Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On October 25, 2011, Catherine M. Burzik was appointed to the Board of Directors to hold office until the next annual meeting of stockholders. Ms. Burzik has been President and Chief Executive Officer of Kinetic Concepts, Inc. ("KCI"), a leading global medical technology company, since November of 2006. Ms. Burzik previously served as the President of Applied Biosystems Group, a unit of Applera Corporation and a provider of tools for the life sciences, from 2004 until joining KCI in 2006. Ms. Burzik previously served as Executive Vice President of Applied Biosystems Group from 2003 to 2004, and also as Senior Vice President of Applera from 2004 to 2006. Prior to Applied Biosystems, Ms. Burzik was President of Ortho-Clinical Diagnostics, Inc., a subsidiary of Johnson & Johnson. Prior to that, Ms. Burzik was employed by Eastman Kodak Company, a leading international provider of imaging products and services, where she held various operations and marketing positions for over 20 years. Ms. Burzik currently serves as a board member of KCI, the San Antonio branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas, is Chairperson of the board of trustees of Canisius College, and is a member of the board of trustees of Keck Graduate Institute of Applied Life Sciences. Ms. Burzik also serves as Vice Chair of the AdvaMed Payment and Health Care Delivery Committee.

Ms. Burzik has not been named to any committees of the Board of Directors. It is expected that Ms. Burzik will receive standard compensation arrangements for non-employee directors which, as of the date of this report, includes an annual cash retainer equal to $60,000 and an annual grant of restricted stock units with a grant date fair value of approximately $200,000, as well as additional cash fees for certain Board of Directors and Board committee meetings.
