To the Shareholders

Dear Sir or Madam,

(1) PROPOSED A SHARE ISSUE

(2) PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

(3) PROPOSED ADOPTION OF PROCEDURAL RULES

(4) PROPOSED ESTABLISHMENT OF CHINA LIFE CHARITY FUND

A. INTRODUCTION

The Company announced on 28 August, 2006 that the Company will apply to the Relevant Authorities for regulatory approval for the allotment and issue of not more than 1,500,000,000 A Shares to (i) strategic investors; (ii) securities investment funds, securities companies, trust and investment companies, financial companies, insurance institutional investors and qualified foreign institutional investors satisfying the requirements of CSRC; and (iii) other institutional and public investors as approved by CSRC, by way of public offering of new shares and/or such other manner as shall be approved by the Relevant Authorities. Such A Shares are proposed to be listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange. The A Share Issue is subject to approval from (a) Shareholders to be sought at the EGM; and (b) the Relevant Authorities.

In order to comply with the relevant requirements applicable to PRC listed issuers, the Board also proposes to make certain amendments to the Articles and to adopt the Procedural Rules for corporate meetings.

On the same day, the Company also announced that, subject to Shareholders' approval, it will establish the China Life Charity Fund (provisional name).

The purpose of this circular is to give you details of, among other things, the proposed A Share Issue, the proposed amendments to the Articles of Association, the proposed adoption of the Procedural Rules and the proposed establishment of China Life Charity Fund.

B. PROPOSED A SHARE ISSUE

1. Background

At the Board meeting held on 28 August 2006, it was resolved that the Company shall apply to the Relevant Authorities for the allotment and issue of not more than 1.5 billion A Shares to (i) strategic investors; (ii) securities investment funds, securities companies, trust and investment companies, financial companies, insurance institutional investors and qualified foreign institutional investors satisfying the requirements of CSRC; and (iii) other institutional and public investors as approved by CSRC, by way of public offering of new shares and/or such other manner as shall be approved by the Relevant Authorities. Such A Shares are proposed to be listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange. It is expected that such investors will not include connected persons (as defined under the Listing Rules) of the Company. If any such investors includes connected persons of the Company, the Company will take steps to comply with the relevant connected transaction requirements under the Listing Rules. At present, the H Shares and American Depositary shares are listed on the main board of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and the New York Stock Exchange, respectively.

2. Structure of the A Share Issue

Type of securities to be issued:	A Shares
Number of A Shares to be issued:	Not more than 1.5 billion A Shares. The final number of A Shares to be issued and the structure of the issue is subject to the approval by CSRC and other Relevant Authorities and the adjustments (if any) made by the Board as authorised by the Shareholders at the EGM
Nominal value:	RMB1.00 each
Rights attached to A Share:	The A Shares are listed Domestic Shares and, except as otherwise provided for in the applicable laws, rules and regulations and the Articles of Association, will rank pari passu with the existing Domestic Shares and H Shares in all respects. Once the A Share Issue is completed, both new and existing Shareholders will be entitled to share the accumulated retained earnings at the time of the A Share Issue

Target subscribers:	(i) Strategic investors; (ii) securities investment funds, securities companies, trust and investment companies, financial companies, insurance institutional investors and qualified foreign institutional investors satisfying requirements of CSRC; and (iii) other institutional investors and public investors as approved by CSRC, except for those prohibited under the PRC laws and regulations
Method of issue:	The issue will be conducted via a combination of private placement arrangements with strategic investors (strategic placement), placement through offline offering to strategic investors as approved by CSRC () (offline placement), and placement through online subscription at issue price (online offering), or such other method as approved by CSRC
Basis for determining the issue price:	The issue price of the A Share Issue will be determined on the basis of market conditions, the condition prevailing in the PRC securities market at the time of the A Share Issue by way of customary market consultation and such other ways as approved by CSRC. Thus, the amount of funds to be raised from the A Share Issue cannot be confirmed at the date of this circular
Use of proceeds:	Funds raised from the A Share Issue will be used to replenish the capital of the Company and for such other purposes as approved by the Relevant Authorities

3. Shareholders Approval and other Approvals

At the annual general meeting of the Company held on 16 June 2006, the Shareholders granted, by way of a special resolution, a general mandate to the Board to issue and allot not more than 20% of each of the existing issued Domestic Shares and H Shares of the Company as at the date of the special resolution. To date, the Company has not issued any shares under the above general mandate.

The EGM will be held on or about 16 October 2006 to consider and, if thought fit, approve, among other things, the A Share Issue and to authorise the Board to determine and deal with at its discretion and with full authority, matters relating to the A Share Issue (including but not limited to the specific timing of the issue, number of A Shares to be issued, offering mechanism, pricing mechanism, issue price, target subscribers and the number and proportion of A Shares to be issued to each subscriber). It should be noted that the A Share Issue, upon approval by the Shareholders at the EGM, is still subject to the approval of the CSRC and other Relevant Authorities, if necessary. In addition, the approval of the Shanghai Stock Exchange as to the listing and dealings in the A Shares on the Shanghai Stock Exchange is also required.

4. Reasons for and Benefits of the A Share Issue

The Company believes that the A Share Issue will establish a new financing platform for the Company and will broaden the Company's access to different securities markets. This will enable the Company to enhance the development of its operations and to further improve its competitiveness. Also, the Board believes that the A Share Issue will benefit the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

5. Effect of the A Share Issue on the Company's shareholding structure

Set out below is the shareholding structure of the Company as at the date of this circular and immediately upon completion of the A Share Issue based on the assumption that an aggregate of 1.5 billion new A Shares will be issued under the A Share Issue:

	As at the date of this circular		Immediately after completion of the A Share Issue
	Number of Shares	%	Number of Shares	%
(1) Domestic Shares	19,323,530,000	72.2	20,823,530,000	73.7
- Existing Domestic Shares issued	19,323,530,000	72.2	19,323,530,000	68.4
- A Shares to be issued			1,500,000,000	5.3
(2) H Shares	7,441,175,000	27.8	7,441,175,000	26.3
(3) Total number of Shares	26,764,705,000	100	28,264,705,000	100

As advised by King and Wood, the Company's PRC lawyers, according to the relevant existing PRC laws and regulations and the relevant requirements of the CSRC and the Shanghai Stock Exchange, Domestic Shares issued before the A Share Issue may be converted to qualified tradeable shares, and thus become A Shares. Except for the relevant requirements relating to lock-up period under the relevant laws and regulations and the listing rules of the Shanghai Stock Exchange, such A Shares shall carry the same rights as the other A Shares issued by the Company. It is expected that the conversion of the existing issued Domestic Shares into A Shares will not involve any payment of compensation by the holders of such Domestic Shares to the holders of A Shares issued under the A Share Issue.

C. PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Amendments to the Articles of Association are being proposed primarily as a result of the proposed A Share Issue and to comply with applicable PRC laws and regulations and to reflect the increase in number of Directors. The amended Articles of Association will become effective upon completion of the A Share Issue and upon approval by the CIRC and other regulatory bodies.

The proposed amendments deal with a number of areas, including:

- (a) alteration of the Company's registered capital and shareholding structure;
- (b) regulations on the proceedings of Shareholders' general meetings;
- (c) regulations on the election and appointment of Directors and Supervisors;
- (d) regulations on the rights and obligations of the Shareholders, Directors, Supervisors, President, Vice-President and other senior management;
- (e) provisions in relation to the rules and procedures of the Shareholders' meetings, Board meetings and Supervisory Committee meetings; and
- (f) other provisions as required by any applicable laws and regulations for companies with A Shares in issue.

D. PROPOSED ADOPTION OF THE PROCEDURAL RULES

Pursuant to the relevant laws, rules and regulations and the requirements of CSRC, the Company has established the Procedural Rules for the Shareholders' Meetings to regularise the functions and powers of, the procedures for the Shareholders' meetings and other related matters. In addition, pursuant to the relevant laws, rules and regulations, and the requirements of CSRC, the Company has amended the Procedural Rules for Board meetings and the Supervisory Committee meetings previously adopted by the Board and the Supervisory Committee, respectively.

The above Procedural Rules are subject to Shareholders' approval at the EGM, and the obtaining of any approval, endorsement or registration (as applicable) from or with the Relevant Authorities.

E. PROPOSED ESTABLISHMENT OF CHINA LIFE CHARITY FUND

1. Establishment of China Life Charity Fund

On the same day, the Board resolved to establish the China Life Charity Fund (provisional name).

