PROXY STATEMENT

FOR THE ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

TO BE HELD ON DECEMBER 18, 2006

VOTING AND SOLICITATION

General

The enclosed proxy is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of Copart, Inc., a California corporation, for use at our Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on Monday, December 18, 2006. The annual meeting will be held at 9:00 a.m., Pacific Standard Time, at Copart's corporate headquarters located at 4665 Business Center Drive, Fairfield, California 94534. Our telephone number at our headquarters is (707) 639-5000. Only shareholders of record at the close of business on November 7, 2006 will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the annual meeting.

We use several abbreviations in this proxy statement. We may refer to our company as "Copart" or the "Company." The term "proxy materials" includes this proxy statement as well as the enclosed proxy card and our 2006 Annual Report to Shareholders. References to our "fiscal year" refer to our fiscal year beginning on August 1 of the prior year and ending on July 31 of the year stated.

This proxy statement and the accompanying proxy materials were first mailed to the Company's shareholders on or about November 27, 2006. Copart will pay the cost of soliciting proxies. Proxies may be solicited on the Company's behalf by directors, officers or employees in person or by telephone, electronic transmission and facsimile transmission.

On November 7, 2006, the record date for determination of shareholders entitled to vote at our annual meeting, there were 90,551,897 shares of Common Stock outstanding held by approximately 1,333 shareholders of record. No shares of our authorized Preferred Stock were outstanding.

Voting Rights

Each share of our Common Stock outstanding on the record date is entitled to one vote on each matter submitted for shareholder approval. In addition, under California law in connection with the election of directors, each shareholder may cumulate such shareholder's votes and give one candidate a number of votes equal to the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of shares held by such shareholder as of the record date, or such shareholder may distribute such number of votes on the same principle among as many candidates as the shareholder thinks fit. Votes cannot be cast for more than the number of candidates to be elected. No shareholder will be entitled to cumulate votes for a candidate unless such candidate's name has been placed in nomination prior to the voting and the shareholder has given notice at the meeting prior to the commencement of voting of the shareholder's intention to cumulate votes. If any one shareholder has given such notice, all shareholders may cumulate their votes for candidates in nomination.

Quorum Requirement; Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

A quorum comprising the holders of a majority of our outstanding shares of Common Stock on the record date must be present or represented for the transaction of business at the annual meeting. Your shares will be counted as being present at the meeting if you appear in person or if you submit your proxy either by Internet, telephone, or by a properly executed proxy card.

If your shares are held in a brokerage account or by another nominee, you are considered the “beneficial owner” of shares held in “street name,” and these proxy materials are being forwarded to you by your broker or nominee (the “record holder”) along with a voting instruction card. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your record holder how to vote your shares, and the record holder is required to vote your shares according to your instructions. If you do not give instructions to your record holder, the record holder will be entitled to vote the shares in its discretion on Proposal One (Election of Directors) and Proposal Two (Ratification of Appointment of Independent Auditors).

If you abstain from voting or if a record holder does not vote the shares you own beneficially (known as a “broker non-vote”), either because it lacks the discretionary authority to do so or for any other reason, your shares will be included in the number of shares represented for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be counted for purposes of determining the number of votes cast regarding any particular proposal, however. Abstentions and broker non-votes can have the effect of preventing approval of a proposal where the number of affirmative votes, though a majority of the votes cast, does not constitute a majority of the required quorum. For example, if the number of abstentions or broker non-votes resulted in the votes “FOR” a proposal not equaling at least a majority of the quorum required for the meeting, the proposal would not be approved. This will be the case even though the number of votes “FOR” the proposal exceeded the number of votes “AGAINST” the proposal. Abstentions and broker non-votes are not counted in the election of directors. The seven nominees receiving the highest number of affirmative votes will be elected as directors.

Votes will be tabulated by an inspector of election appointed for the meeting, who will separately tabulate affirmative and negative votes, abstentions, and broker non-votes.

Voting Procedures

General. Your shares will be voted in accordance with the instructions you indicate when you submit your proxy. If you submit a proxy, but do not indicate your voting instructions, your shares will be voted as follows:

- FOR the election of the director nominees listed in this proxy statement;
- FOR the ratification of our selection of Ernst & Young LLP as independent auditors for the fiscal year ending July 31, 2007; and
- At the discretion of the proxy holders, upon such other business as may properly come before the annual meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Voting by Mail. By signing and returning the enclosed proxy card according to the instructions provided, you are enabling the individuals named on the proxy card, known as “proxies,” to vote your shares at the meeting in the manner you indicate. We encourage you to sign and return the proxy card even if you plan to attend the meeting. In this way your shares will be voted even if you are unable to attend the meeting.

