EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Amendment No. 2 to the Registration Statement on Form S-4 of Harrah's Entertainment, Inc. and Harrah's Operating Company, Inc. is being filed for the purpose of filing exhibits.

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

California Registrants: California Clearing Corporation and Harrah South Shore Corporation are incorporated under the laws of California.

Section 317 of the California Corporations Code provides that a corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any proceeding (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor) by reason of the fact that the person is or was an agent of the corporation, against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the proceeding, if that person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the corporation, and in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct of the person was unlawful. Indemnification for expenses, including amounts paid on settling or otherwise disposing of a threatened or pending action or defending against the same, can be made in certain circumstances by action of the company through a majority vote of a quorum of the corporation's Board of Directors consisting of directors who are not party to the proceedings; approval of shareholders, with the shares owned by the person to be indemnified not being entitled to vote thereon; or such court in which the proceeding is or was pending upon application by designated parties.

The bylaws of Harrah's South Shore Corporation provide for indemnification of any person made party to or threatened to be made party to any proceeding by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the company, or is or was acting at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another entity, provided such person acted in good faith, in a manner reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the corporation, and, in the case of a criminal action or proceeding, had no reason to believe that such conduct was unlawful. The corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any action or suit by or in the right of the company by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the company, or was serving at the request of the company as the agent of another entity, against expenses, including attorney's fees, reasonably incurred by such person in the defense or settlement of such action, provided such person acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the company; except that no indemnification shall be made with respect to any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the company, unless and only to the extent that there has been a determination by the court in which such action was brought that, despite the adjudication of liability, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification. Any indemnification made under the operating agreement shall be made only as authorized by an appropriate determination that indemnification is proper because the person has met the applicable standard of conduct for such indemnification.

There is no provision for indemnification in the articles of incorporation or bylaws of California Clearing Corporation.

Delaware Registrants:

(a) Bally's Midwest Casino, Inc., Bally's Operator, Inc., Caesars Palace Corporation, Harrah's International Holding Company, Inc., Harrah's Entertainment, Inc., Harrah's Operating Company, Inc., and Sheraton Tunica Corporation are incorporated under the laws of Delaware.

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL") permits each corporation organized thereunder the power to indemnify any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation or enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of being or having been in any such capacity, if he acted in good faith in a manner reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

Section 102(b)(7) of the DGCL enables a corporation in its certificate of incorporation or an amendment thereto to eliminate or limit the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders of monetary damages for violations of the directors' fiduciary duty of care, except (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) pursuant to Section 174 of the DGCL (providing for liability of directors for unlawful payment of dividends or unlawful stock purchases or redemptions) or (iv) for any transaction from which a director derived an improper personal benefit.

The bylaws of all the Delaware registrants indemnify to the fullest extent of the law every director and officer against expenses incurred by him if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interest of the corporation.

Under the bylaws of Harrah's Operating Company, Inc., Bally's Midwest Casino, Inc., Caesars Palace Corporation and Harrah's International Holding Company, Inc., no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim as to which such person has been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless the court in which such action was brought shall determine that, despite adjudication of liability, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper. For these registrants, any indemnification shall be made by the corporation only as authorized by (i) the Board of Directors, (ii) independent legal counsel if the Board of Directors cannot obtain a quorum, or (iii) by the stockholders. However, to the extent that a director or officer has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, he shall be indemnified against expenses without authorization. Expenses incurred in defending or investigating a threatened or pending action may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation.

(c) Bally s Olympia Limited Partnership is organized as a limited partnership under the laws of Delaware.

Section 17-108 of the Delaware Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act (the Act) permits a limited partnership to indemnify and hold harmless any partner or other person from and against any and all claims and demands whatsoever.

The limited partnership agreement of Bally s Olympia Limited Partnership provides that the partnership shall indemnify the general partner and its officers, directors, shareholders, employees and agents from and against any loss, expense, damage or injury suffered or sustained by it or them by reason of any acts omissions or alleged acts or omissions on behalf of the partnership within the scope of the authority conferred on the general partner by this agreement or by law, including any payments made by the general partner to any of its officers, directors, employees or agents pursuant to an indemnification agreement or at law or pursuant to the general partner s articles of incorporation or bylaws, if the acts, omissions or alleged acts or omissions upon which such actual or threatened proceeding is based were not performed or omitted fraudulently, in violation of the limited partnership agreement or Delaware law, with gross negligence, willful misconduct or in bad faith by such party.