The Company will wholly invest and set up the China Life Charity Fund, to be registered with the Ministry of Civil Affairs under the State Council as an independent legal person non-public charity fund. Under the relevant PRC laws and regulations, source of funding for a non-public charity fund is from designated individuals or organisations, and cannot be raised from the public. The China Life Charity Fund will have the mission of supporting charities and promoting social harmony and development. As required by the Ministry of Civil Affairs, the China Life Charity Fund will have an initial fund size of RMB50 million. In accordance with the requirements of the Regulations on the Administration of Foundations, the Ministry of Civil Affairs, as the statutory registration and administration authority of the China Life Charity Fund, will be invited to act as the competent authority responsible for business supervision of the China Life Charity Fund.

The establishment of the China Life Charity Fund is subject to the Shareholders' approval at the EGM.

2. Reasons For and Benefits of the Establishment of the China Life Charity Fund

The nature of the Company's principal business, life insurance, and the market position of the Company has helped establish a responsible, reputable and reliable brand-name image. Participating in charities is a crucial strategy in building brand image with a strong sense of social responsibility. Setting up a non-public charity fund will help the Company to quickly build up and market its charity reputation. It reflects the Company's leading role in the industry, fits its position in the industry and allows the Company to be more competitive in the charity regime.

F. THE EGM

Special resolutions to approve, among other matters, the proposed A Share Issue and the proposed amendments to the Articles of Association will be proposed at the EGM. Ordinary resolutions to approve, among other matters, the adoption of the Procedural Rules, and the establishment of the China Life Charity Fund will also be proposed at the EGM.

No Shareholder is required to abstain from voting in connection with the matters to be resolved at the EGM.

G. PROCEDURES FOR DEMANDING POLL BY SHAREHOLDERS

Under the current Articles of Association, a resolution at a Shareholders' general meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or after the show of hands) demanded by: (i) the chairman of the meeting; (ii) at least two Shareholders present in person or by proxy entitled to vote at the meeting; or (iii) any Shareholder or shareholders present in person or by proxy and representing more than (or equal to) one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the shareholders having the right to vote at the meeting.

Unless a poll is demanded, the chairman of the meeting will announce the results of the passing of a resolution according to the show of hands, which will be recorded in the minutes of the meeting and treated as conclusive evidence without the need to prove the number or the proportion of votes for or against the resolution passed.

A request to vote by poll may be withdrawn by the person who made such request.

H. RECOMMENDATION

The Directors consider that the proposed A Share Issue, the proposed amendments to the Articles, the proposed adoption of the Procedural Rules and the proposed establishment of the China Life Charity Fund are in the best interests of the Company and its Shareholders as a whole.

Accordingly, the Directors recommend the Shareholders to vote in favour of the resolutions which will be proposed at the EGM.

By Order of the Board of
CHINA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED
Yang Chao
Chairman

APPENDIX 1 PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

EXPLANATORY NOTE OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION (DRAFT) APPLICABLE AFTER THE A SHARES ISSUE IS COMPLETED

In light of the Company's recent plan to apply for public offering of its domestic shares (A Shares) to be listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange, according to the Notice Regarding Publication of the Guideline on the Listed Companies' Articles of Association (amended in 2006) issued by the CSRC (Guideline on Articles of Association), for companies offering shares to the public for the first time, when it submits application information to the CSRC, the content of its articles of association shall be drafted and amended according to the Guideline on Articles of Association. For companies who will offer domestic shares and overseas listed shares, it shall continue to comply with the requirements in the Mandatory Provisions for Articles of Association of Companies Listing Overseas (Mandatory Provision) and amend its articles of association according to the Guideline on Articles of Association. CHAPTER 3 CONVENING OF THE SHAREHOLDERS GENERAL MEETING

Article 10 Shareholders general meeting shall be convened by the board of directors, and shall be classified as annual general meeting and extraordinary general meetings.

Article 11 The annual general meeting shall be convened once a year, and shall take place within 6 months of the end of the previous financial year.

Article 12 The board of directors shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within 2 months after the occurrence of any one of the following circumstances:

- (1) where the number of directors fall short of the number stipulated in the Company Law or is below two-thirds of the number required by the Articles;
- (2) where the accrued losses of the Company amount to one-third of its total paid-up capital;
- (3) where shareholders solely or collectively holding more than 10% of the Company's issued shares carrying the right to vote make a request in writing to convene an extraordinary general meeting;
- (4) where the board of directors considers it necessary or where the supervisory committee proposes to convene such a meeting;
- (5) other circumstances required by the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and regulations or the Articles.

Article 13 If the Company fails to convene a shareholders general meeting within the above period, it shall report to the authority appointed by the securities regulatory authority under the State Council in the place at which the Company is located and the securities exchange where its shares are listed for trading (hereafter referred to as the stock exchange), and shall give the reasons and make an announcement in respect thereof.

Article 14 An independent director shall have the right to propose to the board of directors for holding an extraordinary general meeting. With regard to the proposal made by the independent director for holding an extraordinary general meeting, the board of directors shall, in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and regulations, and the Articles, give a written reply on whether to hold the extraordinary general meeting or not within 10 days upon receipt of the proposal.

If the board of directors agrees to hold the extraordinary general meeting, it shall serve a notice of such meeting within 5 days after the resolution is made by the board of directors. If the board of directors does not agree to hold the extraordinary general meeting, it shall give the reasons and make an announcement in respect thereof.

Article 15 The supervisory committee shall have the right to propose to the board of directors for holding an extraordinary general meeting, and shall put forward its proposal to the board of directors in writing. The board of directors shall, in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and regulations and the Articles, give a written reply on whether to hold the extraordinary general meeting or not within 10 days upon receipt of the proposal.

If the board of directors agrees to hold the extraordinary general meeting, it shall serve a notice of such meeting within 5 days after the resolution is made by the board of directors. In the event of any change to the original proposal set forth in the notice, the consent of the supervisory committee shall be obtained.

If the board of directors does not agree to hold the extraordinary general meeting or fails to give a written reply within 10 days upon receipt of the proposal, it shall be regarded that the board of directors cannot perform or fails to perform the duty of convening the extraordinary general meeting, and the supervisory committee may convene and preside over the meeting by itself.

Any expenses necessary for convening shareholders' general meetings by the supervisory committee shall be borne by the Company.

Article 16 Shareholders shall comply with the following procedures when they propose to convene an extraordinary general meeting or a class shareholders' general meeting:

(1) two or more shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 10% of the Company's shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting proposed to be held may sign one or more written request(s), the form and substance of which are the same, to propose to the board of directors for holding an extraordinary general meeting or a class shareholders' general meeting, and shall list out definite topics to be transacted at the meeting in the request. The board of directors shall, upon receipt of the aforesaid written request, convene the extraordinary general meeting or the class shareholders' general meeting as soon as possible. The shareholdings mentioned above shall be calculated on the date when the shareholders make such written request.

(2) If the board of directors does not serve a notice of such meeting within 30 days upon receipt of the aforesaid written request, the shareholders making such request may convene the meeting by themselves within four months upon receipt of the request by the board of directors, and the procedures for convening such meeting shall be as similar to that for convening a shareholders' general meeting by the board of directors as possible.

Any reasonable cost in connection with the convening and holding of the meeting by the shareholders themselves as a result of the failure on the part of the board of directors to hold such meeting as required above shall be borne by the Company, and shall be deducted from the amount due to the directors of the Company who are in default.

Article 17 Where the supervisory committee or shareholders decide to convene shareholders' general meetings by itself/themselves, it/they shall notify the board of directors in writing and file with the authority appointed by the securities regulatory authority under the State Council in the place at which the Company is located and the stock exchange.

Prior to the publication of the resolution of the shareholders' general meeting, the shareholding of shareholders who convene the meeting shall be no less than 10%.

The supervisory committee or shareholders convening the shareholders' general meeting shall, upon giving a notice of such meeting and publishing the resolution thereof, submit the relevant documentation and materials to the securities regulatory authority under the State Council in the place at which the Company is located and the stock exchange.

Article 18 With regard to the shareholders' general meeting convened by the supervisory committee or shareholders on its/their own initiative, the board of directors and its secretary shall offer cooperation. The board of directors shall provide a register of shareholders as of the shareholding record date. If the board of directors fails to provide the register of shareholders, the convener may apply to the securities registration and clearing authority to obtain it upon presentation of the announcement relating to the notice of the shareholders' general meeting. The register of shareholders obtained by the convener shall not be used for other purposes except for the shareholders' general meeting.

CHAPTER 4 QUALIFICATION OF SHAREHOLDERS ATTENDING THE SHAREHOLDERS' GENERAL MEETING

Article 19 All the shareholders of the Company whose names appear in the register of shareholders at the close of business of the shareholding record date specified in the notice of a shareholders' general meeting shall be entitled to attend and vote at the meeting.

