) of any of them who is then under a legal disability, shall appoint an individual or a corporate fiduciary to serve as successor Trustee of such trust.

C. Removal of Corporate Trustee. Any corporate Trustee may be removed from office at any time by (1) the individual Trustee or Trustees then serving, by unanimous vote, or, if none, then by (2) a majority of the beneficiaries (other than the Settlor) entitled or permitted to receive the income of such trust and the presumptive remaindermen of such trust, or the legal or natural guardian (other than the Settlor) of any of them who is then under a legal disability. In the event of the resignation or removal of the corporate Trustee of a trust, the person or persons having the power of removal shall appoint a successor corporate Trustee who is authorized to exercise trust powers either under the law of the jurisdiction where such corporate Trustee is located or under the national banking laws enacted by the Congress of the United States.

D. Right to Resign. Without limitation as to any other method of resignation, any Trustee may resign as Trustee of any trust by giving prior written notice of such intention to do so to the Co-Trustee(s), if any, and to the beneficiaries entitled or permitted to receive the income of such trust and the presumptive remaindermen of such trust, or to the legal or natural guardian of any of them who is then under a legal disability. In the event of such resignation, the person or persons to whom such notice of resignation shall have been given may, without liability to any person, approve the accounts of and give a complete release and discharge to such resigning Trustee. Any Trustee who resigns shall not receive any termination fee or commission that might otherwise be payable by reason of termination of the trust or distribution of the trust principal.

E. Method of Appointing or Removing Trustees. Any appointment or removal of a Trustee (1) shall be made by a written instrument executed with the formality required of a deed for the conveyance of real estate; (2) shall take effect at the time and upon the conditions set forth in the instrument of appointment or removal, subject, however, to the written acceptance of the appointee (in the case of an appointment); and (3) may be revoked by a like instrument at any time before the appointment or removal shall take effect.

F. Powers Exercisable by Third Party. The right to remove and/or appoint a Trustee and the right to approve accountings and give a release to a resigning Trustee shall be exercisable on behalf of any person by the holder of a durable power of attorney (other than the Settlor) from that person or by the legal or natural guardian (other than the Settlor) of any person who is then under a legal disability.

G. Majority Rules. Unless expressly provided to the contrary in this Article, if the right to appoint a Trustee shall be exercisable by two (2) persons collectively, this right shall be exercisable only by the unanimous agreement of both of them. If the right to appoint a Trustee shall be exercisable by three (3) or more persons collectively, the decision of a majority of them shall control.

H. No Bond Required. No Trustee at any time serving in any jurisdiction shall be required to furnish any bond or other security for the faithful performance of the office of Trustee hereunder, qualify before any court, register the trust, or file an accounting in any court as a condition for the exercise of any of the powers and discretions herein conferred upon the Trustee. This Paragraph shall not affect the right of any beneficiary hereunder to require an accounting.

I. Restrictions on Whom May Serve As Trustee. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, during the lifetime of the Settlor, the Settlor may not serve as a Trustee hereunder or exercise any other rights under this Article.

ARTICLE III. TRUST IRREVOCABLE

This Agreement and any trust created hereunder are irrevocable and unamendable. The Settlor expressly waives all rights and powers, whether alone or in conjunction with others, to alter, amend, revoke, or terminate this Trust Agreement in whole or in part.

ARTICLE IV. DISTRIBUTION OF TRUST ESTATE DURING THE TRUST TERM

A. Trust Term. Except as provided in Paragraph IV.B, the Trust shall terminate on the first to occur of the death of the Settlor or January 31, 2004 (the "Trust Term"). During the Trust Term, the Trustee may pay to or for the benefit of the Settlor so much or all of the net income and principal of the Trust as the Trustee, in the Trustee's discretion, deems to be for the best interest of the Settlor. Any net income not paid or applied shall be accumulated and added to the principal of the Trust at least annually.

B. Automatic Renewal. Anything in Paragraph IV.A to the contrary notwithstanding, during the life of the Settlor, this Agreement shall automatically renew for successive one (1) year terms on January 31st of each year unless the Settlor delivers to the Trustee written notice of the Settlor's intention not to renew, no later than thirty (30) days before the termination of the then current term of this Agreement.

