ITEM 5.02 DEPARTURE OF DIRECTORS OR CERTAIN OFFICERS; ELECTION OF DIRECTORS; APPOINTMENT OF CERTAIN OFFICERS; COMPENSATORY ARRANGMENTS OF CERTAIN OFFICERS.

On February 15, 2007, Sunstone Hotel Investors, Inc. (the Company) entered into a change in control agreement with Kenneth E. Cruse, the Company's Chief Financial Officer, that provides that Mr. Cruse will be entitled to certain benefits and payments upon a change in control of the Company. The agreement will remain in effect until the earlier of Mr. Cruse's termination or cessation of employment, or Mr. Cruse's receipt of the benefits and payments he may become entitled to under this agreement.

The agreement provides that if following a change in control, the Company terminates Mr. Cruse without cause or Mr. Cruse terminates his employment for good reason, in each case, within twelve months after such change in control, then he will be entitled to receive all of the following amounts in two lump sum payments: (1) salary and accrued vacation pay through the date of such termination; (2) any annual bonus for any completed fiscal year elapsed prior to the date of such termination; and (3) an amount equal to two times the sum of Mr. Cruse's base salary in effect on the date of such termination and a bonus severance amount (which bonus severance amount will be equal to the lesser of (i) Mr. Cruse's target annual bonus for the year in which such termination of Mr. Cruse's employment occurs, and (ii) the actual annual bonus Mr. Cruse earned in the calendar year prior to the year in which such termination of employment occurs). The Company will also continue to provide health insurance coverage for Mr. Cruse and his dependents for a period of eighteen months following the date of termination (the Termination Date) of Mr. Cruse's employment for one of the reasons described above. In addition, all of Mr. Cruse's outstanding and then unvested equity awards will become fully vested and exercisable following the Termination Date.

In the event that any payment or distribution to be made to Mr. Cruse pursuant to this agreement would exceed 110% of the maximum amount permitted under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code) to be received without incurring an excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code (Section 280G Maximum), then the Company will make a gross-up payment to Mr. Cruse in an amount which covers the excise tax due plus the excise and income taxes payable on the gross-up payment. If the payment or distribution to be made to Mr. Cruse pursuant to this agreement would not exceed 110% of the 280G Maximum, then such payment will be reduced to the extent necessary to avoid incurrence of the excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code. If any compensation or benefits provided by this agreement to Mr. Cruse would result in the application of Section 409A of the Code, the payment by the Company of the amounts due to Mr. Cruse under this agreement will be delayed in order to exclude such compensation from the definition of deferred compensation within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code, and the amount of such delayed payment will be increased by an amount equal to the interest accrued on such payment during the period of delay (the rate of interest being equal to the prime rate on the date such payment was due plus one percent point).

In conjunction with his change in control agreement, Mr. Cruse also entered into an indemnification agreement with the Company providing that the Company will indemnify and advance expenses to Mr. Cruse in the case of certain claims made against him by virtue of his position with the Company.
