Sprint Issues Statement on Clearwire's Proxy Filing

OVERLAND PARK, Kan. Feb. 1, 2013 Today Clearwire (NASDAQ: CLWR) filed a preliminary proxy statement in connection with its definitive agreement with Sprint (NYSE: S) for Sprint to acquire the approximately 50 percent stake in Clearwire that it does not already own. In response, Sprint issued the following statement:

Today's filing speaks for itself. After a rigorous and extensive two-year process, Clearwire pursued numerous strategic opportunities, including discussing the sale of spectrum with no fewer than 10 parties and a series of ongoing conversations with DISH that date back to 2010. Clearwire's proxy makes very clear that Sprint's definitive agreement to acquire Clearwire provides both the best value for shareholders and stability amid an uncertain future. We continue to believe that the DISH proposal is illusory and conditioned on many things, including the receipt of governance rights, a spectrum sale and a commercial agreement which are not actionable under our merger agreement and other agreements between Clearwire and Sprint. We are pleased the Clearwire Board continues to recommend approval of our transaction and look forward to closing our merger and delivering even greater wireless service to the American consumer.
