Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Appointment of Mark A. Heggstad as Chief Financial Officer

On May 2, 2014, the Board of Directors (the Board) of Orthofix International N.V. (the Company) appointed Mark A. Heggstad to the position of Chief Financial Officer. Mr. Heggstad, who began employment on May 5, 2014 (the Employment Date), will assume his appointed office on May 9, 2014, the date following the Company's filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission of its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2014 (the Appointment Effective Date), and Mr. Heggstad will succeed David Ziegler as the Company's principal financial and accounting officer as of such date.

The Company, through its subsidiary Orthofix Inc. (the Subsidiary), has entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Heggstad as of the Employment Date (the Employment Agreement), which has been approved by the Compensation Committee of the Board (the Compensation Committee). As an inducement to Mr. Heggstad entering into employment with the Company, the Compensation Committee has granted to Mr. Heggstad stock options to purchase 32,000 shares of the Company's common stock (Common Stock), as well as 33,000 restricted shares of Common Stock, as further described below.

Mr. Heggstad, 55, has more than 20 years of experience in financial leadership roles in the medical device industry. He most recently served as the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of American Medical Systems Holdings, Inc., a publicly traded medical technology company focused on pelvic health conditions, from December 2006 until June 2011, when it was acquired by Endo Pharmaceuticals Holdings Inc. From 1987 to 2006, he served in various management positions at Medtronic, Inc., a global leader in medical technologies, including Vice President of Finance and IT for the Cardiac Surgery Business, Vice President of Corporate Audit & Compliance Assurance and Vice President of Corporate Finance, Assistant Controller. Before joining Medtronic Inc., Mr. Heggstad worked from 1982 to 1987 in roles including staff accountant and audit manager at KPMG. He received his Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from St. Cloud State University.

A summary of the above-referenced compensation arrangements is set forth below. This summary does not constitute a complete summary of the terms of such arrangements, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the agreements summarized below, which are filed herewith as Exhibits 10.1, 10.2 and 10.3, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference.

Employment Agreement

The Employment Agreement with Mr. Heggstad provides that Mr. Heggstad shall serve as Chief Financial Officer of each of the Company and the Subsidiary. The initial term of the agreement continues through July 1, 2015, with automatic one-year renewals commencing on July 1, 2015, and on each July 1 thereafter, unless either party notifies the other party of its intention not to renew the agreement at least 90 days prior to the next July 1 renewal date. The agreement further provides that if a change of control (as that term is defined in the agreement) occurs during the initial term or during any renewal term, the agreement will automatically be extended for two years from the date of such change of control.

The agreement provides that Mr. Heggstad will receive an annual base salary during the term of no less than $400,000 per year, a target bonus opportunity under the Company's annual incentive plan of at least 75% of his then-current base salary, and an opportunity to earn a maximum bonus under such plan of not less than 112.5% of his then-current base salary. Mr. Heggstad will also be reimbursed for up to $75,000 in expenses in connection with his relocation to Lewisville, Texas.

Mr. Heggstad is generally entitled to the following in the event of a termination prior to the end of the term as a result of (i) death, (ii) disability (as defined in the agreement), (iii) termination by Mr. Heggstad for good reason (as defined in and pursuant to the terms of the agreement), or (iv) termination by the Company without cause (as defined in and pursuant to the terms of the agreement):

Any unpaid base salary and accrued vacation owing through the date of termination.

The pro rata amount of any incentive compensation for the fiscal year of his termination of employment (based on the number of business days he is actually employed during the fiscal year in which the termination of employment occurs) based on the achievement of the goals (as that term is defined in the agreement) for the calendar year of his termination.

An amount equivalent to 100% of his base amount (as that term is defined in the agreement). This multiple increases to 150% for payments triggered following a change of control. Under the agreement, base amount means an amount equal to the sum of:

- (1) Mr. Heggstad's annual base salary at the highest annual rate in effect at any time during the term of employment; and
- (2) the lower of:

Mr. Heggstad's target bonus in effect during the fiscal year in which termination of employment occurs, and

(a) the average of his annual incentive plan bonuses actually earned for the two years ending immediately prior to the year in which termination of employment occurs or (b) if greater, the average of his annual incentive plan bonuses actually earned for the two years ending immediately prior to a change of control or potential change of control (as those terms are defined in the agreement), provided that in the case of each (a) and (b), further equitable adjustments will be made to reflect that Mr. Heggstad was not an employee in 2012 and 2013, and that he will be employed for less than all of the 2014 calendar year.

If he elects COBRA in a timely manner, for the lesser of 12 months after termination or until he secures coverage from new employment, he will receive a monthly cash payment equal to the cost of continuation of coverage under the Company's medical and dental benefit plans in which he was participating at the time of termination of employment. This payment period is increased from 12 months to 18 months following a change of control.

$12,500 for use towards outplacement services.

The agreement contains confidentiality, non-competition and non-solicitation covenants effective so long as Mr. Heggstad is an employee and for a period of twelve months after employment is terminated (or, in the event of termination following a change of control, for eighteen months after employment is terminated). The agreement also contains confidentiality and assignment of inventions provisions that last indefinitely.

Inducement Grant Non-Qualified Stock Option Agreement and Inducement Grant Restricted Stock Agreement

As an inducement to Mr. Heggstad's employment, the Compensation Committee has approved grants to Mr. Heggstad of (i) stock options to acquire up to 32,000 shares of Common Stock pursuant to an Inducement Grant Non-Qualified Stock Option Agreement and (ii) 33,000 restricted shares of Common Stock pursuant to an Inducement Grant Restricted Stock Agreement. The exercise price of the stock options was the closing price of the common stock on the NASDAQ Stock Market on the Employment Date. The stock options and restricted shares of common stock will each vest in one-fourth annual increments beginning on the first anniversary of his first date of employment. The grants were made pursuant to NASDAQ Marketplace Rule 5635(c)(4) and contain terms materially consistent with the Company's grant agreements under its 2012 Long-Term Incentive Plan. Each of the agreements include provisions for forfeiture if Mr. Heggstad's service to the Company terminates prior to vesting, as well as provisions for prior acceleration in the event of any change of control of the Company or Mr. Heggstad's death or disability.
