CEO COMMENTS

Sales, adjusted for comparable units and currency, were stable YoY. Growth in North America, Mainland China and South East Asia was offset by weak development in Europe and some emerging markets. Profitability increased YoY, driven by improvements in Networks while Global Services had a challenging quarter.

Business

Segment Networks sales declined slightly YoY. A continued weak macro-economic environment impacted sales negatively in some emerging markets in the Middle East and Latin America. In addition, sales in Europe were down primarily driven by completion of mobile broadband projects in 2015. Mobile broadband sales in North America and South East Asia grew and the fast pace of 4G deployments in Mainland China continued. IPR licensing revenues grew YoY, mainly driven by recently signed contracts which included certain one-time items. Software sales in IP and core networks declined.

Sales in segment Global Services declined YoY. This was mainly due to lower Network Rollout activities in Europe and Latin America. Professional Services sales were stable with growth in Consulting and Systems Integration driven by transformation projects and stable Managed Services sales with 21 contracts signed in the quarter.

Sales in Support Solutions increased YoY due to higher IPR licensing revenues. The underlying demand remains strong in OSS and BSS as data growth and increased focus on customer experience drives operators to transform their OSS and BSS solutions.

Profitability

Gross margin declined despite higher IPR licensing revenues. The main reasons were lower margins in Global Services, a higher share of mobile broadband coverage projects in parts of Asia and lower software sales in IP and core networks. Operating margin increased YoY to 6.7% (4.0%), driven by reduced operating expenses and a positive currency effect.

Segment Networks operating margin improved through higher profitability in Radio supported by growth in IPR licensing revenues. Global Services had a challenging quarter partly due to lower mobile broadband coverage activities, leading to temporarily larger losses in Network Rollout. In addition, Professional Services margin declined as a large number of systems integration transformation projects are in a start-up phase.

Cash flow

We ended the quarter with a negative cash flow from operating activities of SEK -2.4 b. which is a significant improvement compared with a year ago. As cash flow is volatile between quarters it should be viewed on a full-year basis. Our full-year cash conversion target of more than 70% remains.

Focus 2016

When announcing the year-end results 2015, we presented three focus areas for 2016. The first focus area relates to our Core business where we will capture business opportunities in 4G and extend our leadership in 5G. At the Mobile World Congress (MWC) in Barcelona in March, we demonstrated our 5G leadership both technically and commercially through 21 customer contracts as well as industry and academia research cooperation.

The second focus area for 2016 is to improve profitability in the targeted growth areas. Sales in these areas showed growth mainly driven by professional services. We will continue to put stronger focus on software sales and recurring business to increase profitability.

The third focus area for 2016 is to improve cost and efficiency in order to stay competitive across the entire business.

The global cost and efficiency program is progressing according to plan and contributed with savings of SEK 0.5 b. in operating expenses in the quarter. We are confident in our ability to achieve net annual savings of SEK 9 b. during 2017 compared with 2014.

In the quarter, we began to take additional measures beyond the SEK 9 b. cost and efficiency program. Hence, we are adapting our operations to current mobile broadband project volumes, which primarily impacts service delivery. The additional measures are reflected in an increased estimate for the 2016 restructuring charges.

Structural changes

We are today announcing structural changes to further accelerate strategy execution and drive efficiency and growth even harder across the company. We will create a leaner, more fit for purpose, organization to cater to the needs of different customer segments and to faster capture market opportunities. As 5G, the Internet of Things and Cloud drive the next phase of industry development, the time is right to make this change.

The new structure will have five business units and one dedicated customer group for Industry & Society, in line with the company focus on core business, targeted growth areas and cost and efficiency. The changes will make it easier for our customers to do business with us, whether they are operators, media companies or other industries.

We are not satisfied with our overall growth and profitability development over the past years and I am convinced this will make us more competitive and enable us to grow both our company and our earnings.

FIRST QUARTER COMMENTSNet sales

Sales as reported decreased by -2% YoY. Sales, adjusted for comparable units and currency, decreased by -1%.

Segment Networks sales declined slightly YoY. A weak macro-economic environment impacted sales negatively in some emerging markets in the Middle East and Latin America. In addition, sales in Europe were down primarily driven by completion of mobile broadband projects in 2015. Mobile broadband sales in North America grew and the fast pace of 4G deployments in Mainland China continued. IPR licensing revenues grew YoY, mainly driven by recently signed contracts which included certain one-time items. Software sales in IP and core networks declined.

Professional Services sales were stable with growth in Consulting and Systems Integration driven by transformation projects. Managed Services sales were stable with 21 contracts signed in the quarter.

Sales in Support Solutions increased YoY due to higher IPR licensing revenues. Software sales in OSS and BSS declined. However, the underlying demand remains strong in OSS and BSS as data growth and increased focus on customer experience drives operators to transform their OSS and BSS solutions.