Voting by Telephone or Internet. Instructions for voting by telephone and over the Internet are included with these proxy materials. If you vote by telephone or over the Internet, you do not need to complete and mail your proxy card.

Voting in Person at the Meeting. If you plan to attend the annual meeting and vote in person, we will provide you with a ballot at the meeting. If your shares are registered directly in your name, you are considered the shareholder of record, and you have the right to vote in person at the meeting. If your shares are held in the name of your broker or other nominee, you are considered the beneficial owner of shares held in your name. In that case, and if you wish to vote at the meeting, you will need to bring with you to the meeting a legal proxy from your broker or other nominee authorizing you to vote these shares.

Revocability of Proxies

You may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted at the annual meeting. In order to revoke your proxy, you may either:

- Submit another proxy bearing a later date;

- Provide written notice of the revocation to our Secretary, Paul A. Styer, c/o Copart, Inc., 4665 Business Center Drive, Fairfield, California 94534 prior to the time we take the vote at the annual meeting; or
- Attend the meeting and vote in person.

Proxy Solicitation Costs

We will bear the entire cost of solicitation, including the preparation, assembly, printing and mailing of proxy materials. In addition, we may reimburse brokerage firms and other custodians for their reasonable out-of-pocket costs in forwarding these proxy materials to you. The original solicitation of proxies by mail may be supplemented by solicitation by telephone, telegram, facsimile or other means by directors, officers, or employees of Copart. No additional compensation will be paid to these individuals for any such services.

Deadline for Receipt of Shareholder Proposals for 2007 Annual Meeting

Requirements for Shareholder Proposals to be Considered for Inclusion in Copart's Proxy Materials. Shareholders of Copart may submit proposals on matters appropriate for shareholder action at annual meetings of Copart's shareholders in accordance with Rule 14a-8 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. For such proposals to be included in Copart's proxy materials relating to its 2007 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, all applicable requirements under Rule 14a-8 must be satisfied and such proposals must be received by Copart no later than July 11, 2007. Such proposals should be delivered to Copart, Inc., Attn: Paul A. Styer, Secretary, 4665 Business Center Drive, Fairfield, California 94534. The submission of a shareholder proposal does not guarantee that it will be included in Copart's proxy statement or proxy.

Requirements for Shareholder Proposals to be Brought Before the Annual Meeting. Copart's bylaws establish an advance notice procedure for shareholders who wish to present certain matters before an annual meeting of shareholders where the proposal is not intended to be included in the proxy statement relating to that meeting. For shareholder nominations to the Board of Directors or other proposals to be considered at an annual meeting, the shareholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of Copart (at the address noted above) such that the shareholder notice has been received by Copart not less than ninety (90) nor more than one hundred twenty (120) days prior to the anniversary of the date on which Copart first mailed its proxy materials for its immediately preceding annual meeting of shareholders. To be timely for the 2007 annual meeting, a shareholder's notice must be delivered to or mailed and received by the Secretary at the principal executive offices of Copart between July 11, 2007 and August 10, 2007. A shareholder's notice to the Secretary must set forth, with respect to each matter the shareholder proposes to bring before the annual meeting, the information required by Copart's bylaws. If a shareholder fails to comply with the advance notice provision set forth in the bylaws, the shareholder will not be permitted to present the proposal at the meeting.

In addition, the proxy solicited by the Board of Directors for the 2007 Annual Meeting of Shareholders will confer discretionary authority on management's proxy holders to vote on (i) any proposal presented by a shareholder at that meeting for which Copart has not been provided with notice on or prior to the August 10, 2007 deadline and (ii) on any proposal made in accordance with the bylaw provisions, if the 2007 proxy statement briefly describes the matter and how management's proxy holders intend to vote on it, provided that the shareholder has not complied with the requirements of Rule 14a-4(c)(2) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Shareholders Sharing the Same Address

Copart has adopted a procedure called "householding," which has been approved by the Securities and Exchange Commission. Under this procedure, Copart is delivering only one copy of the annual report and proxy statement to multiple shareholders who share the same address and have the same last name, unless Copart has received contrary instructions from an affected shareholder. This procedure reduces Copart's printing costs, mailing costs, and fees. Shareholders who participate in householding will continue to receive separate proxy cards.

Copart will deliver, promptly upon written or oral request, a separate copy of the annual report and the proxy statement to any shareholder at a shared address to which a single copy of either of those documents was delivered. To receive a separate copy of the annual report or proxy statement, you may write or call Copart's Investor Relations Department at 4665 Business Center Drive, Fairfield, California 94534, telephone (707) 639-5000. Any shareholders of record who share the same address and currently receive multiple copies of Copart's annual report and proxy statement who wish to receive only one copy of these materials per household in the future, please contact Copart's Investor Relations Department at the address or telephone number listed above to participate in the householding program.

