Table of Contents

The obligations of the Underwriters under the underwriting agreement are several and neither joint nor joint and several and may be terminated at their discretion on the basis of their assessment of the state of the financial markets and may also be terminated upon the occurrence of certain stated events. Such events include, but are not limited to: (a) any actual, anticipated, contemplated or threatened change in the business, affairs, operations, assets, liabilities, capital or ownership of the Corporation or its subsidiaries, or the Underwriters determining that there exists any fact or circumstance which existed prior to the execution of the underwriting agreement and had not been disclosed prior to the execution of such agreement, in either case which would, in the opinion of the Underwriters, be expected to have a material adverse effect on the market price or value of the common shares; and (b) any event, action, state, condition or major financial occurrence of national or international consequence or any law or regulation which materially adversely affects or involves, or will materially adversely affect or involve, the financial markets in Canada or the United States or the business, operations or affairs of the Corporation and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole. If an Underwriter fails or refuses to purchase the common shares of the Corporation which it has agreed to purchase, the Underwriters may, but are not obligated to, purchase such common shares, on a pro rata basis, provided that, if the aggregate number of common shares not purchased is less than or equal to 10% of the aggregate number of shares agreed to be purchased by the Underwriters, then each of the other Underwriters shall be obligated to purchase severally the common shares not taken up on a pro rata basis or as they may otherwise agree as between themselves. The underwriting agreement provides that the Underwriters are obligated to purchase all the common shares if any are purchased.

The Corporation and the Selling Shareholder have agreed to indemnify the Underwriters and their respective affiliates and their respective directors, officers, shareholders, agents and employees against liabilities under the U.S. Securities Act, or contribute to payments that the Underwriters may be required to make in that respect.

The common shares are listed on the NYSE and the TSX under the symbol CP.

The offering is being made concurrently in the United States and Canada pursuant to the multi-jurisdictional disclosure system adopted by those countries. The common shares will be offered in the United States by the U.S. Underwriters and in Canada by the Canadian Underwriters. The common shares are being offered in United States dollars.

The Corporation has agreed, for a period of 90 days after the date of this prospectus supplement, that it will not, without the prior written consent of Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, directly or indirectly, offer, sell or issue for sale or resale, as the case may be, or publicly announce the issue or sale or intended issue or sale of, any common shares, or financial instruments or securities convertible or exchangeable into common shares, or publicly announce its intention to do so or file a prospectus or registration statement with a Securities Commission or the SEC in respect thereof, except pursuant to: (i) the Corporation's management stock option incentive plan, (ii) the Corporation's directors' stock option plan, (iii) the Corporation's shareholder rights plan, and (iv) any stock option plan established solely for the purpose of granting stock option awards to any new executive officers of the Corporation, provided that the stock option awards granted to any such new executive officers do not vest and shall not be exercised within 90 days after the date of this prospectus supplement.

The Selling Shareholder has agreed, for a period of 90 days after the date of this prospectus supplement, that it will not, without the prior written consent of Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, directly or indirectly, (i) offer, pledge, sell, contract to sell, sell any option or contract to purchase, purchase any option or contract to sell, grant any option, right or warrant to purchase, or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly, any common shares or any financial instruments or securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for common shares (including without limitation, common shares or such other securities which may be deemed to be beneficially owned by the Selling Shareholder in accordance with the rules and regulations of the SEC and securities which may be issued upon exercise of a stock option or warrant), or publicly disclose the intention to make any offer, sale, pledge or disposition, (ii) enter into any swap or other agreement that transfers, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of any common shares or any such other securities, whether any such transaction described in clause (i) or (ii) above is to be settled by delivery of common shares or such other securities, in cash or otherwise, or (iii) make any demand for or exercise any right with respect to the registration of any common shares or any financial instrument or security convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for common shares.

The Corporation shall use commercially reasonable efforts to have its executive officers and directors agree, for a period of 90 days after the date of this prospectus supplement, that they will not offer, sell, contract to sell, pledge or otherwise dispose of, directly or indirectly, any common shares or securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for any common shares, enter into a transaction that would have the same effect, or enter into any swap, hedge or other arrangement that transfers, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of our common shares, whether any of these transactions are to be settled by delivery of our common shares or other securities, in cash or otherwise, or publicly disclose the intention to make any offer, sale, pledge or disposition, or to enter into any transaction, swap, hedge or other arrangement, without, in each case, the prior written consent of Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC. In addition, for a period of 90 days after the date of this prospectus supplement, the Corporation's executive officers and directors will not make any demand for or exercise any right with respect to the registration of any common shares or any security convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for any common shares.