Group sales as reported decreased by -29% QoQ following a seasonally strong Q4 and lower IPR licensing revenues.

Gross margin

Gross margin declined YoY despite higher IPR licensing revenues and increased capacity sales in North America. Lower margin in Global Services, higher share of mobile broadband coverage projects in parts of Asia and lower software sales in IP and core networks impacted gross margin negatively.

Gross margin declined sequentially, mainly due to lower IPR licensing revenues, higher share of services sales and lower margin in Global Services.

Restructuring charges and cost and efficiency program

Restructuring charges were stable YoY and declined QoQ.

The global cost and efficiency program is progressing according to plan. The target remains, to achieve net annual savings of SEK 9 b. during 2017 relative to 2014.

In the quarter, the company began to take additional measures beyond the cost and efficiency program, impacting primarily service delivery. With current visibility, total restructuring charges for 2016 are estimated to be SEK 4-5 b. compared with previous estimate of SEK 3-4 b.

Operating expenses

Operating expenses decreased to SEK 14.2 (15.6) b. due to increased capitalization of development expenses, savings related to the cost and efficiency program and reduced amortizations of intangible assets. Savings related to the cost and efficiency program were SEK 0.5 b. YoY.

Table of Contents

Other operating income and expenses

Other operating income and expenses improved YoY. The revaluation and realization effects of currency hedge contracts were SEK 0.2 b. This is to be compared with SEK -0.1 b. in Q4 2015 and SEK -1.4 b. in Q1 2015.

The main part of the currency hedge contract balance is in USD. The SEK strengthened against the USD between Dec 31, 2015 (SEK/USD rate 8.40) and March 31, 2016 (SEK/USD rate 8.10).

Operating income

Operating income increased YoY, supported by reduced operating expenses, a positive effect from currency hedge contracts and increased IPR licensing revenues. The increase in operating income was partly offset by a lower gross income.

Operating income decreased QoQ due to lower sales, lower IPR licensing revenues and lower gross margin. The decrease in operating income was partly offset by reduced operating expenses.

Financial net

Taxes

The tax rate was stable YoY and declined slightly QoQ.

North America

Sales grew in comparison with a weak first quarter 2015, driven by increased mobile broadband capacity investments to cater to mobile data traffic growth. The need for ICT transformation remains and is creating opportunities in Support Solutions and Professional Services.

Latin America

Mobile broadband investments continued to decline, impacted by local currency depreciation. However, mobile broadband investments in Mexico increased YoY.

Northern Europe and Central Asia

The mobile broadband investments in Russia continued to be weak. Professional Services grew, primarily in the Nordics, where managed services and ICT transformation were the main drivers.

Western and Central Europe

After a period of significant investments in network build-out, operators are moving focus to invest in capacity and quality in order to improve end-user experience. This resulted in a mobile broadband sales decline compared with last year. Professional services sales remained stable.

Mediterranean

Sales declined due to lower investments in mobile broadband infrastructure as major projects were completed. ICT transformation for TV & Media developed favorably.

Middle East

Networks sales declined due to lower infrastructure investments, driven by a challenging macro-economic environment partly linked to lower oil prices.

Sub-Saharan Africa

Mobile broadband sales increased somewhat as certain markets are investing in network modernization and introduction of 4G. Global Services sales decreased, mainly as a result of de-scoping of managed services contracts in a few markets.

India

4G deployments started at the end of 2015, however, overall mobile broadband sales slowed as a result of delays in spectrum auctions and spectrum trading deals between operators. The positive development in Professional Services continued.

North East Asia

4G deployments in Mainland China continued as projected, while core network deployments were slower than a year ago. Japan had a strong quarter mainly due to fiscal year-end investments. In Korea, investments slowed further due to delayed spectrum auctions.

South East Asia and Oceania

Sales growth was primarily driven by mobile broadband expansion in Bangladesh. Professional Services developed favorably, mainly driven by Managed Services. Support Solutions developed positively, driven by OSS and BSS transformation projects, primarily in Australia.

Other

IPR licensing revenues grew YoY, mainly driven by recently signed contracts which included certain one-time items.

Sales as reported decreased by -2% YoY mainly due to lower software sales in IP and core networks as well as lower mobile broadband investments in India following a delayed spectrum auction. In North America, mobile broadband sales grew driven by capacity investments. 4G deployments in Mainland China continued at a fast pace. IPR licensing revenue grew YoY.

Sales growth was strong in some emerging markets such as Mexico and Bangladesh. Other emerging markets, such as Brazil and parts of the Middle East, remained weak, negatively impacted by a weak macro-economic environment. Sales in Europe declined YoY as major projects were completed in 2015. Sales, adjusted for comparable units and currency, decreased by -3% YoY.

Sales decreased QoQ, following a seasonally strong Q4 2015. The decrease was mainly due to lower IPR licensing revenues and lower sales in Mainland China and in North America. Sequentially, the business mix was unchanged, with a large share of hardware sales.