Article 20 Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a shareholders' general meeting of the Company shall be entitled to appoint one or more persons (who need not be a shareholder or shareholders) as his proxies to attend and vote on his behalf.

Article 21 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the principal or his attorney duly authorized in writing or, if the principal is a legal person, it shall be under seal or under the hand of a director or attorney duly authorized.

Article 22 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deposited at the residence of the Company or at the other place specified in the notice of a meeting no later than 24 hours prior to the meeting at which the proxy is authorized to vote or 24 hours before the time specified for the voting. Where such an instrument is signed by a person under power of attorney on behalf of the principal, that power of attorney or other authorization documents shall be notarised. The notarised documents and other authorization documents shall, together with the instrument appointing the proxy, be deposited at the Company's residence or at the other place specified for that purpose in the notice of the meeting.

If the principal is a legal person, its legal representative or a person appointed by its board of directors or other decision-making body shall be entitled to attend the shareholders' meeting of the Company on behalf of the principal as its proxy.

Article 23 Any form issued to a shareholder by the board of directors of the Company for appointing a proxy shall provide the shareholder with the flexibility to instruct the proxy to vote in favour of or against, for each of the resolutions to be decided at the meeting. Such a form shall contain a statement that, in default of instructions, the proxy may vote as he thinks fit.

Article 24 A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or loss of capacity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the share in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that no notice in writing of such death, loss of capacity, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the Company before the commencement of the meeting at which the proxy is issued.

Article 25 A proxy appointed by a shareholder shall enjoy the following rights pursuant to authorization of that shareholder:

(1) to have the same right as the shareholder to speak at the shareholders' general meeting;

(2) to have the right to vote by hand or on a poll, but a proxy of a shareholder who has appointed more than one proxy may only vote on a poll.

Article 26 The eligibility of a shareholder or his proxy to be present at the shareholders' general meeting shall be deemed invalid if the evidence produced involves one of the following conditions:

(1) his identity card is found to be forged or expired or has been altered or does not comply with the relevant requirements of the Laws of the People's Republic of China on the Identity Card of Residents, such as incorrect digits found in his identity card number;

(2) the information for certifying the identity produced by him is illegible;

(3) where multiple proxies shall have been appointed by the shareholder and the signatures on the instrument appointing proxies are inconsistent;

(4) the signature on the instrument appointing proxies faxed in for registration and that on the original copy of the instrument produced when attending the shareholders' general meeting are inconsistent;

(5) lack of signature or seal on the instrument;

(6) there are some other information in the relevant evidence produced that are obviously in violation of the relevant provisions of the laws, regulations and the Articles.

CHAPTER 5 PROPOSALS AND NOTICE OF THE SHAREHOLDERS' GENERAL MEETING

Article 27 When the shareholders' general meeting is held, the board of directors, the supervisory committee and the shareholders solely or collectively holding more than 3% of the Company's shares shall have the right to put forward a proposal to the Company, and the Company shall incorporate those matters in the proposal which fall within the scope of the duties of the shareholders' general meeting into the agenda of such meeting.

Article 28 The content of a proposal shall be determined by the shareholders' general meetings, have definite topics and specific matters for resolution, and shall be in line with the relevant requirements of the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and regulations and the Articles.

Article 29 Where the Company convenes a shareholders' general meeting, a written notice to notify all shareholders whose names appear in the share register must be given no later than 45 days before the meeting of the matters to be considered and the date and venue of the meeting. Any shareholder intending to attend the meeting shall deliver to the Company a written reply showing his intention to attend not less than 20 days before the meeting.

Article 30 The Company shall calculate the number of voting shares represented by the shareholders who have indicated their intention to attend the shareholders' general meeting based on the written replies received not less than 20 days before the meeting. Where the number of such voting shares reaches half of the Company's total number of such shares, the Company may convene the shareholders' general meeting. Otherwise, the Company shall, within 5 days, inform the shareholders again of the matters to be considered, the date and the venue of the meeting by way of public announcement. After making the announcement, the shareholders' general meeting may be convened.

Article 31 The notice of the shareholders' general meeting shall meet the following requirements:

- (1) be made in writing;
- (2) specify the place, date and time for the meeting;
- (3) set out the matters to be considered at the meeting;
- (4) provide the shareholders with such information and explanation as necessary for them to make informed decisions in connection with the matters to be discussed; this principle includes (but is not limited to) where the Company proposes to merge with the other, repurchase its shares, restructure its share capital or to undergo other reorganization, the specific terms and conditions of the proposed transactions must be provided in detail together with copies of the contracts related thereto, if any, and the causes and effect of the same must be properly explained;
- (5) contain a disclosure of the nature and extent of the material interests of any director, supervisor, president, vice-president and other senior officer in the proposed transaction and the effect which the proposed transaction will have on them in their capacity as shareholders insofar as it is different from the effect on interests of shareholders of the same class;
- (6) contain the full text of any special resolution to be proposed and approved at the meeting;
- (7) contain a clear statement that a shareholder who has the right to attend and vote at the meeting shall have the right to appoint one or more than one proxies to attend and vote at the meeting on its behalf and that such proxies need not be shareholders;
- (8) state the date and place to serve a proxy form to appoint a proxy to vote at the meeting.

Article 32 Notice of a shareholders' general meeting shall be served on each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote thereat, by personal delivery or prepaid mail to the shareholder at his address, as shown in the register of shareholders. For holders of domestic shares, notice of the shareholders' general meetings may be given by public announcement.

The public announcement referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be published in one or more newspapers specified by the securities regulatory authority under the State Council on any day from forty-five to fifty days prior to the meeting. Once the announcement has been published, all holders of domestic shares shall be deemed to have received notice of the relevant meeting.

Article 33 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the meeting and the resolutions adopted at the meeting.

Article 34 Notices or supplementary notices of shareholders' general meetings shall thoroughly and completely disclose the specific contents of all proposals, as well as all the information or explanations which are necessary for the shareholders to make a reasonable judgement in respect of the matters to be discussed.

Article 35 If the election of directors or supervisors is proposed to be discussed at a shareholders' general meetings, the notice of such meeting shall fully disclose the detailed information of the candidates for directors or supervisors, which shall at least include:

- (1) personal particulars, including educational background, working experiences, and concurrent positions;
- (2) whether one has any connected relationship with the Company, its controlling shareholders and actual controllers;
- (3) the amount of shares of the Company one holds; and
- (4) whether one has been subjected to the punishment of the securities regulatory authority under the State Council or any other relevant department or the reprimand of the stock exchange.

Article 36 After giving the notice of shareholders' general meeting, such meeting shall not be postponed or cancelled and the proposal set out in the notice shall not be cancelled without proper reasons. In the case of any postponement or cancellation of the meeting, the convener shall make an announcement and give the reasons therefor at least 2 working days prior to the date on which the meeting is originally scheduled.

CHAPTER 6 CONVENING OF THE SHAREHOLDERS' GENERAL MEETING

Article 37 The board of directors or any other convener shall take necessary measures to ensure the proper order of shareholders' general meetings. Save for the personnel specified in Article 4 of these Rules, the Company shall have the right to refuse any other parties to enter the place where the meeting is held.

Article 38 Shareholders' general meetings shall be held at a meeting place in the form of on-site meeting. The Company may use a safe, economical and convenient network or any other means for its shareholders to conveniently participate in such meetings. Shareholders participating in the shareholders' general meetings by any aforesaid means shall be regarded as having attended the meetings.

A shareholder may personally attend the shareholders' general meetings and exercise his right to vote, or may authorize others to attend the meetings on his behalf and within the scope of authorization to exercise the right to vote.

Article 39 The convener and the lawyer shall jointly verify the validity of the shareholders' qualifications based on the register of shareholders provided by the securities registration and clearing authority, and shall register the names of the shareholders as well as the amount of their voting shares. The registration for a meeting shall be completed before the chairman of the meeting announces the number of shareholders and proxies that attend the meeting and the total amount of their voting shares.

Article 40 When a shareholders' general meeting is convened, the Company shall retain lawyers to issue legal opinions and make an announcement in respect of the following issues:

- (1) whether the procedures for convening and holding the meeting are in compliance with the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and regulations, the Articles and these Rules;

- (2) whether the qualifications of the attendees and the convener are lawful and valid;
- (3) whether the voting procedures and the results of the meeting are lawful and valid;
- (4) issuing legal opinions in respect of other relevant matters as required by the Company.

Article 41 A shareholders' general meeting shall be convened by the chairman of the board of directors who shall preside as chairman of the meeting. If the chairman of the board of directors cannot attend the meeting for any reasons, the vice-chairman shall preside at the meeting as chairman. If the chairman and vice-chairman of the board of directors fail to attend the meeting, the board of directors may designate a director of the Company to preside at the meeting as chairman on its behalf. If a chairman has not been designated, shareholders attending the meeting may elect a person to act as chairman. If for any reason the shareholders cannot elect a chairman, the shareholder with the greatest number of voting shares present at the meeting (including his proxy) shall act as chairman.

