Dear [NAME]:

I am pleased to share with you some exciting news about Valspar. Today we announced that Valspar has reached a definitive agreement to be acquired by Sherwin-Williams. By combining with Sherwin-Williams, Valspar joins what will become a premier global paints and coatings company with over $15 billion in sales. A copy of the press release is attached.

This is a transformative event that will bring significant opportunities to the combined company and for our customers, shareholders and employees. Since 1806, we have transformed our company into a global leader in coatings, consistently providing our customers with innovative, high-quality products and excellent service. With that heritage in mind, we are confident that this agreement with Sherwin-Williams best positions Valspar for continued success and growth well into the future.

As you know, Sherwin-Williams is a well-respected leader in our industry, with an extensive retail presence throughout the Americas and growing capabilities in Europe and Asia-Pacific. Sherwin-Williams is known for being an authentic brand, exemplifying their 150-year history of American innovation and superior quality, and we look forward to capitalizing on the unique strengths of both companies.

The combination of Valspar and Sherwin-Williams will create an industry leading global coatings company with an expanded international footprint, a broader offering of new and innovative products, and a greater ability to serve a diverse and increasingly global customer base. Together, we will be able to utilize the resources, complementary geographic reach and operational capacity of both companies to provide you with enhanced products and services.

I want to emphasize we remain committed to providing you with the same excellent service and quality products that you have come to expect from us.
