Item 5.04. Temporary Suspension of Trading Under Registrant's Employee Benefit Plans.

Renasant Corporation (the Company) intends to switch the administration of the Company's 401(k) plan to a new service provider. In order to effect the transition, participants in the 401(k) plan will be subject to a blackout period during which they will be unable to change investment options under the 401(k) plan, obtain a loan from the 401(k) plan or obtain a distribution or withdrawal from the 401(k) plan. The blackout period for the 401(k) plan will begin on December 14, 2009 and is expected to end on January 25, 2010, unless extended by the Company.

On November 13, 2009, the Company sent a notice to its directors and executive officers informing them of a temporary suspension of transactions by directors and executive officers involving Company equity securities in connection with the blackout period under the 401(k) plan. The notice stated that the blackout period for the 401(k) plan will commence on December 14, 2009 and is expected to end on January 25, 2010. The notice, which was provided to the Company's directors and executive officers in accordance with Section 306(a) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and includes the information required by Rule 104(b) of Regulation BTR, is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