In connection with the offering the Underwriters may engage in stabilizing transactions, over-allotment transactions and syndicate covering transactions.

Stabilizing transactions permit bids to purchase the underlying security so long as the stabilizing bids do not exceed a specified maximum.

Over-allotment involves sales by the Underwriters of shares in excess of the number of shares the Underwriters are obligated to purchase, which creates a syndicate short position.

Syndicate covering transactions involve purchases of the common shares in the open market after the distribution has been completed in order to cover syndicate short positions.

These stabilizing transactions, over-allotment transactions and syndicate covering transactions may have the effect of raising or maintaining the market price of our common shares or preventing or retarding a decline in the market price of the common shares. As a result the price of our common shares may be higher than the price that might otherwise exist in the open market. These transactions may be effected on the NYSE and on the TSX or otherwise and if commenced, may be discontinued at any time.

The Underwriters are full service financial institutions engaged in various activities, which may include securities trading, commercial and investment banking, financial advisory, investment management, principal investment, hedging, financing and brokerage activities. The Underwriters and their affiliates have in the past performed, or may in the future perform, commercial banking, investment banking and/or advisory services for the Corporation from time to time for which they have received or will receive customary fees and reimbursement of expenses. In the ordinary course of their various business activities, the Underwriters and their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (which may include bank loans and/or credit default swaps) for their own accounts and for the accounts of their customers and may at any time hold long and short positions in such securities and instruments. Such investment and securities activities may involve the Corporation's securities and instruments.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The use of proceeds from the sale of any Securities will be described in a prospectus supplement relating to the specific issuance of Securities. The Corporation may use proceeds from the sale of Securities hereunder for repayment of existing indebtedness, capital expenditures, corporate and asset acquisitions and other general corporate purposes. The Corporation may invest funds that it does not immediately use in short-term marketable investment grade securities or bank deposits. The Selling Shareholder will not, directly or indirectly, receive any proceeds from any offering of Securities by CPRL under this prospectus. CPRL will not receive any proceeds from any sale of Common Shares by the Selling Shareholder.

DESCRIPTION OF SECURITIES

Common Shares

The holders of Common Shares are entitled to receive notice of, attend and vote at all annual and special meetings of the shareholders of the Corporation and to one vote in respect of each Common Share held at all such meetings, except at separate meetings of or on separate votes by the holders of another class or series of shares of the Corporation. The holders of the Common Shares are entitled to receive dividends if, as and when declared by CPRL's Board of Directors out of the assets of the Corporation properly applicable to the payment of dividends in such amounts and payable in such manner as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine. Subject to the rights of the holders of any other class of shares of the Corporation entitled to receive dividends in priority to or rateably with the holders of the Common Shares, the Board of Directors may in its sole discretion declare dividends on the Common Shares to the exclusion of any other class of shares of the Corporation. In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation or other distribution of assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs, the holders of the Common Shares will, subject to the rights of the holders of any other class of shares of the Corporation entitled to receive the assets of the Corporation upon such a distribution in priority to or rateably with the holders of the Common Shares, be entitled to participate rateably in any distribution of the assets of the Corporation.

First Preferred Shares

Subject to certain limitations, the Board of Directors of the Corporation may, from time to time, issue First Preferred Shares in one or more series and determine for any such series, its designation, number of shares and respective rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions. The Board of Directors may not issue First Preferred Shares if by doing so the aggregate amount payable to the holders of such shares as a return of capital in the event of the liquidation or dissolution or winding up of the Corporation or any other distribution of the assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purposes of winding up its affairs would exceed $500,000,000. The First Preferred Shares are entitled to preference over the Common Shares, the Second Preferred Shares and any other shares ranking junior to the First Preferred Shares with respect to the payment of dividends and the distribution of assets of the Corporation in the event of a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation. Except with the consent in writing of all of the holders of First Preferred Shares which may be outstanding, no dividend can be declared and paid on or set apart for payment on the Second Preferred Shares or the Common Shares or on any other shares ranking junior to the First Preferred Shares unless and until all dividends (if any) up to and including any dividend payable for the last completed period for which such dividend is payable on each series of First Preferred Shares outstanding has been declared and paid or set apart for payment. Except as provided by the Canada Business Corporations Act, the holders of the First Preferred Shares will not have any voting rights nor will they be entitled to receive notice of or to attend shareholders' meetings.