A number of brokerage firms have instituted householding. If you hold your shares in "street name," please contact your bank, broker, or other holder of record to request information about householding.

PROPOSAL ONE ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

General

One of the purposes of the annual meeting is to elect directors to hold office until the 2007 annual meeting or until their respective successors are elected and have been qualified. The number of authorized directors is currently eight, although Copart's Board of Directors will amend our Bylaws to authorize seven directors effective with the annual meeting. Our Nominating and Governance Committee has nominated the seven individuals listed below for election as directors. All of the nominees are presently directors of Copart. On October 10, 2006, Jonathan Vannini, a current director of the Company, informed the Company's Chief Executive Office that he would retire as a member of the Board of Directors immediately following the 2006 annual meeting. He will continue to serve as a director until the annual meeting. Mr. Vannini has served as a director since 1993, and Copart thanks him for his long-standing service and contribution to the Company. Each person nominated for election has agreed to serve if elected, and we have no reason to believe that any nominee will be unavailable to serve. Unless otherwise instructed, the proxy holders will vote all submitted proxies FOR the seven nominees named below. In the event that additional persons are nominated for election as directors, the proxy holders intend to vote all proxies received by them in such a manner (in accordance with cumulative voting) as will ensure the election of as many of the nominees listed below as possible. In such event, the specific nominees to be voted for will be determined by the proxy holders. Directors must be elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the annual meeting. Accordingly, the seven candidates receiving the highest number of affirmative votes of the shares entitled to vote at the annual meeting will be elected to our Board of Directors.

Daniel Englander was appointed to the Board of Directors on October 10, 2006 upon the recommendation of the Nominating and Governance Committee following a review of his background and experience and a personal meeting. Vote Required

The director nominees receiving the highest number of affirmative votes of the holders of shares outstanding Common Stock entitled to vote and present at the annual meeting, either in person or by proxy, will be elected as directors at the annual meeting.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

Our Board of Directors unanimously recommends that shareholders vote “FOR” the election of the nominees listed above.

Board Meetings and Board Committees

During the fiscal year ended July 31, 2006, our Board of Directors held seven (7) meetings. Each of our directors attended at least 75% of the meetings held during fiscal 2006 of our board or any committee on which such director served, with the exception of Mr. Englander due to the fact that he became a director in fiscal 2007. Copart's directors are strongly encouraged to attend the annual meeting of shareholders. Directors Johnson, Adair and Meeks attended the Company's 2005 annual meeting of shareholders. During fiscal 2006, the Company maintained standing audit, compensation and nominating and governance committees. Each committee has a written charter approved by our Board of Directors outlining the principal responsibilities of the committee. The Audit Committee and Nominating and Governance Committee charters were filed as annexes to our proxy statement for the 2005 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. A copy of the Compensation Committee charter is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement.

Audit Committee

Our Audit Committee is primarily responsible for reviewing and approving the services performed by our independent auditors, reviewing our financial statements, and reviewing reports concerning our accounting practices and systems of internal accounting procedures and controls. The purposes of the Audit Committee are, among other things, to:

- Oversee our accounting and financial reporting processes and audits of our financial statements;
- Assist the board in overseeing and monitoring: (i) the integrity of our financial statements; (ii) our accounting policies and procedures; (iii) our compliance with legal and regulatory requirements; (iv) our independent auditor's qualifications, independence, and performance; (v) our disclosure controls and procedures; and (vi) our internal controls;
- Provide the board with the result of its monitoring and any recommendations derived from such monitoring; and
- Provide the board with additional information and materials as the Audit Committee may determine to be necessary to make the board aware of significant financial matters requiring board attention.

The Audit Committee consisted at all times during fiscal 2006 of directors Blumenstein, Grosfeld, Vannini and Cohan. Mr. Englander was appointed a member of the Audit Committee on October 10, 2006. Copart believes that all current members of the Audit Committee are "independent directors" as contemplated by Rule 4200 of the Marketplace Rules of the National Association of the Securities Dealers, Inc. Mr. Vannini intends to step down from the Audit Committee when his director term ends upon his resignation immediately following the 2006 annual meeting. The Board of Directors has designated Steven Cohan as an "audit committee financial expert" as defined in Item 401(h) of Regulation S-K promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee held five (5) meetings during fiscal 2006.

