Item 8.01      Other Events

On June 21, 2007, we announced that we are waiving our right to receive a premium on our quarterly distribution on our Class B units from ONEOK Partners, L.P. The waiver of the premium relates to the partnership not receiving unitholder approval of a proposal to amend the partnership agreement at the adjourned special meeting of the ONEOK Partners unitholders held May 10, 2007. The waiver of the premium is effective April 7, 2007, through December 31, 2007, after which the waiver will continue in effect until we provide ONEOK Partners 90 days notice that we intend to withdraw the waiver, in which case the withdrawal of the waiver will be effective with respect to any distributions on the Class B units declared or paid on or after the 90th day following delivery of the notice.

At the adjourned special meeting, the partnership amendment proposal did not receive the required two-thirds affirmative vote of ONEOK Partners' outstanding common units, excluding the common units and Class B units held by us and our affiliates. As a result, we, as holder of the Class B units, are entitled to receive a quarterly distribution payment equal to 110 percent of the amount paid to common unitholders, effective April 7, 2007. ONEOK Partners' next scheduled declaration of quarterly distributions to unitholders is July 17, 2007.

Also at the special meeting, ONEOK Partners unitholders did approve a proposal to allow us, at our option, to convert the Class B units held by us to common units. That proposal received the required approval by a majority of common units voted. We have determined that we will not convert the Class B units to common units at the present time.

The ONEOK Partners special unitholder meeting on the amendment and conversion proposals was required as a result of the April 2006 transaction in which our ONEOK Partners, GP, L.L.C. subsidiary became the sole general partner of ONEOK Partners and we became a 45.7 percent owner of ONEOK Partners, L.P.