Florida Registrant: Caesars World, Inc. is incorporated under the laws of Florida.

Section 607.0831 of the Florida Business Corporation Act (the FBCA) provides, among other things, that a director is not personally liable for monetary damages to a company or any other person for any statement, vote, decision or failure to act by the director, regarding corporate management or policy, unless the director breached or failed to perform his or her duties as a director and such breach or failure constitutes (1) a violation of criminal law, unless the director had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful; (2) a transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit; (3) a circumstance under which the liability provisions of Section 607.0834 of the FBCA (relating to the liability of the directors for improper distributions) are applicable; (4) willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interest of the company in the case of a proceeding by or in the right of the company to procure a judgment in its favor or by or in the right of a stockholders or (5) recklessness or an act or omission in bad faith or with malicious purpose or with wanton and willful disregard of human rights, safety or property, in a proceeding by or in the right of someone other than such company or a stockholder.

Section 607.0850 of the FBCA permits a company to indemnify any person who was or is a party to any proceeding (other than an action by or in the right of the company) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the company (or is or was serving at the request of the company in such a position for any entity) against liability incurred in connection with such proceedings, if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the company and, with respect to criminal proceedings, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

The FBCA requires that a director, officer or employee be indemnified for actual and reasonable expenses (including attorneys fees) to the extent that he or she has been successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any proceeding. Florida law also allows expenses of defending a proceeding to be advanced by a company before the final disposition of the proceedings, provided that the officer, director or employee undertakes to repay such advance if it is ultimately determined that indemnification is not permitted.

There is no provision for indemnification in the articles of incorporation or bylaws of Caesars World, Inc.

Illinois Registrant: Southern Illinois Riverboat/Casino Cruises, Inc. is incorporated under the laws of Illinois.

Section 8.75 of the Illinois Business Corporation Act of 1983, as amended (the "IBCA"), provides for a limitation of director liability. Under Section 8.75 of the IBCA, directors and officers may be indemnified by the corporation against all expenses incurred in connection with actions (including, under certain circumstances, derivative actions) brought against such director or officer by reason of his or her status as the corporation's representative, or by reason of the fact that such director or officer serves or served as a representative of another entity at the corporation's request, so long as the director or officer acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the corporation's best interests.

The IBCA also permits the purchase and maintenance of insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or who is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under the IBCA.

The bylaws of Southern Illinois Riverboat/Casino Cruises, Inc. provides that the corporation shall indemnify, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any and all persons whom it shall have the power to indemnify from and against any and all expenses, liabilities, or other matters. In addition, the indemnification provided for in the bylaws shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled.

Indiana Registrants:

(a) Casino Computer Programming, Inc., Roman Entertainment Corporation of Indiana, and Roman Holding Corporation of Indiana are incorporated under the laws of Indiana.

Section 23-1-37-8 of the Indiana Business Corporation Law provides that a corporation may indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because the individual is or was a director against liability incurred in the proceeding if: (1) the individual's conduct was in good faith; and (2) the individual reasonably believed: (A) in the case of conduct in the individual's official capacity with the corporation, that the individual's conduct was in its best interests; and (B) in all other cases, that the individual's conduct was at least not opposed to its best interests; and (3) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the individual either: (A) had reasonable cause to believe the individual's conduct was lawful; or (B) had no reasonable cause to believe the individual's conduct was unlawful.

The bylaws of each of Roman Entertainment Corporation of Indiana and Roman Holding Corporation indemnify the directors and officers of each corporation against any and all liability incurred by such person in connection with any claim (i) if such person is wholly successful with respect to such claim or (ii) such person is determined, in accordance with the certificate of incorporation, to have acted in good faith, in what such person reasonably believed to be the best interests of the corporation or at least not opposed to its best interests and, in addition, with respect to any criminal claim, is determined to have had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was lawful and had no cause to believe that such conduct was unlawful.

