Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process, including the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

The Committee discussed with the Company's independent auditors their judgments as to the Company's accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Committee under generally accepted auditing standards Statement of Auditing Standard Number 61, Communications with Audit Committees, as currently in effect. Compensation of Directors

In May 2003, the Board approved a new compensation program for non-employee directors based on recommendations developed by an independent compensation consultant and an analysis of practices by other comparable real estate investment trusts. Under the new program, which was implemented beginning with fiscal year 2003, the Company pays each of its non-employee directors annual cash compensation of $30,000 for his services and $1,500 for each Board meeting attended by such director. The chairman of each committee receives additional annual cash compensation of $10,000, with the exception of the chairman of the Audit Committee who receives additional annual cash compensation of $20,000. Each non-employee director also receives annual compensation of $5,000 for each committee of which he is a member but does not serve as chairman and is reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred to attend director and committee meetings. Officers of the Company who are directors are not paid any directors fees.

In addition, under the Company's 1997 Stock Option and Incentive Plan (the "Stock Incentive Plan"), each non-employee director receives an annual grant of restricted shares of the Company valued at $20,000 on the date of grant that vest ratably over two years. Further, each non-employee director receives, upon initial election to the Board, a grant of 1,000 restricted shares of the Company that vest ratably over four years.

Qualifications of Director Nominees

The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee has established Standards for Overall Structure and Composition of the Board and Minimum Director Qualifications as a guideline in considering nominations to the Company's Board of Directors. The criteria include: loyalty, reputation, character, knowledge, experience, education, business judgment, diligence, stock ownership, independence and ability to contribute to board balance and diversity. The criteria are not exhaustive and the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee and the Board of Directors may consider other qualifications and attributes which they believe are appropriate in evaluating the ability of an individual to serve as a member of the Board of Directors.

Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee's Process for Identifying and Evaluating Nominees for Director

Prior to each annual meeting of security holders at which directors are to be elected, and whenever there is otherwise a vacancy on the Board of Directors, the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee will consider incumbent board members and other well-qualified individuals as potential director nominees. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee will review each potential candidate's qualifications in light of the Company's Standards for Overall Structure and Composition of the Board and Minimum Director Qualifications, described above. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee will select the candidate or candidates it believes are the most qualified to recommend to the Board for selection as a director nominee. Candidates recommended by a security holder are evaluated in the same manner as candidates identified by a Committee member.

Manner by which Security Holders May Recommend Director Candidates

The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee will consider director candidates recommended by security holders of the Company. All recommendations must be directed to the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee c/o Secretary at 12200 W. Olympic Boulevard, Suite 200, Los Angeles, California 90064. Recommendations for director nominees to be considered at the 2005 annual meeting of stockholders must be received in writing not later than November 30, 2004. Each security holder recommending a person as a director candidate must provide the Company with the following information for the Committee to determine whether the recommended director candidate is independent from the security holder, or each member of the security holder group, that has recommended the director candidate:

If the recommending security holder or any member of the recommending security holder group is a natural person, whether the recommended director candidate is the recommending security holder, a member of the recommending security holder group, or a member of the immediate family of the recommending security holder or any member of the recommending security holder group;

If the recommending security holder or any member of the recommending security holder group is an entity, whether the recommended director candidate or any immediate family member of the recommended director candidate is an employee of the recommending security holder or any member of the recommending security holder group or has been at any time during the current or preceding calendar year;

Whether the recommended director candidate or any immediate family member of the recommended director candidate has accepted directly or indirectly any consulting, advisory, or other compensatory fees from the recommending security holder or any member of the group of recommending security holders, or any of their respective affiliates during the current or preceding calendar year;

Whether the recommended director candidate is an executive officer, director (or person fulfilling similar functions) of the recommending security holder or any member of the recommending security holder group, or any of their respective affiliates; and

Whether the recommended director candidate controls the recommending security holder or any member of the recommending security holder group.