ARTICLE V. DISPOSITION OF TRUST UPON EXPIRATION OF TRUST TERM

A. Expiration of Trust Term During Settlor's Lifetime. Upon the expiration of the Trust Term during the Settlor's lifetime, the remaining trust property shall be distributed to the Settlor, outright and free of trust.

B. Expiration of Trust Term Upon Settlor's Death. Upon the Settlor's death during the Trust Term, the remaining trust property shall be distributed to or among or for the benefit of such individuals, corporations, charities qualified under ss.501(c)(3) of the Code, or other appointees and on such terms and conditions, including appointments in trust, as the Settlor appoints by Will, providing such Will (or Codicil) contains a specific reference to this particular power of appointment. To the extent the Settlor fails to effectively exercise the foregoing power of appointment, the Trustee shall distribute the remaining trust property as hereinafter set forth in Paragraph V.C.

C. Distribution to Settlor's Estate. To the extent the Settlor fails to effectively exercise the foregoing power of appointment, the Trustee shall distribute the remaining trust property to the Settlor's Revocable Trust to be merged with, held, administered, and distributed as a part of the trust estate under the Revocable Trust, but if the Revocable Trust is not then in existence, then such property shall be distributed to the Settlor's estate.

ARTICLE VI. AS TO THE TRUSTEE

A. Situs and Governing Law. This Agreement and each trust established hereunder shall have an initial situs in the State of Florida and shall be governed by the laws of the State of Florida. The Trustee may, in the Trustee's discretion, change the situs of any trust established hereunder to a jurisdiction other than the State of Florida. A change of situs shall not affect the validity or construction of any trust hereunder or create in any beneficiary any right or power other than those to which such beneficiary was then entitled in the State of Florida.

B. Certification Regarding Prior Administration. Any successor Trustee is specifically authorized to accept the trust assets as the same may be certified to such Trustee by any prior Trustee or as may be approved by the beneficiaries then entitled or permitted to receive the income of such trusts (or the legal or natural guardian of any of them who is then under a legal disability), without the necessity of a full accounting or inquiry into the prior administration of the trust by any prior Trustee.

C. Delegation of Powers. Any Trustee may delegate to another Trustee the right to exercise any power (discretionary, administrative, or otherwise) by an acknowledged instrument and may revoke the delegation at any time by delivery of an acknowledged instrument to such other Trustee.

D. Termination of Fiduciary Capacity. Any individual Trustee shall be deemed to have ceased to serve as Trustee of a trust upon the first to occur of the following:

1. Unable to Manage Financial Affairs. Receipt by the remaining Trustee(s), if any, and by the beneficiaries then entitled or permitted to receive the income of such trust (or the legal or natural guardian of any of them who is then under a legal disability) of a certificate or letter from a medical doctor stating that he or she is the individual Trustee's physician and that, because of illness or incapacity of any kind of said individual Trustee, the Trustee is unable to manage financial affairs; or
2. Appointment of Guardian. Upon the appointment of a guardian of the person or property or conservator of such individual Trustee; or
3. Death or Resignation. Upon the death or resignation of such individual Trustee.

E. Custody of Trust Estate. While acting hereunder, the corporate Trustee (or its agent) shall have the sole custody of the assets constituting the trust estate and each trust or share thereof, and shall be responsible for the maintenance of adequate records reflecting the condition of the trust and the income and expenses thereof. Such records shall be open at all times to inspection by the individual Trustee, if any, or by the respective beneficiaries of the trust, or the legal representatives or attorneys of such persons.

F. Trustee Compensation. Any corporate Trustee shall receive compensation as determined by its standard fee schedule in effect and applicable at the time of the performance of its services, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the corporate Trustee. If no such schedule shall be in effect at that time or if no such writing exists, it shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for the services rendered. Any Trustee shall be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in serving as Trustee.