Compensation Committee

Our Compensation Committee is generally responsible for, among other things, reviewing and approving the Company's compensation policies, setting the compensation levels for those Company executive officers and senior managers reporting directly to the Company's President whose compensation is not otherwise established pursuant to employment agreements reviewed or approved by the Board of Directors, and administering our equity incentive plans. The Compensation Committee acts under a written charter adopted and approved by our Board of Directors. The Compensation Committee consisted at all times during fiscal 2006 of directors Blumenstein, Grosfeld, and Vannini. Mr. Englander was appointed a member of the Compensation Committee on October 10, 2006. Copart believes that all current members of the Compensation Committee are "independent directors" as contemplated by Rule 4200 of the Marketplace Rules of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. and are "outside directors" as defined in Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. Mr. Vannini intends to step down from the Compensation Committee when his director term ends upon his resignation immediately following the 2006 annual meeting. The Compensation Committee held three (3) meetings during fiscal 2006.

Nominating and Governance Committee

Copart's Board of Directors established the Nominating and Governance Committee in September 2003. The purpose of the Nominating and Governance Committee is to ensure that our board is properly constituted to meet its fiduciary obligations to shareholders and that Copart has and follows appropriate governance standards. The committee is authorized to assist the board by identifying prospective director nominees and to select the director nominees for the next annual meeting of shareholders and to develop and recommend to the board governance principles applicable to Copart. The Nominating and Governance Committee consisted at all times during fiscal 2006 of directors Blumenstein, Grosfeld, and Vannini. Mr. Englander was appointed a member of the Nominating and Governance Committee on October 10, 2006. Copart believes that all current members of the Nominating and Governance Committee are "independent directors" as contemplated by Rule 4200 of the Marketplace Rules of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. The committee held one (1) meeting during fiscal 2006. Mr. Vannini intends to step down from the Nominating and Governance Committee when his director term ends upon his resignation immediately following the 2006 annual meeting.

In recommending candidates for election to the Board of Directors, the Nominating and Governance Committee considers nominees recommended by directors, officers, employees, shareholders and others, using the same criteria to evaluate all candidates. The Nominating and Governance Committee reviews each candidate's qualifications, including whether a candidate possesses any of the specific qualities and skills desirable in certain members of the Board of Directors. Evaluations of candidates generally involve a review of the background materials, internal discussions and interviews with selected candidates as appropriate. Upon selection of a qualified candidate, the Nominating and Governance Committee recommends the candidate for consideration by the full Board of Directors. To recommend a prospective nominee for the Nominating and Governance Committee's consideration, submit the candidate's name and qualifications to Copart's Secretary in writing to the following address: Copart, Inc., Attn: Paul A. Styer, Secretary, 4665 Business Center Drive, Fairfield, CA 94534. When submitting candidates for nomination to be elected at the Company's annual meeting of shareholders, shareholders must also follow the advance notice procedures for shareholder nominees and provide the information required by Copart's bylaws.

Shareholder Communications with the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors has approved the following procedure for shareholders to communicate with the Company's directors. Mail can be addressed to directors in care of Copart, Inc., 4665 Business Center Drive, Fairfield, California 94534, attention General Counsel. All mail received will be logged in, opened and screened for security purposes. All mail, other than trivial or obscene items, will be forwarded. Trivial items will be delivered to the directors at the next scheduled board meeting. Mail addressed to a particular director will be forwarded or delivered to that director. Mail addressed to "Outside Directors" or "Non-Management Directors" will be forwarded or delivered to the Chairman of the Nominating and Governance Committee. Mail addressed to the "Board of Directors" will be forwarded or delivered to the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer.

Director Compensation

Each of our non-employee directors, consisting of directors Blumenstein, Grosfeld, Vannini, and Cohan received quarterly cash compensation during fiscal 2006 of $8,000 for services as a director and member of any committees on which he may serve. Non-employee directors are reimbursed for expenses incurred with attending board or committee meetings.

In October 2005, Copart granted directors Blumenstein, Grosfeld, Vannini and Cohan each an option to acquire 20,000 shares of common stock under its 2001 Stock Option Plan at an exercise price of $24.03. Each of these options vests over two years, with one-half of the shares vesting on the first anniversary of the date of grant and the balance vesting on a monthly basis over the 12 months succeeding such first anniversary.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

Our Compensation Committee consisted at all times during fiscal 2006 of directors Blumenstein, Grosfeld, and Vannini. No member of the Compensation Committee was at any time during fiscal 2006, or at any other time, an officer or employee of Copart or any of its subsidiaries, and no member of the Compensation Committee had any relationship requiring disclosure under Item 404 of Regulation S-K (Certain Relationships and Related Transactions) promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). No interlocking relationship, as described by the Securities and Exchange Commission, currently exists or existed during fiscal 2006 between any member of our Compensation Committee and any member of any other company's board of directors or compensation committee.