The bylaws of Casino Computer Programming, Inc. indemnify its directors and officers if they are made party to a proceeding in connection with their capacities as such, to the fullest extent of the law, against all liability incurred by such a person in connection with the proceeding, provided a determination is made that such indemnification is permissible in the circumstances because such person has met the standard of conduct for indemnification as specified under applicable law. In addition, the corporation shall indemnify any person who is wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any such proceeding, without the requirement of a determination as set forth above.

(b) Caesars Riverboat Casino, LLC and Horseshoe Hammond, LLC are limited liability companies organized under the laws of Indiana.

Under 23-18-2-2(14) of the Indiana Limited Liability Company Act, a company may indemnify and hold harmless any member, manager, agent, or employee from and against any and all claims and demands, except in the case of action or failure to act by the member, agent, or employee which constitutes willful misconduct or recklessness and subject to any standards and restrictions set forth in a written operating agreement.

The operating agreement of Caesars Riverboat Casino, LLC provides that the company shall indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any claim or threatened claim by reason of the fact that such party is or was a general manager, director or member of the company, is or was serving at the request of the company as a director, officer, partner, manager, member, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, against expenses and other costs actually or reasonably incurred in accordance with such a claim, except in cases of malfeasance.

The operating agreement of Horseshoe Hammond, LLC provides that the company shall indemnify any person who is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any action, other than one by or in the right of the company, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the company, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as an officer, director, employee, or agent of another entity, against costs and expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such an action, provided such person acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the company, and, with respect to any criminal action, such person had no reasonable cause to believe such conduct was unlawful. In addition, in the case of an action by or in the right of the company, such person shall be entitled to indemnification against all expenses (including attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged liable to the company unless and only to the extent that the court in which such an action shall determine that, despite the adjudication of liability, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity. To the extent that a director, officer, employee, or agent of the company has been successful, on the merits or otherwise in defense of any such action, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

Kentucky Registrant: Players Bluegrass Downs, Inc. is incorporated under the laws of Kentucky.

Sections 271B.8-500 to 271B.8-580 of the Kentucky Business Corporation Act; provides that, subject to restrictions contained in the statute, a corporation may indemnify any person made or threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise or employee benefit plan. A person who has been successful on the merits or otherwise in any suit or matter covered by the indemnification statute shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith. Indemnification is authorized upon a determination that the person to be indemnified has met the applicable standard of conduct required. Such determination shall be made by the board of directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding; or if such a quorum cannot be obtained, by a majority vote of a committee of the board, duly designated to so act by a majority of the full board, consisting solely of two or more directors who are not parties to the action; or by special legal counsel selected by the board or a committee thereof; or by the shareholders who are not parties to such action, suit or proceeding. Expenses incurred in defense may be paid in advance upon receipt by the corporation of a written affirmation by the director of his good faith belief that he has met the applicable standard of conduct required, a written undertaking by or on behalf of the director to repay such advance if it is ultimately determined that he did not meet the standard of conduct, and a determination that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the statute. The indemnification provided by statute shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any by-law, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, which shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person. Insurance may be purchased on behalf of any person entitled to indemnification by the corporation against any liability incurred in an official capacity regardless of whether the person could be indemnified under the statute. References to the corporation include all constituent corporations absorbed in a consolidation or merger as well as the resulting or surviving corporation and anyone seeking indemnification by virtue of acting in some capacity with a constituent corporation would stand in the same position as if he had served the resulting or surviving corporation in the same capacity.