A shareholders' general meeting convened by the supervisory committee itself shall be chaired and presided by the chairman of the supervisory committee. If the chairman of the supervisory committee cannot perform or fails to perform his duties, the majority of the supervisors shall jointly elect a supervisor to chair the meeting.

A shareholders' general meeting convened by the shareholders themselves shall be presided by a representative elected by the convener.

When the shareholders' general meeting is held and the chairman of the meeting violates these Rules which makes it difficult for the shareholders' general meeting to continue, a person may be elected at the shareholders' general meeting to act as the chairman of the meeting, subject to the approval of more than half of the shareholders having the voting rights who are present at the meeting.

Article 42 The chairman of a meeting shall, prior to voting, declare the number of shareholders and their proxies attending the meeting as well as the total number of their voting shares, and the number of shareholders and their proxies attending the meeting or the total number of their voting shares shall be that as indicated in the meeting's register.

Article 43 When a shareholder has an interest in the matters to be discussed at a shareholders' general meeting, he shall abstain from voting in respect thereof and the number of voting shares represented by him shall be excluded from the total number of voting shares represented by the shareholders attending the meeting.

The Company has no voting right for the shares it holds, and such part of shares shall be excluded from the total number of voting shares represented by the shareholders attending the shareholders' general meeting.

CHAPTER 7 CONSIDERATION OF PROPOSALS

Article 44 Consideration of and voting on all the proposals set forth in the agenda of a shareholders' general meeting shall be made at the meeting. Unless the shareholders' general meeting is adjourned or no resolution can be made due to special reasons such as force majeure, voting of such proposals shall neither be put on hold nor refused at the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 45 No amendment shall be made to a proposal when it is considered at a shareholders' general meeting. Otherwise, the relevant amendment shall be regarded as a new proposal and shall not be voted at the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 46 Shareholders may make inquiries about the proposals to be considered, and the directors, supervisors, president, vice-president and other senior officers of the Company shall provide answers or explanations in connection with queries and proposals raised by the shareholders at a shareholders' general meeting.

Article 47 The chairman of a meeting, and the directors, supervisors, president, vice-president and other senior officers of the Company may refuse to answer any queries raised by shareholders under any of the following circumstances provided that they shall state the reasons:

(1) the matters inquired are irrelevant to the topics discussed at the meeting;

(2) the matters inquired is subject to investigation;

(3) trade secrets of the Company are involved in the matters inquired.

Article 48 The chairman of the meeting shall have the power to declare the adjournment of the meeting, base on the progress and arrangement of the meeting.

CHAPTER 8 VOTING OF THE SHAREHOLDERS' GENERAL MEETING

Article 49 In general circumstances, voting on all the proposals as a whole shall be made after they are considered by shareholders at a shareholders' general meeting. Any proposal may also be considered and put to vote by shareholders separately.

Article 50 Unless otherwise required by the laws, regulations, departmental rules and regulations and the Articles, shareholders (including proxies) who vote at a shareholders' general meeting shall exercise their voting rights in relation to the amount of voting shares they represent. Each share carries the right to one vote.

Article 51 On a poll taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including his proxies) entitled to two or more votes need not cast all his votes in the same way.

Article 52 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands take place or at which the poll is demanded shall be entitled to one additional vote.

Article 53 Before a voting on proposals is made at a shareholders' general meeting, two shareholders' representatives shall be recommended to take part in the counting and monitoring of the ballots. If a shareholder has an interest in any matter to be considered, the shareholder and his proxy shall not take part in the counting and monitoring of the ballots.

When voting on the proposals is made at the shareholders' general meeting, the lawyers, representatives of both shareholders and supervisors shall be jointly responsible for the counting and monitoring of the ballots.

Article 54 The board of directors and other conveners shall ensure that a shareholders' general meeting is held continuously within the reasonable working time until reaching the final resolutions. In the event that the shareholders' general meeting cannot be held normally or fails to reach any resolution due to force majeure or other special reasons, the board of directors of the Company and other conveners shall explain the same to the stock exchange and make an announcement in respect thereof, and shall be obligated to take necessary measures to resume the shareholders' general meeting as soon as possible.

CHAPTER 9 SPECIAL PROCEDURES FOR VOTING BY CLASS SHAREHOLDERS

Class shareholders shall enjoy rights and assume obligations in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and regulations and the Articles.

Article 56 Any proposal by the Company to vary or abrogate the rights conferred on any class shareholders must be approved by a special resolution of the shareholders' general meeting and by the class shareholders affected at a separate meeting convened in accordance with Article 58 to Article 62 of these Rules.

Article 57 The rights of class shareholders shall be deemed to be varied or abrogated in the following circumstances:

- (1) the increase or decrease of the number of shares of such class, or the increase or decrease of the number of shares of a class having voting or equity rights or privileges equal or superior to the shares of such class;
- (2) the exchange of all or part of the shares of such class into shares of another class, or the exchange of all or part of the shares of another class into the shares of such class or conferring such right of exchange;
- (3) the removal or reduction of rights to accrued dividends or cumulative dividends attached to shares of such class;
- (4) the reduction or removal of a dividend preference or a liquidation preference attached to shares of such class;
- (5) the increase, removal or reduction of conversion privileges, options, voting rights, transfer or pre-emptive rights or rights to acquire securities of the Company attached to shares of such class;
- (6) the removal or reduction of right to receive amounts payable by the Company in particular currencies attached to shares of such class;
- (7) the creation of a new class of shares having voting or equity rights or other privileges equal or superior to the shares of such class;

- (8) the imposition of restrictions or additional restrictions on the transfer of the shares of such class and their ownership;
- (9) the issue of rights to subscribe for, or convert into, shares of such class or another class;
- (10) the increase in rights or privileges of shares of another class;
- (11) the restructuring of the Company which will result in shareholders of different class bearing a disproportionate burden of such proposed restructuring; and
- (12) the variation or abrogation of the provisions of this chapter.

Article 58 Shareholders of the affected class, whether or not otherwise having the right to vote at shareholders' general meetings, shall nevertheless have the right to vote at class meetings in respect of matters concerning Articles 57 (2) to (8) and (11) to (12), but interested shareholder(s) shall not be entitled to vote at class meetings.

Article 10 The board of directors and its special committees can appoint intermediaries to provide professional advice, with costs to be borne by the Company.

CHAPTER 3 DIRECTORS

Article 11 The board of directors of the Company shall comprise of 13 directors, with one chairman and may also have one vice-chairman. The board of directors shall have at least one non-executive director and at least have one third of the members of the board of directors shall be independent directors.

Article 12 In order to qualify as a director, the requirements of the relevant laws, administrative regulations and departmental regulations of the People's Republic of China, regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles must be fulfilled.

A director need not hold shares of the Company.

Article 13 Directors shall be elected at the shareholders' general meeting. A director's term shall be three years, and is renewable upon re-election when it expires.

A director's term shall be from the date of passing of the resolution by the shareholders' general meeting to the date of expiry of the current term of directors.

The board of directors or the nomination and remuneration committee of the board of directors is responsible for the nomination of director candidates in writing to the annual general meeting and extraordinary general meeting.

A written notice of the intention to nominate a person for election as a director and a notice in writing by that person indicating his acceptance of such nomination shall be given to the Company seven days before the date of the shareholders' general meeting.

The Company shall disclose detailed information relating to the director candidates prior to the shareholders' general meeting to ensure sufficient understanding of the candidates by shareholders.

After being elected, a director shall sign and submit the Declaration and Undertaking with regard to Directors in accordance to the requirements of the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed. An independent director shall also enter into a contract of appointment with the Company.

Article 14 Subject to contrary provisions of the relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations and the Articles, the board of directors or shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding more than 3% of the total number of the Company's shares carrying voting rights are entitled to nominate candidate of directors (other than independent directors); the board of directors, the supervisory committee or shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding more than 1% of the total number of the Company's shares carrying voting rights are entitled to nominate candidate for independent directors.

Article 15 If a director (other than an independent director) fails to attend two consecutive board of directors meetings in person and has not appointed another director to attend the board of directors meeting on his behalf, he shall be deemed as unable to perform his duty. The board of directors shall therefore recommend his removal to the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 16 Subject to the relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations and regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, a director whose term of office has not yet expired may be replaced by an ordinary resolution of the shareholders' general meeting (but the right to lodge a claim under any contract is not affected).

The first term of office for the new director in replacement shall expire when the term for the current board of directors expires.