G. Trustee Exonerated. The Trustee shall be responsible for only due diligence in the administration and disbursement of any trust created hereunder and shall not be responsible for any loss or subject to any liability except by reason of the Trustee's own negligence or willful default proved by affirmative evidence. Every election, determination, or other exercise by the Trustee of any discretion granted to the Trustee, expressly or by implication under this Agreement or by law made in good faith, shall fully protect the Trustee and shall be conclusive and binding upon all persons. This Paragraph shall be binding on all interested parties hereunder, and the Trustee shall be indemnified and held harmless by the trust estate for any claim, demand, or suit arising with respect to any decision of the Trustee in the administration of the trust estate other than for the Trustee's gross negligence.

ARTICLE VII. ADMINISTRATIVE POWERS OF TRUSTEE

Edgar Filing: SILVERSTEIN BARRY - Form SC 13D/A

The Trustee shall have the following powers in addition to all powers now or hereafter conferred upon trustees by law:

A. Invest Trust Property. B. Margin Account Usage. The Trustee shall have the discretion to establish, maintain, make investments on margin, and use a margin investment account for such purposes as the Trustee deems reasonable and prudent. No person dealing with the Trustee need see to the use or application of margin proceeds nor place limitations or restrictions upon the Trustee in the maintenance of a margin account;

C. Retain Trust Assets. To retain as a part of any trust any and all assets transferred to or acquired by the Trustee, so long as the Trustee deems it appropriate to do so, regardless of whether said assets are the kind and class authorized by law for the investment of trust funds and without regard to principles of diversification;

D. Establish Bank and Brokerage Accounts. To retain principal and income cash funds in interest and non-interest bearing checking, savings, money market, brokerage, and NOW accounts, for such reasonable period of time as the Trustee may determine, pending investment or distribution to the beneficiaries hereunder;

No notice to or the consent of any beneficiary shall be required for any action taken under this Paragraph, and the Trustee shall be entitled to employ brokers and agents and pay them reasonable compensation for such purposes;

F. Borrow and Lend Money. To borrow such sums of money at any time and from time to time for such periods of time upon such terms and conditions from such persons or corporations (including any trustee hereunder) and for such purposes as may be deemed appropriate, and to secure such loans by the pledge or hypothecation of any property held hereunder, and the lender shall have no obligation to inquire as to the application of the sums loaned or as to the necessity, expediency, or propriety of the loan; to loan money to any person or entity, including a beneficiary, upon such terms and conditions, with adequate interest and security, and for such purposes as the Trustee may deem advisable;

I. Exercise Ownership Rights. To exercise all ownership rights, including, without limitation of generality, voting and subscription rights; and to otherwise exercise any and all rights and powers, and deal in and with securities at any time held hereunder, in the same manner and to the same extent as any individual owner and holder thereof might do;

J. Purchase Investments at Premium. To purchase investments at a premium and in the case of investments which have been purchased or otherwise acquired at a premium and which are callable or have fixed maturities, to amortize such premiums by charges against income;

K. Pay, Compromise, Settle, or Abandon Claims. To pay, compromise, settle, object to or abandon all claims and demands in favor of or against the trust estate (specifically including any claim that may arise out of any income, gift, or death taxes);

L. Deal With Other Fiduciaries. To receive assets from any source and to enter into any transaction authorized by this Article with the legal representatives of any other estate or with the trustees of any other trust estate in which any beneficiary hereunder has a beneficial interest, even though any of such legal representatives or trustees is also a fiduciary hereunder;

M. Distribute Income and Principal. To distribute income and principal in cash or in kind, or partly in each, and to allocate or distribute undivided interests of different assets or disproportionate interests in assets, and no adjustment shall be made to compensate for a disproportionate allocation of unrealized gain for federal income tax purposes, provided that any distribution to or for the benefit of a charitable organization described in ss.170(c) and ss.2055(a) of the Code shall be made, to the extent possible, from assets which produce income in respect of a decedent ("IRD");

N. Participate in Corporate Transactions. To participate in and to consent to any plan of reorganization, recapitalization, consolidation, merger, combination, dissolution, liquidation, or similar plan and any action thereunder, including, but not limited to, the deposit of any property with any protective, reorganization, or similar committee, the delegation of discretionary powers thereto, and the sharing in the payment of its expenses and compensation and the payment of any assessments levied with respect to such property; and to receive and retain property under any such plan whether or not the same is of the kind in which fiduciaries are authorized by law or any rule of court to invest funds;