The articles of incorporation of Players Bluegrass Downs, Inc. provide that directors shall not be liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of duty as a director except: (i) in connection with a transaction in which the director's personal financial interest is in conflict with the financial interest of the corporation or its shareholders; (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or are known to the director to be a violation of law; (iii) for unlawful distributions under Kentucky Revised Statutes Section 271B.8-330; and (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Chapter 78 of the Nevada Revised Statutes allows directors and officers to be indemnified against liabilities they may incur while serving in such capacities. Under the applicable statutory provisions, the registrant may indemnify its directors or officers who were or are a party or are threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, by reason of the fact that they are or were directors or officers of the corporation, or are or were serving at the request of the corporation as directors or officers of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by them in connection with the action, suit, or proceeding, unless it is ultimately determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that they breached their fiduciary duties by intentional misconduct, fraud, or a knowing violation of law or did not act in good faith and in a manner which they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the registrant, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. In addition, the applicable statutory provisions mandate that the company indemnify its directors and officers who have been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit, or proceeding against expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense. The company will advance expenses incurred by directors or officers in defending any such action, suit, or proceeding upon receipt of written confirmation from such officers or directors that they have met certain standards of conduct and an undertaking by or on behalf of such officers or directors to repay such advances if it is ultimately determined that they are not entitled to indemnification by the company.

The charters and/or bylaws of the following corporations provide indemnity provisions for directors and officers who are party to suits of a the corporation, except that in each case such indemnification shall not exceed the amount permitted by the Nevada Revised Statutes and the charters and bylaws may specify the circumstances under which the corporation will indemnify a director or officer: B I Gaming Corporation, Benco, Inc., Caesars Entertainment Golf, Inc., Caesars Entertainment Akwesasne Consulting Corp., Caesars Entertainment Canada Holding, Inc., Caesars Entertainment Finance Corp., Caesars Entertainment Retail, Inc., Caesars Palace Realty Corp., Caesars United Kingdom, Inc., CEI-Sullivan County Development Company, Consolidated Supplies, Services and Systems, Desert Palace, Inc., Dusty Corporation, FHR Corporation, Flamingo-Laughlin, Inc., Harrah s Alabama Corporation, Harrah s Arizona Corporation, Harrah s Illinois Corporation, Harrah s Imperial Palace Corp., Harrah s Interactive Investment Company, Harrah s Investments, Inc., Harrah s Kansas Casino Corporation, Harrah s Management Company, Harrah s Marketing Services Corporation, Harrah s Maryland Heights Operating Company, Harrah s New Orleans Management Company, Harrah s Pittsburgh Management Company, Harrah s Reno Holding Company, Inc., Harrah s Southwest Michigan Casino Corporation, Harrah s Travel, Inc., Harrah s Tunica Corporation, Harrah s Vicksburg Corporation, Harveys BR Management Company, Inc., Harveys C.C. Neither the charter nor bylaws of the following companies provide for the indemnification of directors or officers: Caesars Palace Sports Promotions, Inc., Caesars World Merchandising, Inc. and Tele/Info, Inc.

(b) 190 Flamingo, LLC, Caesars India Sponsor Company, LLC, Corner Investment Company, LLC, Caesars Entertainment Development, LLC, DCH Exchange, LLC, DCH Lender, LLC, Desert Club, LLC, Durante Holdings, LLC, Harrah s Bossier City Management Company, LLC, Harrah s Chester Downs Management Company, LLC, Harrah s License Company, LLC, Harrah s Shreveport Investment Company, LLC, Harrah s Shreveport Management Company, LLC, H-BAY, LLC, HCAL, LLC, HHLV Management Company, LLC, Hole in the Wall, LLC, Horseshoe GP, LLC, Koval Investment Company, LLC, Las Vegas Golf Management, LLC, Nevada Marketing, LLC, Players Holding, LLC, Players International, LLC, Players LC, LLC, Players Maryland Heights Nevada, LLC, Players Riverboat Management, LLC, Players Riverboat, LLC, Roman Empire Development, LLC, and TRB Flamingo, LLC are organized as limited liability companies under the laws of Nevada.