PROPOSAL TWO RATIFICATION OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

General

On January 30, 2006, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors dismissed KPMG LLP ("KPMG") as its independent registered public accounting firm. The Audit Committee appointed Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2006.

The audit reports of KPMG LLP on the consolidated financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries as of and for the years ended July 31, 2005 and 2004 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. The audit report of KPMG LLP on management's assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting and the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of July 31, 2005 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

During the Company's two most recent fiscal years ended July 31, 2004, and July 31, 2005, and through January 30, 2006, there were no disagreements with KPMG on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to KPMG's satisfaction, would have caused KPMG to make reference thereto in its reports on the Company's financial statements for such years.

During the Company's two most recent fiscal years ended July 31, 2004, and July 31, 2005, and through January 30, 2006, there were no reportable events (as described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K).

On January 27, 2006, the Audit Committee approved the engagement of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. During the Company's two most recent fiscal years ended July 31, 2004, and July 31, 2005, and through January 27, 2006, neither the Company nor anyone acting on its behalf consulted with Ernst & Young LLP regarding either: (i) the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements; or (ii) any matter that was either the subject of a disagreement (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K and the related instructions) or a reportable event (as described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K). The Company has authorized KPMG to respond fully to the inquiries of Ernst & Young LLP.

Our Audit Committee has appointed Ernst & Young LLP as our independent auditors to audit our financial statements for the current fiscal year ending July 31, 2007. A representative of Ernst & Young LLP is expected to be present at the annual meeting, will have the opportunity to make a statement if he or she desires to do so, and will be available to respond to appropriate questions. Shareholder ratification of the selection of Ernst & Young LLP is not required by our bylaws or otherwise. Our Audit Committee is submitting the selection of Ernst & Young LLP to the shareholders for ratification as a matter of good corporate practice.

In the event the shareholders fail to ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP, the Audit Committee will reconsider its selection. Even if the selection of independent auditors is ratified by our shareholders, the Audit Committee may, in its discretion, direct the appointment of a different independent accounting firm at any time during the year if it feels that such a change would be in the best interests of Copart and its shareholders.

Policy on Audit Committee Pre-Approval of Audit and Permissible Non-Audit Services of Independent Auditors

The Audit Committee's policy is to pre-approve all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by the independent auditors. These services may include audit services, audit-related services, tax services and other services. Pre-approval is generally provided for up to one year and any pre-approval is detailed as to the particular service or category of services and is generally subject to a specific budget. The independent auditors and management are required to periodically report to the Audit Committee regarding the extent of services provided by the independent auditors in accordance with this pre-approval, and the fees for the services performed to date. The Audit Committee may also pre-approve particular services on a case-by-case basis.

Vote Required

Ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present at the 2006 annual meeting, either in person or by proxy.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The following report of the Audit Committee shall not be deemed to be “soliciting material” or to be “filed” with the Securities and Exchange Commission, nor shall this information be incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference this proxy into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, except to the extent that we specifically incorporate this information by reference in such filing.

The Audit Committee of our Board of Directors is comprised of the five directors named below, none of whom are officers or employees of the Company. Our Audit Committee believes that all of its current members are independent directors as defined by applicable Nasdaq Global Select Market rules and listing standards. The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed with Copart’s management and Ernst & Young LLP Copart’s audited consolidated financial statements and financial reporting process. Copart’s management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and financial reporting processes of Copart, including the system of internal controls. Ernst & Young LLP, the Company’s current independent auditors, is responsible for performing an independent audit of the consolidated financial statements of the Company and for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles. The Audit Committee reviews and monitors these processes and receives reports from Ernst & Young LLP and Company management. The Audit Committee also discussed with Ernst & Young LLP the overall scope and plans of their audits, their evaluation of the company’s internal controls, and the overall quality of the company’s financial reporting processes.

The Audit Committee has discussed with Ernst & Young LLP those matters required to be discussed by Statement of Auditing Standards No. 61 (“Communication With Audit Committees”) and has also discussed with the Audit Committee that firm’s independence from management and the Company. The Audit Committee has also received and reviewed the written disclosures and the letter from Ernst & Young LLP required by Independence Standard Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committee). The Audit Committee has also considered whether Ernst & Young LLP’s provision to the Company of non-audit services (such as tax-related services, due diligence procedures, and services and advice related to acquisitions) that are not otherwise prohibited by applicable law is compatible with maintaining the independence of Ernst & Young LLP with respect to the Company and its management.