The recommending security holder must also provide supplemental information that the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee may request to determine whether the recommended director candidate (i) is qualified to serve on the Audit Committee, (ii) meets the standards of independence established by the New York Stock Exchange, and (iii) satisfies the Standards for Overall Structure and Composition of the Board and Minimum Director Qualifications, described above. In addition, the recommending security holder must include the consent of the recommended director candidate and the recommended director candidate must make himself or herself reasonably available to be interviewed by the Committee. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee will consider all recommended director candidates submitted to it in accordance with these established procedures, though it will only recommend to the Board as potential nominees those candidates it believes are most qualified. However, the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee will not consider any director candidate if the candidate's candidacy or, if elected, board membership, would violate controlling state law or federal law.

401(k) Plan

The Company has a Section 401(k) Savings/Retirement Plan (the "401(k) Plan") to cover eligible employees of the Company and any designated affiliate. The 401(k) Plan permits eligible employees of the Company to defer up to 60% of their annual compensation, subject to certain limitations imposed by the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code"). The employees' elective deferrals are immediately vested and non-forfeitable upon contribution to the 401(k) Plan. The Company currently makes matching contributions to the 401(k) Plan in an amount equal to fifty-cents for each one dollar of participant contributions up to a maximum of five percent of the participant's annual salary up to certain limits. Participants vest immediately in the amounts contributed by the Company. Employees of the Company are eligible to participate in the 401(k) Plan after three months of credited service with the Company. For the year ended December 31, 2003, the Company's contribution to the 401(k) Plan was approximately $307,000. Employment Agreements

Each of John B. Kilroy, Jr., Jeffrey C. Hawken, Richard E. Moran Jr., and Tyler H. Rose has entered into an employment agreement with the Company. Each of the employment agreements had an initial three-year term and is subject to automatic one-year renewals. Each of the employment agreements provides that the amount paid for annual base compensation and the amount of any bonus is determined at the discretion of the Executive Compensation Committee.

The employment agreements entitle the executives to participate in the Company's 1997 Stock Option and Incentive Plan and to receive certain other insurance benefits. The employment agreements also provide that in the event of death, the executive's estate will receive monthly payments of the executive's annual salary, plus one-twelfth of any bonus to be received, for a period equal to the lesser of the term remaining under the employment agreement or one year. In addition, in the event of a termination by the Company without cause, a termination of employment resulting from disability, a termination by the executive for good reason, or, in the case of Mr. Kilroy and Mr. Moran, a termination pursuant to a change of control of the Company (as such terms are defined in the respective employment agreements), the terminated executive will be entitled to (i) severance (the Severance Amount) and (ii) continued receipt of certain benefits including medical insurance, life and disability insurance and the receipt of other customary benefits established by the Company for its executive employees for two years following the date of termination (collectively, the Severance Benefits). The Severance Amount is equal to the sum of two times the executive's average annual base compensation and two times the highest annual bonus received during the preceding 36-month period.

