More detailed information regarding the identity of potential participants and their direct or indirect interests in the transaction, by securities holdings or otherwise, will be set forth in the registration statement and proxy statement/prospectus and other documents to be filed with the SEC in connection with the proposed transaction.

PAETEC Employee FAQ

1. Why did PAETEC and McLeodUSA join forces?

The combination of PAETEC and McLeodUSA will create one of the largest competitive communications service providers focusing on business customers in the United States. The PAETEC and McLeodUSA geographic network coverage are highly complementary. The combined company will have a presence in 47 of the top 50, and 82 of the top 100, metropolitan statistical areas in the United States. For example, PAETEC will now be able to service customers in such markets as Dallas, Houston, Detroit, Phoenix, Seattle, Denver, and Cleveland, to name a few.

2. Who is McLeodUSA?

McLeodUSA provides flexible and reliable integrated voice and data services to small and medium-sized business throughout the Midwest, Rocky Mountain, Southwest and Northwest regions. Their IP-based communications services are delivered over a high-speed broadband connection and consist of a suite of voice and data services, including local and long distance voice, internet access, email, virtual private networking, network security, conference calling, and high capacity private line services. McLeodUSA also provides wholesale communications services to other communications services providers through their extensive network facilities.

3. How will this transaction affect employees?

As part of a dynamic growing organization, we expect employees of the combined company to have greater opportunities for growth and advancement. In the short-term, however, and until the transaction closes, we remain separate companies and during this time it should be business as usual.

4. When will the transaction close?

The companies expect that the transaction will close in the first quarter of 2008.

5. What can employees expect in the interim?

As we work through the integration process, we expect continued workplace excellence from all employees – you should continue to focus on serving your customers and one another. We will make every effort to keep you up to date on developments and progress throughout the approval process.

6. What are the plans to integrate the two companies? How will staffing at various levels throughout the combined company be determined?

We are building an integration planning team which will begin working to address how we can best utilize each other's strengths and bring our companies together. Given the complementary nature of our companies and the solid teams at both PAETEC and McLeodUSA, we expect to realize the benefits of this transaction quickly and efficiently following the transaction's close.

7. Will there be any changes in PAETEC's employee benefits and compensation?

Both PAETEC and McLeodUSA are committed to providing a competitive compensation and benefits package that will allow us to attract and retain the talent needed to successfully drive the combined company forward. As we review each company's compensation and benefits packages there may or may not be opportunities to combine plans. We will inform you well in advance of any changes.

8. After the closing of the transaction, what will the combined company be called, where will it be headquartered, and who will lead it?

Following the close of the transaction, the company will be called PAETEC, which will continue to be listed on the NASDAQ Stock Market as PAET. The company will be headquartered in Fairport, N.Y. and will maintain PAETEC's and McLeodUSA's operations in major locations across the country. The combined company will be led by Chairman & CEO, Arunas Chesonis, current PAETEC Chairman & CEO.

9. How will this transaction affect our relationships with customers?

Both PAETEC and McLeodUSA believe that success is built by providing excellent service to every customer. Both companies have a total service and customer satisfaction commitment. The combined company will be a stronger communications provider, well positioned to serve medium and large enterprises and institutions. In addition to increased scale and scope, we will have a wider array of products, such as PAETEC's Equipment for Services, software applications, and resale products and McLeodUSA's products engineered for small and medium businesses.

10. Where can employees obtain additional information?

We will make every effort to keep you informed about important developments throughout the approval and integration process. You may also visit the InSight homepage and McLeodUSA employee portal, which will be updated periodically with new information.

11. What do I do if I receive a call from the media?

This is an exciting time for both of our organizations and it is essential that we speak with one voice. Should you receive calls or inquiries from the media, please direct them to Chris Muller, Sr. Corporate Communications Manager, at (585) 340-8218.