In the quarter, Ericsson announced the acquisition of NodePrime, a software platform development company. The acquisition aims to strengthen Ericsson's leadership in next-generation software-defined infrastructure.

Deliveries of Ericsson Radio System started at the end of 2015 and will scale to address all regions and ramp to larger volumes during the latter part of this year.

Operating income and margin

Operating income and margin increased YoY mainly due to higher IPR licensing revenues, lower operating expenses, higher mobile broadband capacity sales in North America and a positive effect from currency hedge contracts. This was partly offset by lower software sales in IP and core networks and a higher share of coverage business in emerging markets.

Sequentially, operating income and margin decreased due to lower sales and lower IPR licensing revenues.

The effect of currency hedge contracts was positive at SEK 0.2 (-1.1) b. in the quarter. In Q4 2015, the effect of currency hedge contracts was negative at SEK -0.2 b.

Professional Services sales were stable with growth in Consulting and Systems Integration driven by transformation projects. Managed Services sales were stable with 21 contracts signed in the quarter. Sales, adjusted for comparable units and currency, were flat YoY.

Sales decreased by -25% QoQ following a strong Q4.

Operating income and margin

Operating income decreased YoY in Global Services with reduced profitability in both Network Rollout and Professional Services.

While the underlying profitability in Network Rollout remained stable, lower volumes in mobile broadband rollout led to temporary losses due to under-absorption of resources.

Professional Services margin declined as a large number of systems integration transformation projects are in a start-up phase.

To improve profitability, additional measures are being taken to adapt the service delivery operations to current mobile broadband project volumes.

The overall transition of business models, from traditional telecom software licenses to recurrent license revenue deals, continues. The underlying demand remains strong in OSS and BSS as data growth and increased focus on customer experience drives operators to transform their OSS and BSS solutions.

TV & Media sales were flat YoY with contribution from the recent acquisition of Envivio, a global leader in software-based video encoding. In the IP transformation of the media industry there is a high level of engagement around next-generation TV and Media platforms. Ericsson is well positioned through the cloud-based video storage and TV platform solutions.

Sales, adjusted for comparable units and currency, increased by 5%.

Sales declined QoQ following a seasonally strong Q4.

OTHER INFORMATION

Ericsson and Adaptix have reached a settlement agreement resolving all of the remaining pending litigations

As disclosed in the 2015 Annual Report, Ericsson is involved in several patent infringement lawsuits against Adaptix Inc. who has filed several suits in the Eastern District of Texas in the US and the Tokyo District Court in Japan, alleging that Ericsson infringe patents assigned to Adaptix.

In January 2016, the Tokyo District Court found that Ericsson did not infringe the asserted patent. As Adaptix did not appeal within the term for appeal to the High Court, the judgment became final. In March 2016, Adaptix and Ericsson reached a settlement agreement, resolving all of the remaining pending litigations.

Patent infringement lawsuit against Micromax

As previously reported, Ericsson filed in 2013 a patent infringement lawsuit in the Delhi High Court against Indian handset company Micromax. As part of its defense, Micromax filed a complaint with the Competition Commission of India (CCI) which the CCI referred to the Director General's Office for an in-depth investigation. In January 2014, the CCI opened another investigation against Ericsson based on claims made by Intex Technologies (India) Limited. Ericsson has challenged CCI's jurisdiction in these cases before the Delhi High Court. On March 30, 2016, the Delhi High Court issued an order finding that the CCI has jurisdiction. Ericsson is appealing that order to the Division Bench of the Delhi High Court.

THE GROUP

This interim report is prepared in accordance with IAS 34. The term "IFRS" used in this document refers to the application of IAS and IFRS as well as interpretations of these standards as issued by IASB's Standards Interpretation Committee (SIC) and IFRS Interpretations Committee (IFRIC). The accounting policies adopted are consistent with those of the annual report for the year ended December 31, 2015, and should be read in conjunction with that annual report.

There is no significant difference between IFRS effective as per March 31, 2016 and IFRS as endorsed by the EU.

Net Cash

The definition of Net Cash has been adjusted in order to more clearly represent Ericsson's ability to meet financial obligations. Post-employment benefits will no longer be included in the calculation of Net Cash. Net Cash for prior periods has been recalculated using the new definition. The revised definition is as follows:

Net Cash: Cash and cash equivalents plus short-term investments less interest-bearing liabilities (which include: non-current borrowings and current borrowings).

Accounting for bonds

Due to the conditions in the market for government and mortgage bonds in Sweden, Ericsson now intends to hold bonds purchased in its "Asset management" portfolio until maturity instead of intending to hold them for trading. Bonds purchased in this portfolio after January 1, 2016 will be classified as available-for-sale. There were no purchases made in Q1 2016. The impact of this change on the financial statements will be disclosed in the interim report following the first purchase of bonds.