Under the employment agreements, Disability means a physical or mental disability or infirmity which, in the opinion of a physician selected by the Board, renders the executive unable to perform his duties for six consecutive months or for shorter periods aggregating 180 business days in any 12-month period (but only to the extent that such definition does not violate the Americans with Disabilities Act). Cause, as defined under the terms of the respective employment agreements, means (i) the executive's conviction for commission of a felony or a crime involving moral turpitude, (ii) the executive's willful commission of any act of theft, embezzlement or misappropriation against the Company or (iii) the executive's willful and continued failure to substantially perform the executive's duties (other than such failure resulting from the executive's incapacity due to physical or mental illness), which is not remedied within a reasonable time. Good reason means (i) the Company's material breach of any of its obligations under the employment agreement (subject to certain notice and cure provisions) or (ii) any removal of the executive from one or more of the appointed offices or any material alteration or diminution in the executive's authority, duties or responsibilities, without cause and without the executive's prior written consent. Change of Control means (i) the event by which the individuals constituting the Board as of the date of the Company's initial public offering cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority of the Company's Board; provided, however, that if the election, or nomination for election by the Company's stockholders of any new director was approved by a vote of at least a majority of the members of the original Board, such new director shall be considered a member of the original Board; (ii) an acquisition of any voting securities of the Company by any person (as the term person is used for purposes of Section 13(d) or Section 14(d) of the Exchange Act, immediately after which such person has beneficial ownership (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act) of 20%, or more of the combined voting power of the Company's then outstanding voting securities unless such acquisition was approved by a vote of at least one more than a majority of the original Board; or (iii) approval by the stockholders of the Company of (a) a merger, consolidation, share exchange or reorganization involving the Company, unless the stockholders of the Company, immediately before such merger, consolidation, share exchange or reorganization, own, directly or indirectly immediately following such merger, consolidation, share exchange or reorganization, at least 80% of the combined voting power of the outstanding voting securities of the corporation that is the successor in such merger, consolidation, share exchange or reorganization in substantially the same proportion as their ownership of the voting securities immediately before such merger, consolidation, share exchange or reorganization; (b) a complete liquidation or dissolution of the Company; or (c) an agreement for the sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Executive Compensation Committee is composed of John R. D. Eathe, Edward F. Brennan, and Dale F. Kinsella. There are no Executive Compensation Committee interlocks and no employees of the Company participate on the Executive Compensation Committee.

Executive Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The Executive Compensation Committee (the Committee) is composed of three Independent Directors.

Role of the Committee

The Committee is responsible for:

Reviewing the compensation philosophy of the Company;

Reviewing and approving corporate goals and objectives relating to the compensation of the chief executive officer, evaluating the performance of the chief executive officer in light of those goals and objectives and determining and approving the compensation of the chief executive officer based on such evaluation;

Reviewing and approving all compensation for the Company's other senior officers, including cash and equity incentive compensation awards, and all senior officers' employment agreements and severance arrangements;

Administering and reviewing all annual bonus, long-term incentive compensation, stock option, employee pension and welfare benefit plans;

Determining the Company's policy with respect to change of control or parachute payments; and Preparing this Executive Compensation Committee Report.

The Committee periodically retains compensation and other management consultants to assist with, among other things, structuring the Company's various compensation programs and determining appropriate levels of salary, bonus and other awards payable to the Company's key personnel, as well as to guide the Company in the development of near-term individual performance objectives necessary to achieve long-term profitability.

General Policies Regarding Compensation of Executive Officers

Edgar Filing: KILROY REALTY CORP - Form DEF 14A

In establishing compensation for executive officers, the Committee seeks to:

Attract and retain individuals of superior ability and managerial talent;

Ensure senior officer compensation is aligned with the Company's corporate strategies, business objectives and the long-term interests of the Company's stockholders;

Increase the incentive to achieve key strategic and financial performance measures by linking incentive award opportunities to the achievement of performance goals in these areas; and

Enhance the officers' incentive to increase the Company's stock price and maximize stockholder value, as well as promote retention of key people, by providing a portion of total compensation opportunities for senior management in the form of restricted stock and stock options.

Determination of Compensation of Executive Officers for the Year 2003

Consistent with the prior year an independent compensation consultant was retained by the Committee to assist it in the determination of the key elements of the compensation programs for fiscal year 2003. The independent compensation consultant engaged by the Committee is a consultant specializing in compensation matters in the REIT and real estate industry and is not affiliated with the Company. Both the Committee and the compensation consultant evaluated the following in determining the amount of the executive compensation relative to the market, as well as the desired mix of base salary, annual incentives and long-term compensation opportunities:

Performance of the Company for 2003 as compared to other REITs, with an emphasis on office REITs;

Performance of the Company for 2003 as compared to other real estate companies engaged in activities similar to those engaged in by the Company, with an emphasis on developers; and

The current economic environment of the real estate industry and the markets specific to the Company's properties.