Article 17 A director may resign before his term of office expires. In resigning his duties, a director shall tender a resignation to the board of directors in writing. The board of directors shall make related disclosures in accordance with regulatory requirements of the place of listing. Other than as provided in Article 19 of the Rules, a director's resignation shall be effective when his resignation is submitted to the board of directors.

Article 18 The duties of a director towards the Company and the shareholders do not necessarily cease when he tenders his resignation or upon the expiry of his term of office. Such director shall continue to observe his duties at any time before the resignation or expiry of term of office, as the case may be, becomes effective and for a reasonable period thereafter. The duty of confidentiality in respect of trade secrets of the Company survives the termination of his term of office until such trade secrets become publicly known. Other duties may continue for such period as the principle of fairness may require depending on the amount of time which has lapsed between the termination and the act concerned and the specific circumstances under which the relationship between the director and the Company was terminated.

Any director who has left his office without authorization before his term of office expires and thereby caused the Company to incur a loss shall be liable for compensation to the Company.

Article 19 If the resignation of a director causes the composition of the board of directors of the Company to fall below the minimum number of members to form a quorum, the resignation of such director shall be effective only after the succeeding director has filled his vacancy.

In the above circumstances, the board of directors shall convene an extraordinary general meeting as soon as possible to elect a director to fill the vacancy caused by his resignation. Before a resolution is made in a shareholders' general meeting in relation to the election of directors, the functions and powers of such resigning director and other remaining directors shall be subject to reasonable restrictions.

Article 20 Directors shall have the following rights:

(1) to attend and vote in board of directors meetings;

(2) to understand the Company's business operation, financial position and profitability;

(3) other rights stipulated in the Articles or granted by shareholders' general meetings or the board of directors.

Article 21 Directors must comply with the Model Code for Securities Transactions by Directors of Listed Issuers of Appendix 10 in the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited; directors shall also adopt written procedures on terms no less exacting than the Model Code for Securities Transactions by Directors of Listed Issuers in respect of transactions of the Company's securities by the relevant employees. For such purposes, 'relevant employees' include employees, or directors or employees of the Company's subsidiaries or parent company who are likely to be in possession of unpublished price-sensitive information of the Company or its securities.

Article 22 Directors must perform their obligations as provided in the relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations and regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, and shall be responsible of the corresponding legal liabilities. Directors shall perform duties faithfully, honestly and diligently in the best interests of all shareholders and the Company, and ensure that they have sufficient time and effort to perform their duties.

CHAPTER 4 NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

Article 23 The functions of non-executive directors include, but not limited to:

(1) participating in board of directors meetings to provide independent opinions on issues relating to strategy, policy, corporate performance, accountability, resources, key appointments and standard of conduct;

(2) taking a leadership role where potential conflicts of interests arise;

(3) serving as members of audit committee, nomination and remuneration committee and other special committees under the board of directors, if invited;

(4) reviewing carefully whether the Company's performance has achieved the planned corporate targets and objectives, and supervising issues related to the reporting of Company's performance.

CHAPTER 5 INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS

Article 24 The Company shall establish a system of independent directors in accordance with the Guidance Opinions regarding the Establishment of the System of Independent Directors issued by the China Securities Regulatory Commission (CSRC) and the requirements for establishment of independent directors of the place where the Company is listed.

Article 25 Independent directors are directors who do not hold any positions in the Company other than as director and do not maintain with the Company and its substantial shareholders a connection which may possibly hamper their independent and objective judgments.

Article 26 The Company's independent directors must meet the requirements of the relevant laws, the applicable standards and the general conditions of qualification for directors as stipulated by the Rules. In order to secure their independence, the following persons may not act as an independent director of the Company:

(1) persons employed by the Company or its subsidiaries and their immediate family members and major social connections (immediate family members shall include spouse, parents and issues and major social connections shall include siblings, parents-in-law, sons/daughters-in-law, spouses of siblings, siblings of spouse);

(2) natural person shareholders and their immediate family members who directly or indirectly hold 1% or more of the Company's issued shares or who are top ten shareholders of the Company;

(3) persons and their immediate family members employed by the shareholder entity which directly or indirectly hold 5% or more of the Company's issued shares or who are top five shareholder entities of the Company;

(4) persons who belonged to categories (1) to (3) above within the preceding year;

(5) persons who provide financial, legal and consultation services to the Company or its enterprises;

(6) other persons determined by the CSRC and the regulatory authorities of the place where the Company is listed or as provided by the Articles.

Article 27 In addition to the general requirements related to directors, the nomination, election and replacement of independent directors shall comply with the following requirements:

(1) Person nominating candidate for independent director shall fully understand the occupation, academic qualification, title and detailed working experience including all part-time jobs of the candidate and give opinion on his qualification and independence to act an independent director. The candidate for independent directorship shall make an open announcement as to the absence of any relationship between the Company and him which may possibly affect his independent and objective judgment.

The board of directors shall announce the above in accordance with requirements before the shareholders' meeting for the election of independent directors.

(2) before the shareholders' general meeting for the election of independent directors, the Company shall submit the relevant information of all candidates to the CSRC, the regulatory authorities and the stock exchange(s) of where the Company is listed. Written opinions of the board of directors shall also be submitted in case the board of directors has any dispute as to the particulars of the nominee.

If the regulatory authorities opposes to the nomination of any candidate, such candidate may not be included as a candidate for independent director.

In convening a shareholders' general meeting to elect independent directors, the board of directors shall specify if the regulatory authorities have any dispute as to the candidates for independent directors.

(3) The term of office for independent directors is the same as other directors, and the term is renewable upon re-election when it expires, but the renewed term may not be for more than six years.

(4) If an independent director fails to attend three consecutive board of directors meetings in person and has not appointed another independent director to attend the board of directors meeting on his behalf, he shall be deemed as unable to perform his duty. The board of directors shall therefore recommend his removal to the shareholders' general meeting.

Unless in the above circumstances and in circumstances as specified by the relevant regulatory authorities where a person is prohibited from acting as an independent director, no independent director may be removed before his term of office expires without cause. In case of early removal, the Company shall disclose it by way of special disclosure. If the removed independent director considers that he is removed by the Company improperly, he may make an open declaration.

(5) An independent director may resign before his term of office expires. In resigning his duties, an independent director shall tender a resignation to the board in writing and specify any matter which is related to his resignation or which he considers necessary to bring to the attention of the Company's shareholders and creditors.

If the resignation of an independent director causes the number of independent directors to fall below the minimum requirements of the relevant regulatory authorities or of the Articles, the resignation of such independent director shall be effective only after the succeeding independent director has filled his vacancy.

Article 28 In accordance with the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities of the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, independent directors shall perform the following duties and obligations:

- (1) to submit an annual confirmation of his independence to the Company;
- (2) to form a committee of independent directors or a nomination and remuneration committee to review service contracts of directors;
- (3) to conduct annual review on continuing connected transactions;
- (4) to seek advice regarding specific connected transactions;
- (5) to comply with various requirements of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities of the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited.

Article 29 The Company shall ensure that the independent directors can perform their duties effectively, and provide the necessary conditions, information and personnel for them to carry out their work.

Article 30 The Company should provide appropriate allowances to independent directors. Other than that, independent directors shall not obtain any other additional interests which are not disclosed from the Company and its substantial shareholders or other interested institutions and persons.

CHAPTER 6 CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 31 The board of directors shall include one chairman and may include one vice-chairman. Both the chairman and the vice-chairman are elected and removed by a majority of all members of the board of directors. The term of office for the chairman and vice-chairman is three years, and is eligible for re-election.

Article 32 The chairman is the legal representative of the Company and shall exercise the following duties and powers:

- (1) to preside over the shareholders' meetings;
- (2) to arrange the chairman of each special committee under the board of directors, or in the absence of the chairman, a member of such committee to attend the annual general meeting and address the enquiries;

(2) The year-end review meetings:

The year-end review meetings shall be convened in December of each year. The directors shall listen to and approve the president's report in respect of the expected performance of the Company in the year and the work arrangements for the following year at such meetings.

Article 51 The chairman of the board of directors shall approve the issue of a notice convening the provisional board of directors meeting (deadline of the notice can be less than 14 days but not less than 2 days):

(1) where the chairman of the board of directors considers necessary;

- (2) where proposed by shareholders representing 10% of the voting rights;
- (3) where proposed by more than one-third of the directors jointly;
- (4) where proposed by the supervisory committee or more than half of the independent directors;
- (5) where proposed by the president.

Article 52 The board of directors meetings shall be divided into on-site meetings, telephone meetings and meetings by way of written resolutions.

All the meetings of the board of directors may be held by the way of on-site meetings.