Based upon the reviews, discussions and considerations referred to above, the Audit Committee has recommended to the Board of Directors that the Company’s audited financial statements be included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for fiscal year 2006, and that Ernst & Young LLP be appointed as the independent auditors for the Company for fiscal year 2007.

Copart provides its Chief Executive Officer and President limited ability to use Copart's corporate aircraft for personal purposes, subject to the standards and limitations described in the Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation included in this proxy statement. In addition, Copart provides its Chief Executive Officer, its President, and its Chief Operating Officer with company-owned or leased automobiles that may be used for personal purposes. Copart provides the other Named Executive Officers with a monthly car allowance.

For purposes of the compensation table above, consistent with SEC guidelines, Copart has valued these perquisites based on their incremental cost to Copart. For purposes of valuing personal use of corporate aircraft, Copart uses a method that takes into account (i) landing/parking/flight planning services and expenses; (ii) crew travel expenses; (iii) supplies and catering; (iv) aircraft fuel and oil expenses; (v) maintenance, parts and external labor; (vi) customs, foreign permit and similar fees, if any; and (vii) passenger ground transportation. Based on Copart's incremental cost analysis, the aggregate value of these perquisites received by the Named Executive Officers identified in the table above did not exceed in any individual case $50,000 in fiscal 2006, 2005, or 2004. Copart's proxy statement for the 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders disclosed the value of these benefits based on Internal Revenue Service guidelines, including use of the Standard Industry Fare Level (SIFL) for purposes of personal aircraft use. Under the prior tax value approach, with respect to Mr. Johnson, the value of personal aircraft use was $13,268, $17,820 and $31,965 in fiscal 2006, 2005 and 2004, respectively, and the value of personal automobile use was $12,975, $15,000 and $25,788 in fiscal 2006, 2005 and 2004, respectively. With respect to Mr. Adair, the value of personal aircraft use was $10,596, $4,128 and $30,875 in fiscal 2006, 2005 and 2004, respectively, and the value of personal automobile use was $17,400, $23,760 and $20,400 in fiscal 2006, 2005 and 2004, respectively. For the proxy statements for the 2005 and 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, Copart has disclosed the value of these perquisites, consistent with SEC guidelines, based on their incremental cost to the Company.

Vincent W. Mitz	40,000	4.40	24.03	10/4/2015	605,258	1,534,283

- (1) Each option was granted under the Option Plan and will become exercisable for the option shares in installments over the optionee's period of service with the Company. Options vest over a five-year period at a rate of 20% per year. Each option has a maximum term of ten years, subject to earlier termination in the event of the optionee's cessation of employment with the Company.
- (2) Based upon options to purchase an aggregate of 909,000 shares granted by the Company to employees and directors during fiscal year 2006.
- (3) The exercise price may be paid in cash, in shares of the Company's Common Stock valued at fair market value on the exercise date or through a cashless exercise procedure involving a same-day sale of the purchased shares. The exercise price of all option grants was determined by the fair market value of the Company's Common Stock as quoted on the Nasdaq on the date of grant.
- (4) The 5% and 10% assumed annual rates of compounded stock price appreciation are mandated by the rules of the SEC and do not represent the Company's estimate or projection of future Common Stock prices. There is no assurance provided to any executive officer or any other holder of the Company's Common Stock that the actual stock price appreciation over the option term will be at the assumed 5% or 10% levels or at any other specific level. Assuming the specified rates of annual compounding, the total appreciation during the term of such options results in an increase of 62.9% (at 5% per year) and 159.4% (at 10% per year).

Employment Contracts and Change-in-Control Arrangements

We currently do not have any formal employment agreements with any of our executive officers and all are employed on an "at-will" basis.

All employees and consultants (including officers and directors) of the Company are eligible for option grants under our 2001 Stock Option Plan.

Future benefits under the 2001 Stock Option Plan are not determinable, as grants of options are at the discretion of the Compensation Committee. Pursuant to the terms of such option plans and related option grant agreements, if any, in the event of any acquisition or merger of Copart with or into another corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company, each outstanding option and stock purchase right shall be assumed or an equivalent option or right substituted by the successor corporation. If the successor corporation refuses to assume the options and stock purchase rights then outstanding or to substitute substantially equivalent options or rights, then the optionee shall have the right to exercise the option or stock purchase right as to all the optioned stock, including shares not otherwise vested or exercisable. In such event, the optionee shall be notified that the option or stock purchase right is fully exercisable for fifteen (15) days from the date of such notice and that the option or stock purchase right shall terminate upon expiration of such period.