The compensation consultant provided advice to the Committee with respect to competitive practices and the amounts and nature of compensation paid to executives. The compensation consultant also advised on, among other things, structuring the Company's various compensation programs and determining the appropriate levels of salary, bonus and other awards payable to the Company's executives. Based upon the compensation consultant's recommendations, the Company's executive compensation package consists of a fixed base salary and variable cash and stock-based incentive awards with a significant portion weighted towards the variable components in order to ensure that total compensation reflects the overall success or failure by the Company and that the executive officers to meet appropriate performance measures.

Base Salary. Salary levels of executive officers were established after a review of REITs and other real estate companies deemed comparable to the Company. The Committee generally compares the Company's performance with that of other REITs and real estate companies engaged in activities similar to those conducted by the Company. Individual base salaries are reviewed at least annually and salary increases are granted based on each executive's performance and contribution to the overall success of the Company. Other subjective features are also considered such as the individual's experience.

Annual Incentive Bonus. Annual cash and restricted stock awards are granted based upon corporate, operational and individual factors.

For 2003, corporate goals were measured on the basis of achieving targeted earnings and operations objectives. These objectives included earnings as measured by Funds From Operations (FFO) per share, average occupancy, operating margins and leasing results and activity. Operational goals were measured on specific departmental strategic and operational objectives. Individual performance measures were assessed based upon each individual's annual goals. Bonuses were determined on the basis of the foregoing.

In February 2004, 21,234 shares of restricted stock were granted to the Company's Named Executive Officers under this program for services performed during 2003.

Long-Term Incentive Compensation. The Committee recognized that, while the annual incentive program provides awards for positive short-term and mid-term performance, the interests of stockholders are best served by giving key employees the opportunity to participate in the appreciation of the Company's Common Stock through the granting of stock-based incentives.

Edgar Filing: KILROY REALTY CORP - Form DEF 14A

The members of the Committee believe that share performance, over the long-term, will reflect executive performance and that such arrangements further reinforce management goals and incentives to achieve stockholder objectives. To that end, a portion of the Company's executive incentive compensation package is comprised of annual stock-based incentives that motivate executives to increase the Company's stock price and, therefore, the return to the Company's stockholders.

In granting stock-based awards, the Committee takes into account such factors as it determines to be appropriate under the circumstances, including an assessment of the executive's achieved performance goals and objectives, and the amounts and value of long-term compensation and stock-based compensation received by similarly situated executives at competitor companies.

Annual long-term restricted stock awards are granted based upon corporate, operational and individual factors. For 2003, corporate targets were measured on the basis of achieving targeted earnings, operations, development and shareholder return objectives. These objectives, which are different than the Annual Incentive Bonus objectives discussed above, included earnings as measured by Funds From Operations (FFO) per share, revenues from stabilized development, total stabilized development, and total relative and absolute shareholder returns. Operational and development goals were measured on specific departmental strategic and operational objectives. Long-term restricted stock awards were determined on the basis of the foregoing.

In February 2004, 84,902 shares of restricted stock were granted to the Company's Named Executive Officers and 5,023 shares of restricted stock were granted to other senior officers of the Company under the long-term incentive compensation program for services performed during 2003. The Company did not grant options to purchase shares of Common Stock to the Company's executive officers during 2003.

Special Multi-Year Outperformance Award. The members of the Committee believe that the outperformance of long-term shareholder returns will reflect executive performance and that arrangements that encourage management to maximize long-term shareholder returns further reinforce management goals and incentives to continuously increase shareholder value. To that end, the special multi-year outperformance portion of the Company's long-term executive compensation package is comprised of a cash award that motivates executives to increase the Company's stock price and, therefore, the total return to the Company's stockholders over the three-year period.

The special outperformance award provides for cash to be earned and paid at the end of a three year period, ending December 31, 2005, if the Company attains certain performance measures based on annualized total shareholder returns on an absolute and relative basis. The targets for the relative component require the Company to obtain an annualized total return to stockholders that is at or above the 70th percentile of annualized total return to stockholders achieved by members of a pre-defined peer group during the same three-year period. The amount payable for the absolute component is based upon the amounts by which the annualized total return to stockholders over the three-year period exceeds 10%. Amounts paid under the special outperformance award are payable at the discretion of the Committee.