O. Allocate Items to Income. P. Allocate Items to Principal. To allocate to principal (unless otherwise directed herein) all capital gains and all dividends and distributions payable in property or in stocks, bonds, or other securities whether of the disbursing company or another company;

Q. Make Discretionary Allocations to Income or Principal. To allocate to income or to principal as shall be deemed appropriate, in the fiduciary's absolute discretion, without liability to any beneficiary, (1) any dividend or distribution, the allocation of which is not ascertainable under the preceding two subparagraphs; (2) expenses of administration in a reasonable manner consistent with applicable state law and optimal tax results; and (3) the payment of Florida intangible personal property tax;

R. Employ Professionals. To employ investment counsel, accountants, depositories, custodians, brokers, consultants, agents, attorneys, and other employees, irrespective of whether any person so employed shall be a Trustee hereunder and irrespective of whether any firm or corporation so employed shall be one in which a Trustee hereunder shall be a partner, stockholder, member, officer, or director, or shall have any interest, and to pay the usual compensation for his, her, its, or their services out of principal or income as may be deemed appropriate; and such compensation may be paid without diminution of or charging the same against the commissions or compensation of any Trustee hereunder; and any Trustee who shall be a partner, stockholder, member, officer, or director in any such firm or corporation shall nevertheless receive his share of the compensation paid to such firm or corporation;

S. Make Distributions to Minors. To effect distribution to a minor by distributing the same to a custodian for such minor under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act (or corresponding provision of law) in effect in the jurisdiction where the minor resides, or elsewhere, and to select such a custodian for such minor, including a Trustee named herein;

U. Incorporate Business. To continue to operate or participate in the operation of any unincorporated business for as long as the Trustee deems appropriate to so do; to incorporate or to participate in the incorporation of any business, and to operate such newly incorporated business; and to liquidate, merge, consolidate, spin-off, or reorganize any business in such manner and upon such terms as the Trustee deems appropriate;

V. Conduct Business Interests. To conduct any business interests owned alone or with others for whatever period of time the Trustee deems appropriate with all powers of an owner with respect thereto, including, but not limited to, the power to borrow money and pledge estate or trust property as security therefor, or to delegate such powers to any partner, manager, or employee; to dispose of any such business or any assets thereof, at public or private sale, upon such terms and conditions as the Trustee deems appropriate; to form partnerships or corporations to carry on such business, and to contribute any estate or trust property as capital thereof; and to employ, elect, or permit to be retained any Trustee as a director, officer, or employee of such business entity; purpose, such as allocating the generation-skipping transfer tax exemption so that one or more of these trusts is entirely exempt from the federal generation-skipping transfer tax, or electing to treat a separate trust as qualified terminable interest property for federal estate tax purposes; and, in investing and making distributions from the separate trusts, the Trustee shall consider the tax saving opportunities afforded by the existence of separate trusts;

X. Direct Distribution if Trust Not Operative. To distribute property directly to the beneficiary of a trust, without the interposition of such trust, if at the time of distribution the circumstances are such that the trust would have been paid out to the beneficiary immediately upon funding of the trust;

Y. Collapse of Trust. If at any time the Trustee, in the Trustee's absolute discretion, shall determine that it is uneconomical or not in the best interest of the beneficiaries to continue any trust created hereunder, the Trustee, in the Trustee's absolute discretion, may terminate such trust and distribute the trust property to the person or persons, or to the legal representative of such person or persons, then entitled or permitted to receive or have the benefit of the income therefrom. If there is more than one income beneficiary, the Trustee shall make such distribution to such income beneficiaries in the proportion in which they are beneficiaries or, if no proportion is designated, in equal shares to such beneficiaries. This power shall not be exercised by any Trustee who is also a beneficiary of such trust;

Z. Pool Assets. To pool the assets of any or all trusts hereunder for investment purposes, allocating to each trust an undivided interest in all assets so held; and to merge any trust with any other trust held by the Trustee, whether created by a Guardian or by any other person by Will or Deed, if the terms thereof are substantially similar and held for the primary benefit of the same persons;