In addition, in the event of a change of control in which options and stock purchase rights are assumed by a successor corporation, pursuant to the terms of certain option agreements under our 1992 Stock Option Plan and our 2001 Stock Option Plan as previously approved, if an employee is terminated without cause by such successor corporation within twelve months of such change of control, then such optionee shall vest in full and have the right to exercise the option or stock purchase right as to all the optioned stock, including shares not otherwise vested or exercisable.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The following Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation shall not be deemed “soliciting material” or to be “filed” with the Securities and Exchange Commission, nor shall this information be incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating this proxy into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, except to the extent we specifically incorporate this information by reference into such filing.

The Compensation Committee of our Board of Directors has general responsibility for establishing the compensation payable to our executive officers and other key executives. The committee has the sole and exclusive authority to administer our equity compensation plans, including stock option plans under which grants may be made to such individuals.

The Compensation Committee believes that the compensation for its executive officers should be structured to attract, motivate and retain those responsible for the success of the Company and should be determined within a framework based on the attainment of designated financial targets, individual merit and contribution and overall financial performance relative to Copart’s peers and certain designated corporate objectives.

This report is divided into two parts. Part One is a brief description of the compensation arrangements in effect for the 2006 fiscal year for the executive officers of the Company, including the Named Executive Officers in the Summary Compensation Table. Part Two is a discussion of the factors that governed the compensation payable to the Chief Executive Officer for the 2006 fiscal year.

Part One - Existing Compensation Arrangements

The Compensation Committee believes that the current salaries and benefits of our executive officers are commensurate with our financial performance to date and with the salaries and benefits payable by comparable companies. During fiscal 1998, the prior employment agreement between Copart and our Chief Executive Officer expired, and since 1998, Mr. Johnson has been employed on an “at-will” basis. The base annual salaries of Willis J. Johnson, A. Jayson Adair, James E. Meeks, David L. Bauer and Vincent W. Mitz were set at $600,000, $500,000, $300,000, $240,000 and $240,000 respectively, during fiscal year 2006. In August 2006, the Compensation Committee increased the base annual salaries for Messrs. Johnson, Adair, Meeks, Bauer and Mitz to $750,000, $600,000, $375,000, $270,000 and $270,000, respectively. The Compensation Committee intends to review these salary levels on a regular basis and to make such adjustments to them as it sees fit based on the performance of the Company and the particular employee. In August 2006, following its review of our fiscal 2006 financial results, the Compensation Committee approved cash bonuses for our executive officers. Specifically, the committee approved cash bonuses of $1,050,000 for Mr. Johnson, $800,000 for Mr. Adair, $450,000 for Mr. Meeks, $250,000 for Mr. Bauer and $250,000 for Mr. Mitz. These bonuses reflected increases over the cash bonuses paid in prior fiscal years, which increases the Compensation Committee determined were reasonable and appropriate in light of our financial and operating results in fiscal 2006.

Our objective in awarding options is to more closely align the long-term interests of the executive officers with those of our shareholders. During fiscal 2006, the committee reviewed the outstanding equity incentives of our executive officers, including the applicable exercise shares and the extent to which outstanding option grants were vested or unvested. Based on this review, the committee determined that additional option grants were appropriate. In the first quarter of fiscal 2006, the committee approved grants of 771,000 shares of common stock to Company employees, including grants to Messrs. Johnson, Adair, Meeks, Bauer and Mitz in the amounts of 100,000, 100,000, 75,000, 40,000 and 40,000 shares, respectively, under the Company’s 2001 Stock Option Plan. The exercise price for all option grants was equal to the fair market value of our common stock on the date of grant. As of the date of this proxy statement, no option grants have been made in fiscal 2007, but the Compensation Committee will evaluate the appropriateness of making additional option grants from time to time.

Part Two - Compensation of Chief Executive Officer

Willis J. Johnson, the founder of the Company, served as President and Chief Executive Officer from 1986 until May 1995, and has continued to serve as Chief Executive Officer since May 1995. He became Chairman of Board of Directors in January 2004. Mr. Johnson's base annual salary was $600,000 for fiscal year 2006, an increase of $100,000 over his base salary for fiscal year 2005. In August 2006, the Compensation Committee increased Mr. Johnson's base annual salary to $750,000. During the first quarter of fiscal 2006, the Compensation Committee approved the grant to Mr. Johnson of an option to acquire 100,000 shares of common stock under Copart's 2001 Stock Option Plan. Mr. Johnson is also entitled to participate in the Company's benefit plans and is entitled to four weeks paid vacation per year, use of Company automobiles, and a $1 million life insurance policy with the beneficiary being designated by Mr. Johnson. In addition, we historically paid the premium on a $1,000,000 life insurance policy under which Mr. Johnson's wife is the named insured and Mr. Johnson is the beneficiary. These policies were cancelled effective January 1, 2006.