No compensation was paid in 2003 under the special outperformance award since the award will not be granted until the end of the performance period at the end of 2005.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation. The compensation of John B. Kilroy, Jr. for the year ended December 31, 2003 was determined in accordance with the criteria discussed above.

Under Mr. Kilroy's direction, the Company achieved and in most cases outperformed the pre-established thresholds and measures discussed above. In addition, the Company had its most successful year, in terms of total shareholder return, since its initial public offering in 1997, achieving a 52.6% total shareholder return for calendar year 2003 (measured as the annual appreciation of the quoted common share price plus dividends paid during the year). Based on the recommendations of the compensation consultant and in recognition of Mr. Kilroy's contributions to the achievement of the Company's goals and continued successful execution of the Company's long-term business plan, the Committee granted to Mr. Kilroy 41,285 shares of restricted stock, 63% of which vest on February 10, 2005 and 37% of which vest on February 10, 2006. The Committee did not grant any options to purchase shares of Common Stock to Mr. Kilroy during 2003.

Edgar Filing: KILROY REALTY CORP - Form DEF 14A

Limitation on Deductibility of Executive Compensation. Section 162(m) of the Code limits the deductibility of compensation paid to certain executive officers of the Company. To qualify for deductibility under Section 162(m), compensation in excess of $1,000,000 per year paid to the Chief Executive Officer and the four other most highly compensated executive officers at the end of such fiscal year generally must be performance-based compensation as determined under Section 162(m), which includes most stock option and other incentive arrangements, the material terms of which have been approved by shareholders.

Despite the fact that the Company's incentive bonuses are determined based on the evaluation of the Company's performance and take into consideration certain financial and strategic goals, the Committee does not apply these factors on a strict formulaic basis. As a result, the Company's incentive bonuses may not satisfy the requirements of Section 162(m). The Committee believes that because the Company qualifies as a REIT under the Code and is not subject to Federal income taxes, the payment of compensation that does not satisfy the requirements of Section 162(m) does not have a material adverse consequence to the Company, provided the Company continues to distribute 90% of its taxable income. The Committee reserves the right to design programs that recognize a full range of performance criteria important to the Company's success, even where the compensation paid under such programs may not be deductible.

PERFORMANCE GRAPH

As a part of the rules concerning executive compensation disclosure, the Company is obligated to provide a chart comparing the yearly percentage change in the cumulative total stockholder return on the Company's Common Stock over a five-year period.

The following line graph compares the change in the Company's cumulative shareholder return on its shares of Common Stock to the cumulative total return of the NAREIT Equity REIT Total Return Index (NAREIT Equity Index), the Standard & Poor's 500 Stock Index (S&P 500 Index), and the SNL Office REIT (Equity) Index for the five-year period ended December 31, 2003. The Company includes an additional index, the SNL Office REIT (Equity) Index, to the performance graph since management believes it provides additional information to investors about the Company's performance relative to a more specific peer group. The SNL Office REIT (Equity) Index is a published and widely recognized index that comprises 28 office equity REITs, including the Company. The graph assumes the investment of $100 in the Company and each of the indices on January 1, 1998 and, as required by the Securities and Exchange Commission, the reinvestment of all distributions. The return shown on the graph is not necessarily indicative of future performance.

To the Company's knowledge, based solely on review of the copies of reports furnished to the Company or written representations that no other reports were required, during the year ended December 31, 2003, all Insiders complied with all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to them.

The Audit Committee annually reviews and pre-approves certain audit and non-audit services that may be provided by the independent auditors and establishes a pre-approved aggregate fee level for all these services. Any proposed services not included within the list of pre-approved services or any proposed services that will cause the Company to exceed the pre-approved aggregate amount requires specific pre-approval by the Audit Committee.

Representatives of Deloitte are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting and will have the opportunity to make statements if they desire and to respond to appropriate questions from stockholders.