Second Preferred Shares

The rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Second Preferred Shares are substantially identical to those attaching to the First Preferred Shares, except that the Second Preferred Shares are junior to the First Preferred Shares, and are entitled to preference over the Common Shares with respect to the payment of dividends, repayment of capital and the distribution of assets of the Corporation in the event of a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation or any other distribution of the assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purposes of winding up its affairs.

Subscription Receipts

Subscription Receipts may be offered separately or together with Common Shares and/or other securities of the Corporation, including Warrants. The Subscription Receipts will be issued under a subscription receipt agreement that will be entered into by the Corporation and an escrow agent at the time of issuance of the Subscription Receipts.

A Subscription Receipt will entitle the holder thereof to receive a Common Share and/or other securities of the Corporation, for no additional consideration, upon the completion of a particular transaction or event, typically an acquisition of the assets or securities of another entity by the Corporation or one or more of its subsidiaries. The subscription proceeds from an offering of Subscription Receipts will be held in escrow by an escrow agent pending the completion of the transaction or the termination time (the time at which the escrow terminates regardless of whether the transaction or event has occurred). Holders of Subscription Receipts will receive Common Shares and/or other securities of the Corporation upon the completion of the particular transaction or event or, if the transaction or event does not occur by the termination time, a return of the subscription funds for their Subscription Receipts together with any interest or other income earned thereon. Holders of Subscription Receipts are not shareholders of the Corporation.

The particular terms and provisions of Subscriptions Receipts offered by any prospectus supplement, and the extent to which the general terms and provisions described below may apply to them, will be described in the prospectus supplement filed in respect of such Subscription Receipts. This description will include, where applicable: (i) the number of Subscription Receipts offered; (ii) the price at which the Subscription Receipts will be offered; (iii) the terms, conditions and procedures pursuant to which the holders of Subscription Receipts will become entitled to receive Common Shares and/or other securities of the Corporation; (iv) the number of Common Shares and/or other securities of the Corporation that may be obtained upon exercise of each Subscription Receipt; (v) the designation and terms of any other securities with which the Subscription Receipts will be offered, if any, and the number of Subscription Receipts that will be offered with each such security; (vi) the terms relating to the holding and release of the gross proceeds from the sale of the Subscription Receipts plus any interest and income earned thereon; (vii) the material income tax consequences of owning, holding and disposing of the Subscription Receipts; and (viii) any other material terms and conditions of the Subscription Receipts including, without limitation, transferability and adjustment terms and whether the Subscription Receipts will be listed on a stock exchange.

Warrants

Warrants will typically be offered with Common Shares, with such securities often referred to collectively as a Unit, but may be offered with Subscription Receipts or separately. The Warrants either will be issued under a warrant indenture or agreement that will be entered into by the Corporation and a trustee at the time of issuance of the Warrants or will be represented by Warrant certificates issued by the Corporation.

A Warrant will entitle the holder thereof to receive a Common Share and/or other securities of the Corporation upon the exercise thereof and payment of the applicable exercise price. A Warrant will be exercisable for a specific period of time at the end of which time it will expire and cease to be exercisable. Holders of Warrants are not shareholders of the Corporation.

The particular terms and provisions of Warrants offered by any prospectus supplement, and the extent to which the general terms and provisions described below may apply to them, will be described in the prospectus supplement filed in respect of such Warrants. This description will include, where applicable: (i) the title or designation of the Warrants; (ii) the number of Warrants offered; (iii) the number of Common Shares and/or other securities of the Corporation purchasable upon exercise of the Warrants and the procedures for exercise; (iv) the exercise price of the Warrants; (v) the dates or periods during which the Warrants are exercisable and when they expire; (vi) the designation and terms of any other securities with which the Warrants will be offered, if any, and the number of Warrants that will be offered with each such security; (vii) the material income tax consequences of owning, holding and disposing of the Warrants; and (viii) any other material terms and conditions of the Warrants including, without limitation, transferability and adjustment terms and whether the Warrants will be listed on a stock exchange.

