Item 5.04 Temporary Suspension of Trading Under Registrant's Employee Benefit Plans.

Renasant Bank, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Renasant Corporation (the Company), maintains the Renasant Bank 401(k) Plan (the Plan). The administrator of the Plan has decided to change the investment options available under the Plan. To effect these changes, participants in the Plan will be subject to a blackout period during which they will be unable to change investment options under the Plan, obtain a loan from the Plan or obtain a distribution or withdrawal from the Plan. The blackout period for the Plan will begin on January 4, 2011 and is expected to end on January 5, 2011, unless extended.

On December 13, 2010, the Company sent a notice to its directors and executive officers informing them of a temporary suspension of transactions by directors and executive officers involving Company equity securities in connection with the blackout period under the Plan. The notice stated that the blackout period for the 401(k) plan will commence on January 4, 2011 and is expected to end on January 5, 2011. The notice, which was provided to the Company's directors and executive officers in accordance with Section 306(a) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and includes the information required by Rule 104(b) of Regulation BTR, is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