Proxies may be solicited by directors, officers, and employees of the Company in person or by mail, telephone, email or facsimile transmission, but such persons will not be specifically compensated therefor. The Company may also use the services of a third-party solicitor to solicit proxies for the Annual Meeting, which the Company estimates would cost approximately $10,000.

AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

of the Audit Committee of Kilroy Realty Corporation

This Audit Committee Charter was adopted by the Board of Directors (the Board) of Kilroy Realty Corporation (the Company) on March 8, 2004.

I. Purpose

The purpose of the Audit Committee (the Committee) is to assist the Board with its oversight responsibilities regarding: (i) the quality and integrity of the Company's financial statements; (ii) the Company's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements; (iii) the independent auditor's qualifications and independence; (iv) the Company's accounting and system of internal controls; and (v) the performance of the Company's internal audit function and independent auditor. The Committee shall prepare the report required by the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement.

In addition to the powers and responsibilities expressly delegated to the Committee in this Charter, the Committee may exercise any other powers and carry out any other responsibilities delegated to it by the Board from time to time consistent with the Company's bylaws. The powers and responsibilities delegated by the Board to the Committee in this Charter or otherwise shall be exercised and carried out by the Committee as it deems appropriate without requirement of Board approval, and any decision made by the Committee (including any decision to exercise or refrain from exercising any of the powers delegated to the Committee hereunder) shall be at the Committee's sole discretion. While acting within the scope of the powers and responsibilities delegated to it, the Committee shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Committee shall have the power to determine which matters are within the scope of the powers and responsibilities delegated to it.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Committee's responsibilities are limited to oversight, and the Committee is not responsible for the completeness or accuracy of the Company's financial statements or other financial information. Management of the Company is solely responsible for the preparation, presentation, content and integrity of the Company's financial statements and other publicly disclosed information, including the Company's earnings press releases and earnings guidance, and other financial information provided to analysts, rating agencies and others. In addition, management of the Company is solely responsible for the Company's financial reporting process, accounting policies, internal audit function, internal control over financial reporting and disclosure controls and procedures. The independent auditor is responsible for performing an audit of the Company's annual financial statements, expressing an opinion as to the conformity of such annual financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles, reviewing the Company's quarterly financial statements and issuing an attestation report on management's assessment of the Company's internal control over financial reporting to be filed as part of the Company's annual report on Form 10-K. It is not the responsibility of the Committee to plan or conduct audits or to determine that the Company's financial statements and disclosure are complete and accurate and in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and applicable laws, rules and regulations. Each member of the Committee shall be entitled to rely on the integrity of those persons within the Company and of the professionals and experts (including the Company's internal auditor (or others responsible for the internal audit function, including contracted non-employee or audit or accounting firms engaged to provide internal audit services) (the internal auditor) and the Company's independent auditor) from which the Committee receives information and, absent actual knowledge to the contrary, the accuracy of the financial and other information provided to the Committee by such persons, professionals or experts.

Edgar Filing: KILROY REALTY CORP - Form DEF 14A

Further, auditing literature, particularly Statement of Accounting Standards No. 71, defines the term review to include a particular set of required procedures to be undertaken by independent auditors. The members of the Committee are not independent auditors, and the term review as used in this Charter is not intended to have that meaning and should not be interpreted to suggest that the Committee members can or should follow the procedures required of auditors performing reviews of financial statements.

II. Membership

The Committee shall consist of no fewer than three members of the Board. Each Committee member shall be financially literate as determined by the Board in its business judgment or must become financially literate within a reasonable period of time after his or her appointment to the Committee. Members of the Committee are not required to be engaged in the accounting and auditing profession and, consequently, some members may not be expert in financial matters, or in matters involving auditing or accounting. However, at least one member of the Committee shall have accounting or related financial management expertise as determined by the Board in its business judgment. In addition, either at least one member of the Committee shall be an audit committee financial expert within the definition adopted by the SEC or the Company shall disclose in its periodic reports required pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act) the reasons why at least one member of the Committee is not an audit committee financial expert.

