CMBS Refinancing Transactions

On September 17, 2013, Caesars announced that it had begun a refinancing process for outstanding mortgage loans and mezzanine loans for certain of the subsidiaries of Caesars (the Existing CMBS Borrowers) and that the Existing CMBS Borrowers launched an offer to repurchase for cash (the CMBS Repurchase) (i) 100% of the aggregate principal amount of mortgage loans at a price of $0.99 per $1.00 of principal plus accrued and unpaid interest and (ii) 100% of the aggregate principal amount of mezzanine loans at a price of $0.90 per $1.00 of principal plus accrued and unpaid interest. The consummation of the CMBS Repurchase is conditioned upon the acceptance by lenders holding at least 65% of the outstanding aggregate principal amount of the mortgage loans and 85% of the outstanding aggregate principal amount of the mezzanine loans.

On September 25, 2013, Caesars announced that the Existing CMBS Borrowers have received sufficient acceptances by lenders of mortgage loans and mezzanine loans to satisfy the minimum lender acceptance condition for the CMBS Repurchase.

In connection with these transactions, on September 18, 2013, certain subsidiaries of Caesars (the New Borrowers) launched the syndication of $3,269.5 million of new senior secured credit facilities (the Senior Facilities), consisting of a $3,000 million term loan facility and a $269.5 million revolving credit facility, to finance the CMBS Repurchase and refinance (the Octavius/Linq Repayment) the $450 million senior secured credit facility entered into by Octavius Linq Holding Co., LLC, an indirect subsidiary of Caesars (Octavius/Linq Holdings). Additionally, on September 24, 2013, the New Borrowers launched an offer, through a private placement, of $500 million aggregate principal amount of first-priority senior secured notes due 2020 (the First Lien Notes) and $1,350 million aggregate principal amount of second-priority senior secured notes due 2021 (the Second Lien Notes) and, together with the Senior Facilities and the First Lien Notes, the New Financing) to finance the CMBS Repurchase and Octavius/Linq Repayment. The First Lien Notes and the Second Lien Notes are being offered only to qualified institutional buyers in reliance on Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), and outside of the United States, only to non-U.S. investors pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act.

The CMBS Repurchase, the New Financing and the related transactions are subject to required regulatory approvals, market conditions and negotiated agreements with prospective investors. There can be no assurance that any of these transactions will occur as described or at all. In particular, there can be no assurance that Caesars and the New Borrowers will be able to negotiate the definitive documentation for the New Financing or that the terms of the New Financing will be acceptable to Caesars and the New Borrowers.
