RYANAIR LAUNCHES SKYEUROPE RESCUE FARE

Ryanair, the World's favourite airline, today (1st Sept), launched a €25 (one way including taxes and charges) rescue fare* for SkyEurope passengers who may have been left stranded or have had their travel plans disrupted by the bankruptcy of the airline yesterday. This fare applies to Bratislava flights to/from Alicante, Barcelona (Girona), Brussels (Charleroi), Rome (Ciampino), Liverpool and London (Stansted).

Ryanair also pledged to assist with the repatriation of passengers who may be caught up in any future airline collapse and advised passengers that the best way to ensure travel plans are protected is to travel only with financially secure airlines such as Ryanair.

Ryanair's rescue fare can be booked via www.ryanair.com/member/SkyEuropeRescueFare.html until 15th September for travel until 17th December, and applies to SkyEurope passengers only.

Ryanair's Stephen McNamara said:

“SkyEurope's failure underlines the risk of flying with an airline that is not financially stable. Ryanair will help stranded passengers return home and ensure that those with travel plans up to 17th December can still travel.

Ryanair has the biggest route network in Europe making it easier for stranded SkyEurope passengers to find a local airport and return home. SkyEurope passengers can book these rescue fares for only €25 including taxes and charges via www.ryanair.com until 15th September.

“Ryanair strongly advises all passengers to book airfares only with financially stable airlines. By booking with Ryanair you will secure the guaranteed lowest fares and no fuel surcharges and can be sure that Ryanair will still be flying when your flight date arrives. With over €2billion in cash reserves Ryanair is one of the most financially robust airlines in Europe”.