Each Committee member shall satisfy the independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange and Exchange Act Rule 10A-3(b)(1). No Committee member may simultaneously serve on the audit committee of more than two other public companies, unless the Board determines that such simultaneous service would not impair the ability of such member to effectively serve on the Committee and such determination is disclosed in the Company's annual proxy statement.

The members of the Committee, including the Chairman of the Committee, shall be appointed by the Board on the recommendation of the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee. Committee members may be removed from the Committee, with or without cause, by the Board.

III. Meetings and Procedures

The Chairman (or in his or her absence, a member designated by the Chairman) shall preside at each Committee meeting. Agendas for Committee meetings shall be prepared by the Corporate Secretary in consultation with the Committee Chairman. A quorum shall be constituted by a majority of the Committee's members. The Committee shall have the authority to establish its own rules and procedures for notice and conduct of its meetings so long as they are not inconsistent with any provisions of the Company's bylaws that are applicable to the Committee.

The Committee shall meet at least once during each fiscal quarter and more frequently as the Committee deems desirable. The Committee shall meet separately, periodically, with management, with the internal auditor and with the independent auditor.

All non-management directors that are not members of the Committee may attend and observe meetings of the Committee, but shall not participate in any discussion or deliberation unless invited to do so by the Committee, and in any event shall not be entitled to vote. The Committee may, at its discretion, include in its meetings members of the Company's management, representatives of the independent auditor, the internal auditor, any other financial personnel employed or retained by the Company or any other persons whose presence the Committee believes to be necessary or appropriate. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Committee may also exclude from its meetings any persons it deems appropriate, including, but not limited to, any non-management director that is not a member of the Committee.

Minutes of each meeting are to be prepared by the person acting as secretary of the meeting. The Corporate Secretary will retain a copy of the minutes in the Company's permanent files.

The Committee may retain any independent counsel, experts or advisors (accounting, financial or otherwise) that the Committee believes to be necessary or appropriate. The Committee may also utilize the services of the Company's regular legal counsel or other advisors to the Company. The Company shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of compensation to the independent auditor for the purpose of rendering or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services, for payment of compensation to any advisors employed by the Committee and for ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.

The Committee may conduct or authorize investigations into any matters within the scope of the powers and responsibilities delegated to the Committee.

IV. Powers and Responsibilities

Interaction with the Independent Auditor

1. Appointment and Oversight. The Committee shall be directly responsible and have sole authority for the appointment, compensation, retention, termination, evaluation and oversight of the work of the independent auditor (including resolution of any disagreements between Company management and the independent auditor regarding financial reporting) for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or related work or performing other audit, review or attest services for the Company, and the independent auditor shall report directly to the Committee.

2. Pre-Approval of Services. Before the independent auditor is engaged by the Company or its subsidiaries to render audit or non-audit services, the Committee shall pre-approve the engagement. Committee pre-approval of audit and non-audit services will not be required if the engagement for the services is entered into pursuant to pre-approval policies and procedures established by the Committee regarding the Company's engagement of the independent auditor, provided the policies and procedures are detailed as to the particular service, the Committee is informed of each service provided and such policies and procedures do not include delegation of the Committee's responsibilities under the Exchange Act to the Company's management. The Committee may delegate to one or more designated members of the Committee the authority to grant pre-approvals, provided such approvals are presented to the Committee at a subsequent meeting. If the Committee elects to establish pre-approval policies and procedures regarding non-audit services, the Committee must be informed of each non-audit service provided by the independent auditor. Committee pre-approval of non-audit services (other than review and attest services) also will not be required if such services fall within available exceptions established by the SEC.

3. Independence of Independent Auditor. The Committee shall, at least annually, review the independence and quality control procedures of the independent auditor and the experience and qualifications of the independent auditor's senior personnel that are providing audit services to the Company. In conducting its review:
 - (i) The Committee shall obtain and review a report prepared by the independent auditor describing (a) the auditing firm's internal quality-control procedures and (b) any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality-control review, or peer review, of the auditing firm, or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities, within the preceding five years, respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the auditing firm, and any steps taken to deal with any such issues.