In addition, during fiscal 2004, the Compensation Committee approved standards for personal use of Copart's leased aircraft by Mr. Johnson and A. Jayson Adair, Copart's President. The committee authorized Mr. Johnson to use the aircraft for personal purposes for up to 50 flight hours per fiscal year and Mr. Adair to use the aircraft for personal purposes for up to 25 flight hours per fiscal year. Flight hours in excess of these amounts would require the additional approval of the Compensation Committee. The committee intends to value this benefit on an annual basis, and Mr. Johnson and Mr. Adair will be responsible for taxes resulting from any deemed income arising from this benefit.

The Compensation Committee believes that the salary and benefits paid to Mr. Johnson during fiscal 2006 were commensurate with the Company's financial performance. The Compensation Committee expects that any bonus compensation recommended to be payable to Mr. Johnson in future years will also be based upon the Company's growth and financial performance, and subject to approval by the Compensation Committee.

In October 2005, our Board of Directors approved, following the recommendation of our Compensation Committee, the Copart, Inc. Executive Bonus Plan. For fiscal 2006, the committee determined that our Chief Executive Officer and our President were eligible to participate and receive a bonus, subject to Copart's achievement of a performance target measured by revenue. Under the terms of the plan, Mr. Johnson and Mr. Adair received bonuses in fiscal 2006 of $1,050,000 and $800,000, respectively.

Tax Limitation. Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), places a limit of $1,000,000 on the amount of compensation that we may deduct in any year with respect to certain of our highest paid executives. Certain performance-based compensation that has been approved by shareholders is not subject to this deduction limit. We intend to qualify certain compensation paid to executives for deductibility under the Code, including Section 162(m) of the Code. However, we may from time to time pay compensation to our executive officers that may not be deductible.

The following graph shows a comparison of the cumulative total shareholder returns for the Company, the NASDAQ Stock Market - (U.S.), and a peer group (based on Standard Industrial Classification (“SIC”) codes) for the period of August 1, 2001 through July 31, 2006. Such returns are based on historical results and are not intended to suggest future performance. Data for the NASDAQ and peer group indices assume reinvestment of all dividends. We have not declared or paid a cash dividend since becoming a public company in 1994. The Company currently intends to retain any earnings for use in its business and does not anticipate paying any cash dividends in the foreseeable future.

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

We employ in various non-executive positions Jason Johnson, the son of our Chief Executive Officer, Bonnie Randall, the sister of our Chief Executive Officer, and Rodgar McCalmon, the son-in-law of our Chief Executive Officer. In fiscal 2006, Mr. Johnson, Mrs. Randall and Mr. McCalmon received a total of $80,000, $100,000 and $147,100 of cash compensation, respectively. The Company believes that the terms of each such individual’s employment, including their cash compensation, are commensurate with other employees in comparable positions. In October 2005, Mr. McCalmon was granted 20,000 shares of common stock under the Company’s 2001 Stock Option Plan.

Willis J. and Reba J. Johnson are the owners of the real property and improvements of the Fresno, California facility and lease said premises to Copart for current monthly lease payments of $13,890 under a lease dated August 1, 1992, which expires, with inclusion of all extension options, in July 2009, and contains a provision whereby we have an option to purchase the real property and improvements. Total payments under this lease aggregated $159,301 in fiscal 2006. We believe that the terms of this lease are no less favorable to the Company than could be obtained from unaffiliated third parties.

Under the terms of the Lease Agreement dated September 1, 1992 between James P. Meeks and Barbara D. Meeks and Copart, Inc., we lease property in San Martin, California from James P. Meeks and Barbara D. Meeks. The San Martin lease expires August 31, 2007. Total payments under this lease aggregated $239,400 in fiscal 2006. James P. Meeks is the father of one of our directors, James E. Meeks.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires the Company's directors and officers, and persons who beneficially own more than ten percent of a registered class of the Company's equity securities to file with the SEC initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of Common Stock and other equity securities of the Company. Officers, directors and greater-than-ten percent shareholders are required by SEC regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) reports they file.

Based solely upon a review of the copies of such reports furnished to the Company and written representations from such officers, directors and greater-than-ten percent shareholders that no other reports were required to be made, the Company believes that there was full compliance for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2006 with all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to the Company's officers, directors and greater-than-ten percent shareholders.