ARTICLE VIII. BENEFICIARY UNDER DISABILITY

A. Minors. If any property shall become distributable to a minor, it shall vest absolutely in the minor, but the Trustee may retain such property with all of the rights, powers, duties, and discretions which are herein granted to the Trustee elsewhere in this Agreement. In that event, the Trustee shall invest and reinvest such property and pay to or apply for the benefit of the minor so much or all of the net income and principal of such retained property as the Trustee deems appropriate for the minor's best interests, accumulating any net income not so paid or applied and adding such accumulated net income to principal, at least annually. When the minor attains majority, the Trustee shall distribute such retained property as then constituted to the minor. If the minor dies before attaining majority, the Trustee shall distribute such retained property to the deceased minor's estate.

B. Adult Beneficiary. If in the opinion of the Trustee any adult beneficiary is unable to properly disburse the income or principal to which the beneficiary may be entitled, the Trustee may retain such property and pay to or apply for the benefit of the beneficiary all or part of such income or principal as the Trustee deems advisable in the best interest of the beneficiary.

C. Application to Beneficiary. In applying income or principal for the benefit of any beneficiary, the Trustee is authorized in the Trustee's discretion to expend such amounts for the best interest of the beneficiary in one or more of the following methods as the Trustee deems appropriate:

1. Minor, Incompetent or Incapacitated Beneficiary. By delivering any such amount to the natural, general, or testamentary guardian of any beneficiary, or to a custodian for any beneficiary under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act or similar law, or to any individual or entity having the care, custody, or control of any such beneficiary, or with whom such beneficiary may reside, or to the committee, guardian, or conservator of any beneficiary who shall have been adjudicated an incompetent; or

2. Beneficiary. By delivering any such amount to such beneficiary, personally; or

3. Beneficiary's Behalf. By making direct expenditures for the best interest of such beneficiary.

D. Payment. The receipt of any such guardian, custodian, committee, conservator, individual, entity, or beneficiary, or evidence of such payment or expenditure of any such amount, shall be a full and sufficient discharge to the Trustee for the payment or expenditure thereof, and the Trustee shall be exonerated from all liability and responsibility by reason of any amount so delivered, paid, or expended irrespective of the application or use thereof that may be made by any such person; and the Trustee shall have no duty to see to the application of any such amount.

ARTICLE IX. RESTRICTIONS, LIMITATIONS, AND POWERS REGARDING THE TRUST, TRUSTEE, AND BENEFICIARIES

A. Restrictions on Individual Trustee. No individual Trustee, who is also a beneficiary of any trust, shall participate in the exercise of any discretion granted to the Trustee to (i) pay or apply the net income or principal of such trust to or for the benefit of himself or herself, including the termination of such trust, except to provide for his or her health, education, maintenance, or support as set forth under ss.ss.2041(b)(1)(A) and 2514(c)(1) of the Code; or (ii) to exercise any discretion with respect to crediting or charging any item to income or principal otherwise than as provided by law. In addition, any Trustee who is under a legal obligation to support a beneficiary of any trust shall not participate in the exercise of any discretion granted to the Trustee to pay or apply the net income or principal of such trust in discharge of that legal obligation.

B. Restrictions on Beneficiaries. No beneficiary of any trust shall have any right or power to pledge, assign, sell, transfer, or encumber his or her interest in any trust hereunder, nor shall any such interest be liable for or subject to the debts, judgments, or other obligations of such beneficiary or to claims of any sort against such beneficiary.

Edgar Filing: SILVERSTEIN BARRY - Form SC 13D/A

C. Prohibitions. No person shall purchase, exchange, or otherwise deal with or dispose of the principal or income of the Trust for less than an adequate consideration in money or money's worth, nor shall any person borrow the principal or income of the trust estate, directly or indirectly, without adequate interest or security.

ARTICLE X. SURVIVORSHIP CLAUSE

Beneficiaries. If any beneficiary dies within ninety (90) days after the death of the Settlor, then for purposes of applying and interpreting this Agreement such beneficiary shall be deemed conclusively to have predeceased the Settlor.