 - (ii) The Committee shall discuss with the independent auditor its independence from the Company, and obtain and review a written statement prepared by the independent auditor describing all relationships between the independent auditor and the Company, consistent with Independence Standards Board Standard 1, and consider the impact that any relationships or services may have on the objectivity and independence of the independent auditor.

 - (iii) The Committee shall confirm with the independent auditor that the independent auditor is in compliance with the partner rotation requirements established by the SEC.

 - (iv) The Committee shall annually consider whether the Company should adopt a rotation of the audit among independent auditing firms.

(v) The Committee shall, if applicable, consider whether the independent auditor's provision of any permitted information technology services or other non-audit services to the Company is compatible with maintaining the independence of the independent auditor.

Annual Financial Statements and Annual Audit

4. Meetings with Management, the Independent Auditor and the Internal Auditor.

(i) The Committee shall meet with management, the independent auditor and the internal auditor in connection with each annual audit to discuss the scope of the audit, the procedures to be followed and the staffing of the audit.

(ii) The Committee shall review and discuss with management and the independent auditor: (A) major issues regarding accounting principles and financial statement presentations, including any significant changes in the Company's selection or application of accounting principles, and major issues as to the adequacy of the Company's internal controls and any special audit steps adopted in light of material control deficiencies; (B) any analyses prepared by management or the independent auditor setting forth significant financial reporting issues and judgments made in connection with the preparation of the Company's financial statements, including analyses of the effects of alternative GAAP methods on the Company's financial statements; and (C) the effect of regulatory and accounting initiatives, as well as off-balance sheet structures, on the Company's financial statements.

(iii) The Committee shall review and discuss the annual audited financial statements with management and the independent auditor, including the Company's disclosures under Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

5. Additional Meetings with the Independent Auditor.

(i) The Committee shall review with the independent auditor any problems or difficulties the independent auditor may have encountered during the course of the audit work, including any restrictions on the scope of activities or access to required information or any significant disagreements with management and management's responses to such matters. Among the items that the Committee should consider reviewing with the Independent Auditor are: (A) any accounting adjustments that were noted or proposed by the auditor but were passed (as immaterial or otherwise); (B) any communications between the audit team and the independent auditor's national office respecting auditing or accounting issues presented by the engagement; (C) the Independent Auditor's annual attestation report on management's assessment of the Company's internal control over financial reporting; and (D) any management or internal control letter issued, or proposed to be issued, by the independent auditor to the Company. The Committee shall obtain from the independent auditor assurances that Section 10A(b) of the Exchange Act (which specifies how an independent auditor must respond to a discovery, in the course of conducting an audit, that an illegal act has or may have occurred) has not been implicated.

(ii) The Committee shall discuss with the independent auditor the report that such auditor is required to make to the Committee regarding: (A) all accounting policies and practices to be used that the independent auditor identifies as critical; (B) all alternative treatments within GAAP for policies and practices related to material items that have been discussed among management and the independent auditor, including the ramifications of the use of such alternative disclosures and treatments, and the treatment preferred by the independent auditor; and (C) all other material written communications between the independent auditor and management of the Company, such as any management letter, management representation letter, reports on observations and recommendations on internal controls, independent auditor's engagement letter, independent auditor's independence letter, schedule of unadjusted audit differences and a listing of adjustments and reclassifications not recorded, if any.

(iii) The Committee shall discuss with the independent auditor the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, as then in effect.

6. Recommendation to Include Financial Statements in Annual Report. The Committee shall, based on the review and discussions in paragraphs 4(iii) and 5(iii) above, and based on the disclosures received from the independent auditor regarding its independence and discussions with the auditor regarding such independence pursuant to subparagraph 3(ii) above, determine whether to recommend to the Board that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year subject to the audit.

Quarterly Financial Statements

7. Review of Quarterly Financial Statements. The Committee shall review the quarterly financial statements, including the Company's disclosures under Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

Internal Audit

8. Appointment. The Committee shall review the appointment and replacement of the internal auditor.