The board of directors meetings may be held by the way of telephone meetings or other similar communication equipments. The meetings convened by this way shall ensure that the attending directors are able to hear clearly the directors who speak at the meeting and communicate amongst themselves.

The provisional board of directors meetings may be held by written resolutions, in which case the businesses to be transacted shall be passed by circulating for directors review and approval. The meetings convened by this way shall only apply to cases where the matters to be examined are comparatively procedural and unique so that the discussion of the businesses to be transacted is unnecessary.

Article 53 Where in a period no meeting is arranged for the board of directors, the executive directors of the Company are authorized to make decision on matters with stricter timings, tighter deadlines and are subject to the approval by the board of directors, and to report and resolve on the next board of directors meeting.

CHAPTER 10 PROCEDURES FOR PREPARING THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING

Article 54 The businesses to be transacted in the board of directors meetings shall be put forward according to the following priorities:

- (1) matters proposed by the directors;
- (2) matters proposed by the supervisory committee;
- (3) proposals from the special committees of the board of directors;
- (4) matters proposed by the president of the Company.

Article 55 The businesses to be transacted in the board of directors meeting shall comply with the following criteria:

- (1) comply with the relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations and regulatory rules of the places of listing for the shares of the Company and the Articles, and such business is within the scope of operations of the Company and the scope of responsibility of the board of directors;
- (2) in the interests of the Company and its shareholders;
- (3) has clear motions and specific substances;
- (4) submit in writing.

Article 56 The secretary to the board of directors shall be responsible to collect the items to be included in the agenda of the meeting. Each person who wish to propose an item to be included in the agenda shall submit the businesses to be transacted and supplementary materials 20 working days before the date of the meeting.

The secretary to the board of directors shall set out the business to be transacted in the meeting and agenda of the meeting after compiling from the relevant materials received and draw up list of attending persons according to the proposal of the person who puts forward the businesses to be transacted, the requirement of the businesses to be transacted in the meetings and the requirement of the Articles, and submit the same to the chairman of the board of directors for examination and approval.

Article 57 A board of directors meeting shall be convened by the chairman of the board of directors. If the chairman of the board of directors is unable to convene the meeting, he shall entrust the vice-chairman or an executive director to convene the board of directors meeting. The convenor of the meeting is responsible to sign and issue the notice of meeting. The name of the board of directors meeting shall be The [] Meeting of the [] Session of the board of directors of China Life Insurance Company Limited .

Article 58 The secretary to the board of directors shall be responsible for arranging the preparation of the notice of the meeting.

The content of the notice of the meeting shall include: time, place, duration, business to be transacted in the meeting and agenda, and the date of issue of notice.

The notice shall be written in Chinese and other languages as required by the directors. Different language versions shall have the same validity. If there is any discrepancy in different language versions, the notice in Chinese shall prevail. If the directors do not have any request on the language of the notice of the meeting in advance, they are deemed to have acknowledged that the notice is to be issued in Chinese only.

Article 59 The secretary to the board of directors shall be responsible for the arranging of the delivery of the notice of the meeting.

Notice of the regular meeting of the board of directors shall be delivered to all directors, supervisory committee and president of the Company 14 days before the date of the meeting. Deadline of the notice of provisional board of directors meeting can be less than 14 days but not less than 2 days.

The notice of the meeting shall be delivered to other officers attending the meeting in the appropriate timing as required. If the convenor of the meeting confirmed that the officers attending the meeting will be present at the board of directors meeting, the notice of meeting and related information such as relevant businesses to be transacted shall be delivered 3 days before the date of meeting.

Notice of meeting of the board of directors may be delivered by hand, via fax, by speed post or registered post. If the notice is delivered by hand, the party intended to receive the same shall sign (or affix seal) on the return slip, and the date of receipt shall be the date of service; if the notice is delivered via fax, the date of service shall be the second working day from the date of despatch of the fax, the date of despatch of the fax shall be defined according to the display of the report of the fax machine; if the notice is delivered by speed post, the date of service shall be the third working day since the post is sent to the post office; if it is delivered by registered post, the date of service shall be the fifth working day since the post is sent to the post office.

Notice of meeting shall be deemed to have been given to any director who attends the meeting without objecting for not receiving the notice of meeting.

Article 60 All those persons who shall attend a meeting, upon receipt of the notice of the meeting, shall give written notice to the secretary to the board of directors as to whether he/she will attend the meeting 2 days before the date of meeting.

Article 61 Directors shall attend the board of directors meetings in person. Where a director is unable to attend a meeting for any reason, he may appoint another director in writing to attend the meeting on his behalf. In such circumstances, an independent director can only appoint other attending independent directors to attend the meeting on his behalf.

The power of attorney shall set out the names of the principal and the appointed person, the particulars and the scope of authorization, duration of the validity of such authorization, and shall be signed or sealed by the principal. The power of attorney shall be delivered to the secretary to the board of directors 2 days before the date of meeting, and the registration of the authorization shall be made by the secretary to the board of directors and declared before the attending officers before the commencement of the meeting.

The power of attorney may be prepared by the secretary to the board of directors in a consistent format, and delivered to the directors together with the notice of a meeting.

Article 62 After the issue of the notice of a meeting and before the date of the meeting, the secretary to the board of directors shall be responsible for, and shall communicate and liaise with all supervisors (in particular the external directors and the management). Apart from the items that will be transacted as a special business and those otherwise provide in the Rules, the business to be transacted in the meeting of the board of directors shall be delivered to all directors and other relevant attending officers 3 days before the date of meeting. The opinions or recommendations of the directors in respect to the businesses to be transacted in the meeting shall be received by the secretary to the board of directors in a timely manner, and shall be passed on to the persons putting forward such businesses, so as to enable necessary amendments to be made to them.

The secretary to the board of directors shall also arrange for the provision of the supplemental materials which are required for the directors to make decisions on the businesses to be transacted in the meeting, including the background information relating to the subject of the resolution and other information which will assist the directors in making scientific, effective and prudent decisions.

Article 63 Where more than one-fourth of the directors or 2 independent directors are of the opinion that the materials provided are insufficient or unclear, they may make a written proposal jointly to postpone the holding of the board meeting or postpone the discussions on the issues, and the convenor of the meeting shall adopt such a proposal. Unless such a proposal is put forward during the meeting, the secretary to the board of directors shall serve a notice on the convenor of the meeting upon receiving a request concerning the postponement written by the directors jointly, and serve a notice on the directors, supervisory committee and other officers attending the meeting upon the receipt of confirmation.

CHAPTER 11 PROCEDURES FOR CONVENING THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING

Article 64 Meetings of the board of directors shall be held only if more than half of the directors (including directors attending the meeting as required by authorization) are present.

Article 65 The board of directors meeting shall be chaired by the chairman of the board of directors. Where circumstances preclude the chairman, he may entrust the vice-chairman or an executive director to act on his behalf.

Upon the expiry of the term of office of the directors and the re-election of the new directors at the general meeting, the directors who obtains the greatest number of votes at such re-election (if more than one, one shall be chosen amongst them) shall preside the first meeting of the new session of the board of directors, at which the chairman and vice-chairman of the board of directors shall be elected.

Article 66 Supervisors, non-director president, secretary to the board of directors, secretary to the Company and the staff responsible for taking the minutes shall attend the board of directors meeting. Other officers attending the meeting shall only attend the meeting where relevant business is transacted.

The officers attending the meeting may express their opinions on the relevant businesses to be transacted but do not have any voting rights.

CHAPTER 12 PROCEDURES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING

Article 67 Upon the commencement of the board of directors meeting, the directors present shall agree unanimously on the agenda of the meeting. Where more than one-fourth of the directors or more than two independent directors are of the opinion that the materials of the businesses to be transacted are unclear or insufficient, they may make a proposal jointly to postpone the discussions on the businesses to be transacted or postpone the holding the board of directors meeting, and the chairman of the meeting shall adopt such a proposal.

When an agreement is reached in respect of the agenda of the meeting by the directors present at the meeting, the board of directors meeting shall examine the businesses to be transacted in the meeting included in the agenda, and the chairman of the meeting shall direct the businesses to be transacted to be considered one by one.

Article 68 In considering the relevant resolutions, persons who put forward the businesses to be transacted or their attorneys shall first make statements in respect of the businesses to be transacted or report the same to the board of directors.

The board of directors may require the heads of the departments which are responsible for handling the businesses to be transacted to attend the meeting to listen to and make inquiries of the relevant statements made at the meeting. Any resolutions that remain to have questions after being explained by the relevant departments may be returned to such department for amendment and approval of such resolutions shall be postponed.