Units

Units are a security comprised of one or more of the other Securities described in this prospectus offered together as a Unit. A Unit is typically issued so that the holder thereof is also the holder of each Security included in the Unit. Thus, the holder of a Unit will have the rights and obligations of a holder of each Security comprising the Unit. The unit agreement under which a Unit is issued may provide that the Securities comprising the Unit may not be held or transferred separately at any time or at any time before a specified date.

The particular terms and provisions of Units offered by any prospectus supplement, and the extent to which the general terms and provisions described below may apply to them, will be described in the prospectus supplement filed in respect of such Units. This description will include, where applicable: (i) the designation and terms of the Units and of the Securities comprising the Units, including whether and under what circumstances those Securities may be held or transferred separately; (ii) any provisions for the issuance, payment, settlement, transfer or exchange of the Units or of the Securities comprising the Units; (iii) whether the Units will be issued in fully registered or global form; and (iv) any other material terms and conditions of the Units.

Registration Rights Agreement

The following description of certain provisions of the registration rights agreement dated as of July 29, 2013 between the Corporation and the Pershing Square Funds (the Registration Rights Agreement) is a summary only, is not comprehensive and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Registration Rights Agreement, a copy of which is available at www.sedar.com and which has been filed as an exhibit to the registration statement on Form F-10.

The Registration Rights Agreement provides the Pershing Square Funds with the right (the Demand Registration Right) to require the Corporation to qualify the distribution of up to 7,000,000 Common Shares held by the Pershing Square Funds, by prospectus filed with the applicable Canadian securities regulatory authorities and/or the SEC (a Demand Distribution). The Pershing Square Funds are entitled to request up to four Demand Distributions in respect of underwritten offerings. The Corporation must use reasonable commercial efforts to assist the Pershing Square Funds in making a Demand Distribution, provided that each request for a Demand Distribution for an underwritten offering must relate to such number of Common Shares having an aggregate market price of at least US$150 million based on the average trading price of the Common Shares over the prior 15 days.

In addition, the Registration Rights Agreement provides the Pershing Square Funds with the right (the Piggy-Back Registration Right), among others, to require the Corporation to include Common Shares held by the Pershing Square Funds, in any future public distribution undertaken by the Corporation (a Distribution). The Corporation must use reasonable commercial efforts to cause to be included in the Distribution all of the Common Shares the Pershing Square Funds requests to be sold pursuant to the Piggy-Back Registration Right; provided, however, that if the Distribution involves an underwriting and the lead underwriter determines that the total number of Common Shares to be included in such Distribution should be limited for certain prescribed reasons, the Common Shares to be included in the Distribution will be first allocated to the Corporation.

The Piggy-Back Registration Right and Demand Registration Right are subject to various conditions and limitations, and the Corporation is entitled to defer any Demand Distribution in certain circumstances for a limited period.

The Registration Rights Agreement provides that expenses relating to a Demand Distribution that would not have otherwise been incurred by the Corporation shall be borne by the Pershing Square Funds and expenses relating to a Piggy-Back Distribution (or a Demand Distribution in which the Corporation also offers its own securities) shall be allocated to the parties in proportion to the number of Common Shares sold, directly or indirectly, by such party as part of the distribution.

Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, the Corporation is obliged to indemnify the Pershing Square Funds or any underwriters for any misrepresentation in this prospectus and any applicable prospectus supplement (other than in respect of any information provided by the Pershing Square Funds or the underwriters for inclusion in the prospectus). The Pershing Square Funds are obliged to indemnify the Corporation and any underwriters for any misrepresentation in this prospectus and any applicable prospectus supplement arising from information furnished in writing by the Pershing Square Funds for inclusion in the prospectus. The Registration Rights Agreement (other than the indemnity provisions) will terminate upon the earlier of (i) the sale by the Pershing Square Funds, by distribution or otherwise, of 7,000,000 Common Shares; (ii) expiry of this short form base shelf prospectus and (iii) three months following the date the Corporation provides a legal opinion to the Pershing Square Funds that the Pershing Square Funds cannot reasonably be considered to be either a 10% holder of Common Shares or an affiliate or control person of the Corporation.

The Pershing Square Funds may also sell Common Shares other than pursuant to this short form base shelf prospectus under available exemptions from the prospectus and registration requirements of Canadian and U.S. securities legislation. The Corporation cannot predict when or in what amounts the Pershing Square Funds may sell any of the Common Shares qualified for distribution by this short form base shelf prospectus.
