Disclosures in Connection with Potential Financing

In November 2016, Intelsat S.A. (the Company or Intelsat) executed confidentiality agreements with certain unaffiliated investment funds (each, a Holder and collectively, the Holders) holding, or serving as investment advisor with respect to, 6-3/4% Senior Notes due 2018 (the 2018 Notes), 7-3/4% Senior Notes due 2021 (the 2021 Notes), or 8-1/8% Senior Notes due 2023 (the 2023 Notes and together with the 2018 Notes and the 2021 Notes, the Lux Notes) issued by the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary Intelsat (Luxembourg) S.A. (Intelsat Luxembourg) to facilitate discussions in respect of potential transactions involving the Lux Notes (Lux Notes Transactions). Pursuant to the confidentiality agreements, Intelsat agreed to disclose publicly after a specified period, among other things, that the Company and the Holders engaged in discussions concerning Lux Notes Transactions. The information included in this Report on Form 6-K is being furnished, in part, to satisfy Intelsat's public disclosure obligations under the confidentiality agreements.

In connection with these discussions in respect of Lux Notes Transactions, the Company and certain groups of Holders made a number of indicative non-binding proposals to one another with respect to such transactions. The proposals considered involved exchange offers pursuant to which holders of Lux Notes would have received, in exchange for their Lux Notes, cash and new notes to be issued by a newly-formed subsidiary of Intelsat Luxembourg which would have become the direct parent of Intelsat Jackson Holdings S.A., which notes would have had a maturity beyond 2019, an interest rate exceeding that of the senior secured notes due 2022 issued by Intelsat Jackson Holdings S.A. on June 30, 2016, and be governed by an indenture that would have had substantially similar covenants to the indenture governing the Lux Notes. The Company offered to exchange, (i) each $1,000 principal amount of 2018 Notes for approximately $350 in notes of the new subsidiary of Intelsat Luxembourg and approximately $600 in cash and (ii) each $1,000 principal amount of 2021 Notes for approximately $500 in notes of the new subsidiary of Intelsat Luxembourg and approximately $30 in cash.

No agreements with respect to any Lux Notes Transactions were reached, but discussions are continuing with certain of the Holders at this time. We continually evaluate ways to simplify our capital structure and opportunistically extend our maturities. There is no assurance that any such discussions will continue to occur or result in one or more consummated transactions, whether or not on the terms described herein.