CHAPTER 13 PROCEDURES FOR VOTING IN THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING

Article 69 The resolutions of the board of directors may be adopted by way of poll or show of hands. Each director shall have one vote. All directors in presence may only vote for, against or abstain from voting to such businesses to be transacted by the board of directors.

The directors shall vote prudently. Once the voting for the resolution is completed, the result from voting immediately becomes effective and cannot be amended.

Article 70 The directors who are acting as proxies of other directors to attend the meeting shall exercise the right of voting within the scope of authorization.

Where a director is not present at a board of directors meeting and fails to appoint a proxy to act on his behalf, such director shall be deemed to have waived his rights to vote at the meeting.

Article 71 Unless otherwise provided in laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations and regulatory rules of the places of listing for the shares of the Company and the Articles, except the following matters the resolutions of which shall be passed by the consent of more than two-thirds of the directors, the other matters shall be passed by the consent of more than one-half of the directors:

- (1) to formulate proposals for the increase or reduction of the registered capital and the proposal of the issuance of debentures of the Company;
- (2) to draw up proposals for the merger, spin-off or dissolution of the Company;
- (3) to formulate proposals for any amendment to the Company's Articles.

Article 72 Unless under the exceptional cases as otherwise specifically provided, a director shall not vote on any resolutions of the board of directors with contract or arrangement or any other suggestions where he or his associates own a material interest, and shall not exercise the right of voting on behalf of other directors. When determining whether a quorum for the meeting is attained, such interested director shall not be counted as part of the quorum. The board of directors meeting may be held when more than one-half of the non-interested directors attend the meeting. The resolution of the board of directors meeting shall be passed by more than one-half of the non-interested directors. If the number of non-interested directors attending the meetings is less than 3, the matter shall be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for examination.

Article 73 In principle, the board of directors meeting shall resolve on all the matters examined at the meeting. A resolution on the Company's connected transaction shall not be valid until it is signed by all the independent directors.

The independent directors' opinions shall be set out in the resolutions of the board of directors meetings.

Article 74 The board of directors meetings convened by the way of telephone meeting shall be recorded and video taped where circumstances allow. In the event that the attending directors are unable to sign for the resolutions at the meeting, they shall express their opinions orally during the meeting and shall complete the written resolutions as soon as practicable. The verbal voting by a director shall have the same effect as the written resolutions, provided that there is no discrepancy between the opinions expressed by such director in completing the written resolutions and the opinions orally expressed by him during the meeting. The vote recorded or videotaped shall prevail if there is any discrepancy.

Article 75 The provisional board of directors meetings may be held by the way of written resolutions, and resolved by signing on the written resolutions by the directors, on the premise that the opinions of the directors are fully expressed. Written resolutions shall subject to the following requirements:

(1) The resolutions voted and the relevant information shall be delivered by hands, via fax, by speed post or registered post, and shall be delivered to each directors before the date of the provisional meeting.

(2) Upon the receipt of the aforesaid notice and information, the directors shall sign on the written resolution to vote for, against or abstain from voting within the duration of the provisional board of directors meeting. The directors shall specify the reasons and basis on the supplementary page if he votes against or abstains from voting. Unless otherwise expressed by the directors, signing on the written resolutions by the directors shall be sufficient evidence that they have agreed to the resolutions;

(3) The directors who signed and voted for the proposed resolutions shall deliver the signed written resolutions to the secretary to the board of directors within the duration specified by the resolution via any one of the three ways set out in paragraph (1) of this Article;

(4) Where the number of directors who signed and voted for the proposed resolutions and delivered the written resolutions within the duration specified by the resolution form a quorum for passing a resolution, the proposed resolution shall become the resolution of the board of directors.

Article 76 Records shall be made for all board of directors meetings. The minutes of the board of directors meetings are the legal evidence of the resolutions resolved by the board of directors. If there is any discrepancy between other records and the minutes of the board of directors, the latter shall prevail.

Minutes shall be signed by all attending directors and the person taking the minutes. Directors not signing on the records are deemed to absent the board of directors meeting for special reasons.

The major matters and resolutions during the process of meetings may be treated as the outline on the minutes of meeting, and signed by the attending directors and the person taking the minutes for confirmation. The matters and resolutions without disputes recognized by the outline on the minutes of meeting shall be included in the minutes of its final form.

Directors attending the meeting shall have the right to request an explanatory note be made on the minute regarding his speech at the meeting, but cannot make any substantive amendment.

Article 77 The minutes of the board of directors meeting shall state the following:

- (1) the date, place, name of the convenor and chairman of the meeting;
- (2) the names of the attending directors and the names of the principals appointing attorneys to attend meetings on their behalf and their attorneys;
- (3) the agenda of the meeting;
- (4) the essential points of the directors presentations (for the meetings by way of written resolution, the version containing the directors feedbacks in writing shall prevail);
- (5) the voting methods and outcome for each proposal (the outcome of the voting shall set out the respective number of assenting or dissenting or abstaining votes);
- (6) the directors signature.

Article 78 The secretary to the board of directors shall organize the taking of minutes at the meeting and compile the minutes in a serious manner. The minutes of each meeting shall be provided to the directors for review 10 days from the end of the meeting. Directors who wish to make supplementary amendments to the minutes shall report their opinions on the proposed amendment to the chairman within 5 working days from the receipt of the minutes.

After the minutes of board meetings are finalized, the attending directors, the secretary to the board of directors and the person taking the minutes shall sign the minutes of the board meeting. The secretary to the board of directors shall deliver the complete duplicate of the minutes to all directors and the supervisory committee.

Article 79 The directors shall be responsible for the resolutions passed at the meetings of the board of directors. If a director appoints other director to attend the meeting on his behalf, the legal responsibility of the decision made by the attorney within the authorization shall be born by the principal separately.

Any director who votes for a resolution which contravenes the relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations and regulatory rules of the places of listing for the shares of the Company and the Articles which result in the Company suffering from serious losses shall be directly responsible (including the liabilities of compensation). A director who votes against the resolution, and who has been proved as having expressed dissenting opinions on the resolution and such opinions are recorded in the minutes of the meeting can be exempt from liability.

A director who waives his right of voting, or who fails to attend the meeting and fails to appoint a proxy to act on his behalf, shall not be exempt from liability. A director who explicitly express his objection in the course of discussion but fails to cast an objection vote in the voting cannot be exempted from the liability.

CHAPTER 14 DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION RELATING TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING

Article 80 The board of directors of the Company shall strictly comply with the requirements of the regulatory authorities and the stock exchanges on which the Company's shares are listed in relation to the disclosure of information. It shall ensure that matters examined or resolutions passed at the board of directors meeting which are discloseable are disclosed fully, accurately and in a timely manner. Information relating to significant matters of the Company must be reported to the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed in a timely manner, and shall be submitted to relevant regulatory authorities for filing.

Article 81 Where a matter which requires the independent opinions of the independent directors is discloseable, the Company shall disclose such opinions of the independent directors in the relevant announcement. If the independent directors are of divergent views and cannot reach any consensus, the board of directors shall disclose the respective opinions of each of the independent directors.

Article 82 The Company shall announce the resolutions of the board of directors meetings based on the regulatory requirement in accordance with law. The directors shall treat the meetings of the board of directors as confidential. If a director fails to fulfill his duty of confidentiality, the Company shall have the right of recourse against his breach of the responsibility of the fiduciary duties. The director shall be liable to the loss incurred by the Company as a result.

CHAPTER 15 ADMINISTRATION OF MINUTES AND DOCUMENTS RELATING TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING

Article 83 The secretary to the board of directors shall arrange to record and maintain with the text and audio information, including the power of attorney of the board of directors meeting, the register for signing of attending directors, materials of the board of directors meeting, records and minutes of the meeting, resolutions of the board of directors, for a period of no less than 10 years.

CHAPTER 16 IMPLEMENTATION OF THE RESOLUTIONS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING AND FEEDBACKS

Article 84 The matters required to be submitted to the shareholders' general meetings for approval, after examined and approved by the board of directors, shall not be implemented until they are submitted to and approved by the shareholders' general meetings.

Article 85 After resolutions are passed at the board of directors meeting, the president shall implement the resolutions which fall within the scope of the authority of the president, or which the board of directors authorizes the president to handle.

Article 86 The president shall collect the opinions of the management on the implementation of the resolutions, and submit a written report to the board of directors. If there is any change in the requirements of the laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations and regulatory rules of the places of listing for the shares of the Company, or any other unforeseen circumstances beyond control, such that the resolutions may not be implemented, a written report shall be delivered to the board of directors.

Article 87 The chairman shall authorize other directors to examine and supervise the implementation of the resolutions of the meeting. The appointed person shall deliver a written report to the chairman.