The operating agreement and/or bylaws of the following companies indemnify the members to the fullest extent of the law: 190 Flamingo, LLC, Caesars India Sponsor Company, LLC, Corner Investment Company, LLC, Caesars Entertainment Development, LLC, DCH Exchange, LLC, DCH Lender, LLC, Desert Club, LLC, Durante Holdings, LLC, Harrah s Bossier City Management Company, LLC, Harrah s Chester Downs Management Company, LLC, Harrah s License Company, LLC, Harrah s Shreveport Investment Company, LLC, Harrah s Shreveport Management Company, LLC, HCAL, LLC, HHLV Management Company, LLC, Hole in the Wall, LLC, Horseshoe GP, LLC, Koval Investment Company, LLC, Las Vegas Golf Management, LLC, Nevada Marketing, LLC, and TRB Flamingo, LLC. Additionally the member of all companies, except for Hole in the Wall, LLC, provide that the member may cause the company to indemnify managers and/or officer against actions arising in connection with the company. Hole in the Wall, LLC provides for the indemnification of managers and officers to the fullest extent of the law.

Neither the limited liability company agreements nor the operating agreements for the following companies provide for indemnification of members, managers or officers: H-BAY, LLC, Players Holding, LLC, Players International, LLC, Players LC, LLC, Players Maryland Heights Nevada, LLC, Players Riverboat Management, LLC, Players Riverboat, LLC, and Roman Empire Development, LLC.

(c) New Gaming Capital Partnership is organized as a limited partnership under the laws of Nevada.

Under the laws of Nevada, there is no statutory indemnification of officers or directors affiliated with a limited liability partnership.

The limited liability partnership agreement of New Gaming Capital Partnership provides that the partnership shall indemnify the general partner and its respective directors, officers, employees and agents against any loss incurred by virtue of their performance of the duties of general partner in connection with the partnership's business, provided the person acted in good faith, in a manner reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the partnership, and provided such conduct does not constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct.

North Carolina Registrant: Harrah's NC Casino Company, LLC is a limited liability company organized under the laws of North Carolina.

Section 57C-3-32 of the North Carolina Limited Liability Company Act provides that the articles of organization or a written operating agreement may eliminate or limit the personal liability of a manager, director, or executive for monetary damages for breach of any duty as manager, director, or executive and provides for indemnification of a manager, member, director, or executive for judgments, settlements, penalties, fines, or expenses incurred in a proceeding to which the member, manager, director, or executive is a party because the person is or was a manager, member, director, or executive.

No provision permitted under this section shall limit, eliminate, or indemnify against the liability of a manager, director, or executive for: (i) acts or omissions that the manager, director, or executive knew at the time of the acts or omissions were clearly in conflict with the interests of the limited liability company, (ii) any transaction from which the manager, director, or executive derived an improper personal benefit, or (iii) acts or omissions occurring prior to the date the provision became effective, except that indemnification may be provided if approved by all the members.

The operating agreement of Harrah's NC Casino Company, LLC provides that the company shall indemnify each manager from any and all payments made and personal liabilities reasonably incurred by such manager at any time by reason of or arising out of the authorized conduct of the company's business or the preservation of its business or property. The company shall indemnify a member or manager who is wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which such person was a party because such person is or was a member or manager against reasonable expenses incurred by him in connection with the proceeding. In addition, in accordance with North Carolina law, no manager shall be liable for monetary damages for breach of any duty set forth in Section 57C-3-22 of the North Carolina General Statutes. If approved by all of the members, the company may indemnify a manager or member for expenses of any kind incurred in a proceeding to which the member or manager is a party because such person is or was a manager or member; provided, however, that notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained within the operating agreement, no such relief shall limit, eliminate, or indemnify against the liability of a manager for (i) acts or omissions that the manager knew at the time were clearly in conflict with the interest of the company, (ii) any transaction from which the manager derived an improper personal benefit or (iii) acts or omissions occurring prior to the effective date of the operating agreement.

Item 21. Exhibits and Financial Schedules.

(a) Exhibits

See the Exhibit Index immediately following the signature pages included in this Registration Statement.

(b) Financial Statement Schedules

Schedules for the years ended December 31, 2007, 2006 and 2005, are as follows:

Schedule II Consolidated valuation and qualifying accounts.

Schedule I, III, IV, and V are not applicable and have therefore been omitted.

Item 22. Undertakings.

(a) Each of the undersigned registrants hereby undertakes:

(1) to file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) that, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof;

(3) to remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering;

(b) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrants have been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

II-13

- (c) Each of the undersigned registrants hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Item 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of Form S-4 within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

- (d) Each of the undersigned registrants hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