Article 88 The president shall deliver a written report to the board of directors meeting in relation to the status of implementation of the matters which, according to the resolutions of the previous board of directors meeting, are to be implemented, as one of the agenda of the board of directors meeting.

Article 89 When reporting on his work to the board of directors, the chairman shall give necessary explanations to the status of implementation of the resolution of the board of directors.

Article 90 Under the direction of the chairman and the board of directors, the secretary to the board of directors shall take initiative to obtain information in respect of the progress on the implementation of the resolutions, and shall, in a timely manner, report to and submit proposals to the chairman and the board of directors in relation to the important issues to be implemented.

CHAPTER 17 SUPPLEMENTAL RULES

Article 91 The expressions of above , within and below shall include the figures mentioned whilst the expressions of short of , less than , below more than and more than one-half shall not include the figures mentioned.

Article 92 Where any relevant matters are not covered in the Rules, they shall be implemented in compliance with the relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations and regulatory rules of the places of listing for the shares of the Company and the Articles.

Article 93 Where the Rules fails to comply with the relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations and regulatory rules of the places of listing for the shares of the Company and the Articles, they shall be amended according to the relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations of the State and regulatory rules of the places of listing for the shares of the Company and the Articles in a timely manner.

Article 94 The Rules are drawn up by the Company's board of directors and shall become effective after they are approved by the shareholders' general meeting. Other than the Rules that relate to the functions and powers of the shareholders' general meeting and the board of directors, and the requirement of the Articles which shall be amended by the shareholders' general meeting, the other parts of the Rules may be amended by the board of directors.

Articles 95 The board of directors shall be responsible for the explanation of the Rules.

APPENDIX 4 PROCEDURAL RULES FOR SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE MEETINGS

EXPLANATORY NOTE OF THE AMENDMENT OF THE PROCEDURAL RULES FOR SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE MEETINGS

In accordance with the requirements of such relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations and other regulatory documents including the Guideline on Articles of Association of Listed Companies and the Articles of Association for the China Life Insurance Company Limited, the Company proposes to amend the Procedural Rules for Supervisory Committee Meetings for the China Life Insurance Company Limited (the Original Rules for Supervisory Committee Meetings). The amended Procedural Rules for Supervisory Committee Meetings shall become effective after approval by the shareholders' general meeting, and on completion of the listing of the A Shares.

CHAPTER 1 GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1 In order to regularize the operation of the supervisory committee of China Life Insurance Company Limited (hereinafter referred to as the Company) and to ensure the supervisory committee to perform its duties and obligations in accordance with the law, to protect the lawful rights and interests of the Company, shareholders and employees, and to establish a perfect corporate governance structure, these Rules are formulated in accordance with the Company Law of the People's Republic of China (hereinafter referred to as the Company Law), articles of association of China Life Insurance Company Limited (hereinafter referred to as the Articles) and regulatory laws and regulations in the jurisdiction where the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 2 The supervisory committee of the Company shall be accountable and report to the shareholders' general meeting.

CHAPTER 2 COMPOSITION OF THE SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE

Article 3 The supervisory committee shall consist of 5 supervisors. The term of office for a supervisor shall be 3 years. Upon expiration of his term, a supervisor may be re-elected for successive terms.

There shall be one chairman on the supervisory committee. The chairman shall be appointed or removed by the votes of more than two-thirds of the members of the supervisory committee. The term of office for chairman shall be 3 years. Upon expiration of his term, the chairman may be re-elected for successive terms.

Article 4 The supervisory committee shall consist of shareholder representatives and employee representatives and external supervisors (i.e. supervisors independent of the shareholders of the Company and do not hold any position in the Company). There shall be two shareholder representatives, two employee representatives (determined in accordance with the statutory requirements of the proportion of no less than one third of supervisors) and one external supervisor on the supervisory committee.

The shareholder representatives and external supervisor shall be elected or changed in the shareholders' general meeting, and the employee representative supervisor shall be elected or changed through democratic election by the employees of the Company.

Article 5 The supervisors shall have the qualifications satisfying the requirements of the Company Law, Articles and regulatory rules in the jurisdiction where the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 6 The term of supervisors shall commence on the date on which the relevant resolution is adopted in the shareholders' general meeting until the expiry of the session. Where a supervisor is appointed in the middle of the session of supervisory committee, his term shall expire at the expiry of the session of supervisory committee.

Article 7 A supervisor may resign from his office prior to the expiry of his term of office and shall tender a written resignation to the supervisory committee. The Company shall disclose the resignation to the public in accordance with the regulatory rules in the jurisdiction where the shares of the Company are listed. Except otherwise provided in sub-clause 2 of this Article, the resignation of the supervisor shall become effective upon the delivery of resignation letter to the supervisory committee.

If the number of supervisors of the supervisory committee will fall below the statutory minimum requirements as a result of any resignation, such resignation shall not become effective until the vacancy resulting from such resignation is filled up by a succeeding supervisor.

Article 8 In the case that a supervisor tenders his resignation or his term of office expires, the confidential obligations in respect of any commercial secrets of the Company assumed by a supervisor shall survive after his resignation or term of office until such secrets becomes known to the public.

Article 9 If a supervisor leaves his position at his own will before his term of office expires, and has caused losses to the Company, such supervisor shall be liable to such losses.

CHAPTER 3 FUNCTIONS AND POWERS OF THE SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE

In order for the resolution to be effective, it must obtain the affirmative votes of two thirds or more of the supervisors present at the meeting.

Article 38 The supervisory committee shall prepare resolutions on the voting results of matters considered at the meeting and all the supervisors present at the meeting shall sign on these resolutions at the close of the meeting, which will serve as formal evidences for the resolutions approved at the meeting of supervisory committee.

Article 39 The general office of the supervisory committee shall designate a person to take notes and record all matters considered at the meeting, and finally to turn it into minutes of the meeting. The minutes shall include the date and place of the meeting; name of the president; names of the supervisors present and supervisors appointing proxy and names of proxies; agenda of meeting; key points of supervisors' speeches; and voting mode and voting result on each motion (the voting results shall include the numbers of affirmative votes or dissenting votes).

Article 40 The minutes of each meeting of the supervisory committee shall be provided to all the supervisors present at the meeting for review within 12 business days after the close of the meeting. The supervisors present at the meeting shall have the right to require that their speeches at the meeting be recorded as explanatory notes on the minutes, which shall be sent to the general office of the supervisory committee within 5 days upon receipt of the minutes. The general office of the supervisory committee shall report the same to the chairman of the supervisory committee. After the minutes are finalized, all the supervisors present at the meeting and the persons recoding the minutes shall sign on the minutes.

Article 41 The supervisors shall take the responsibilities for the resolutions adopted at meetings of the supervisory committee. In case a supervisor authorizes another supervisor to attend the meeting, the authorizing supervisor shall take the legal responsibility for the decision made by the authorized supervisor within the authorization.

Article 42 Notices of meetings of the supervisory committee, powers of attorney, motions for the meetings, minutes of meetings and resolutions of the meetings etc. shall be treated as the important files and documentations of the Company and shall be properly maintained for at least 10 years.

CHAPTER 7 INFORMATION DISCLOSURE OF MEETINGS OF THE SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE

Article 43 The supervisory committee must strictly comply with relevant laws, administrative regulations, regulations of relevant authorities, and requirements for information disclosure in the jurisdiction where the shares of the Company are listed, and shall disclose matters or resolutions considered or adopted at the meetings of the supervisory committee timely and precisely.

Article 44 The supervisors or persons present a meeting of supervisory committee must strictly maintain confidentiality for the confidential information of the meeting. Otherwise, the relevant liabilities for any violation will be pursued.

CHAPTER 8 IMPLEMENTATION OF AND FEEDBACK ON RESOLUTIONS OF THE SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE

Article 45 The supervisory committee, while performing its duties in accordance with Article 10 hereof, may propose motions to the shareholders' general meeting, or put forward proposals to the board of directors or management of the Company. The board of directors or management of the Company shall consider such proposals.

Article 46 The general office of the supervisory committee shall, under the leadership of the chairman of the supervisory committee and the supervisory committee, take the initiative to oversee the execution of the relevant resolutions and the implementation of relevant proposals, and shall report to and put forward proposals to the chairman of the supervisory committee and the supervisory committee in a timely manner.

Article 47 In respect of any resolutions adopted at a meeting of the supervisory committee, if such resolution relates to the proposal to convene an extraordinary meeting of the board of directors, an extraordinary shareholders' general meeting, or to put forward a motion to be considered at the shareholders' annual general meeting, such proposals specifying clearly the subject of discussion and specific matters shall be made in writing to the board of directors within the prescribed time, and shall be in compliance with the relevant laws, administrative regulations, regulations of relevant authorities and Articles.
